Today

Hoover and Morrow?
A Billion Dollar Man
Wall St.'s Old Home Week
Making the World Small

—By Arthur Brisbane—

THE New York Evening Journal has a story about "Herbert Clark Hoover for President, Dwight Whitney Morrow for Vice-President on a Republican ticket."

Morrow was Coolidge's classmate in college. That is something.

Morrow ran and was elected in New Jersey as a wet. President Hoover ran as a dry. And will undoubtedly run again as a dry.

A Republican ticket with a "dry head and a wet tail" might worry the Democrats.

Having for Secretary of the Treasury a man who has known how to collect at least ONE BILLION DOLLARS FOR HIMSELF is not a bad idea, and that is the sort of Secretary that Uncle Sam has.

When Mr. Mellon talks to the French about co-operating with President Hoover in his plan to avert world-wide collapse, the French will realize that they are talking to a man who knows his subject.

French objection to President Hoover's plan threatens to upset them, for the President demands that all the "important" nations agree to the suggested moratorium. Mr. Mellon perhaps will make the French take the President's view of the situation.

Whatever may happen later, Wall Street is having a cheerful "Old Home Week" now. Yesterday 900,000 shares of stock were sold in half an hour, and the price of a seat on the Stock Exchange went up $70,000. Stocks were going up. "Big Steel" early in the day climbed above 102 to look around and see who in left alive.

Happy times in Broad st., near Wall, but if you gamble you will have yourself to blame.

London stocks went up, even after the French had sent their discouraging message about the moratorium, and that rise is a good sign.

The English understand the much better than we do, having treated with or fought for or against them for hundreds of years.

The airplane and courage are making the world smaller. Boston to Berlin and Gatty, 8 hours after they started from New York, to fly around the world, were telling on the radio from Berlin about their crossing. They are "doors of the world," not walkers, and said little. At 6:00 yesterday afternoon, Russian time, they were in Moscow, having made the 950-mile hop from Berlin in less than eight hours. Their next important stop will be Irkutsk, 2600 miles from Moscow.

For three hours, while over the Atlantic Post "could not see the engine at all, and just had to keep his eyes glued on the instruments." It seemed strange to the fliers not to have "any idea just where we were." All they knew was the little machine in which they were flying.

And that is the condition of the whole human race. All we know is the earth machine on which we are flying around the sun in a spiral about 578,000,000 miles every year, and other millions of miles off through space with our sun.

Fortunately we are all as content as a mouse or a microbe would have been in that transatlantic plane. Their instruments freed them from anxiety.

The Post-Gatty airplane is the 12th to cross the north Atlantic since the beginning of the world. The Hillig-Hoirlis plane in the 13th to make the crossing. Those, not young, will live to see 1300 airplanes cross the ocean every day, in ONE DAY, and attracting no attention.

Write that prediction on your cuff.

Discussions between the Vatican and the Italian government continue unsatisfactorily as regards the Vatican. The Pope has told pilgrims from Naples:

"We have very little faith left in men, but we have entire, implicit, complete, joyous faith in God's help, and in prayer. Pray, therefore, for the Pope, and for his intentions, which aim solely at the glory of God, at the good of souls, of the church and of our country."

Mussolini's government maintains its position that the "Catholic Action" clubs for adults, or the dissolved juvenile Catholic organizations, will never be permitted to resume their activities in Italy, because they are secretly political and against him.

The Italian government goes further, demanding that the Vatican express regret for "grave anti-Italian manifestations by Jugo-Slavian ecclesiastical authorities."

Mussolini's government constantly emphasizes the fact that the Vatican is "a foreign nation." It might even be thought that Mussolini had consented to

Continued on Page 3, Column 3

FRENCH PARLEY PLAN ACCEPTED

BRAVES LEAD CUBS, 5-0

7 PM FINAL STOCKS RACES

WEATHER

Fair and somewhat warmer tonight and Saturday; gentle to moderate south to west winds.

High tides, 8:47 a. m.; 9:08 p. m.

Sun rises, 5:06; sets, 8:25.

Light all vehicles at 8:55 p. m.

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

A HOME PAPER FOR PEOPLE WHO THINK

VOL. 28—No. 81 Published Daily by W. R. Hearst per Pub. Co. Entered as 2d Class Matter at Boston P. O. BOSTON, FRIDAY, JUNE 26, 1931 2 CENTS ZONE PRICE 3 CENTS

The American is the only Boston daily paper using Universal Service and International News Service.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

Race Results---Baseball Scores

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Chicago 0 0 0
Braves 4 1 0
Batteries—Malone, Sweetland and Hemsley; Seibold and Cronin

Cincinnati 6 0 0
New York..... 0 0 2
Batteries—Ogden and Sukeforth; Walker and O'Farrell

St. Louis 3
Brooklyn 8
Batteries—Grimes, Lindsey, Mancuso; Thurston, Lopez

Pittsburgh 1 0
Philadelphia 0 0
Batteries—Meine and Grace; Watt and Davis

AMERICAN LEAGUE

At Cleveland—New York Yankees, rain

SECOND L ST. BATH RESCUE IN TWO DAYS

The second rescue at L st. baths in two days saw Dr. Louis Altshuler, Back Bay physician, in the role of rescuer today for the second time. Today's victim was James Abbott, 32, of 54 Hancock st., Dorchester. He was seized with cramps and went down 30 feet offshore. Dr. Altshuler brought him in and revived him.

CROWLEY AND 2 IN PLANE REACH ST. JOHN

Harold G. Crowley, 28, of Winthrop, chief pilot for the Forbes-Grenfell Labrador expedition, and his two flying companions arrived at St. John, N. B., at noon today after a flight from Boston on the way to northern Labrador. The party will make aerial maps of unexplored northern Labrador for the Grenfell Association.

PEABODY MAN HELD UP, ROBBED BY FOUR

Salem and Peabody police today were searching for four armed men who robbed Thomas Thorpe of his money and watch in Tremont st., Peabody.

TWO MEN KILLED IN CLEVELAND STORM

Cleveland, June 26 (AP)—Two men were killed and a number were injured as a 52-mile-an-hour wind and rainstorm swept over Cleveland and northern Ohio today. Those killed were identified as George Cordon, 35, and Donald McGraw, 27, both of whom were struck by lightning.

WORCESTER MAN DYING IN POISON SUICIDE

Worcester, June 26—John Degutis, 24, of Columbia st., a shoe repairer, is dying in City Hospital as a result of taking poison. He left a note which stated that he intended to take his life, police say.

MAN AND BOY SHOT IN MINE RIOTING

Brownsville, Pa., June 26 (AP)—A man and a boy were shot and wounded seriously today in mine strike disorders at Maden and at Clarksville. Miners, stoned while on the way to work at the Vesta mine, were said to have fired into a group of pickets.

SPAIN OUSTS FRANCO AS FLYING CHIEF

Madrid, June 26 (AP)—The government today dismissed Ramon Franco as a chief of the Spanish air corps following his aerial distribution of electoral propaganda and delivery of speeches declaring the "real revolution" in Spain had not yet been achieved.

WASHINGTON MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION HEAD DIES

Washington, June 26 (AP)—Mrs. H. L. Rust, president of the Wakefield Memorial Association, sponsors of the rebuilding of the birthplace of George Washington at Wakefield, Va., died here today.

AT DORVAL

(Early Races on Page 23; Race Scratches on Page 25)
2—Margaret Cal 4.90, 3.60, 2.75; Star King 10.00, 5.15; Granite Dust 4.50

(More Results in Racing Final)

BLOOD IN PLAYBOY'S CAR SHOWN

HATHAWAY TEACHERS IN PALES AT EXHIBIT

Dr. Round, R. I. Toxicologist, Points to Bloodstains on the Rug and Seat

By WIN BROOKS
Boston Evening American Staff Correspondent

Newport, R. I., June 26—Many bloodstains [illegible] the rug, rear seat and floor boards of Elliott H. Roosevelt's car, Dr. Lester A. Round, state toxicologist, testified today at Hathaway's trial for murder of Verna Russell.

The toxicologist was called by the State in rebuttal after the defense had closed its case with testimony by Hathaway's elderly father and mother, Representative and Mrs. Louis E. Hathaway, and the defendant's twin brother, Alden.

PLAYBOY PALE

Dr. Rounds, while Hathaway sat, tense and pale, on the very edge of his chair at the counsel table, pointed out the bloodstains on the rug, seat and right running board, each of which was brought into court in a separate package.

Six stains of human blood were found within a nine-inch area at the left center of the seat, Dr. Rounds testified, several stains were on the rug midway between the seat and the door, and there were many stains on the running board.

The seat, rug and running board were marked with small pieces of

Continued on Page 5, Column 1

CARRIERS LEAD MARKET RISE

New York, June 26 (AP)—Stocks closed with an outburst of strength today, led by an excited rally in the investment railroad shares. Net gains ran from $2 to $7.

In the last half-hour a rumor that the Interstate Commerce Commission had decided to allow the railroads immediately half of the 15 per cent freight rate increase requested recently swept over the market, causing a wild uprush of the carrier issues.

The report was promptly denied in Washington, but the rail stocks continued to soar and closed virtually at their highs, up $3 to $7.

United States Steel common closed at $102, up $3.37 and Bethlehem's gain was $4. American Telephone, American Can, American & Foreign Power, Westinghouse, Consolidated Gas, Sears Roebuck, eMontgomery Ward, Allied Chemical, Air Reduction, Woolworth and International Telephone showed gains of $2 to $3. Cotton soared $2.15 to $2.25 a bale net.

Sales for the five-hour session approximated 3,100,000 shares.

London and Paris stock prices also advanced today.

$1,500,000 Harbor Building Is Sold

Title to the Harbor building, a 13-story steel and cement structure at 456 to 474 Atlantic ave., together with 23,460 feet of land, was today transferred to Mary E. Hurley by Francis L. Buswell. The assessment is for $1,500,000, of which $320,000 is on the land. The building was constructed a few years ago.

TEACHERS IN BATTLE FOR PAY RAISE

24 Waltham Instructors Sue Mayor Dunne for Increase Granted in February

Headed by Arthur Burke, 24 men teachers of the Waltham public schools today filed suit in Middlesex Superior Court against Mayor Patrick J. Dunne of Waltham, City Treasurer Harlan W. Cutter and City Auditor C. Ralph Snow, demanding payment of a salary increase voted by the Waltham school board in February.

They charge that Mayor Dunne was an chairman of the school board voted against the increase, today refuses to issue the new pay roll, they said.

The teachers asked a court order requiring City Auditor Snow to draw warrants for back pay due them under the school board's vote of last Feb. 2.

A second order was asked to have Mayor Dunne approve the warrants and the new payroll.

A third was sought ordering City Treasurer Cutter to make payment to them.

MAD DOG BITES MAN; IS SLAIN

Two mad dogs ran amuck through crowded residential districts today biting one man and two dogs and scattering hundreds of pedestrians.

Strollers in the Fenway were terrorized by a rabid mongrel, which sprang upon Charles Wade, 23, of Jersey st., bit him on the arm and continued its blind flight.

Wade was rushed to Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, and Motorcycle Officer Gilbert H. Noyes pursued the dog more than a mile.

He killed the animal near the Schoolboy Stadium, but only after it had bitten two other dogs. Police instituted a search for the two bitten dogs after the dead animal was found to have been affected with rabies.

Another rabid dog was lassoed and killed by police after it had rushed through Fifth st., South Boston, snapping at several children in its path. The fact that the dog was found to be almost blind from the ravages of the disease saved many casualties, according to police.

Curley Commended for Street Work

Mayor Curley today received a letter of commendation from Fred Vorenberg, treasurer of Gilchrist Company, praising him for the manner in which the repairing of Congress st. was carried out without causing interference with the Gilchrist warehouse on that street.

"The contractor in charge of this work co-operated with us splendidly during our heavy selling period in every possible way to avoid inconvenience and delay. We extend our appreciation and gratitude for such efficiency and courtesy," the letter said.

BALANCES AND RECEIPTS
Washington, June 26—Today's treasury balance, $310,957,631. U. S. customs receipts, $72,580,704.

SISTER-BROTHER DIVORCE

Mrs. Grace V. McCarthy of Massachusetts ave., Cambridge, shown leaving Middlesex courthouse after obtaining a divorce from James McCarthy. Her sister, Mary, who was wedded to McCarthy's brother at the time she, Grace, wed James, was a witness for her at the trial. Story on Page 17

FLIERS ARRIVE IN COPENHAGEN

Copenhagen, Denmark, June 26 (AP)—Otto Hillig and Holger Hoirlis, fine emigrants to America to come back to the old country by air, landed here today and received a rousing welcome home.

It was 9:10 a. m. (Boston time) when their plane alighted at Copenhagen's airport from Bremen, 240 miles away. They had made the hop in 2 hours and 33 minutes.

"This is the greatest day of my life," said Hoirlis as he got out of the plane and was picked up by welcomers who paraded with him on their shoulders.

He clasped his mother in his arms, kissed his sister, shook hands with several other members of the family there to see his triumphal homecoming and then heard official welcoming words.

Continued on Page 4, Column 5

Barrymore Yacht Cruise

Juneau, Alaska, June 26 (AP)—John Barrymore, with his wife, Dolores Costello, and baby, arrived here today after a cruise to Lituya Bay and near Chicagoff and Baranoff islands on his private yacht.

BRAVES KNOCK MALONE OUT

Braves Field, June 26—The Braves and Cubs met here this afternoon in the second of their five game series and the Braves are out to make it two straight from the hard hitting aggregation from the Windy City.

Manager McKetchnie sent Harry Socks' Seibold to the mound while Manager Hornsby pinned his faith on Pat Malone.

It being ladies' day at the Wigwam a goodly number of the fair sex were present.

FIRST INNING

Cubs—Maranville threw out Cuyler.

Continued on Page 23, Column 4

Missing Man Found Drowned Near Camp

The body of George Temple, 50, of 18 Elmwood ave., Somerville, was found floating today in Shawsheen river, Billerica, near his summer camp, "The Pines," in the Pinehurst section.

Temple has been missing since Monday.

REFUSAL BY FRANCE TO REMIT ALL PAYMENTS

Stimson Notifies France We Will Compromise; Chamber Debates Plan

DEBT SITUATION

PARIS—[illegible] reply to Hoover plan is [illegible] in principle but refuses to wipe annual Young payments; Mellon [illegible] with officials; Chamber debates; [illegible] U. S. [illegible] to French reply [illegible] cerned.

WASHINGTON—Secretary Stimson announces U. S. will talk compromise with France, as reply is given; [illegible] optimistic.

STOCKS—Stock prices climb [illegible] on reports [illegible] agreement to [illegible]

(Text of French Note on Page 7)
(Full Text of Hoover Plan on Page 4)

Paris, June 26—A warning that suspension of unconditional reparations payments from Germany might undermine the validity of the Young plan was sounded by Premier Pierre Laval today in reading to the Chamber of Deputies the French government's official reply to President Hoover's war debt proposal.

The reply revealed that the cabinet has decided to leave the entire matter in the hands of the French parliament "whose decision will be final."

FRIENDLY SPIRIT

It was learned that at the luncheon given by Premier Laval to Secretary Mellon there was a general spirit of willingness on both sides to work out the problem together. While the conversations were said to have been general, it was indicated that when the real negotiations open tomorrow they will turn on the problem of how to suspend the Young plan for a year and be assured that it will again function at the conclusion of that year.

U. S. REPLY RECEIVED

An American reply to the French memorandum responding to the Hoover proposal was handed to Foreign Minister Briand at noon today.

The reply was as follows:

"The American government appreciates the cordiality of the French government's response to the President's proposal. It hopes the French government will take

Continued on Page 2, Column 1

In Today's American

Classified	27
Crossword Puzzle	11
Radio	32
Society	13
Sports	23, 24, 25, 26
Comics	18
Magazine, Fiction	17
Amusements	23
Man About Town	11
Gossip in the Shops	5
Political Notes	9
Daily Tyne Story	16
Edgar A. Guest	8
Ann Arden	12
Port of Boston	14
Murder of the Choir Singer	6
This Is Life, by Prof. Rogers	15
Financial	30, 31

"GRAND HOTEL" The Sensation of Europe and America Begin It Today on Page Ten

U. S. AGREES TO COMPROMISE DEBT PLAN WITH FRANCE

HOOVER PLAN IS DEBATED AT LUNCH

Washington Again Hopes and Waits as Stimson Prepares to Sail

Continued From First Page

advantage of the presence of the Secretary of the Treasury in Paris and discuss with the ambassador and with him the various problems arising from the original proposal of the President and the French answer. The ambassador and Mr. Mellon are fully advised as to the views of my government."

(Signed) "STIMSON."

During the recess of the Chamber of Deputies' session today, it was predicted that the government would get a substantial majority when its reply to the Hoover war debt proposal came to a vote.

The plan led by Deputy Louis Marin, which had been considered dangerous because of the nationalism of its leader, voted in favor the French reply with reservations.

The socialists during the recess unanimously approve dthe French answer, but it was expected they would desert from voting when the question was put. A vote was expected late tonight.

Deputy Marin insisted during the debate that it was easy to see why United States came to the aid of Germany. He indicated he believed it was to save American capital invested in that country.

"It is said we are going to re-establish world economy," he continued. "Mr. Hoover's proposal is not made to establish world equilibrium but to re-establish American and German business."

Louis Dubois, former president of the Reparations commission, spoke against the Hoover plan.

"Germany is not in as critical a condition as we are supposed to believe," he declared.

"If she has financial difficulties it is her own fault, as Parker Gilbert has said. It is not for us to pay for Germany's faults."

CONFERENCE SATURDAY

Premier Laval said this afternoon that formal conversations between France and the United States on the Hoover proposals would begin tomorrow at the Ministry of the Interior.

Almost immediately after the Chamber went into session Premier Laval opened the debate by reading President Hoover's proposal. He also read the French reply and the note of Secretary of State Stimson.

FRENCH PROPOSAL

The French note, in effect, rejected President Hoover's proposal for a complete cessation of debt payments by the diplomatic expedient of a counter-proposal. The French counter-proposal suggests that Germany continue to raise, by whatever means possible, the "nondisposable" portion of the reparations payments, amounting to some $110,000,000 and deposit the same in the Bank for International Settlements which was set up under the Young plan. France, on her part, is willing to promise that these funds will not be withdrawn for a year, but held in escrow, and even doled back, if necessary, to Germany and other nations, in the form of short term credits.

President Hoover and his advisers consider this alternative proposal to be unacceptable.

Inevitably a compromise must be worked out. That is Secretary Mellon's job—and possibly Secretary Stimson's.

The French are frankly afraid that after a year's suspension, Germany could not be coerced into resuming reparations payments under the Young plan.

LITTLE EXCITEMENT

There was less public excitement over the Chamber debate today than had been expected. The reason for this was that virtually all shades of opinion in the Chamber had agreed on the vital question, that the Young plan must be respected.

Andrew W. Mellon, American Secretary of the Treasury, took luncheon today with the heads of the French government and discussed with them President Hoover's momentous proposals.

U. S. Yields to French Demand in Compromise

Washington, June 26 (AP)—The willingness of the United States to compromise with France on a war debt and reparations moratorium plan was indicated today by Secretary Stimson in a formal statement.

The suggestions in the French counter-proposal to President Hoover's one year's moratorium plan do not accomplish the full measure of relief contemplated by the President, and must therefore be the subject of discussions to reconcile the two viewpoints.

EARLY CONCLUSIONS

Early conclusions in the discussions now being carried on in Paris by Ambassador Edge and Secretary Mellon with French officials were expected by the Secretary in his statement.

The text of Secretary Stimson's statement follows:

"The French note shows a gratifying cordiality to the President's proposal. As we understand it, the French Government is mainly concerned that there should be no breach in the integrity of the Young plan agreement. France expresses a willingness to forego the retention of any German payments for a year.

"The President's plan does not propose a reconsideration or impairment of any international agreements, including our own debt agreements. His suggestion extended only to the simple postponement for one year of the payments under such agreements.

"The question of the method by which this postponement is to be accomplished and the ultimate payment of the postponed amounts are matters requiring negotiation and settlement between different governments.

DISCUSSIONS ON

"There are suggestions in the method proposed by the French government which do not accomplish the full measure of relief to debtor nations corresponding to the President's plan and must, therefore, be the subject of further discussion with view to a modification that will bring the full measure of accord of which the fine evidence of co-operation in the French note gives every hope of success.

"In view of the action already taken by some governments in acceptance of the President's plan and the corresponding suspension of payments on inter-governmental debts due July 1, Ambassador Edge and Secretary Mellon are engaged in these discussions with the French government with view to early conclusions."

Complete Agreement Seen in Washington

Washington, June 26 (AP)—A complete Franco-American agreement on war debt and reparations moratorium was predicted by authoritative sources today on the basis of progress made so far through diplomatic negotiations between the two countries.

tween the Paris and Washington governments on President Hoover's one-year suspension plan, it was indicated, have resulted in steps to reconcile their divergent viewpoints.

MRS. ELDRIDGE ASKS ALIMONY

Mrs. Helen L. Eldridge of Newton, whose marital difficulties have many times been aired in Middlesex Probate court, re-appeared before Judge Charles N. Harris today asking temporary alimony pending her appeal to the Supreme court in her divorce suit against Joseph F. Eldridge.

Her attorney, William E. Graustein, told the court she had received only $200 in the past 14 weeks from he husband, a Boston investment broker.

He contended the order of $50 weekly alimony granted Mrs. Eldridge some time ago was still in force and asked that the court approve it.

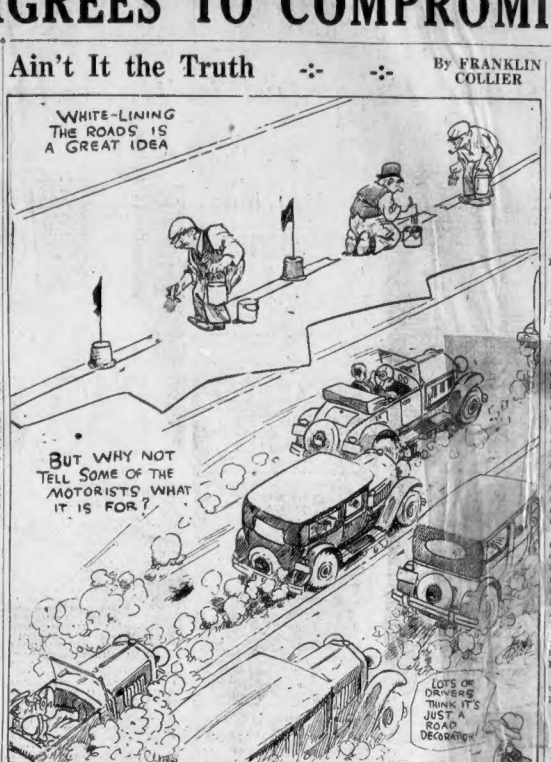
He said Mrs. Eldridge owes bills amounting to $1100, and asked that he be allowed that much from the husband. He also asked counsel fees.

An attempt at reconciliation between the couple was futile, Atty. David Stoneman, counsel for the husband, told the court.

Judge Harris took the case under advisement.

Ain't It the Truth

By FRANKLIN COLLIER



WHITE-LINING THE ROADS IS A GREAT IDEA
BUT WHY NOT TELL SOME OF THE MOTORISTS WHAT IT IS FOR?
LOTS OF DRIVERS THINK IT'S JUST A ROAD DECORATION

TODAY

Continued From First Page

the restoration of temporal power, and papal government of a small area, with the deliberate intention of creating that "foreign government" status.

A new record, made in England, will interest tailors especially and manufacturers generally. John Crowther & Sons, of London, took the wool from 12 Southdown sheep, made it into cloth, and made the cloth into a suit of clothes, all in two hours, nine minutes and 46 seconds. That is a world record.

(Copyright, 1931, King Features Synd., Inc.)

Two at Hospital in Haverhill Crash

Haverhill, June 26—A headon collision in River st. early today sent two men to Gale Hospital, one of them with injuries which may prove fatal.

Paul Jukins of Locust st. is believed to have suffered a skull fracture, according to surgeons. Police are seeking an Exster man who, according to Jukins, was driving the car.

Henry J. Favastano of Elm st, Lawrence, driver of the second car, received severe lacerations.

CURTIS ATTACK IS RENEWED

Topeka, Kan., June 26 (AP)—A controversy between Vice-President Curtis and E. Haldeman-Julius, Girard, Kan., publisher, over the rates Curtis pays for his Washington hotel suite, grew heated today.

The Vice-President denied any connection with a "Moore $10,000,000 bond" deal, about which the publisher asserted in a telegram yesterday:

"It is charged your influence kept the hands of the Department of Justice tied for several years and you shared in the spoils to the extent of $150 a day since the day of your election."

Curtis, who said he had been accused of taking advantage of his position to avail himself of a low rate, asserted he did not know "Mr. Moore," and what he paid for the suite was "no one's business but my own and the hotel's."

In a second telegram to Curtis, Haldeman-Julius said "Moore" was the owner of the hotel at which Curtis lives.

"If not by the favor of Mr. Moore, owner of the Mayflower, then by whose favor," the telegram said, "are you given an elegant suite at $5.50 a day when it is known Harry Sinclair paid $180 a day for that identical suite?"

DRUGS HUNTED IN DEATH OF ARRIGONI

Autopsy Findings Held Secret; Experts to Study Organs Taken From Body

By BERT FORD

Boston Evening American Staff Correspondent

Laconia, N. H., June 26—The Arrigoni mystery of Lake Winnipesaukee was still a mystery today in spite of a tentative report of accidental drowning.

Officials are not yet fully satisfied, they said, of the manner of death that came to Chelso L. Arrigoni, former Connecticut state senator, M. D. graduate and prosperous contractor.

Arrigoni's body was found in the lake yesterday, 25 days after his disappearance from a speed boat May 31 that started a search costing thousands of dollars.

The body was released to his family last night in a hermetically sealed casket but the brain, stomach, segments of skin and a pint of blood were retained for analysis.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow in St. John's church, Middletown Ct., with full military honors and a solemn high mass of requiem. A firing squad will sound a final farewell over his grave in St. John's cemetery in honor of Arrigoni's service during the World War.

The purpose of the analysis was to determine whether Arrigoni had been drugged prior to his death.

RELATIVES SUSPICIOUS

The official position was summed up today by Atty. Gen. Ralph W. Davis, who said:

"While the evidence seems to point to accidental drowning, there are suspicious circumstances which it is our duty to clear up. When a young man disappears as mysteriously as Arrigoni did, a careful investigation is necessary. That is why we are leaving no stone unturned. The brain and stomach of Arrigoni have been removed by the state's medical expert for chemical analysis. The body knows but the young man might have been drugged."

A suit for $1,000, payable by a man the family didn't know and due to mature in a few days was filed on the body and furnished more mystery.

HUNK ANDERSON SERIOUSLY ILL

Rochester, Minn., June 26 (AP)—Dr. C. J. Barborka, Mayo Clinic physician, today said incomplete diagnosis showed that C. J. "Hunk" Anderson, Notre Dame senior football coach, was in a serious condition.

Dr. Barborka said that while tests had not proceeded far enough to determine the exact cause of severe headaches from which Anderson has been suffering since late May, a serious head condition was indicated.

The physician said the condition of the senior coach, who took up the work of the late Knute Rockne, was not critical.

Mrs. Knute Rockne, a friend of the Anderson family, visited the patient today.

AUTOS RIDDLED BY GANG WAR BULLETS IN BACK BAY

Owen C. Nivling, whose auto was riddled by bullets in gang fusillade early today. (Staff photos.)

Shattered windows and many dents in the metal work show how the auto of Owen C. Nivling of 32 Ridge ave., Newton Center, was riddled by bullets while parked in Trinity pl., Back Bay, early today, in what police believe to have been a fusillade from one faction in a gang war. The auto of Mrs. Agnes Z. Messenger of 19 Bayside st., Dorchester, was similarly damaged.

Text of French Reply to Hoover's Note on War Debts

Paris, June 26 (AP)—The French reply to President Hoover's debt moratorium plan follows:

"The French Government has taken note with great interest of the proposal of the President of the United States and declares itself in cordial accord with the high sentiments which have inspired this proposal.

"The French Government is, more than any Government, desirous of seeing affirmed in acts the economic reconstruction of the world. A solidarity has always inspired France, whether it be in accepting a successive reduction in the German debt or whether it be in executing anticipated evacuation of the third Rhineland zone in exchange for definite and complete settlement of the reparations program decided at Geneva in September, 1926.

TELLS OF SACRIFICES

"The Government wishes to emphasize before world opinion the extent of the new sacrifice which is asked of France after all those which she has already accepted.

"To reply to the suggestion of President Hoover, the French Government is ready to ask of the French Parliament, whose intervention is indispensable and whose decision is sovereign, that France abstain provisionally and during the delay of one year from receiving any payment coming from the Reich.

"But, considering the nature of the engagements of the Young plan, freely accepted and very recently signed, the solemnity with which the definite and the non-deferable character of the unconditional annuities by which the necessary permanence of the principle of reparations has been recognized, the risk would be great of destroying confidence in the value of the signatures and contracts and thus to act contrary to the object in view, if, in the suspension of the payments proposed, the non-deferable annuities were treated like the conditional annuities.

ENDANGERS YOUNG PLAN

"The French government emphasizes in particular that formal assimilation has been established between the private debts of the Reich (the Young and Krueger loans) and the unconditional annuities not yet consolidated. The suspension granted by Germany of the unconditional annuity, while admitting that the interest on the Young loan, placed before the public, continues to be paid, would go directly against a fundamental principle and against expressed stipulations.

"The government considers that there is a moral interest of the first order that, even during the year granted by the President Hoover, the payments of the unconditional annuity in no way be deferred.

"The French Government careful to collaborate widely with every attempt tending to eliminate the consequences of the present crisis, believes it should make clear in the very interest of the success of this effort that the general suspension of payments alone would offer an insufficient remedy. The dangers now menacing German economy, and more generally European economy, have another origin and are due notably to important credit restrictions or withdrawals of foreign funds.

"The solution of the German crisis that France does not appear to lie only in the diminution of the charges of the budget of the Reich, but in an extension of credit.

"That is why the French government declares its readiness, subject to the approval of Parliament, to place at the disposal of the Bank of International Settlements a sum equal to its share of one year of the non-postponable annuity, with the sole exception of the amounts necessary to the execution of the balances of the current contracts for payments in kind, a proceeding which, moreover, is advantageous to German economy.

USE FOR FUNDS

"In making this proposal, the French Government expects that the other beneficiaries under the Young plan will adopt the same decisions and it even hopes that other measures may be taken to favor the beneficial restoration of credit and confidence in the world.

"The sums thus turned over to the Bank of International Settlements would be utilized at once for improving credit in Germany as well as in countries of Central Europe, and especially those in which the suspension of the execution of the Young plan during one year might create financial or economic disturbance. It goes without saying that the amounts so employed would again become available at the expiration of the period of one year contemplated in the limit of the provisional suspension of the Young plan.

"The French Government also believes that all necessary precautions should be taken in order that these sums as well as those to be derived from the easing of the budget of the Reich as a result of the suspension of the Young plan payments for one year may only be used for economic purposes, all danger of financing of dumping being eliminated.

PAYMENT RESUMPTION

"Lastly, it will be advisable to contemplate before the expiration of the period of one year an examination of measures to be taken by Germany for the resumption of her payments.

"The proposals of the French Government and the adjustment, which will be suggested by the application of the American offer and which will necessarily be the subject of a subsequent exchange of views, thus appear to be perfectly compatible with the dominant idea of President Hoover's proposal.

"In placing at the disposal of the Bank of International Settlements, on the conditions contemplated above, her part in the unconditional annuity, France is deprived, during the suspension period, of what had been allotted to her on account of the charges which she had to meet for the reconstruction of her devastated regions.

HOPE FOR RESULTS

Without wishing to insist on the difference between the sums which she has received and the sums which she should have received, France recalls that the amount of her public debt is about four times that of the debt of the Reich and that her effort at financial restoration carried on and accomplished by her own means barely four years ago should not be endangered.

"The French Government can, therefore, affirm the solidarity of the French Republic and of the Republic of the United States at the moment when, faithful to their traditions, the two countries are co-operating in precautionary measures in a crisis which is considered grave. They have a right to hope that a response will be made to their international good will by respect of treaties and by the restoration of confidence between peoples, on which the future of peace depends.

(Signed) "BRIAND."

THE REST OF THE NEWS

Washington, June 26 (AP)—James W. Hook of New Haven, Ct., has been named a member of the President's emergency employment committee.

Washington, June 26 (AP)—The tariff commission has begun an investigation of the tariff on fresh or frozen mackerel at the request of the Gloucester Chamber of Commerce.

New London, Ct., June 29—New London must invest $10,000 to make its municipal wharf fit for use by large vessels, according to a report submitted today.

New Haven, June 26 (AP)—Lawrence C. Wroth, Providence, R. I., today was elected president of the Bibliographical Society of America at the annual session held here today.

London, June 26 (AP)—Prime Minister MacDonald announced in Commons today he would apply for parliamentary authority to give financial support to India should its credit be jeopardized.

London, June 26—A scrapped British battleship, without a soul aboard, will be sunk by airplane in the North Sea this week. The ship was doomed under the 1926 treaty.

Chicago, June 26—More than 200 apartment house residents were terrorized today when a bomb exploded in the door of a nearby grocery. Damage was small.

PEOPLE

Who Interest You and What They Are Doing

Doug Real-Life Hero as Automobiles Crash

Los Angeles, June 26—Douglas Fairbanks, good [illegible] screen actor, became a hero in real life when he saw two cars collide, causing one to overturn.

He ran to the scene, dropped through a broken window into one of the cars, and rescued Mr. and Mrs. Melville L. Van Duerson of Hillside, N. J., both of whom were seriously injured.

Douglas Fairbanks

Rudy Needn't Pay Fiddler He Fired

New York, June [illegible]—The radio announcer, emerged victorious in a $500 suit against a former leader of Julie De Vorzon, violinist, who [illegible] founder.

De Vorzon sued Rudy for back pay, asserting [illegible] "personal [illegible] charged him [illegible] ing [illegible] spring on his favorite [illegible] photos.

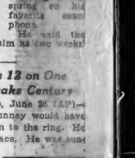
Rudy Vallee

He said the money was due him at two weeks' pay.

Tunney Takes 12 on One Hole, but Breaks Century

Columbus, Ohio, June 26 (AP)—Perhaps Gene Tunney would have preferred a return to the ring. He has a brick red face. He was sunburned playing in a golf tournament of celebrities at Scioto. His score was 99, including 12 on a par three hole where he was very busy with a niblick that just would not move a little white ball.

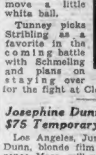
Tunney picks Stribling as a favorite in the coming battle with Schmeling and plans on staying over for the fight at Cleveland.



Gene Tunney

Josephine Dunn Wins $75 Temporary Alimony

Los Angeles, June 26—Josephine Dunn, blonde film [illegible] from Lawrence, Mass., will get $75 per month temporary alimony pending trial of the divorce suit filed by Geo. Greathouse, of Los Angeles, son of Asa Greathouse, actor, it was decided in superior court today.



Josephine Dunn

The actress is the former wife of William H. Cameron, [illegible] tion contracting engineer, who divorced her in 1928 on desertion charges.

HOME FOR AGED WOMEN WILLED

The will of Miss Agnes L. Dodge of Melrose Highlands filed in East Cambridge probate court today made provisions for a home for aged women.

Miss Dodge, prominent club woman, died while on a world cruise six weeks ago. She also left three $25,000 trust funds for women friends.

The residue of her estate which amounts to $150,000 is to be used in establishing a home for aged women in Melrose.

Frank W. Campbell, Melrose; John F. Sullivan, Boston, and Frank Burton, Wellesley, were named trustees.

The will also provided for money for a free bed in the Melrose Highlands Hospital; $1000 to maintain a "Morgan Room," in memory of her aunt, in the same hospital.

Sisters Complete 50 Years Teaching

Southbridge, June 26—The sisters teaching in Notre Dame School have completed a half-century of teaching in Southbridge.

They came here from Canada in 1881 at the request of [illegible] Mgr. George E. Brochu.

GIRL'S DIARY SCANNED FOR CLUE IN CAPE KIDNAP CASE

JINX SUBDUED IN SKIES

OTTO HILLIG HOLGER HOIRIIS

Having subdued the "13" jinx in their hop across the North Atlantic, Otto Hillig and Holger Hoiriis today landed at Copenhagen, Denmark, the goal of their flight from the United States. A mammoth reception awaited them in the capital at the end of their 3150-mile hop in the monoplane Liberty, the 13th plane to make a non-stop flight across the North Atlantic.

Starr Faithfull's Sister Reported to Have Left Home

ELIZABETH MAY NAME VICTIM'S ESCORTS

Family's Testimony About Slain Girl's Last Days Puzzles Probers

New York, June 26 (US)—A reported disruption in the Faithfull family, coming swiftly after hours of grilling of the mother and sister of Starr Faithfull, held the center of interest in that strange death case as officials faced another grand jury session today empty-handed.

It was reported that Elizabeth Tucker Faithfull, the younger sister of Starr, had severed relations with her mother and stepfather, Stanley E. Faithfull, and had moved out of the Faithfull home. She could not be found to comment on her reported break with the family.

Singularly, the report coincided with published stories declaring that Elizabeth had thrown reserve aside and had agreed to go before the grand jury at Mineola, L. I., and name the two men who were Starr's escorts on Thursday, June 4, the day before she vanished.

GRILLED SEPARATELY

It was learned that the separate examination of the mother and girl at Mineola, with police posted outside the offices of Dist.-Atty. Edwards and of Inspector King to keep eavesdroppers away, was again aimed at revealing Starr's movements Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, June 3, 4 and 5.

The two officials pointed out to the mother and sister that from their own stories it is seen that Starr, because of psychopathic tendencies was carefully watched by the family in her every movement, but on other days, her family was in full possession of facts about her activities, but that on these three days the family says it does not know where or with whom she went.

The mother and sister merely admitted that this was the fact. The three letters written to Dr. G. Jameson-Carr in England, purportedly by Starr, were taken to the office of Albert D. Osborn, handwriting expert, 225 Broadway, by Detective Robert McLaren.

PUZZLES DETECTIVES

Edwin does not believe, however, that Osborn will be ready to testify today as to the authenticity of the letters, the handwriting of which he is to compare with other specimens of the girl's writing.

The letters, as every other aspect of the case, present puzzles to detectives. For instance, Starr's stepfather says she returned home at 4:30 p. m. on Thursday, June 4, plainly showing evidences of intoxication, and then dressed and went out on another engagement that night.

Yet the suicide note of June 4 was posted at 4 p. m. that day at Grand Central, and the letter was perfectly spaced, the characters carefully formed, the writing so neatly done as to preclude the possibility, detectives say, that a girl under the influence of liquor could have written it.

BIG SECRET LEAKED OUT

Perhaps Marceline Day, film actress, tipped off her pet to keep mum about her marriage to Arthur J. Klein, New York furrier, but apparently she forgot to swear her mother to secrecy. Confronted with rumors that the couple had wed Hollywood friends made valiant efforts to obtain corroboration, but had no luck whatever until someone quizzed Mrs. Irene Day. She revealed that the two had been married twice, once in Mexico and once in New York.

CAPE GIRL GOT THREATENING LETTERS

Relative of Attempted Kidnap Victim Collapses and Grilling Is Postponed

By ARTHUR J. QUINN
Boston Evening American Staff Correspondent

Bourne, June 26—State and local police today turned to the shorthand diary of Ellen Edstrom, high school girl house keeper for Charles Johnson, for a solution of her attempted murder here yesterday.

The diary, as well as an address book, with pages filled with names of students and graduates of Bourne high school and many passages of endearing poetry was today considered by investigators as highly important in the probe of the attack on the girl.

RELATIVE QUESTIONED

Another development was the revelation that in past months the girl had received a series of threatening notes signed "The Black Paw," demanding that she meet the writer at designated places, and threatening reprisals should she fail to keep the trysts.

Although the girl admitted she was frightened by the notes, she said she believed they were pranks of some high school classmate.

Chief William J. Murdock and Sergt. John Dempsey of the local police, and Corp. James P. Green of the Barnstable State police barracks in charge of the probe, stated today that investigation had three possible angles, any of which might lead to a possible solution of the case.

THREE ANGLES

They agreed that the most important of these three possible angles was that they had learned that at least two insurance men had been approached in connection with the issuance of additional policies on the life of the girl.

Johnson suffered internal hemorrhages during the night and today, and the investigation as far as his further grilling is concerned, must be halted for at least a week, Dr. Ernest E. Curry, his physician, told police.

Meanwhile Miss Edstrom left with her mother for their home in Leominster.

"We are through with the girl at present," State Detective Ernest Bradford stated. "We have a lot of strong suspicions, but there is as yet not enough evidence to justify an arrest."

Johnson, a distant relative of the girl, was released last night after many hours of interrogation.

Both the girl and Johnson pictured in the same story of the strange attack, and did not alter their testimony through many hours of questioning. They tell similar stories that two masked men entered the house and that one attempted to strangle the girl after tying Johnson in his bed.

LEFT SON WITH POLICE

There is no love in the heart of Mrs. Marie Timmons as she tells her 5-year-old son, Howard, that she will take him back home. The child's roving tendencies caused the mother to leave him at the Hammond, Ind. (suburb of Chicago), police station and then she defied police to make her take him back—that is, until threat of arrest made her change her mind. She wants someone to adopt the boy. (International Newsreel photo.)

24 FOODS DOWN 36 PER CENT

Twenty-four food stuffs which comprise approximately 40 per cent of the family food budget have declined nearly 36 per cent in price since 1927, according to figures compiled by First National Stores and the Department of the City of Boston.

Retail prices in First National Stores June 15, 1927, were compared with prices on the same commodities June 15, 1931.

Potatoes show the greatest drop, 62.92 per cent; butter is next with a 42.38 per cent decline; cheese third, 41.93 per cent; coffee, fourth, 40.82 per cent and wheat flour fifth, 40 per cent. A market order which took $3.90 to carry home in 1927 now costs $3.78, or $2.12 less.

CURLEY BACKER GETS BIG STICK

Mayor Curley today presented to his honors aide to Captain Ofria, the barber who has shaved him and cut his hair for the past 15 years.

Ofria broke into print several weeks ago when the mayor's car was tagged while parked in front of the shop at 9 Province st. At that time Mayor Curley was being shaved, and when he reached his auto he was informed that a tag had been administered for violation of the parking ordinance.

When Ofria returned to his shop today he could talk of nothing else than what a good fellow the Mayor was, and how much he liked him.

"I'd rather have this stick than a million dollars," Ofria said. "I'd give my right arm for Mayor Curley any time he asked for it. He's one wonderful fellow."

Before leaving the Mayor's office, Ofria was given a demonstration of the use of the stick.

GUILTY, THOUGH HE DIDN'T DRIVE

Not guilty of drunkenness, but guilty of operating without driving.

Out of such a maze John F. Calef of Essex Circle, Lynn, found himself fined $75 today in Lynn court. A charge of allowing an improper person to operate was filed.

The decision of Judge Edward J. O'Brien came after a day's study of strangely quirked motor vehicle laws that rules a sober man guilty of drunken operating if he lets a drunken man drive.

Admittedly sober by police in testimony and yet charged with drunkenness, Calef's case was postponed yesterday for a study of the laws that brought today's results.

William Murray of Essex st., Lynn, the man Calef admitted he let drive, was fined $50 for drunken operating, a drunkenness charge was filed and he was found guilty of driving without a license.

The two were arrested June 12 by Patrolman William Gillespie of Lynn. Calef was in the rear seat with a girl and perfectly sober, all agreed.

2 SAFES ROBBED IN MAL

Safe cracksmen were busy in Malden during the night. Two safes in buildings scarcely a block apart were opened, and a total of $223 stolen. Checks and small change were not molested by the robbers.

The office of the Malden Hat Laundry, in Union st., was entered through a rear window, and the combination knob knocked off the safe. The sum of $200 was taken while a small amount in the cash register was untouched.

In Holden st., the automobile agency of W. H. Monroe was entered, and $25 taken after the safe combination had been knocked off.

DANCER PAVLEY DIES IN PLUNGE

Chicago, June 26 (AP)—Andreas Pavley, famous classic dancer, plunged to death today from the 26th floor of the McCormick Hotel. He was 45 years old.

The dancer's body, clad in pajamas, fell in an alley, narrowly missing a hotel clerk. The screen on his window had been smashed by a portable radio set.

John Collins, manager of the hotel, said Pavley had moved into a cheaper room three weeks ago, saying he had suffered financial reverses.

Internationally known, Pavley had led the ballet of the Chicago Civic Opera Company for several years and formerly was first dancer of the San Carlo Opera at the Boston Opera House. He was a former associate of Mme. Pavlowa.

U. S. Prices Alarming Europe, Says Filene

Vienna, June 28 (AP)—Edward A. Filene, Boston merchant, told the International Rotary today that rational mass-ed production in the United States has been frightening European business men for the last ten years.

"We Americans used to be greatly alarmed for fear the low-waged European industries would undersell us," he said. "Now the Europeans are alarmed because our high wage industries are undselling them."

Cambridge Councillor Sues

Suits to recover compensation in a real estate deal was filed today in Middlesex Superior Court by City Councillor Joseph M. Stokes of Cambridge against Edmund A. Whitman, Cambridge and Boston attorney and a member of the Cambridge board of public welfare.

WORK PLEDGED FOR NAVY YARD

Mayor Curley received word today from Charles F. Adams, Secretary of the Navy, that Charlestown Navy yard was assured of all the repair work possible to send here.

Sec. Adams' letter was in reply to one sent by the mayor in which it was pointed out that men were being laid off at the local yard.

The mayor said Sec. Adams' letter stated that the Charlestown yard was in as good a condition as Philadelphia, and better than the yard in Brooklyn.

Youth Held for Natick Gun Theft

Boston police today turned over to Natick authorities Martin J. Killen, 21, of Wolcott st., Natick, on a warrant charging him with larceny of an automatic pistol from the Commonwealth armory in Natick.

Killen was arrested on Boston Common. Police said the stolen gun, unloaded, was found in his possession.

Textile Workers Stand by Old Help

Fall River, June 26 (AP)—The American Federation of Textile Operatives today adopted a resolution condemning the practice in some New England mills of discharging old help in favor of younger persons. The Federation is holding its annual convention.

Other resolutions adopted included one urging textile workers in all states to demand a 44 or 48 hour week and favoring shorter and more frequent periods of curtailment.

Boardman Out to Break Flight Mark

Roosevelt Field, N. Y., June 26 (INS)—Russell Boardman, of Brookline, Mass., arrived here from Teterboro Airport, Hasbrouck Heights, N. J., today in the monplane in which he plans a flight to break the present sustained long distance flight record. With him was his co-pilot, John Polando, of Lynn, Mass.

Boardman expects to start on his long flight as soon as the weather permits.

Man Nearly Killed by Tube in Throat

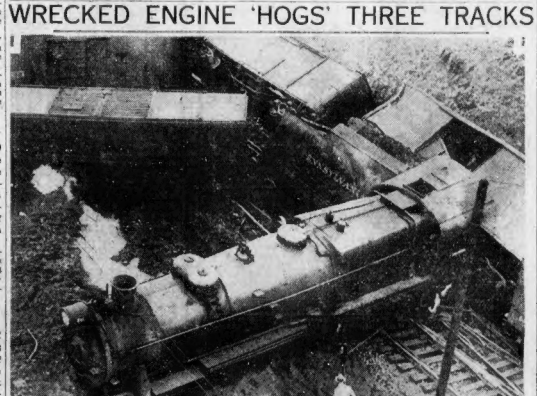
Troy, N. Y., June 26 (AP)—Harold Quirt of Worcester, Mass., was recovering today after narrowly missing death when a silver tube in his throat became dislodged as he was hiking near Crooked Lake.

Quirk collapsed and passing motorists brought him to a Troy hospital.

State Police Join Missing Man Hunt

Brimfield, June 26 (AP)—State police today joined volunteers in a search for Donald George, 20, an electrician, who disappeared yesterday. He was employed by the Worcester & Southbridge Electric Co. and left home to go to work.

WRECKED ENGINE 'HOGS' THREE TRACKS



Traffic on the Pennsylvania lines between New York and Washington was halted for three hours when this freight wreck occurred at the entrance of a tunnel just outside of Baltimore. The wrecked engine blocked three tracks. Other parts of the train spread out over other rails—and not a life was lost. (International Newsreel photo.)

'L' LINES GO ON SUMMER SHIFT

Earlier closing hours of many business establishments during the summer will result in schedule changes in operation of Elevated lines, effective tomorrow.

The Fields Corner-Uphams Corner-Dudley station car service will be operated to the east loop upper level all day, instead of part of the day and on Sundays and holidays.

The Fields Corner-Uphams Corner-Massachusetts station through service will be discontinued. Traffic handled by this service will be cared for by increased service between Dudley lower level and Massachusetts station, and transfers at Dudley station to Fields Corner-Uphams Corner-Dudley station car line.

Memorial for Mrs. Curley Tomorrow

A memorial mass will be celebrated tomorrow morning in Our Lady of Lourdes Church, Jamaica Plain, for Mrs. Mary E. Curley who died last year.

Mayor Curley recalled today that tomorrow is the 26th anniversary of their marriage.

Friends and men prominent in city and state affairs will attend the mass with the Curley family.

Ex-Mayor Cahill of Lawrence Dies

Lawrence, June 26 (AP)—Dr. John T. Cahill, former mayor of Lawrence, died at the Barr Sanitarium early today. He left a widow.

Dr. Cahill was elected mayor to fill the unexpired term of Mayor William P. White in 1910 and a year later was re-elected to office. He was a graduate of Holy Cross College.

CLEAR WEATHER FOR WEEK-END

Fair weather with a rising temperature gave week-enders today hope for at least a good start on the weekly rest-and-play period.

There is no rain in sight yet for this area, although other parts of the country were experiencing showers today. The temperature was 68 at 8 a. m., but by 2 p. m. had jumped 14 degrees to 82. Yesterday's maximum was only 69 and the minimum through the night was 61.

The forecast: Fair and somewhat warmer tonight and Saturday. Gentle to moderate south to west winds.

Philadelphia Man Dies on Gallows

Montreal, Que., June 26 (INS)—Thomas McHugh of Philadelphia was hanged today at Montreal jail for murder of A. G. Reid, taxi cashier, on January 26. Efforts to save the man, who also was wanted in Philadelphia for the murder of a banker, were made throughout the night by McHugh's mother. She failed, however, to obtain a reprieve for him.

3 Held for Digging Clams Illegally

Charged with digging clams in a polluted area of the Lynn harbor flats, near the mouth of the Saugus river, three Revere men were arrested.

They were Joseph Kennally, 18, of Oak Island; John Holland, 18, of Glendale st., and Kenneth Nagle, 16, of Glendale st.

The domestic help problem is solved by taking a kitchenette apartment and the best are advertised daily in the For Rent columns.

Kidnapers Foiled

ELLEN EDSTROM

CHARLES JOHNSON

Ellen Edstrom, 16, of Bournedale, was guarded today following the attempt yesterday to kidnap her. Police questioned Charles Johnson, a distant relative, for whom she was housekeeper.

1 DEAD, 4 DYING IN CRASH ON TURNPIKE

One woman was killed, another woman is dying at the Melrose Hospital and three men are dying at Lynn Hospital as a result of a head-on crash on the Newburyport turnpike, near Salem st., at Lynnfield, early today.

The crash, one of the most tragic on Newburyport turnpike in years, caused a large traffic jam.

DEAD

ENRIGHT, Mary, 21, single, employed as maid at the home of C. F. Ayer, banker, of Juniper Ridge, Hamilton. Skull fracture and internal injuries.

DYING

SETTLES, Mrs. Blanche, 35, of 42 Pearl st., Malden. Possible fracture of the skull, concussion of the brain and internal injuries. At Melrose Hospital.

O'CONNELL, Jeffery, 25, single, houseman for C. F. Ayer of Juniper Ridge, Hamilton. Possible fracture of skull, scalp wounds and internal injuries. At Lynn Hospital.

AHEARN, John, 42, married, butler at home of C. F. Ayer. Concussion, contusions. At Lynn Hospital.

TRUMBULL, Guy M., 30, married, of 518 Andover st., Lawrence, insurance adjuster. Possible skull fracture and internal injuries. At Lynn Hospital.

THROWN INTO ROAD

According to police, a coupe operated by Trumbull and occupied by Mrs. Settles was speeding along the turnpike towards Boston in the middle lane, when the sedan operated by O'Connell and occupied by the Enright girl, and Ahearn suddenly appeared also in the middle lane of traffic bound for Hamilton. Drivers of both cars applied emergency brakes, but too late, the cars meeting head-on throwing the Enright woman and the two occupants into the street. Mrs. Settles riding with Trumbull, was rendered unconscious.

TRIBUTE PAID MRS. HEARST

MRS. AHEARN

MAYOR WALKER MRS. HEARST

Hundreds paid tribute to Mrs. William Randolph Hearst, wife of the newspaper publisher, at New York, for her work in relieving suffering among the poor. The tribute was paid on the tenth anniversary of the founding by Mrs. Hearst of her Milk Fund for the poor of the city. Mrs. Hearst is shown speaking to the gathering that greeted her at Hamilton Fish Park. Around her are Grover Whalen, Mayor Walker and Mrs. J. F. Ahearn. (International Newsreel photo.)

WILKINS DUE IN DEVONPORT TODAY

EXCLUSIVE!

By CAPT. SIR HUBERT WILKINS

(Copyright, 1931, throughout the world by New York American, Inc., Hearst Enterprises, Inc., and King Features Syndicate, Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction in whole or in part prohibited.)

Plymouth, England, June 26 (AP)—The submarine Nautilus, in which Sir Hubert Wilkins has planned to cross the top of the world under the North Pole ice this summer, arrived at Plymouth from Cobh, Ireland, today.

(By Radio, via American Radio News Corporation)

Aboard Submarine Nautilus, En Route to Devonport, June 26—The submarine Nautilus, both engines silent, was making about five knots early today behind the Irish tug Morsecock. We hope to reach the admiralty submarine base at Devonport before the dockyard closes Friday.

After leaving Ireland accompanied by the shouts of the populace, we were speeded on our way by a mile of flaming beacons waved by the people of Queenstown. We had a peaceful night.

Mechanical defects rendered both our motors inoperative. The port motor can not be used until we have a new armature installed.

RUDDER JAMMED

There was some excitement aboard yesterday when the rudder jammed and remained stuck for two hours. Mechanics finally repaired it and it gave no more trouble.

We left Cork harbor Wednesday night. A tug provided by the harbor commission grails, as had been all the facilities of the town, electricity and supplies, swung us into mid-stream. The Nautilus then proceeded downstream under the power of her starboard motor. Both engines were silent.

The port motor, its windings slipped from their supports through mechanical defects, was unable to turn over and start our one good engine. This rendered us dependent on the tug for the journey to Devonport.

Cork gave us a rousing sendoff. The banks of the river Shannon were lined with cheering crowds and the water was jammed with small boats and yachts. Waving handkerchiefs fluttered like butterflies in the dusk.

TWO-WEEK DELAY

Half way to Queenstown the Morsecock took us in tow. Our crew, weary from the social rounds ashore, were in low spirits at the realization that we were again forced to be towed.

The good will of the Irish people was expressed all along the river banks. At Queenstown we were again met with cheers and flaming beacons. Two British destroyers at anchor sent us their greetings by signal flag and wireless.

The changes and repewals to be made at Devonport will probably take two weeks. From there we go to Bergen, Norway, where we will outfit for the trip under the ice to the North Pole. Thereafter we expect little trouble.

Our batteries are uninjured after giving us the best of service. Our fuel is excellent. We need only reliable machinery conscientiously attended to assure our success.

Log of Winnie Mae

(Boston Daylight Time)

TUESDAY, JUNE 23

4:56 a. m.—Took off from Roosevelt Field, N. Y.

11:48 a. m.—Landed at Harbor Grace, N. F.

2:28 p. m.—Took off on transatlantic flight.

7:44 p. m.—Radio signal picked up by S. S. Drottingham (150 miles east of Cape Race, N. F.).

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24

7:45 a. m.—Landed at Scotland airdrome, six miles from Chester, England.

9:06 a. m.—Took off from Scotland.

12:45 p. m.—Arrived Hanover, Germany.

1:50 p. m.—Took off from Hanover, but returned in five minutes to refuel.

2:15 p. m.—Took off from Hanover, second time.

5:36 p. m.—Landed at Tempelhof airdrome, Berlin.

THURSDAY, JUNE 25

2:38 a. m.—Took off from Berlin for Moscow.

11:38 a. m.—Landed at October airdrome, Moscow.

11:00 p. m.—Took off from Moscow for Novosibirsk, Siberia.

FRIDAY, JUNE 26

1:50 a. m.—Sighted at Kazan, 450 miles east of Moscow.

8:05 a. m.—Passed over Omsk, 1450 miles due east of Moscow.

9:33 a. m.—Plane lands at Novo Sibirsk, Siberia, 2000 east of Moscow.

RUBIO CASE IN JURY'S HANDS

Ardmore, Okla., June 26 (AP)—Jurors trying W. E. Guess, former deputy sheriff, for the slaying of Emilio Cortes Rubio, shot to death with his Mexican comrade, Manuel (Jarcia Gomez, here June 7, were asked today by Frank Dudley, assistant attorney-general, in his closing argument is "the time has come when we employ officers too cowardly to take a chance."

"Guess shot down two men without either firing a shot," the prosecutor declared.

Dudley attacked the defendant's plea that he shot the students when they drew pistols as Guess and Cecil Crosby, another deputy sheriff, sought to question them late at night on a residential street where they had stopped their automobile while driving to Mexico.

The jury was instructed by Judge Job B. Ogden to return a verdict of either first degree murder, first degree manslaughter or acquittal.

Receiver Refused for Insurance Firm

Judge Franklin T. Hammond in Superior Court today took under advisement asking a Massachusetts receivership for the Union Mutual Casualty Co. of New York, now in the hands of the New York state superintendent of insurance.

The petition was filed by Miss Frances Flaherty of Dorchester after, it is charged, she failed to collect on a $500 judgment against the insurance firm awarded after she was struck by a taxicab.

West Coast Boy Held on Forgery Charge

Held in conversation at the cashier's cage in the Redford st. branch of the Atlantic National Bank while bank officials summoned police, Miles a Pettie, 17, of South Pasadena, Cal., was arrested on charge of forgery, uttering and attempted larceny.

He is alleged to have forged the name of O. E. Ovigit, Pasadena clothier, to the check.

HILLIG PLANE ATTAINS GOAL IN DENMARK

Continued From First Page

from the lips of Minister Fruis Scotts, representative of the government.

MOTHER WEEPS IN JOY

Later at the City Hall ceremony Hoirlis attempted to make a speech in Danish but wasn't very successful as he had been away from Denmark so long.

His mother, standing proudly next to him, was much affected by the reunion. It had been six years since she last saw him. She made no attempt to control her feelings and wept from joy.

It was a highly emotional ceremony. Many of the spectators wept almost as unrestrainedly as did Mrs. Hoirlis.

King Christian this evening conferred the Knighthood of Danebrogg on Hoirlis.

TO VISIT GERMANY

It was home for Hoirlis, for he was born in Denmark, leaving here as a boy to go to America. It seemed like home to Hillig, although technically it was not. He is a native of Steinbrucken, Germany, and as soon as the festivities in Denmark are over he and his companion will pay a visit there.

The aviators received more than welcome words. Wreaths of laurel were placed about their necks. Former Minister Thyge Rothe, acting in behalf of the Aeronautical Society, presented them the society's gold plaquette.

After that ceremony Hillig and Hoirlis got in a motor car which fought its way through the crowds to City Hall where Burgomaster Hedebol welcomed them in behalf of the City of Copenhagen.

WERE SHORT OF GAS

The fliers had been forced to land at Bremen last night because they were short of gasoline. When they had refueled at Krefeld, Germany, where they first touched earth after leaving Newfoundland they became confused because Europe uses the metric system. In tending to order 50 gallons of gasoline they actually ordered 50 liters. Descending at Bremen to get sufficient gasoline to complete the flight to Copenhagen they decided they were too tired to fly further.

Post, Gatty Land 1450 Miles East of Moscow

Irkutsk, Siberia, June 26 (AP)—Wiley Post and Harold Gatty, Americans flying around the world, landed at Novo Sibirsk Siberia, at 9:33 a. m. (Boston time) today from Moscow after a flight of 1450 miles.

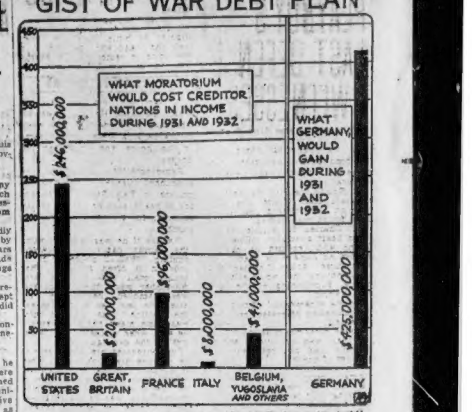
They planned to resume their flight to Irkutsk at midnight tonight. That will be a 1050-mile hop, and the fliers then will have covered 7500 miles or about half the distance of their round-the-wrold route roughly estimated at 15,000 miles.

If the speed of the first four days should be continued, the American fliers would girdle the globe in eight days. The present record is 22 days, 17 minutes, established by German dirigible Graf Zeppelin, and Post and Gatty's ambition was to reduce this to ten days.

The fliers in their blue and white monoplane Winnie Mae hopped off from Moscow at 11 o'clock last night, Boston time.

Possibly the most difficult part of their task faces them via Khabarovsk or Yakutsk, across the Sea of Okhotsk to Petropavlovsk, Kamchatka, and thence across the Bering Sea to Nome, Alaska, where they hope to be on Sunday.

GIST OF WAR DEBT PLAN



The amount the proposed one-year moratorium on war obligations would cost various nations in income during the fiscal year beginning July 1, and how much Germany would be richer for the year, is explained in chart. All the figures are approximate.

Log of Liberty

(Boston Daylight Time.)

FRIDAY, JUNE 19.

3:22 p. m.—Left Hazbrouck, Heights, N. J.

8:30 p. m.—Landed at St. John, N. B.

MONDAY, JUNE 22.

10:58 a. m.—Took off from St. John, N. B.

2:56 p. m.—Landed at Harbor Grace, N. F.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24.

4:34 a. m.—Took off from Harbor Grace.

THURSDAY, JUNE 25.

2:39 p. m.—Landed at Krefeld, Germany.

3:45 p. m.—Took off from Krefeld.

4:40 p. m.—Landed at Bremen, Germany.

FRIDAY, JUNE 26.

6:37 a. m.—Took off from Bremen for Copenhagen.

9:10 a. m.—Arrived at Copenhagen.

OUR PLAN
(originated by Filene's)
If we fail to make the FIRST price low enough the automatic plan forces the price down 1/3 after 12 selling days; 1/3 after 24 selling days; 1/3 after 36 selling days. Goods unsold after 48 selling days given away to charitable institutions

Filene's
AUTOMATIC BARGAIN BASEMENT for MEN

Be EARLY SATURDAY

Hundreds of pairs with maker's name and original prices stamped on soles

MEN'S famous brand $4 to $12.50 and other SHOES

$2.95

Plenty of sport shoes in black and white, tan and white, tan and elk color and other combinations. Leather or rubber soles.

Dress shoes including black or tan oxfords or high shoes sizes, 6 to 11, AA to D in one kind or another. Surplus stocks, discontinued lines, odd lots, SECONDS—one lot of famous corrective dress or sport shoes in narrow widths.

MEN'S tropical worsted Palm Beach mohair or nurotex SUMMER 2-pc. SUITS

$8.75

Lightweight, cool, breezy suits that defie New England's muggiest of days—plenty of dark suits for business wear in navy, black or oxford—light or dark color Palm Beach suits and plenty of medium colors. Sizes 33 to 44 regular, 36 to 42 shorts, and few stouts 40 to 46. Not all sizes in all kinds. SATURDAY.

HUNDREDS OF OTHER BARGAIN LOTS NOT ADVERTISED—NO MAIL ORDERS

Suds miracle?

Yes. Amazing new process puts ⅓ more suds in Chipso. You never saw such suds! Try Chipso now!

Flakes or Granules

Get it—in JORDAN'S BASEMENT

2000 Mor—and Judging by Chic and Valu These $2.95's Will Sell Out as Quckly as Before—Saturday

Silk Pique, Crepe, Shantung, Linen, etc.

Dresses

—Sleeveless Styles
—Jacket Dresses
—Capelet Sleeves
—Color CONTRASTS
—Surplice Styles
—All Most Unusual

$2.95 Sizes 14 to 52

For Misses—Silk Piques, Pastel Silk Crepes, Shantungs, Linen Jacket Dresses, Rayon-and-Cotton Eyelet Embroidered Jacket Dress, Tuck-in 2-Pc. Linen Dress, charmingly styled, sizes 14 to 20.

For Women—Shantungs, Printed Silk Crepes, Soft Pastel Rayon Piques, De Luxe Rayon Prints or Rayon Crepes in sizes up to 52.

Another Instance of Our New Fashions at LOWER PRICES

"Frisco" Turbans

$1.95

This WHITE Jersey Turban with Tri-Color Trimmings is a BRAND NEW Fashion and the darling of the 1931 turban family. It is feather-weight—it packs, it goes smarly with Summer ensembles—it becomes every type—it's the rage in New York—it's at a Special Jordan Low Price.

'PLAYBOY'S' KIN LAST DEFENSE WITNESSES

Continued From First Page

cloth, red denoting where blood had been found, and other colors where no blood was proved in chemical tests.

Dr. Round testified that he found no stain that looked like blood from an open wound, that all the blood found was diluted.

Dr. Charles F. Gormley, Providence heart specialist, followed Dr. Round and testified he had examined on June 9 the heart of the slain nurse. Asked if he had found any condition that would affect the normal functioning of the heart, he answered:

"None whatsoever. There was no indication of present or recent disease."

Under cross-examination he said the heart was not dilated nor apparently had not been within 10 minutes of death.

The close of the defense was a dramatic coup. With Mrs. Hathaway on the stand, the so-called "missing" slip covers of the Hathaway automobile were introduced.

These were the covers once on the car in which the Fall River playboy took the Truesdale Hospital nurse on a gin and petting party on the night of March 23—and left her body in a Tiverton lane.

SMILES ON STAND

The State had mentioned them during presentation of its case and cross-examination of defense witnesses.

Mrs. Hathaway, smiling, apparently not in the least nervous, testified that these covers were removed from the car last November, washed and patched by her and never again put on the automobile.

Alden verified this story, and Representative Louis E. Hathaway, the small, gray father, did the same.

Moreover, Representative Hathaway testified that three days after the death of Miss Russell a Rhode Island State trooper came to their Fall River home, asked about the covers, went away, and returned the same day to inspect them.

After the defense rested, a recess was declared while the government prepared its battle in rebuttal, during which Vernon V. Galvin, star witness for the State and the playboy's former pal, is expected to take the stand again.

A crowded, silent courtroom saw the defense brought to a close on the premise that Verna Russell strangled on her own teeth and was not throttled by the defendant.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

Mrs. Hathaway, a large, motherly-type of mother, wearing a dark blue, yellow-trimmed dress and a string of black beads, was the first of the family called. She wore heavy tortoise shell-rimmed glasses. She smiled often. Sometimes she let drop a bit of homely philosophy. As when, in referring to the patching of the seat covers, she said:

Hathaway's mother recalled that on the evening of March 23, Elliott "ate very little supper."

"It was a half a cream soll and a glass of milk because he thought he was going out to dine and dance somewhere," she said.

Nolan, opening a small bundle, produced the "missing" slip covers, and Mrs. Hathaway went on to tell how they could not have been in the automobile on the night Verna Russell died.

"About the last of November they were taken off the car," she said.

"I washed them the first week in March."

Nolan held up for her the various pieces of gray material. Of one she said: "This is the part that fits on the back seat," and went on to show where she had cut a piece off to patch holes in the other pieces.

"From the time you patched and washed them were they ever put back on the car?" Nolan asked.

"Never," she said.

Alden, thin-faced and much slighter in build than his twin, took the stand and testified in a low voice to removing the covers from the car last November.

FATHER TESTIFIES

"I saw my mother patching them," he said. He knew that on Thursday or Friday of the week of March 23 a state trooper came to his house and inspected the covers.

Representative Hathaway, a prominent figure in Republican politics in Fall River, a resident for 30 years, said he was a retired salesman for a New York cosmetic concern.

"Asked if he was familiar with the family car, he answered, smiling, "Well, I ought to be, I rode in it often enough." He could recall that it was late November when the slip covers were removed "because it was after the car was used through the election." He saw his wife wash and mend them. "Never," he said when asked if they were put on the car again.

Two witnesses preceded them as the defense drew toward its close. Dr. Frederick R. Barnes, Fall River medical examiner and a member of the board at Truesdale Hospital where Verna was in training, was asked whether he had found anything the matter with the nurse's heart.

"Nothing," he said.

He testified that recently he performed an autopsy on a man who strangled on a foreign body and found no petechial hemorrhages such as were found on Miss Russell's body.

E. BOSTON BOY DRINKS LYE

The name of Frank DeFrancesco, three, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeFrancesco, of 16 Chelsea st., East Boston, is on the danger list at the East Boston Relief station, where he was taken early today after drinking a mixture of lye and water.

The parents say Frank and his brother, Angelo, seven, were playing in the dining room of their home, when one child asked the father to get him a drink of water. The father told him to get it himself, and both boys went to the kitchen.

It is believed they poured lye into the water. Somstime later their mother noticed the two boys were badly burned about the mouth. They were taken to the Relief Station, where Angelo was discharged after treatment. Frank's condition is serious.

AUTOS RIDDLED IN GANG WAR

Pictures on Page 2

While police took precautions against a new outburst of deadly gang warfare, Capt. Charles Van Amburgh, state ballistic expert, reported on bullets dug from two automobiles that were riddled early today in Back Bay in a mystery barrage of riot gunfire.

Capt. Van Amburgh said the guns used were 12-gauge shotguns. The slugs, which he examined he said were single-O buckshot and the shells containing them are known as Western shells.

Late this afternoon both Commissioner Hultman and Deputy Supt. James McDevitt, in charge of the bureau of criminal investigation, admitted that not a shred of a clue had been uncovered pointing toward a solution of the mystery.

"Thus far we haven't found any eyewitnesses and that is handicapping us in the investigation," said Supt. Michael H. Crowley. "If anybody saw the shooting he ought to come forward and inform the police immediately."

Two automobiles whose occupants were attending the commencement prom of the Girls' high school at the Copley-Plaza were raked by the gunfire, but there was no sign of a third car which police suspect was the real object of the murderous charge.

The two cars damaged were parked on opposite sides of Trinity pl., near Stuart st., showing the wide sweep of the gunfire.

The riddled cars are those of Mrs. Agnes E. Messenger of 19 Bayside st., Dorchester, and Owen Nivling, 32 Ridge ave., Newton Center. Miss Barbara Rubley, 19 Bayside st., was operator of the first car.

White Canes to Guard Blind From Peril of Automobiles

Chicago, June 26 (INS)—White canes, to be carried by the blind as a caution to motorists, have been presented to the 180 inmates of the Industrial Home for the Blind by the South Central Lions Club.

The presentation was in accordance with a resolution recently adopted by the City Council, directing an ordinance which would limit the carrying of white canes to the blind.

State House to Begin Dialling on Dec. 1

Telephone service in the State House will be changed Dec. 1 from manual operation to the dial system, William H. O'Brien, chief of the telephone and telegraph division of the State Department of Public Utilities, said today.

Ten operators now comprise the telephone force at the Capitol. All are expected to be retained.

BOY TUMBLES 2 STORIES ASLEEP

Gerald Newman, 13, is lucky, even if he is a somnambulist.

The boy, whose home is at 116 Hawthorn st., Chelsea, walked in his sleep early today and walked out a second-story window at the home of his aunt, Mrs. John Moore, 104 Princeton st., East Boston.

Despite the two-story fall to a brick sidewalk, young Gerald escaped with multiple contusions and abrasions of the body, a lacerated thigh and a sprained shoulder.

The boy was treated in East Boston Relief Hospital.

Heart Attack Fatal to Boston Banker

Arthur Cox Anthony, a member of the State st. banking house of Townsend, Anthony & Tyson, died from a heart attack at his home, 6 Bowdoin st., Marblehead, today. He had been ill for several weeks.

He is survived by his widow, his mother, Mrs. Nathan Anthony, and two sisters, Mrs. A. D. Little and Mrs. Daniel Snow, all of Boston. On Dec. 20, 1926, he married Mrs. Ethel Varrill Lasky. He was 63.

TINY WIFE WINS HER DIVORCE

Because she weighed only 101 pounds, her husband didn't like her, Mrs. Mary Shirley of South Huntington ave., Roxbury, testified today in Suffolk court in her quest for divorce from Henry Shirley.

Shirley, who did not contest the case, is a restaurant worker at an Auburndale amusements resort. He tips the scales at 220, the wife testified.

"He threw two pans of water on me Christmas night and another time hit me with a mop handle and cut my eye," Mrs. Shirley testified. She said they lived on Rivermoor, Back Bay, at the time.

She was granted a divorce and custody of two children.

"Mme. Marie Vara," former stage juggler, was described as a "comfortable drunk" today in Suffolk court by her husband, Howard R. Banks, chief electrician on the navy cruiser Marblehead.

Banks was granted a divorce from her under the name of Vera M. Banks, after he described trips to Panama, Honolulu and other naval points in which his wife followed and "played drunk."

Sail..on one of these 2 Luxurious Ships

S. S. PRESIDENT WARFIELD S. S. SOUTHLAND

NEW YORK $4.50

Make your trip a delightful experience by sailing aboard one of these fast, modern ships especially adapted to the Long Island Sound service. They offer you every comfort and convenience . . . spacious, cool rooms . . . many with private baths and showers . . . delicious, sensibly priced food . . . dancing to a real orchestra . . . all at a most moderate cost. Sailings every day and Sunday: Colonial Line Wharf, Providence, 7:30 P. M., D. S. T. Bus leaves Colonial Ticket Off., 158 Summer St. Opp. So. Sta., 5:30 P. M. Tel. Hancock 4458, N.Y., N. H. & H. R. R. train leaves So. Sta. 8 P. M., Back Bay Sta. 6:05 P. M.

Auto Rates: Fords and Chevrolets $7.50, other cars $9.50.

COLONIAL STEAMSHIP LINES

Advertise Your Wants in the Boston Evening American

ALL-BRAN BROUGHT WELCOME RELIEF

THOUSANDS of letters attest to the efficiency of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in overcoming constipation. . . . For instance, Mr. James D. McEnery, Alto, Texas, relates his experience:

"For fifteen years I was constantly bothered with constipation. . . . Some eighteen months ago, I began using Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. From the first week to this good day, I have never had to take a dose of laxative medicine of any description."

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is the largest-selling all-bran cereal in the world. Two tablespoonfuls daily are guaranteed to give relief. How much safer than using habit-forming laxatives.

ALL-BRAN also adds needed iron to build the blood. In the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

"Gals" right in the swim choose

One Piece Bathing Suits

$5.95

Last year's price $7.50

A clean straight dive, a flash of orange or yellow against the summer sky—and she's off for a glorious swim. French Jersey suits with attached shorts, 'comfortable—smart! Two piece styles also in sizes 34 to 42.

Complete line swim accessories

Swim Shop—Second Floor

Gilchrist's

OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS UNTIL 9 P. M.

The House of SALLINGER

—CREDIT SPECIALISTS

Prices are lower than in years—take advantage NOW of tremendous savings.

Makes it possible for you to use your cash for your vacation—and buy your vacation needs on the most liberal SALLINGER CREDIT SERVICE.

You have a decidedly longer time to pay when you Use Sallinger Service!

The HOUSE OF SALLINGER has had but one ideal since its inception 34 years ago—that of bringing the fairest, most liberal and most dependable credit facilities to New England men and women. And it believes it has succeeded in this as over 150,000 people who have enjoyed this friendly service can attest.

NOW! A Special Group of Fine Quality 2-TROUSER SUITS

Including Blue Serge

$27.50

A GREAT VALUE! YOU SAVE MANY DOLLARS!

Our 1-Trouser Blue Serge Leader and Other Suits $22.50

A Wide Variety of Quality Suits!

$22.50 $25 $30 $35

You can buy anything and everything for the family and for the home at guaranteed cash store prices

Boys' Clothing
Women's, Misses' and Juniors' Wear
Shoes
Straw Hats
Standard Makes of Radios
Easy Washing Machines
Firestone Tires and Accessories
Jewelry

You can also buy anything and everything with our FAMOUS ORIGINAL ORDER CHECK which is accepted as cash by over 100 of Boston's leading stores.

TERMS AS LOW AS $1.00 A WEEK

Tune in on WBZ-WBZA every Monday and Friday at 6:15 P. M. and hear the SALLINGER VAGABONDS

IN THE HEART OF THE CITY

N. SALLINGER, INC.

501 WASHINGTON ST. AT WEST—BOSTON

SPRINGFIELD 1355 Main St. HARTFORD 53 Asylum St. PROVIDENCE 1260 Westminster St.

Gilchrist's Bargain Basement

Saturday Morning Bargains

First prints and tie ins or as low as by our Self-Aiding Reduction Plan. 25% after 12 selling days, 50% after 18 selling days, 75% after 24 selling days. Close ends in shortly after 30 selling days.

New Summer Dresses

$2.95

Women's, Misses', Juniors'

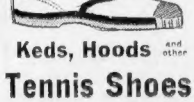
White dresses with contrasting jackets
Eyelet embroidered jacket dresses
Pastel printed cape styles
Sleeveless shantung dresses
Cool sleeveless sport dresses

Full Fashioned Silk Stockings 59c

Plenty of smart mesh hose. Silk to the Picot top. A few lisle reinforced. Sheer, semi sheer and semi service weights. Cradle foot. French heel. All shades. Some seconds, irregulars. Exceptional bargains.

Children's Shoes $1

Two tone sport oxfords, also tan or patent leather sandals. Sizes 8½ to 2.



Keds, Hoods and other Tennis Shoes 50c

Men's, Boys', Children's

Brown, Suntan or White. High and low styles. Heavy moulded or medium soles. Seconds, retail store stocks.

Lounging or Beach Pajamas 59c

Some seconds of better grade pajamas, gay prints in smart styles.

Girls' Dresses 35c

Gay prints, sheer dimities, organdy trims, large collars, contrasting pipings, sizes 7 to 14.

Women's Fashion Shoes $1.69

Including plenty of White White, brown and white, black and white, pastel with reptile trims. Sizes 3 to 7. Widths B to D. Seconds and surplus stocks.

For Sport or Dress

Smart White Hats .95c

Boucles, with velvet (cotton) trimmings. Large floppy hats. Rough straw, little hats with grosgrain ribbon in white, black and pastel colors. All head sizes.

Just 700 More Colonial Windsor Chairs 69c

Solid Maple and Birch Cathedral back. 36 inches high. Birch seat. May be stained to match your furniture. We've sold 6500 of these chairs in less than a month. Last chance to purchase at this low price.

Men's Good Suits $7

3 Piece Mixture Suits
2 Piece Summer Suits

All desirable patterns
Men's and Young Men's 2 and 3 button styles
Sizes 34 to 42

"Last Shopping Saturday Before the 4th"

ONE MURDER VICTIM IS IDENTIFIED

Police Discover That the Rev. Dr. Thomas Beazeley Is Missing From Home in E. 82d St., and Wife Is Worried

"THE MURDER OF THE CHOIR SINGER"

BY ANTHONY ABBOT

What Has Happened So Far

The bodies of a clergyman and a woman are found in a rowboat drifting in the East river in New York. Both had been shot and the woman's throat slit. The only clues are a cat and a leaf found in the boat. Police Commissioner Thatcher Colt institutes a search to ascertain the identity of the victims. Informed by Lederer, the city forester, that a tree with leaves similar to the one in the boat is located at Sangster Terrace, Colt and Tony Abbot, his secretary, investigate. The exclusive settlement is deserted except for Kraus, the watchman. He states that the cat belongs to a couple in house No. 13. Questioned further, he admits leaving the grounds after receiving a telegram that his wife was ill. Colt asks to see the telegram. Colt learns the house is owned by Mrs. Basil Wharton, who sublets it to a couple named "Sadler." On the floor of an unfurnished room the commissioner discovers a speck of green paint similar to the color of the boat. He comes upon two traveling bags with the initials "B. B.," the latter containing ladies' wearing apparel. Colt notices that a catlass hanging on the wall had been polished recently, though there is dust on the wall.

Now Go On With the Story

COLT TURNED away with a pained expression, as if his artistic confidence had been shaken.

He was moving around the room slowly, deliberately, seeking some other weakness, some revealing blunder—

"There!" he called suddenly and fell to his knees. Under the divan he stretched an arm, then lifted up a tiny object that glittered in his hand like a chip from a star.

"We have now," he exulted, "the missing diamond from the right ear of our woman in the boat. Tony, think of it! The murders were done here—probably in this room. And with diabolical cunning the traces of the crime have been obliterated as if by magic, except——"

Without finishing his sentence, he put the diamond eardrop carefully away in his wallet and resumed his search, coming presently to the closed door of a closet. Here he made a remarkable discovery. The door was unlocked, and when opened revealed that the space within, including the shelves, was not only empty but covered with a long accumulation of dust. With his flashlight playing all over the wall, shelf, floor and door area of this closet, Colt was manifestly excited by what he read in signs and indications too subtle or obscure, for my less observing glances.

A HIDING PLACE?

"Notice, Tony," he said at last, "the disturbance in the floor dust. It is too trampled to offer a useful footprint. But there are marks that must have been made by feet, though they are jumbled out of recognition—for look here—the walls and side-posts confirm the theory. This large mark here is where a human head has rested."

For a long five minutes, Thatcher Colt continued to study the marks left in the dust of the closet. When he finally turned away, after shutting the door, his eyes were more thoughtful than ever. Around the room he continued to prowl until, lying on the mantel-shelf, back of a framed picture of Modjeska, a paper bag was found. Opening it carefully, Colt sifted out of his palm some flakes of a reddish brown substance.

"What is that, chief?" I asked as he peered over at me with a quizzical smile.

"Dulse, Tony."

"Dulse?"

"Yes—a sea-weed. It is much relished as a vegetable in Scotland, St. John, in New Brunswick, and in certain portions of Nova Scotia. It seems quite fresh."

"What could it be doing here?"

"That is a question worth remembering," was Colt's cryptic rejoinder. At that moment I heard a low whistle—Neil McMahon calling us from the garden below.

Colt turned sharply to the watchman.

"Will you bring my man up here?" he asked as he hastened to the telephone. Again with a handkerchief in each hand, he calmly called the number of the morgue.

"Hello. This is the police commissioner. Please connect me instantly with Dist. Atty. Dougherty, if he is there."

As he waited, Thatcher Colt said to me:

"I am beginning to suspect, Tony, that we are face to face with the most damnably clever killer in my experience. And yet he did forget that knife—Hello, Dougherty. I am now in the house where those two people were killed. Yes! Yes! Never mind all that now. Listen! Come up here as quickly as possible. Bring Fegley, Merkle and Williams. And not a word to the reporters yet. Hurry. 13 Sangster terrace—the house with the red door."

His face was aglow with the zest of the chase as he hung up the receiver and faced Neil McMahon in the doorway.

"Well, Neil?"

"We know the man chief."

"What?"

McMahon produced his notebook.

"He is the Reverend Doctor Timothy Beazeley, rector of the Church of St. Michael and All Angels," read Neil heavily.

"Where is that?"

"East 82d st."

"Has anybody been up there except the policeman who made the discovery?"

"Oh, no, sir. You gave orders—"

"Good. What happened?"

CLEVER MURDER

"The officer on the post rang the door-bell. The lady of the house said her husband was overdone and she was worried about him. So he telephoned, and he's waiting for orders."

"That's all right. Now, Neil, please walk down at the front door for Dougherty and lead him up here."

"Formed any theory of how it happened?" I asked, when we were left alone.

Thatcher Colt shook his head.

"Not enough facts. Mostly guess-work so far."

"Except," he continued, in that shrill note that touched his voice only when he was deeply excited, "that some one planted this bloody stratagem with fiendish patience, industry and skill. The hand that used that knife did not tremble—we are looking for a cool, calm and rather imaginative murderer this time."

He relapsed into silence. I saw that Colt was impatient to leave now; eager to get to the house of the murdered man.

"Tony," he said, "there are mysteries piled on mysteries in this affair. Both those bodies bled. There was blood on the bows of that cat. Yet there were no stains in the boat, and there are no stains here."

With a frustrated cluck of his tongue he continued his prowling, turning at last to the door, I stumbled in a chair by the streaming window, checking up on my dates, until I heard him call. Joining him in the corridor, I found him kneeling on the bare floor, his flashlamp playing on the wide boards.

Shortly thereafter Dougherty, his red face dripping from rain and perspiration, plunged into the room and shouted:

"Colt, how do you know this is the murder house, and how in God's name did you find it?"

The others followed him in and Colt waved them all to chairs. Rapidly, succinctly, and with a convincing passion, the police commissioner laid his facts before them. Dougherty kept glancing at the faces of his companions.

"Swell work, Colt," he cried. "But why didn't you give some of the rest of us a chance?"

Colt chuckled.

"There is a lot of work still to be done here," he pointed out. "Inspector Fegley, as soon as practical, you will please have the river dredged in front of these grounds? Look for a revolver and carpenter's tools. Look for fingerprints everywhere. Search the grounds as soon as daylight comes."

Copyright, 1931, by Consolidated Features Co.

(Does the district attorney produce any result in unravelling the murder puzzle? Read tomorrow's interesting instalment.)

ENGAGEMENT and Wedding Rings

An unusual opportunity to buy high grade diamond rings, as the prices are the lowest they have been in years.

Diamond Solitaires

Finest Quality

Specially Priced

$75 $100 $150 to $300

The E. B. Horn Co

429 WASHINGTON STREET

Established 1839

Open Mon., Thurs. to 9 P. M.

KANE'S

Warehouse Manager's Sale!

"All this merchandise MUST go! We need the space . . . sell it at any price . . . here's a list of what we must move and move quickly!" . . . that's the message of our Warehouse Manager . . . and so we illustrate the list he submitted to us . . . and have marked these goods at prices to guarantee a positive, speedy clearance! Just look at these values!

At All KANE Stores Today and Saturday--9 A. M. to 9 P. M.!

Special Easy Terms During This Sale

The Warehouse Manager Said

"Slash These 58 Parlor Suites"

A splendid assortment! 3-piece suites! All kinds, all styles, all coverings! Among them the latest designs! Jacquards, Mohairs, Brocatelles, Tapestries, All Reduced NOW!

$49 - $79 - $99

Our Regular Price $80! Our Regular Price $125! Our Regular Price $175!

Special Easy Terms During This Sale

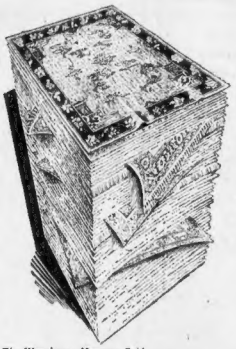
The Warehouse Manager Said

"Here's 48 Bedroom Suites"

3 and 4-Piece Suites of every description! Even latest designs are included! Every suite now marked down to sell FAST! Reduced now to.....

$49 - $75 - $95

Our Regular Price $79! Our Regular Price $110! Our Regular Price $165!



The Warehouse Manager Said . . .

"107 Rugs MUST Move!"

Velvets and Axminsters! 6x9 ft.—8.3x10.6 ft. and 9x12 ft. All choice patterns. Save at least ¼! Now marked

$9.95 $17.50 $24.50

Special Easy Terms

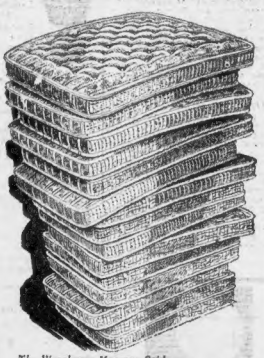
The Warehouse Manager Said

"Sell These 43 Dining Suites"

And so we've reduced them materially to be sure that they'll sell quickly . . . 8, 9 and 10-Piece Suites. All styles and descriptions. Now marked at.....

$59 - $85 - $99

Our Regular Price $85! Our Regular Price $145! Our Regular Price $185!



The Warehouse Manager Said . . .

"207 Mattresses To Go!"

Innersprings, Kapoks, Felts, Cottons—all kinds—all sizes. Now marked at least ⅓!

$5.85 $7.95 $10.95

Special Easy Terms

The Warehouse Manager Said . . .

"Clear Out These 74 Day Beds!"

All complete with mattresses. All styles reduced for clearance! Priced now at least ⅓ former prices!

$7.95 $14.95 $19.50

SPECIAL EASY TERMS

The Warehouse Manager Said . . .

"Move These 51 Cedar Chests!"

Window seat styles, console styles, walnut veneered finishes—all sizes. Save at least ⅓ on every chest. Now marked at $10.95 $17.50 $24.50

SPECIAL EASY TERMS

The Warehouse Manager Said . . .

"I Don't Want These 94 Refrigerators!"

. . . and so we've reduced them at least ⅓! All Steel—a few wood boxes. All sizes and colors. Now marked at $9.95 $15.50 $22.50

SPECIAL EASY TERMS

Only RELIABLE STORES are allowed to display this seal, which is the emblem of the National Home Furnishings Program!

SHOP AT THE NEAREST KANE STORE

CAMBRIDGE Store
800 Mass. Ave.
Open Mon., Thurs. and Sat. Nights

NEWTON Store
292 Center Street
Open Mon., Fri. and Sat. Nights

At the Sign of the Big Clock
KANE'S
740 WASHINGTON ST. BOSTON

HYDE PARK Store
1295 River Street
Open Mon., Fri. and Sat. Nights

MALDEN Store
9 Dartmouth Street
Open Mon., Thurs. and Sat. Nights

GEORGIA LACKS IN COURTESY, SAYS CONSUL

Atlanta, June 26 (AP)—Charges that consuls in Georgia meet with impoliteness and mistreatment were before State Asst. Atty. Gen. Thomas B. Gress from Angel Perez, the Cuban consul.

Senor Perez said Georgia refused to obey a treaty of reciprocity on taxes and consuls were accorded none of the diplomatic courtesies extended elsewhere.

"Here in Georgia," he wrote Mr. Gress, "foreigners are always foreigners, the Cubans are foreigners, and I, official consul, am in the same classification.

"On account of this mistreatment and this impoliteness we, official consuls, find here, there are already closed forever the consulates of Greece, Great Britain and Germany. The Italian consulate will be closed also at the end of this month.

"According with the way they think here about official consuls, this position of mine does not mean a thing—I am compared exactly, or maybe less, to any grocery clerk.

"I ask and beg of this state and to everyone here, a little more courtesy and decency to Cubans—they belong to decent families; they are not vagabonds."

DRY LEADERS IN 'VICTORY' DRIVE

Washington, June 26 (AP)—More than a score of prohibition leaders gathered here today as members of a "board of strategy" to lay plans for co-ordinating action in the 1932 campaign.

Dr. Daniel A. Poling of New York, chairman of the allied forces for prohibition, believed this new support, from sources thus far not touched by organized dry forces, was necessary to "weigh the balance between defeat and victory in 1932."

In discussing details of the allied forces' plans for a campaign into 257 cities in as many days, Dr. Poling said he believed that "instead of disturbing the support now accorded the Anti-Saloon League and the W. C. T. U., we will bring them fresh strength."

The campaign would start in Columbus, September 8. The plan contemplates leaving in each of the 42 cities on the first swing an organized dry group prepared to expend itself in its own locality.

Chinese Chiefs in Parleys for Peace

Hongkong, June 26 (AP)—Indications the nationalist government is seeking to close without bloodshed the breach between it and southern insurgents were seen today in dispatches saying two government peace emissaries had entered southern territory. Gen. Wang Shih-Hung was reported en route to Wuchow, while another Nanking representative was said to have arrived at Canton for conversations with the southern leaders.

All set for
MONTREAL
AND THE WEST VIA THE AMBASSADOR
De Luxe Day Service

Modern equipment, all steel coaches, parlor cars, observation car with radio for your pleasure.

Dining car, service a la carte. Direct connections at Montreal for all points west—fares no higher via Montreal.

Lv. Boston (No. Sta.) 8:00 A.M. Daily. Arrives Montreal 6:25 P.M.

(Standard Time)

The New Englander
The Luxurious Night Train

All-steel train, coaches, new type compartment-drawing room and ten section library buffet lounge sleeping cars.

Lv. Boston (No. Sta.) 7:30 P.M. Daily. Arrives Montreal 6:10 A.M.

(Standard Time)

For Pullman reservations and R.R. tickets, 'phone or apply to

T. E. P. PRINGLE
General Agent
186 Tremont St., Boston
Tel. HUB hard 2580

CENTRAL VERMONT
CANADIAN NATIONAL RYS.

Step Ladders
With Pail Rest
$1

Usually $1.39
Four-foot size, made from clean, solid stock that will not splinter, each step rodded.
BASEMENT

Marquisette Curtains
2 Prs. for $1

Cream and ecru French marquisette with wide tailored edge.
FOURTH FLOOR

Metal Kitchen Stools
Usually $1.49
$1

Correct height for all kitchen tasks at table or sink. Comfortable back rest.
BASEMENT

Cretonne Pillows
3 for $1

Tapestry and chintz patterns. Square shapes. Edge piped in plain colors.
FOURTH FLOOR

Oven Thermometers
Approved by Good Housekeeping
$1

Sets inside any stove oven to give you accurate heat temperatures for baking or roasting.
BASEMENT

Marquisette Curtains
Usually $1.49
$1

Ecru French marquisette, tailored edge, rayon fringe on valance and ends.
FOURTH FLOOR

Bath Stool Cabinets
Usually $1.39
$1

Orchid, blue, ivory, white. Made of heavy sheet steel. With cabinet underneath.
BASEMENT

Cottage Curtains
2 Prs. for $1

Colored figured voile in blue, green and gold. Plain colored ruffles.
FOURTH FLOOR

Willow Baskets
Medium or Large Size
$1

Usually $1.49, $1.69
Exceptionally fine clothes baskets, made from smooth white willow, strongly woven, two strong handles.
BASEMENT

7-Piece Household Sets
$1

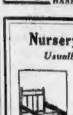
Usually $1.78
Five colored glass mixing bowls, 1 large size measuring cup and 1 lemon squeezer.
BASEMENT

½ Gallon Shellac
Orange or White
$1

Usually $1.59
4-pound cut, smooth flowing, can be applied quickly for refinishing floors and woodwork.
BASEMENT

Root Beer Bottles
Usually $1.39 doz.
$1 Doz.

Crystal glass in the pint size with wire fasteners and rubber stoppers. Sold in dozen lots only. No Mail or phone orders.
BASEMENT

Nursery Chairs
Usually $1.50
$1


Ideal for the little one. Finished in ivory. Complete with tray and chamber.
FOURTH FLOOR

Floor Covering
Usually 59c sq. yd.
3 Sq. Yds. $1

Heavy quality baked enamel surface that is dirt resisting. No mail or phone orders.
FOURTH FLOOR

Extension Gates
Usually $1.75
$1

Extends to 8 feet. Well seasoned wood. Varnished. Strongly riveted.
FOURTH FLOOR

Stair Carpet
Usually $1.69 yd.
$1 Yd.

Smart appearing colors with border designs in an all wool quality carpet 27 inches wide.
FOURTH FLOOR

Have You Ever Seen Such Value In A
3-Piece Walnut Bedroom Set
Veneer
Usually $100 $59 Easy Payments

A very modern and smartly designed set, 46-inch dresser, 45-inch vanity, full size bed and 26-inch chest. Made from walnut and maple veneers over hardwood, richly blended finish. Dresser, chest, bed $59. Four pieces, illustrated, $79.
HOUGHTON'S—FIFTH FLOOR

DOLLAR DAY Saturday

1931 DOLLAR
1920 DOLLAR

Your Dollar Buys More Right Now Than It Has In At Least 10 Years!

IT'S been a long, long time since your dollar has bought as much as it will buy right now. Everybody is agreed that prices are now scraping bottom, which means that the next turn will be upward. If you like bargains (and who doesn't?) we suggest that you buy every thing you need now when prices are the lowest in at least 10 years. Incidentally, any purchase you make now will help drive away depression by increasing factory production and employment. Just look at the extraordinary values on this page. Then plan a shopping trip to Houghton's tomorrow.

Mail and Phone Orders Filled Unless Otherwise Specified — CAPitol 6300—No C. O. D. Orders

Legal Stamps Given and Redeemed
HOUGHTON & DUTTON COMPANY

HOUGHTON'S

25c Irish Linen Crash Toweling, 6 yds. $1
16 inches wide, colored border.
STREET FLOOR

Pepperell Blankets
Last Year's Price $1.39 and $1.89
$1

Wool and cotton, other famous brand as well as Pepperell, plaids, pastels and two-tone.
STREET FLOOR

Two-Tone Blankets
Last Year's Price $1.89 Ea.
$1 ea.

Wool and cotton. Blue and gold, rose and blue, rose and green, finished with sateen binding.
STREET FLOOR

Krinkled Spreads
Last Year's Price $1.98
$1

Seamless, scalloned all around, size 80x105. Rose, blue, green, hello, gold.
STREET FLOOR

$1.50 Umbrellas
Men's and Women's
$1

7 and 10-rib frames. Guaranteed waterproof, nine colors. No phone or C. O. D. orders.
STREET FLOOR

Room Lots of Wall Paper
Paper, Brushes, Border
$1

10 rolls of paper, 18 yards of border, smoothing brush, paste brush.
FOURTH FLOOR

Hemstitched "Housekeeper" or "Beacon Special"—"Kittery"—LINEN and Cotton
Bleached Sheets
Last Year $1.49, $1.75 Each
$1
Plain white or hemstitched sheets with colored borders, torn sizes 81x99, some 63x99. Kittery sheets are slightly irregular. Each $1.
HOUGHTON'S—STREET FLOOR

20c Pillow Cases, 8 for $1
Other qualities, 3 for $1 and 3 for $1.
STREET FLOOR—REAR

Dollar Sale Turkish Towels, 8 for $1
All double thread, white with colored borders. Size 15x30, Size 18x36, 6 for $1. Size 20x40, 5 for $1. Size 22x44, 4 for $1. STREET FLOOR—REAR

"Pepperell" 29c Unbleached Sheeting, 8 Yds. $1
40 inches wide, extra heavy weight, most suitable to every home need. STREET FLOOR

"Palmer" $1.75 Comfortables, each $1
Cotton silkolin covered, fancy floral patterns, sanitary cotton filling. STREET FLOOR

1 Sheet and 1 Pillow Case, For $1
Seamless sheet size 81x99 and 1 Pillow case, size 42x36. Last year's price $1.45. STREET FLOOR

39c and 45c Silk Pongee, 4 Yds. $1
Natural ecru, perfect quality, government stamped. STREET FLOOR—REAR

69c Rayon Satin, 3 Yds. $1
White and a large selection of the wanted colors. Rich satiny surface. STREET FLOOR—REAR

$1 to $1.50 Silks, Rayons, 2½ Yds. $1
Printed patterns in floral effects, the polka dots and in plain, desirable colors. STREET FLOOR—REAR

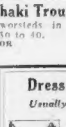
39c Printed Cotton Sateen, 5 yds. $1
Excellent for furniture slip covers, draperies, beach coats, pajamas and smocks. STREET FLOOR—REAR.

29c and 39c Wash Fabrics, 6 Yds. $1
Fine count percales in attractive small patterns—plain dimity, lingerie sateen and guisel piques. STREET FLOOR—REAR

Men's White Duck or Khaki Trousers $1
Heavy khaki, hard finished worsteds in novelty weaves, or white ducks. Sizes 30 to 40. STREET FLOOR

Moth Proof Bags
Usually 39c each
5 for $1

Cedarized Safeway moth-proof bags, side opening—hold 4 to 6 garments. Approved by Good Housekeeping Institute.
DRUGS—SECOND FLOOR

Dress Shields
Usually 25c pair
6 for $1


"Beacon Hill" quality, double covered. Regular or crescent shape. Flesh or white.
STREET FLOOR

Boys' Knickers
Fine Quality LINEN
$1

Gray, tan or white, bar tacked pockets, sizes 8 to 16.

Boys' $1 "Tee Wee" Suits, 2 for $1
Pastel colors, with small golf club, ball and 4 tees. Sizes 3 to 8.

Boys' 79c Summer Blouses, 2 for $1
White, Blue, tan and novelty patterns, sizes 8 to 15.
STREET FLOOR

Boys' Bathing Suits
1-Piece—All Wool
$1

Fine quality, well fitting suits, navy blue and maroon. Sizes 30 to 36.
STREET FLOOR

Ironing Pads
With 8 covers
$1

Usually $1.78
Pads are made of mohair and have five extra covers of good quality cotton.
STREET FLOOR

Shoe and Garment Bags
Usually $1.49
$1

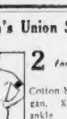
Extra heavy quality cretonne, 8-pocket shoe bag, garment bag holds 8 garments.
STREET FLOOR

Sanitary Napkins
Usually 35c per box
Boxes of 12
6 Boxes For $1

"Beacon Hill" brand. Soft, absorbent fillers, rounded corners. Regular size.
STREET FLOOR

2000 Men's Union Suits
2 for $1
Fine Cotton Broadcloth

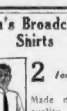
The ever popular athletic style in a fine quality of cotton broadcloth. Sizes 36 to 46.
HOUGHTON'S—STREET FLOOR

Men's Union Suits
2 for $1


Cotton balbriggan. Knee or ankle length. Short sleeves or sleeveless. Sizes 36 to 42.
STREET FLOOR

Men's Union Suits
Usually 50c ea.
3 for $1

Extra fine quality pin check nainsook in the popular athletic style. Sizes 36 to 44.
STREET FLOOR

Men's Broadcloth Shirts
2 for $1


Made of fine quality cotton broadcloth. Plain white. Sizes 14½ to 16.
STREET FLOOR

Men's Pajamas of Cotton Broadcloth
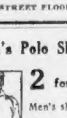
$1
Usually $1.38

2-piece, coat style, trimmed with frog closings. Plain color or fancy stripes. Sizes A, B, C, D.
STREET FLOOR

Men's Polo Shirts
2 for $1


Men's shirts of rayon. Half sleeves. Blue. Sizes 14 to 16.
STREET FLOOR

Chiffon Stockings
Usually $1.50
$1

"Beacon Hill" quality—Grenadine — full-fashioned with French heel and picot tops. Sizes 8½ to 10½. Wanted colors.
STREET FLOOR

Little Tots' Dresses
2 for $1

Cotton prints, hat to match. Sizes 3 to 6.

Infants' Sacques, 2 for $1
All wool, white with pink, or white with blue.

Little Tots' Bathing Suits 2 for $1
All wool, blue, red or green, some striped and some with applique. Sizes 2 to 6.

Carriage Sets, $1
Good quality rayon robe with pillow slip to match, white, pink or blue.

Tots' Silk Dresses, $1
Pastel shades, some ruffled. Sizes 3 to 6.
THIRD FLOOR

Two-Garter, Long Line
Brassieres
Usually 69c ea.
2 for $1

Rayon striped fabric. Also uplift bandeaux in sweat and other summary materials.
THIRD FLOOR

Girls' Pajamas
Usually $1 Each
2 for $1

2-piece style of guaranteed fast color cotton broadcloth. Figured patterns. Sizes 7 to 14.
THIRD FLOOR

Girls' Rayon Undies
Usually 79c each
2 Pcs. for $1

Bloomers, combinations and slips. Pink or white. Run-resisting. Sizes 7 to 14.
THIRD FLOOR

Girls' Dresses
Usually 79c to $1 Each
2 for $1

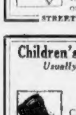
Washable frocks of cotton and voile in pastel and deeper shades. Sleeveless. Sizes 7 to 14.
THIRD FLOOR

Women's Bridge Slippers
Usually 89c pair
2 Prs. $1

Red, blue and black. Padded soles. Cuban heels. Sizes 4 to 7. No mail orders.
STREET FLOOR

Summer Hats
For Matrons and Misses
Usually $1.98
$1

Straws! Felts! Crepes! In every type of Summer Hats.
SECOND FLOOR

Children's Oxfords
Usually $1.94
$1


Children's and misses' tan blucher cut oxfords. Leather soles, rubber heels. Sizes 8½ to 2.
STREET FLOOR

Extra Size Rayon Underwear
2 pcs. for $1

Very fine quality rayon and cotton. Pink or peach.
STREET FLOOR

Shower Spray and Brush
Usually $2
$1

Genuine bristle brush, enameled handle, aluminum shower, 5-ft. tubing.
DRUGS—SECOND FLOOR

Thermal Jugs
Usually $1.50
$1

1 gal. capacity. Keeps food hot or cold several hours. Heavy metal case, insulated with cork — aluminum cap.
SECOND FLOOR

WIDE HUNT FOR GIRL ABDUCTED BY 2 YOUTHS

The whereabouts of "Babe Smith," 18, carried off by two youths in a sedan from which a South Boston girl leaped in Melrose, was sought today by police in the belief that she is held prisoner.

With Marion Rollo, 18, of Third st., South Boston, she accepted a ride last night after meeting the youths in a Revere roller skating rink.

The Rollo girl leaped from the machine to escape the advances of one of the youths and was treated at Melrose Hospital for bruises, shock and hysteria.

At first she refused to divulge the name of her girl companion, but later said she knew her only as "Babe Smith" and did not know her address.

Miss Rollo said she never had seen the youths before they asked her and her companion if they would like to go for a ride.

They agreed, according to her story, and the four drove toward Somerville where they stopped in a diner and had some sandwiches and coffee.

The girls then decided it was time for them to start for home. When they got in the auto the youths headed toward Melrose and in a lonely section of Swain's Pond ave., the young man in the rear seat with Miss Rollo began to make advances to her, she claims.

She resisted and struggled with him, during which her clothing was torn and she was badly beaten about the face and head. Her left eye was discolored and cut and her lip and nose were also lacerated.

She finally succeeded in opening the door of the auto, she said and leaped out, while the car sped down the road.

She described the two young men as about 20 to 25 years of age, well dressed in light suits and sailor straw hats and of the "sheik" type.

Soaris Hopes for Clemency From Ely

Joaquim P. Soaris of Lowell, sentenced to die in the electric chair during the week of July 5 for killing Matilda Silva and Angelina Rodeigues on March 2 last year, started his first day in the death house in state prison today by eating a breakfast of fruit salad, eggs, toast and coffee.

Rev. Ralph W. Farrell, Catholic chaplain of the prison, spent an hour with Soaris. Soaris is buoyed up by the hope that Governor Ely will grant him clemency Monday.

Society Woman Robbed of Jewels

Chicago, June 26 (UP)—Mrs. Daniel R. Scully and her daughter, Mrs. Josephine Nesbit, both well-known socially, were robbed of jewelry valued at $5000 last night by three men who apparently had followed them home from a theater.

By Edgar A. Guest

Just Folks

Golfer's Prayer

I do not ask for more than this:
That easy shots I may not miss.
Let champions take the sterner way,
I would be friendly as I play,
And only hope that I may be
Fit for good golfers' company;
Dependable in moments tense,
Taking the bad shot's consequence
Without excuses trite and lame,
Playing a fairly decent game.

Lord, as along the course I strive
I would not every man outdrive.
I ask but this: that shots of mine,
Though long or short, shall hold the line;
That Brown and Green and Jones and Smith
Shall know I must be reckoned with
As one who still will battle on
Until the chance to win is gone.
No better and no worse I'd be
Than those I choose for company.

And so with life, through good or ill,
My place with courage I would fill.
I'd play the friend till all is o'er,
Nor think too much about the score.
I would not sulk when hope seems faint,
I'd brave the worst without complaint.
When others look for help from me,
Dependable I'd like to be,
And have it said unto my fame
I played a fairly decent game.

(Copyright, 1931, Edgar A. Guest)

HEAT WAVE TOLL IS 18 LIVES

By the Associated Press

Keeping cool was the paramount problem of the nation today.

From the Alleghenies to the Pacific Coast, America sweltered. Temperatures climbed high above the century mark in a dozen states.

Eighteen lives were snuffed out yesterday and today by summer's blast. Stampedes to beaches brought a near-score of drownings.

Only in the East and parts of the Northwest was it moderately cool. Illinois suffered most, six persons succumbing. In Chicago, the thermometer reached 95. Ohio had three lives lost in the scelte. So did Wisconsin. Indiana had two, Iowa one.

Radio Stolen

Thieves entered the home of Mrs. Mary McDonough of 1124 Dorchester ave., Dorchester, and stole her radio, valued at $110. The loss was discovered when she returned from a three-day absence.

HEARST PRAISED BY CONNERY

William Randolph Hearst was praised last night as a man "with the courage of his conviction," by Congressman William P. Connery of Lynn in a comment on the recent editorial in Hearst newspapers on the moratorium proposed by President Hoover.

The editorial stated if the President had not brought forward the moratorium the United States would find itself involved in war.

"It is one of the best things I've seen on the proposed moratorium and shows Mr. Hearst to be a man with the courage of his conviction," Congressman Connery said in a speech at a testimonial banquet.

"It shows that the great American publisher is strictly anti-capitalistic and is not afraid to say so."

28 Get Diplomas

Provincetown, June 26—Graduation exercises of the Provincetown high school were held in the town hall with Dr. Percival Eaton, formerly of Boston, presenting diplomas to 28.

CUDDY QUITS AT SWAMPSCOTT HIGH SCHOOL

Swampscott High school was surprised today when it became known that Charles F. Cuddy, head football coach, had resigned a few days ago.

No reason for the action could be learned from Cuddy, members of the school committee, or Supt. of Schools Frank L. Mansur.

Members of the committee at first denied having accepted the popular coach's resignation, but Harold Linscott later admitted the resignation had been received and accepted.

Supt. Mansur said the resignation had not been requested by him or the school committee. He said he believed Cuddy quit for personal reasons.

Cuddy refused to comment.

Cuddy has had a long and successful career in athletics, coaching Somerville and Malden high teams for five years each and Swampscott since 1912.

Spanish Towns Hard Hit by Big Storm

Madrid, June 26 (AP)—Storms damaged crops, flooded roads and broke down the walls of houses in the Balbos district today. Street car tracks were torn up and service was suspended.

The base of a windmill was undermined and it toppled over, killing two men. In Saragossa crops were ruined and in Mozota vineyards destroyed.

Roofer Breaks Both Hips in 20-Foot Fall

Robert H. Lincoln, 29, of Belmont st., Watertown, a roofer, slipped from a roof on which he was working in Hudson st., South End, today, breaking both hips in a fall of 20 feet to the ground.

He was taken to City Hospital, where he will be examined for internal injuries.

Chicago Cubs to Be Field Day Guests

St. Augustine's Church in South Boston tomorrow will hold its tenth annual field day and carnival on the grounds of the Silhurcliffe school, with most of the personnel of the Chicago Cubs baseball team as guests of honor.

The proceeds will go to the playground and summer camp for boys maintained at Manomet.

Drink MOXIE Distinctively Different

When on the Hike!

THE matter of a proper beverage for Boy and Girl Scouts, in camp or on a hike, is a very important one. Change of water frequently causes serious ailments.

Moxie is the safe drink everywhere! It is always of the same purity and high quality whenever sold. Its tonic qualities quickly restore lost energy, refreshing and invigorating beneficially. Instruct your boy or girl to ask for Moxie. O.K.'d by millions!

The Moxie Company
Frank M. Archer, General Manager

Maurice Hats
Next to A. Stowell's 16-18 Winter St. See Our Window Display

FRIDAY & SATURDAY

New Cartwheel Hats
Rough Straw Body
$2.98
Large and Small Brims

Cartwheel Flops $2.98

Colors: White—Sand Yellow—Pink Black—Copen

A sensational value because these are fine quality hats made of lightweight cool straw Cartwheel flops, and are so fashionable now.

Advertise Your Wants in the Boston Evening American.

IT'S ALL QUALITY
Because
IT'S ALL BARLEY

RICHEST · STRONGEST · BEST PURITAN MALT

Good—they've got to be good!

EVERY DAY
150,399 NEWSPAPER WORKERS
[IN THE U. S. A.]
gather and print the news of the world!

Rain or shine, day or night, war or peace—it's all the same to the newspaper man. The paper must come out! The story must be "in" on time. Find a faster worker anywhere! Or a smarter one! Regular fellows, these citizens!

DIG OUT THE FACTS!

The facts about CHESTERFIELD stand proved again and again.

A MILDER cigarette: smoke as many as you like.

A BETTER-TASTING cigarette: you know that the minute you light up.

Made of RIPER, MILDER tobaccos and PURE cigarette paper.

Every CHESTERFIELD is well-filled and BURNS EVENLY.

Add the FACT that more men and women every day are changing to CHESTERFIELD.

Chesterfield

THEY'RE MILDER . . . and THEY TASTE BETTER

© 1931, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

COUNCIL FINDS N. E. BUSINESS TREND UPWARD

Crawford Notch, N. H., June 26—An upward trend in New England business was reported today at the 23rd quarterly meeting of the New England council.

With the report, came a warning that, in spite of the pickup in business, a system of employment stabilization must be prepared by business leaders to guard against possible depressions in the future.

"New England is in the fortunate position of continuing to be slightly ahead of other sections in its progress toward business recovery," business men from the six states were told by Harry C. Knight of New Haven, president of the council.

"Current statistical evidence available to officers of the council has not changed their conviction that the low point was passed some months ago.

HOOVER PLAN HELPS

"Even those who heretofore failed to share this conviction must have been impressed by the immediate and vigorous reactions, worldwide in extent, to President Hoover's offer of a one-year moratorium on inter-governmental debts."

John F. Tinsley of Worcester, chairman of the committee on unemployment relief, made eight recommendations, five for relief and three toward stabilization.

They were:

1—Require work of all able-bodied men receiving relief unless demands exceed all possible opportunities.

2—Pay for public work out of public funds.

LONG TIME PROBLEM

3—Adopt those public works having the highest ratio of jobs to total expenditures.

4—Organize campaigns to get householders to have work done.

5—Recognize the needs of so-called "white collar" workers.

"As to the long-term problem," Tinsley said, "it is essential:

1—That every industrial community know at all times the degree and trend of local employment.

2—That cities and towns plan public works over an extended period of time.

3—That there be in every industrial community some permanent organization to plan for an intelligent long-time program of keeping the number of workers and the number of jobs as closely balanced as possible.

POLITICS

Notes and Gossip About People You Know

COLLEGE GRAD NOW

George Parks, a clerk in the municipal employment bureau, is receiving congratulations on his recent graduation from Boston University with a degree of bachelor of business.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB CHIEFS

William Martin has been elected chairman and Charles O'Neil secretary of the recently organized Democratic Club of Ward 17. The organization is seeking permanent headquarters and hopes to make itself felt in forthcoming elections.

"BEAU BRUMMEL" LANE

Jack Lane, the beau brummel playground instructor of the city forces, is a fine example of the results of what he teaches the youth of Boston. He week-ends at Manomet, where many persons have admired his fine physique.

LEVIAS STILL ACTIVE

Ben Levias, vice-president of the Boston Swimming Association, who has brought forward more good girl athletes in New England in recent years than any person in this area, is again helping city officials in connection with their swimming carnivals.

ACTION FOR MAYOR AHEAD

Principal Assessor Henry L. Daily has dusted off his golf clubs for the first time in four years, and is about to take another fling at the game. Henry admits that he needs lots of practice. When he gets his stroke down pat he may challenge the mayor to an 18-hole match.

A collection of addresses by President Gaspar G. Bacon of the Senate has been privately printed and is being distributed among the president's friends and acquaintances. The collection is attractively bound in linen cloth.

GEN. FOOTE TO SAIL

Gen. Alfred F. Foote, commissioner of public safety, together with Mrs. Foote and their two daughters will sail next week for France. They will be gone about six weeks. Gen. Foote intends to revisit the battle fields of the 26th Division.

ROAD STANDS APPROVED

Under a new system adopted by the State Department of Agriculture, legitimate road side stands, namely those selling their own products and kept in a neat and orderly way, are being officially recognized. These selected stands are being furnished with signs bearing the department's O. K. Commissioner Arthur W. Gilbert expects that there will be 100 stands so recognized.

Get a good piece of real estate, buy it wisely, pay for it, keep it, and later it will keep you. See the sound values listed today in the real estate columns of the Classified Ads.

Cleveland Youth Wins Paris Award

New York, June 26 (AP)—The Society of Beaux Arts Architects announced today that Carl F. Guenther, 22, of Cleveland, had won its Paris scholarship, $3600 for study at the Ecole Des Beaux Arts. There were 653 contestants. Guenther is a graduate of Western Reserve University.

Second prize went to Herschel Elearth of Omaha, Neb., a student at the University of Illinois. Pierre A. Resy of Columbia University received the third award.

Two Go to Death in Improvised Chair

Ossining, N. Y., June 26 (AP)—Hayward Turner, 28, and Frederick Innes, 38, negro slayers, were executed at Sing Sing last night in an improvised chair wired to a special dynamo.

Prison keepers who tested the electric apparatus yesterday found the dynamo out of order. An hour later prison keepers discovered that the chair, too, was out of order. Another chair, wired to a spare dynamo was then rigged up.

HATS Modeled to the Head

Quality Summer Felts, cut and draped to your head while you wait.

$1.59 COMPLETE

All colors to match any costume—

PERLYS

453 Washington St.—Room 303 Dexter Building

There's only one Budweiser and nothing like it delicious with SALADS!

THINSIES

the NEW cracker sensation

Clever hostesses are delighting their guests with this newest and most delightful hammered wheat cracker.

23c in boxes of 150

A&P FOOD STORES
The Great ATLANTIC & PACIFIC Tea Co.

Stay out of the kitchen

These fine, large mornings. Spend them in your garden . . . out-of-doors . . . and make lunch-getting a matter of a moment by serving Heinz Cooked Spaghetti.

Cooked, ready to serve, this delicious spaghetti, seasoned with rich tomato sauce and made delightfully tantalizing by a special, tangy cheese, is a perfect luncheon dish. Good to the last morsel, it is good for you—wholesome and nourishing for the youngsters, too.

Try it today. Your grocer has Heinz Cooked Spaghetti—at a very reasonable price.

ONE OF THE 57

HEINZ COOKED Spaghetti

IN TOMATO SAUCE WITH CHEESE

A&P

One sure place for quality meats!

"Absolute satisfaction or your money back" has that a your assurance of quality. More than a matter of words—it is backed by the most unusual and liberal guarantee ever applied to meats regardless of cost. You not only get better meats but you are assured of absolute satisfaction.

A & P Markets are one sure place for quality meats.

RIB ROAST selected from fancy corned steers POUND 22c

FACE RUMP excellent roast—no waste—best quality POUND 32c

CORNED BEEF thick rib—lean—our own corning POUND 21c

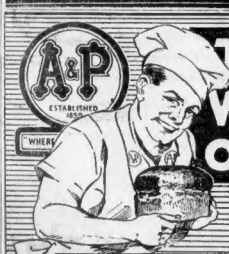
Sirloin Roast	boneless—no waste	LB.	45c
Undercut Roast	heart of the chuck	LB.	27c
Top Round Steak	best	POUND	39c
Rump Steak	tender cuts	POUND	55c
Tender Cube Steak		POUND	29c
VEAL LEGS	whole or half	pound	27c
VEAL CUTLETS	center cut	pound	39c
SLICED BOILED HAM		pound	39c
SKINLESS FRANKFORTS	GOBEL'S	pound	25c
POTATO SALAD		pound	15c
SMOKED SHOULDER		pound	20c

Sunnyfield, shankless, cellophane wrapped

Hams:	SUNNYFIELD	pound	21c
	ARMOUR'S STAR	pound	23c
	SWIFT'S PREMIUM	pound	24c
Fresh Mackerel		POUND	8c
Steak Cod	freshly sliced	POUND	12c
Haddock	fresh caught	POUND	7c

prices effective in BOSTON & VICINITY

A & P MEAT MARKETS
The Great ATLANTIC & PACIFIC Tea Co.



THIS WEEK ONLY

WHOLE WHEAT BREAD 20 OZ. 5c LOAF

A&P FOOD STORES
The Great ATLANTIC & PACIFIC Tea Co.

A&P

What more need be said?

NEW LOW PRICES

You know these products, you know their quality, and you know what they usually cost. Compare these A&P prices with what you ordinarily pay. Then you'll understand one reason why 5,000,000 American housewives trade only at A&P stores.

BUTTER 2 Pounds of Silverbrook prints or tub 53c

Bacon Silverbrook Sliced—Lb. 25c

and Eggs Selected No. 1 DOZ. 19c

Melons	HONEY DEW	EACH	19c
New Cabbage	2	Pounds	5c
Tomatoes	2	Pounds	15c
Red Plums	2	Dozen	15c
Bananas	4	Pounds	19c

Buffet Sliced or Halves Peaches	6	CANS	45c
Gold Medal Cake Flour		PACKAGE	31c
Underwood Sardines	2	TINS	15c
Rajah Mustard		9-OUNCE BOTTLE	9c
Quaker Maid Beans Plain or Tomato Sauce	2	LARGE CANS	25c
Encore Spaghetti in glass	2	JARS	25c
Hires Root Beer Extract		BOTTLE	22c
Heinz Tomato Soup	3	CANS	25c
Linit Starch		PACKAGE	9c
Royal Lunch Crackers NBC		PACKAGE	18c
Lorna Doone NBC		POUND	25c
Wheaties	2	PACKAGES	25c
5c Specials	WRIGLEY'S GUM, LIFE SAVERS OR BEECHNUT FRUIT DROPS—EACH..		3c

A MEAL IN THEMSELVES—JUST HEAT AND SERVE
Campbell's Beans 4 cans 23c

GOLDEN FRUIT WITH ALL ITS FLAVOR
Del Monte Peaches No. 2½ can 16c

AS INDISPENSABLE TO A TASTY MEAL AS SALT
Blue Label Ketchup bot. 19c

EXPERTS ADVISE—IT INSURES AN EVEN TEXTURE
Royal Baking Powder 12 oz. can 43c

ALL THE GOODNESS OF PURE FRUIT
Ann Page Preserves 16 oz. jar 19c

FOR SAFE WASHING OF FINE THINGS
Ivory Flakes package 21c

LASTING SUDS—CUTS DISHWASHING TIME IN HALF
Super Suds 3 packages 23c

HOP FLAVORED—BARLEY MALT SYRUP
Budweiser Malt can 49c

Bokar Coffee lb. 29c
Red Circle Coffee lb. 25c
8 O'Clock Coffee lb. 19c

ICED Mayfair Tea ¼ lb. 25c

IMPORTANT: during the month of May 63 reductions in prices became effective . . . each item shows a substantial saving passed on to A&P customers . . . here are a few of them . . .

		NOW!	YOU SAVE
A&P Stuffed Olives	4 oz.	19c	4c
Moss Rose Marmalade	jar	23c	2c
Encore Mayonnaise	8½ oz. jar	15c	2c
	16 ounce size jar	29c	4c
	32 ounce size jar	49c	10c
	half gallon jug	89c	10c
Rajah Salad Dressing	8½ oz. jar	12c	3c
	16 oz. size jar	23c	6c
Rajah Sandwich Spread	9 oz. jar	15c	4c
A&P Salmon	No. 1 size can	39c	6c
Mushrooms	4 ounce can	25c	4c
Del Maiz Niblets	can	15c	2c
Sultana Wax Beans	can	14c	3c
Reliable String Beans	can	14c	3c
Iona Sauerkraut	3 No. 2½ cans	25c	11c
Comet Rice Flakes	package	10c	3c
A&P Grape Juice	pt. bottle	15c	4c
	quart bottle	29c	6c
Lobster	Number ½ size can	29c	6c

Prices effective in Boston and vicinity

A&P Food Stores of New England
The Great ATLANTIC & PACIFIC Tea Co.

GRAND HOTEL THE SENSATION OF EUROPE AND AMERICA By VICKI BAUM

Another Character Appears, Whom Fate Has Chosen to Bring a Rich Man Low

SYNOPSIS

In the atmosphere peculiar to all great hotels, three guests and several hotel employes are brought briefly to view. These guests include a morose and hideously scarred ex-army surgeon, Herr Doktor Otternschlag, Grusinskaya, once famous but now aging ballet dancer, and Baron Gaigern, ex-soldier, handsome, athletic and mysterious. The hall porter distrusts the Baron. The house detective admits that this likable young man will bear watching.

"BUT I know that Gaigern is all right," Rohna insisted.

"Because he is a baron?" asked the house detective.

Senf, the porter, smiled for the first time since he received the news that his wife had been rushed to the maternity hospital. He wished he were privileged, like Pilzneim, the house detective, to talk back to Rohna, the reception clerk.

Rohna's pale skin flushed to the roots of his reddish hair, for Rohna was, himself, a count. He did not see fit to reply to this.

Dr. Otternschlag had sat almost erect as long as the Baron was to be seen in the lounge. Now he was hunched together again, more forlorn than before. He raised his elbow to empty half a glass of cognac without even a glance at it as he did so. His thin tobacco-stained hands hung down between his parted knees as though they were encased in lead.

He looked between his long patent-leather shoes at the carpet that everywhere covered the stairs, passages, and corridors of the Grand Hotel; he was sick of its straggling pattern of yellow pineapples mingled with brown foliage on a raspberry-red ground.

Everything was so dead. The lounge was dead. Everyone had gone out to his business or pleasure or vices, and had left him to sit there alone. The woman attendant in the cloakroom suddenly came into view across the deserted lounge. She stood behind the empty racks in the entrance hall and combed back the thin hair on her old head with a black comb.

TALKS TO HIMSELF

Dr. Otternschlag looked for his cognac and found it gone. "Shall we go up and lie down for a bit?" he asked himself. A light flush came into his cheeks and disappeared again as though he had displayed a little secret of his own. "Yes," he replied to his own question, but he did not get up. Even for this he was too listless. He merely raised one yellow-stained finger. Rohna from the far side of the lounge observed it and with a scarcely visible nod wafted a page boy to the doctor.

"Cigarettes, newspapers," Otternschlag said dully.

The page boy darted across to the cataleptic lady at the bookstall (Rohna looked with disfavor at this lively exhibition of youthful exuberance), and then Otternschlag took the papers and cigarettes that the page boy had selected for him. When he paid he put the money on the plate, nor into the boy's hand. He always set a distance between himself and others, though he was not aware of it.

The half of his mouth that was still intact smiled after a fashion as he unfolded the papers and began to read. He expected something of them that never came, just as no letter, telegram, or call ever came; he was dismally alone, empty, cut off from life. Sometimes when he was alone he confided this fact to himself aloud. It's a ghastly business, he often muttered, gazing on the stretches of raspberry-red carpet and shuddering at himself. It's ghastly. This is no life. No life at all. But where is there any life? Nothing happens. Nothing goes on. Boring. Old. Dead. Ghastly. Every object around him was a sham. Whatever he took up turned to dust. The world was a crumbling affair not to be grasped or held. You fell from vacancy to vacancy. Dr. Otternschlag lived in the most utter loneliness—although the earth is full of people like him. . . .

So there he stood in the lounge of the Grand Hotel—Otto Kringelein, bookkeeper, born in Fredersdorf and residing in Fredersdorf. He stood there in his old overcoat, and the glasses of his pince-nez devoured it all.

He found nothing in the papers to satisfy him. A typhoon, an earthquake, some petty war between blacks and whites. Arson, murder, political strife. Nothing. Too little scandals, panic on the Bourse, colossal fortunes lost. What did it matter to him? How could it affect him? Ocean flights, speed records, sensational headlines.

Each page screamed louder than the last till finally you heard none of them. The noise and bustle nowadays made you blind and deaf and deadened all sensation. Pictures of nude women, of legs, breasts, hands, teeth surged up before him.

BAD WOMEN

Dr. Otternschlag had known women in his earlier days. He still remembered it; but without emotion; the memory occasioned only a faint creeping chill in his spine. He let the papers fall in disorder from his tobacco-stained fingers on to the pineapple carpet — so boring and utterly meaningless were they. No, nothing happens, nothing at all, he muttered. He had once possessed a little Persian cat, called Gurba. Ever since she forsook him for a common street tom he had been obliged to carry

Just as he was steering a roundabout course for the porter's desk to get the key of his room, the revolving door discharged an extraordinary individual into the entrance hall.

"Heaven help us, here he comes again!" the hall porter said to little Georgi, and turned his best N. C. O.'s gaze upon the new arrival. He was certainly no the sort of person you would expect to see in the hall of the Grand Hotel. He wore a cheap new bowler hat that was too large for him and only prevented by his protecting ears from coming down further down over his face. His face was yellowish, and he had a thin and timid mien which was retrieved by an aggressive mustache. He was clothed in a light, ready-wears, and sadly unfashionable overcoat of a gray-green shade, blacked boots that looked too large for his small stature and showed too much of their tops below his short black trousers. He wore gray cotton gloves and grasped a suitcase.

Besides this he had a bulky brown-paper parcel clapped under one arm. His whole appearance was comic and pitiful, and he was clearly in the last stage of exhaustion. Page boy No. 24 certainly made an attempt to relieve him of his imitation-leather suitcase, but the man would not give it up and his embarrassment seemed to be increased by this officious attention. He did not put his case down till he had reached Herr Senf's box, and then after pausing to get his breath he made a sort of bow and said in a high-pitched, rather pleasant voice: "My name is Kringelein. I've been here twice already. I want to inquire again."

"Will you please inquire over there? But I don't think there is a room free," said the porter, and pointed towards Rohna. "The gentleman has been waiting two

Continued on Page 11, Column 1

UNITED MARKETS

OPEN SATURDAY NIGHTS TILL 10 P. M.

Lamb Legs	Genuine Spring	lb.	25c
Lamb Fores	Genuine Spring	lb.	10c
Veal Legs	Milk Fed Whole or Half	lb.	23c
Face of Rump	Fancy Steer Best Cuts	lb.	29c
Undercut Roast	No Waste Best Cuts	lb.	23c
Sirloin Roast	Boneless Tender and Juicy	lb.	39c
Fowl	Best Fresh Killed 3½ to 6 lb. avg.	lb.	31c
Thick Rib	Corned Beef	lb.	15c
Cube Steak		lb.	25c
Hams	Our Own Smoke Quality Brand	lb.	22c

UPHAMS CORNER MARKET DORCHESTER COL 0600

MANHATTAN MARKET CAMBRIDGE UNI 2900

QUINCY MARKET QUINCY GRA 0600

GRAY UNITED STORES INC.

Quality Service—Parking—Free Delivery

IN THE MOUNTAINS

and Wherever You Go— You Find Blue Ribbon Malt

The highest quality, all-barley malt, packed full three pounds to the can made Blue Ribbon not only the standard of quality but the standard of value as well. No wonder, wherever you go you find Blue Ribbon Malt. No wonder it is America's Biggest Seller and is winning new friends every day.

Write for Lena's Free Recipe Book for delicious foods and candies. Address: Premier Malt Sales Co., 720 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.

RADIO

Blue Ribbon Malt

America's Biggest Seller

THE MOST NUTRITIOUS 3 THE BEST

TUNE IN BEN BERNIE'S Blue Ribbon Malt Orchestra Tuesday Night—C. B. S. Chain—WNAC—10:00 Eastern Daylight Saving Time

PEEL A BITE OF HEALTH!

BANANAS

BELONG IN YOUR PANTRY

BANANAS are a cheerful little eyeful anywhere. But they've earned a place in the pantry, right along with the staple foods. As a matter of fact, you can use them as a fine, fresh vegetable any day in the year—fried to a rich brown in a little butter, or baked in the skin just as you bake a potato.

Bananas have no business in the ice box. Keep them at ordinary room temperature. Cold prevents ripening, and retards the development of their fine, natural flavor.

Give plenty of ripe bananas to the children. Ripe bananas are a health food that doctors recommend for youngsters and grown-ups.

Today you want all you can get for your money. Bananas give more nourishment for the price than most foods. Remember bananas when you order your groceries. Buy bananas today!

UNITED FRUIT COMPANY BANANAS
Distributed by Fruit Dispatch Co.

Recipe Folder

This folder shows how economically main dishes, salads, and desserts can be made from bananas. If your dealer can't supply you with one, write direct to Fruit Dispatch Co., 17 Battery Place, New York.

Grand Hotel

Continued From Page 10

da's for a room here," he said in explanation over the open partition. Rohna, who had taken the chair situated without a glance, made a gesture and then, lifting portions of foolscap through the pages of his register, said then with unfortunately no art full for the occasion, "Fetzengo, sor."

"Still full," I see. Well, where, and to what a room, then?"

"You might look around near the Friedrichstrasse Station. There are a number of hotels there."

"No, no, thanks." He took a pocket handkerchief and wiped the grey fuzz from his brow. "I want to one of those old-fashioned. That's not what I want. I want a really first-class hotel." He took a damp umbrella from under his arm and at this the bulky parcel slipped down from the crook of his right and displayed a box of and crumbling pieces of bread and butter.

Count Rohna suppressed a snarl. Gerigel turned white and stared at the box hanging on his heart. Page boy No. 11 gathered up the packed fragments with unexpected composure, and was thanking fingers the man stuffing them into his pocket. He looked at a bit, put in gown in front of Rohna on the office counter. His forehead was high and wrinkled and his temples pinched and blue.

"I want a room here. These must be rooms free here some time. Will you please reserve the first one that's vacant. This is the third time I have came, and to still agree that that is not easy pleasant. You can't always be full up."

Rohna shrugged his shoulders with an air of regret. For a moment there was silence. The music could be heard in the red dining room and the jazz band upon performing in the yellow pavilion.

"Do you know Herr General-direktor Pressing? He always stays here when he comes to Berlin."—Well, I want to stop here, too. I have something important—an important conference with—with Pressing."

HAS A ROOM

"Pressing"—— Generaldirektor Pressing" asked Rohna, looking across to Gerigel's desk.

"From Frederisdorf. Of the Saxonia Cotton Company. I'm from Frederisdorf too," the man put in.

"Why, yes," said the porter, consulting his memory, "there is Herr Pressing who's been here once or twice."

"I believe he has a room booked for tomorrow or the day after," Gerigel whispered officiously.

"Perhaps you would be good enough to look in again tomorrow, when Herr Pressing is here. He arrives today," said Rohna, after he had turned the pages of his register and come upon the reservation of the room.

Very superficially this news seemed to fill the men with pious consternation.

"Arrives today," he exclaimed as though in alarm, and his voice grew a little shriller. "Good. Then he comes tonight. Good. And there's a room for him. Then there are rooms to be had. Yes, and why should Herr Generaldirektor have a room and not I. What does that mean? I shall not put up with it. What's that? Reserved in advance, you say? Well, so did I. This is the third time I have been here. The third time, if you please, I have lugged this heavy bag along here. It's nothing. Every inn overcrowded. I am not in good health, I may tell you."

"And how many more times am I to make this journey? What's this?" That's no way to talk. Is this the best hotel in Berlin. Yes? Well, then I want to stop in the best hotel in Berlin. Is it forbidden?"

Suddenly Dr. Otternaschlag intervened in the discussion. He had been standing close by all this while.

"One Herr Doktor had an uncanny sixth sense," that of seeming to read the minds of people in strange distress. The rubber-like little man was destined to dig weird things, a grotesque but dangerous pawn in the game the Fates were playing. was his belief. He stepped up to Rohna.

"Offer him my room!" he ordered, sharply.

"But, Herr Doktor," said Rohna quickly, "there can be no question of your giving up your room. Let me have another look. Let me see—if the gentleman will be so good as to enter his name. Thank you—No. 218, then," he said to the hall porter.

The hall porter gave page boy No. 11 the key of No 218 the newcomer took the pen which was handed to him and in a curiously flowing handwriting wrote his name in the visitors' book.

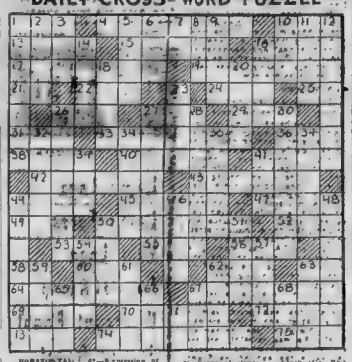
"Otto Krinpelein, Bookkeeper, Frederisdorf, Saxony, born at Frederisdorf, 14-7-1882."

So there he stood in the lounge of the Grand Hotel—Otto Krinpelein, bookkeeper, born at Frederisdorf and residing in Frederisdorf. He stood there—his old overcoat, and the glasses of his pince-nez eagerly devoured it all.

Copyright, 1931, Doubleday, Doran & Co.

Another life, another queer mortal under the roof of the Grand Hotel. What is he going through? You cannot afford to miss a single instalment of this internationally famous story.

DAILY CROSS-WORD PUZZLE



HORIZONTAL
1—Ceramics
4—A pain or grey-ness
10—Mineral spring
13—Move on wheels
15—Inclined by dig-ging out of the earth
16—A small stock of water
17—A shortage
19—Inconsiderate
20—Personal pro-noun
21—Captive
22—Is still
24—I reason at, to the point
27—Inclinate
28—Inclinate
31—Pertaining to the 2-cent piece
34—Dark fowl
36—Girls and artists do—an element that fits—
40—Forms a base
41—Short temporary use of 42—Old translucent
43—Lofty alms
44—A swaggering in-verse
45—Purchase
47—Merriment
48—Small part
50—Those who worship
51—Belonging to the dog tribe
52—In addition
53—Chance, perils
54—Want of order
55—Calmed
57—Expression of impudence
63—You and I
64—Raised
67—A measure of land-inland
68—Land grant
69—A stem or tree
70—Not making sound
71—To bronze
72—Disturbed
73—Gathering of neighbors for work or sport

VERTICAL
1—Lamprays
2—Equals
3—Ovum
4—Inverted sprite
5—Scavenger
6—Himself
7—Ever, in poetry
8—Lair
9—Scent
10—Industry
11—Mode of acting
12—Person kind
13—Mixes with relax-ation
14—Be connected or joined
18—Sudden heat
23—Stirred violently
25—A level shaded walk
26—Fit
28—Weary, limitless expanse
29—A spire
30—Men who in-struct athletes
32—Bird nest having grating or lattice work
33—A bonded circuit
35—Entertain

Yesterday's Answers

G	I	A	L	E		I	S	P	A		I	S	P	O
I	N	A		P	O	O	L	E		O	W	E
D	I	C	K	E	N	S		V	E	R	N	E
C	R	E	A		T	R	E	A	T		I	S	A
S		T	A	R		I	N	T	E	R		A	Y	E
T	Y	P	I	S	T		N	E	E		A	C	E
S	T	A	R		R	E	T		F	R	E	N	C	H
D	E		R	E	S	E	T		T	H	O	L	E
S		R	E	L	A	Y		I	R	A		I
C	A	N	A	L		A	M	N	E	S	T	Y
O	R	A		S	Y	R	I	A		T	I	L	E
T	E	L	L		E	N	D		I	S	L	E

Copyright, 1931, for the Boston Evening American.

Man About Town

By AL DUFFY

VACATION SONG

You may have your tinsulled cabs
Your whoopee spots and flivvers,
Well take our avivan ambitude
And a rustic life like this for—

It's take with us the bright night life
Is yours if that's your de-
Give us—we'll be too Big Boy
A lake, a moon and quiet.

The Bikes of [illegible]
The stillness [illegible]
We're full of [illegible] vita-mins
WE [illegible]

[illegible]

This [illegible] limited [illegible] 11 persons [illegible] Copley [illegible] Thursday afternoon [illegible] carried by piping [illegible] middle-aged [illegible] zens and the [illegible] as a practical [illegible] medium [illegible] why I counsel [illegible] you to mind [illegible]

Katherine [illegible] for the [illegible] favorite [illegible] medium [illegible] multi-millionaire [illegible] of three or four years ago.

"Mama," said the husband, "I want to buy two thirds for one [illegible] Rembrandts and one [illegible]

The next day the wife called him on the phone.

"Papa," she said, "One of those [illegible] were talking about yesterday in the [illegible] now, but I don't know which one it was."

DIARY

"I [illegible] Dearest' stuff [illegible] pearly nuts she [illegible] tion [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

BEACON HILL

—by—

Betty Alden

News and Gossip of Society Circles and Clubs in and About Boston

MANY SOCIETY BRIDALS ON TOMORROW'S PROGRAM

At the Batchelder-Read Bridal in Cambridge

PEGGY READ'S WEDDING TO SAM BATCHELDER was very sweet, simple and impressive. Miss Read looked very lovely in her ivory satin, which had been in the family for generations, and the fine old veil, which showed a wave of golden hair beneath, was most becoming. It was one of the prettiest bridesmaids' groups of the season. Mrs. Francis Appleton Harding (Caroline Read) and Miss Jean Read, sister of the bride, in aqua-marine blue chiffon, with the dearest hats.

MRS. HAROLD READ

The four bridesmaids were frocked in pale pink chiffon trimmed with aqua-marine velvet bows and hats and slippers to match. They carried pink and blue delphinium. I've wondered why Peggy chose girls from out of town for the bridal group, but she has so many friends among her sister debutantes we can imagine it would have been hard to select a group of favorite . . .

Mrs. Read looked very girlish in a dark brown print. The reception was very simple, but the ushers were among the handsomest we have seen so far this month. Lined up with their gardenias they made an imposing picture. We have heard that the wedding presents were simply too marvelous, and we can well imagine that because Sam and Peggy are about as popular as any two young people who have come out for a long time.

Lucile [illegible] to Make Debut This Season

MRS. [illegible] SWIFTS HAVE TAKEN THE LIVERpool for next winter. Ruth, the eldest of the three, came out in '27. The second daughter, Lucile, is Boston society, but the younger girl, [illegible] season. The Swifts hail from Chicago, but Mrs. Swift was born and bred on good old Cape Cod American stock comes from Cape Cod. The children have been born and bred there. Their children move away, but their children's children come back to boast of their forefathers.

AMONG OTHERS WHO have rented Cape Cod cottages for the season are Mr. and Mrs. Palfreys, forbears of the Boston Palfreys, who have been for the "Beach Club." It is quite sporty—but why be sporty, it is much more fun to be natural.

Elizabeth Scuffe

Mianne and Polly. And the Scuffes are proud of the Cape as the Pierce family, Boston Beacon Hill, Elizabeth's father, wrote "Cape Codies," quite clever, and it was published by Houghton-Mifflin, of course. Along the shore the Georges and Monkses sun themselves with the Oriental Olgs, haughty as a dreadnaught, anchored for the summer. At Cotuit the half a dozen Hardings and the Winsors and the Collenses bask in the sunshine of the dunes.

SOME WHO SEEK A GAYER whirl go to the North Shore, where one dresses for dinner. The Chandler Hoveys always did go to the Cape, but now they are lovers of the other coastline, as are the Red Websters, who were Capeites with their next door neighbors, the William Shearers. The Hallowells now go to North Harbor, but Grandmother Hallowell still clings to Wings Neck on the Cape, fashion or no, and the grey dove of peace and love perches on the family tree year in and out.

THE "GOLD COAST" WIANNO still differs in the sun a number of Westerns embark there.

LUNCHING AT THE RITZ, we saw many out-of-towners who had come in for the Read-Batchelder nuptials. Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Mixter sat near us. Mrs. Mixter very girlish in a dark blue crepe costume with matching hat with lingerie touches of pink. The Mixters will be at Hamilton this summer, having taken the Tom Mandells place on Dorge Row.

POLLY BEALE LOOKING very well in a red and grey print, was lunching with Miss Mary Phinney and her aunt, Miss Channing Wells. Miss Beale and Miss Phinney will sail next week on the North Cape cruise. Across the blue crystal dining room, we glimpsed Mrs. James M. Hunnewell, and daughter, Caroline, who looks as though she were bored at her first garden party. Miss Caroline will also be a member of the North Cape cruise.

ALWAYS BRIGHT AND attractive, Barbara Young in a brown roll-your-own was lunching with friends and enjoying Ruby Newman's melodious orchestra, and at another table close by we got our first glimpse of Mrs. John Amory (Mary Puttrick) since she returned from her honeymoon. She was very smart under a large panama in a cool green summer silk.

TONIGHT GRANDFATHER BURRAGE is giving a big time to the Burrage wedding party aboard the yacht Aztec. We hear that Kitty's gown is very simple.

MISS READ — MRS. HARDING
MISS JEAN READ and Mrs. Francis Appleton Harding, sisters of Mrs. Samuel Batchelder (Peggy Read) attended her as maid and matron of honor.

THEIR WEDDING DAY
MR. AND MRS. SAMUEL BATCHELDER leaving St. John's Chapel in Cambridge where they were married yesterday. The bride is a society favorite.

MR. PRYUN — MR. TICKNOR
MR. MORGAN PRUYN of New York and Mr. Benjamin Tucknor were in the usher group of the Batchelder-Read bridal party. A reception at the Read home followed the ceremony. (Staff photos).

Miss Winslow June Bride

A wedding that holds interest for Boston people as well as Newport is that which unites Miss Theodora Winslow and Augusta Noel tomorrow at 12.30 in St. Mary's Church, Newport.

Miss Winslow is the charming daughter of Rear Admiral and Mrs. Cameron McRae Winslow of Commonwealth ave., Boston, and Narragansett ave., Newport. Her sister, Mrs. Cecil Irton Wylde, who was married only three weeks ago and who, though she and her husband have been away, has put off her own wedding trip to Europe to be matron of honor for her elder sister, and will sail Sunday. The maid of honor is to be Miss Winslow's other sister, Miss Natalie Winslow, and the only other attendant, Miss Blanca D. Noel, the bridegroom's sister, whose home is at 105 East 72d st., New York.

The bridal gown is of white satin and old lace, which was worn when her maternal grandparents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Theodore A. Havemeyer of New York, were married. She will wear a tulle veil falling from a lace cap, which is designed in Russian effect, and will carry a garland of jasmine and gardenias. The three attendants are to be gowned alike in net of a green-blue shade, large yellow hats, trimmed with the same color ribbons, and yellow shoes.

Mr. Noel, who is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Augusta Noel, will have his brother, Louis Noel, as his best man. The usher list includes Lieut. Cameron McRae Winslow, Jr., and John C. Winslow, brothers of the bride; Frederick R. and LeRoy King, G. Macculloch Miller, Kerry Boone, Marion S. Wyeth and Lewis S. Morris, all of New York.

Miss Winslow was graduated from the Winsor School and is a member of the New York Junior League. She has studied painting where her debut and has become quite proficient in that art.

Hayne - Walcott Wedding

One of the most important of six weddings tomorrow, is that of Miss Anna Walcott and F. Bourne Hayne in the little Unitarian Church at Marblehead, the summer home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walcott, who live at 77 Sparks st., Cambridge, during the winter.

There has been quite a lot of entertaining going on in honor of the bride and bride groom-to-be. Yesterday Mrs. Dwight Brigham, mother of one of the bridesmaids, gave a luncheon at the Eastern Yacht Club. Last night Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Perry gave a dinner for the bridal party at their home in Nahant. Before the rehearsal today Mrs. Duncan Dana is hostess to them at a buffet luncheon in Marblehead, and tonight the bride's parents will be hosts at an informal dinner.

Miss Walcott has chosen as her bridesmaids, the Misses Edith H. Eustis of Milton, Penelope H. Perry of Dover and Brookline, Katherine B. Davis of Boston, Rosamond Gardiner of Brookline, Margaret J. Hilton of Philadelphia, Nancy Brigham of Newton Center and Anne Robbins, of Boston, who is engaged to Mr. Hiram Sibley of Rochester, N. Y. Miss Ella K. Berkeley will attend as maid of honor.

Mr. Hayne, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Alston Hayne of San Francisco, will have Miss Walcott's brother, Charles F. Walcott, as his best man, and the usher group includes Eustis and Richard Walcott, two other brothers of the bride, Charles and Edward Bradford of Boston.

Pastel Gowns Stress Spirit

By ANN ARDEN

DECORATIVE costumes breathe the true spirit of summer, and the soft shades of pastels fit into the summer picture of sea and sky and lush green with charming effect. It's an outdoor season and the beginning of one at that, so that, if you are fortunate new clothes are in order.

THESE NEED not be expensive ones. They certainly should not be elaborate.

* * *

THE SPORTS spectator fills an important role in the summer scene and white stressed with color seems just made for her. A nice thing about white, too, is that it succeeds miraculously in making every girl look herself. It is more of a background color than anything else and allows each personality to stand out and do its prettiest.

* * *

THE PASTEL ensemble pictured is fashioned of pink, white and blue. The white silk frock has a box pleated skirt from hip yoke, the pleats closely stitched on upper portion, cap sleeves and a V neck marked in fagotting, and pink inserts center front. The coat is of pink Rajah, printed in white, with small turn-over collar and revers, and decorative pockets.

* * *

THE LARGE rough straw hat is pink, banded in folds of pink and white georgette. The necklace and earrings are chalk white, the gloves white washable doeskin, the bag pink patent leather, and the cross-over strap shoes pale pink kid.

Ellen Perkins to Wed Rieg

Saturday is a big day for the old matrimonial bureau, and here is another ceremony, uniting Miss Ellen Perkins and Mr. John Philip Rieg. It takes place at 4.30 in the Leslie Lindsey Memorial Chapel of Emmanuel Church, with a reception afterwards at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Heber Perkins of 233 Commonwealth ave.

Miss Perkins will have her sister, Miss Louise M. Perkins, as her maid of honor, and Mrs. John L. Curtis (Alice Perkins) as matron of honor. There will be no other attendants.

Another Saturday bride will be Miss Antoinette P. Dominick, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Francis Dominick of Greenwich, Ct., to the Rev. James Moulton Thomas of Hancock, Md., son of Mrs. George O. Thomas and the late Mr. Thomas of Baltimore.

The ceremony will take place in Christ Church, Greenwich.

PERFECT FOR SUMMER

Photos from HOUGHTON & DUTTON CO.—American Staff Photo

ANN ARDEN broadcasts latest style news over WAAB every Tuesday and Thursday at 10:30 a. m.

Barbara Stone
497 Washington Street

Reg. $1.95 Value

NEW LARGE SUMMER FLOP HATS 85¢

—In white and natural
—Assorted ribbon trims less work for Mother when she serves Kellogg's Corn Flakes. Delicious for any meal. No preparing. Wholesome. Easy to digest. Have Kellogg's often and save yourself trouble

Kellogg's CORN FLAKES

*Fine for the children's evening meal. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

NOYES BROS.

Gayly Colorful Are These

Misses' Garden Print Frocks

$10.75

Sizes 14 to 20

DAINTY fluting on the saucy collar and quarter sleeves adds to the youthful chic. The skirt is circular.

Other Summer Frocks $10.75

NOYES BROS.
127 Tremont St. opp. Park St.
HOLEPROOF HOSIERY

THRIFTY WOMEN

Here Is Your Opportunity to Save!

Summer Silk Dresses

Drastically Reduced to $5.95

Shantungs, printed silks, washable crepes, printed chiffons and Georgettes in the newest Summer colors. Smartly styled with dainty trims, they will FIT you and complement your Summer ensemble.

Other Summer Dresses Reduced to $10.75

Summer dresses that have been in stock only a short time at much higher prices. Also new arrivals priced like markdowns. Plenty of suits, short-sleeve jackets, sleeveless frocks. All sizes.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO PAY CASH!

Select your dress, make a small deposit, and wear it home by joining the Scott Unique Payment Club, the only one in New England. Enjoy small weekly or monthly payments while wearing it. No delay, no investigation—the most unique arrangement ever known!

A group of Cloth Coats Reduced to $7.75

SCOTT Summer

69 Summer St., Boston

Open Saturdays Until 9 P. M.
Other days Until 6 P. M.

Providence: 309 Westminster St. Hartford: 81 Pratt St.

It's Too Hot for Furs in Closets! Store Them in Our Cold Dry Storage Vaults!

On This Page: Writers with Something to Say, Who Know How to Say It.

True to Type

FAITHFULL CASE IS WORTHY OF NOVELIST

—By Gilbert Seldes—

I HAVE NOT BEEN OUT OF New York since the Starr Faithfull case began and do not know whether its singular features have excited the rest of the country as it has excited us here. The new mystery is, as story, far better than cases which have become classic; the Snyder-Gray murder, for instance, or the unsolved Hall-Mills case. Both of these exploded on the attention of the world but both were complete from the beginning. The Faithfull case has, as the experts say, developed from the first day, and, owing to some odd circumstances, the world has come to know its victim exactly as it comes to know its friends.

• • •

Surprises in Intimacy

The process is, of course, compressed. We all know more about Starr Faithfull after a week than we know about some of our closest friends. After years of constant friendship with a man, in which I learned all about his business and the games he played and the songs he sang, I discovered by accident that he had been made a Baron by the Poles for services in their air corps—I hadn't even known he was an aviator. We carry an autobiography on our persons and are all a little reticent; even husbands and wives, if they are sensible, can learn new things about each other after many years.

• • •

Like a Good Novel

Except that it starts with a murder, the case of Starr Faithfull is in the best technique of the modern novel. Forget the end, and imagine that you first heard of her as winning a beauty prize or had met her at one of the speakeasies she seems to have frequented. There would have been the same instant impression, the same few facts, of little importance, thrown out to keep a conversation going. Then day by day the circle widens. There is the equivocal family in the background given to mystifying statements; there is the discovery that the girl has taken her stepfather's name (exactly the sort of thing one discovers after marriage); there is the odd circumstance that the stepfather, being a chemist or having been one, prefers to give his daughter gin he can trust, and this leads, deviously, through months of half-connected revelation, to the connection of the stepfather with the investigation of a murder years ago. For the E. Phillips Oppenheim touch there is the chemical formula sought during the war, perhaps still an object of some international spy.

• • •

The Newspaper's Technique

I admire the story as the newspapers have arranged it for us. The mysterious Bostonian appeared first without a hint of anything more than an impropriety, and it was slowly that a crime and its consequences appeared. Before that the character of the girl herself had become confused, perhaps because we had it compressed and rounded out, intensified and almost too complete, in a few days. The Greenwich Village touch, the [illegible] studios and the frequentation of artistic [illegible] as a prelude to the trips abroad, to the recurrent pattern of going on board liners and [illegible] off again. What was she trying to do, what did she want?

• • •

The Matter of Names

Even the slightest details fit perfectly. There is the matter of names which threatened to be confusing until the rigid laws of the headline writers reduced most of the principals to the first name alone. Combined with her father's name, Starr does not ring; with Faithfull it becomes like a movie name. Her sister chooses herself the name of Sylvia and is called by some variant of Dickens—a natural, commonplace thing until it [illegible] part of a mystery and begins to be mysterious itself. The sister baffles the investigators by acting endlessly, giving no information; then [illegible] tell little, tell much—then suddenly prepare a life history to defend the daughter's name.

• • •

Motives of Living and Dead

The motives of the murder are no more mysterious than the motives of those who are drawn into it. A statement has been signed by three of the Faithfulls renouncing all claims against the Boston man, all "we now have or ever have had from the beginning of the world to the date of these presents." The legal phrases are almost awe-inspiring. One wonders whether claims, resentments, grudges can last as long as from the beginning of the world; if we accept the general theory of the murder, we know that, at least, these passions can remain potent longer than the legal documents which deny them.

The Starr Faithfull case, in short, is too good a criminal mystery story; it is a plot for an author more interested in character than in events. I doubt whether Dashiell Hammett, terse by the finest writer of criminal stories, would care to take it on. My own choice would be the Englishman, Oliver Onions, who writes mysteries to the render just as this case is revealed to us, from within, so that for [illegible] you hardly know what the mystery [illegible] know the effect on other people.

• • •

Start at St. Luke's Place

In the end it would take a novelist of the first order to give us the true sense of this case, to let us penetrate into the little house which happens to lie so close to the mayor's residence, and to make real to us the life of a family totally obscure in a city where everyone is fighting desperately not to be obscure. The surface of life at the Faithfulls seems to have been peaceful enough; the neighbors have not testified to strange events a year or two ago; what friends the family has must now wonder that so many involvements, so many cross-currents, so much desperation and unhappiness, were hidden from them.

If Ford Maddox Ford would either learn the American language or resume the use of pure English, he could do this supremely well; he loves to let his characters make little impressions upon us, until, toward the end, the total impression is created. He could begin with the placid office, take us somewhere into the life of transatlantic liners, dodge back to a girl's school, show how backmail was avoided, and bring all the characters and all the action into focus.

Except, of course, one character and one action. For that he would have to wait with the rest of us. Like the rest of us, he might be disappointed if it turned out that, with everything happening a planned and plotted murder, the case would eventually be written off as suicide.

"She's simply stunning—I'd love to know where she got her skin."

Fatness

—By Idwal Jones—

THIS being the schizophrenic season—when anything goes—a doctor rises to assert that fat men are not good-natured. Beneath their mountain of adipose is a morose and waspish spirit; and those taken in by the outward jollity are the victims of a snare and a delusion.

I should like to dissent. I have found fat men rather good-natured, except when they had to walk too far, or dinner was late, or the cracked ice was slow in coming up. In the face of such griefs I have also known reasonably emaciated men to give way to tantrums.

The truth is that fat men can, in their normal tempers, dispense as much sweetness and charm as the rest of us which may or may not prove anything.

• • •

I WAS much impressed at the cinema the other night by the spectacle of five Chinese generals swaggering across the screen to a tea-garden fete. All but one were very thin. And he must have tipped the hay-scales at 450 pounds. He was surrounded by damsels who hopped and twittered like enamoured wood doves.

They were what we would call "lookers"; their skins were as the glaze on Cheng-Huang porcelain, and their girths were the span of two handfuls of wheat stalks. Happy, happy, general!

His cadaverous friends may have had it, but His Corpulency had the Paunch.

• • •

IN CHINA the paunch is regarded with veneration.

On my bookshelf is a scattering of Chinese gods and philosophers. All have vast abdomens. Lao-Tzu is the fattest. He it was who called hens "the tender vegetables that break through the hedges."

• • •

JOHN DEWEY, who often wonders why the Pekin students read so much Chesterton, might find an explanation in this.

• • •

Tonnage appears to be an asset everywhere, except in Russia, where it is regarded as much a heinous offense as grumbling at having to pay $5.50 for a bowl of thin soup or wearing a collar, and you have to go to jail for it.

And yet, with us, a hefty figure is no longer a symbol of having arrived. A glance at the society pages reveals that our gilded girls marry the thin fellows.

• • •

I have just been told of a dancing colonel who slackened off, and who let his wife be taken out nightly to the waltz by the younger officers at his post. He stayed with carpet slippers and a set of Dickens.

After two years of it he got tired. So each morning when the couple came in he received them with courtesy, a huge pot of sweet chocolate, with whipped cream eclairs and Danish pastry.

In less than a twelvemonth his wife lost her obsidian slimness. She waddled and had to give up dancing. He then took to polo, night clubs, were himself thin and became popular again. He is still dancing. She it is who now stays home with Dickens.

Scandal!

—By Deems Taylor—

LINTON MARTIN, whose music column is an excellent reason for subscribing to the Philadelphia Inquirer, writes to point out that the slapping of Arturo Toscanini because he wouldn't put patriotic airs on a symphonic program was strictly in accordance with an old Italian custom. Waxing patriotic at the wrong moment is no Fascist invention, as Mr. Martin shows by quoting from a now forgotten, privately printed memorial to Anton Seidl that was published in 1899.

The book describes an incident that took place in Rome when the Neumann Opera Company produced Die Walkuere there nearly fifty years ago. According to a contemporary report by the Rome correspondent of the Frankfurter Zeitung, "the King had promised to attend and it is customary in Italian theaters, when His Majesty enters, to interrupt the performance by playing the Marcia Reale." (This is one of the pieces that Toscanini refused to play).

"Anton Seidl was Neumann's conductor, and he was given to understand what he must do at the moment of the king's appearance in his box. But Mr. Seidl absolutely refused to insult the majesty of King Wagner, his sovereign, by any such inartistic proceeding, and Herr Neumann, after trying in vain to make him obedient to Italian custom, was obliged to call upon the assistant conductor to preside over the opera.

"The performance began, and the king put in an appearance just as Siegmund and Sieglinde were in the midst of their love duo, whereupon everyone stopped, the 'royal march' was played and the duo was resumed."

While it does seem a bit fatuous of the king to have assumed that even his royal presence could make up the discrepancy between the musical worth of the Marcia Reale and that of the score of Die Walkuere, one cannot help a sneaking sympathy for his choice of the moment for arrival. You will notice that by delaying until the Spring Song scene he avoided having to hear that long, long dialogue, between Siegmund and Hunding.

Reading some of the fascinating scandal about Roumania that Conrad Bercovici chronicles in his new book, That Royal Lover, recalls a yarn that I once heard spun by Edgar Anselm Mowrer. Mowrer, who was the Chicago Daily News correspondent in Rome for several years and is now stationed in Berlin, also served time.

The story, which he swears by all the gods of journalism to be true, concerns the adventure of a newly arrived member of the American legation in one of the smaller Central European states. His two previous predecessors had been recalled by the State Department after much wrangling about their expense accounts, which had included moneys paid out for such unusual items as watches, rings, cuff links, stick pins and umbrellas.

These expenses, they asserted, were perfectly legitimate, inasmuch as they were replacements of personal articles lost in the discharge of their professional duties. The State Department, however, remained stoutly incredulous, and had specifically warned the young man in question that he would have to look out for his own bijouterie.

One of his first official duties was to attend some sort of grand state reception at the palace of the reigning monarch. Halfway through the affair he reached for his watch, and found that it had vanished. Warned by the fate of his predecessors, he resolved upon desperate measures.

He sought out the local minister of foreign affairs, who was present, and explained his loss. The minister was polite, but unbelieving. He suggested that the watch had been lost in the street, or that its owner had left it at his hotel.

At length, after much fruitless argument, he lost his temper. "All I can say is that somebody in this building has my watch, and I want it back."

Speechless with indignation, the minister of foreign affairs looked him haughtily up and down. At length, "Wait here," he said, and turned and left the room.

In five minutes he was back, holding a glittering object in his hand. "Here's your watch," he said curtly.

The American took it. It was his watch. "Who—who had it?" he stammered.

"The minister of finance."

"How did he get it?"

"I'm sure I don't know."

"But what did he say when you asked him for it?"

"He doesn't know I have it."

QUEEN 'POISON' RUMOR DENIED

Bucharest, Rumania, June 26 (AP)—The attaches of the royal palace authorized the Associated Press today to deny published reports that Queen Helen was suffering from poison taken by mistake.

As for the same rumor concerning Mme. Magda Lupescu, it was said there was not even good ground for the assumption she was ill.

Niagara Falls Dam Is Planned so Rocks Can Be Moved

Niagara Falls, June 26 (AP)—Engineers and Chamber of Commerce officials have approved a scheme to dam up the American falls and remove the rock pile at its bottom, so that the falls will have an unbroken drop to the river 170 feet below.

The pile of rocks now at the foot of the American falls weighs several thousand tons.

In the country, let alone that one had taken an overdose of a sedative in a pinch at King Carol

'OLD IRONSIDES' DAY JULY 1

Representatives of the city, state and nation will be among the principal speakers at the ceremonies incident to the commissioning of the historic frigate U. S. S. Constitution at the Charlestown Navy Yard next Wednesday, July 1.

Judge Curtis D. Wilbur, former secretary of the Navy and under whom the movement to restore the ship was begun, will be the principal speaker at the exercises.

The hoisting of the U. S. ensign at the stern and the firing of the national salute from the Navy Yard battery will indicate the actual moment when the ship is in commission.

FAMILY FURNITURE STORAGE
Convenient, centrally located buildings, private rooms, vaults. Packing and shipment arranged.
Boston Storage Warehouse Co.
Established 1841. Phone CONCord 1430 or KENmore 2050. Edward L. Wingate, General Manager.
ACCESSIBILITY AND SERVICE

PRIME'S—715 WASHINGTON ST., 16 STUART ST.—Open Monday and Saturday 'Till 9 P. M.

COMPLETE LIVING ROOM
15 PIECES
INCLUDING 3-Pc SUITE OF GENUINE ANGORA MOHAIR
FIRST TIME EVER OFFERED
AT $89 Easy Terms

Guaranteed Saving of $60 —NOW— on This Luxurious Living Room

Never before a value like this! Think of it!—A complete 15-Piece Living Room, with the 3-pc. Living Room Suite upholstered in GENUINE 100% ANGORA MOHAIR (pile) with colorful tapestry cushion reverses and harmonizing velour outsides. Note the new style features of the suite—the double diamond-tufted back of Sofa, the diamond-tufted back of the massive "Bunny" chair, and the carved apron fronts on all 3 pieces. As well made inside as it is good looking outside. In addition you get all needed accessory pieces—all for less than the usual price of the 3-piece suite alone.

ALL THESE 15 PIECES INCLUDED:
SOFA, "BUNNY" CHAIR and CLUB CHAIR, also Occasional Table, Pair of Book Ends, Floor Lamp and Shade, Bridge Lamp and Shade, Table Scarf, Smoker, End Table and 2 Pictures.
Regularly $145—NOW REDUCED TO ONLY $89—COMPLETE

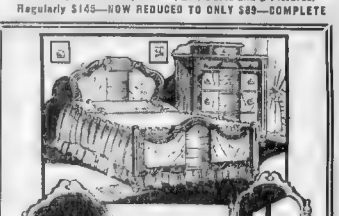
15-Pc. Complete Dining Room

A wonderful value in an attractively designed Dining Room Suite of GENUINE WALNUT veneers with all the accessory pieces for a complete room.

INCLUDED: Massive BUFFET, Extension TABLE, HOST CHAIR, and 5 SIDE CHAIRS; also Table Scarf, 3-Pc. Carpet Set, Mirror, Set of Dishes, 26-Pc. Silver Plated Set.

$79 EASY TERMS

Regularly $145—NOW REDUCED TO ONLY



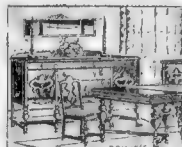
11-Pc. Complete Bedroom

A completely furnished Bedroom of unusual charm, featuring a well made bedroom suite of rich two-tone WALNUT finished mahwood, at NEARLY HALF-PRICE.

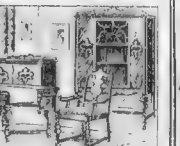
INCLUDED: Full-size BED, newest deck-topped CHEST and roomy DRESSER or FRENCH VANITY. Also MATTRESS, Spring, Bench or Chair, 2 Boudoir Lamps complete with Shades. Bed Light and 2 Pictures.

$79 CASH or EASY TERMS

Regularly $149—NOW REDUCED TO ONLY



FULL-SIZE DOUBLE DA-BED
$10.50
Complete with Mattress
Opens to full size bed, complete with restonic coil COTTON MATTRESS, Bolster and pretonne-covered ends.
CASH or EASY TERMS



COMPLETE 3-PC. BED OUTFIT
$12.50
3-Pc. Outfit: METAL BED and SPRING with cotton-stable MATTRESS. All 3 pieces COMPLETE.
CASH or EASY TERMS

RADIO BARGAINS
$5 DOWN — Balance on Easiest Terms in Boston
ZENITH
Full Size Console Model
$69.50 COMPLETE With All Tubes
1931 R.C.A. Radiola $69.50 Reg. $131.30, Complete.
Victor Combination $149.50 Reg. $200, Complete.

All Steel, 3-Door REFRIGERATOR
$16.50
With "Celotex" Insulation
Enamelled all-steel case, with white enamelled food compartment, sanitary racks. Rust-proof hardware.
Cash or Easy Terms

MAIL ORDERS FILLED
FREE DELIVERY ANYWHERE IN NEW ENGLAND

PRIME'S FURNITURE—RADIO 715 Washington St. 16 Stuart St. Friendly CREDIT To All

DIVORCEE NOTE TOLD OF 'BRICK' AS BOY FRIEND

"Brick," the nickname for the American League baseball official and radio man, previously referred to as "C. B. O." when mentioned as a "boy friend" of Mrs. Mae F. Carpenter, Belmont divorcee fighting for custod, of her four children, was revealed when extracts from letters between the two were read.

"My great big Brick," she had written in one of the letters. When asked to explain this and such terms as "honey" which she had also applied to him, Mrs. Carpenter insisted that most of the terminology of the letter had been suggested by her husband, who was present when she wrote it.

Because of the large number of divorce suits scheduled for today, this case was postponed until next Wednesday.

Mrs. Carpenter testified that on one occasion her mother-in-law, Mrs. Charlie S. Carpenter, society woman, of 2 Brimmer st., Beacon Hill, who now has custody of the children, had gone to her Belmont home "hilariously drunk," smoking two cigarettes at the same time.

A woman who accompanied her, she said, was lying on the floor of the cab.

Although she admitted having liquor in her home when her children were in her charge, Mrs Carpenter insisted she had never taken a drink in their presence.

ONSET TO OPEN BALLROOM

The new Colonial Ballroom at Onset, Cape Cod, will open for the season tomorrow night. The building has been remodeled and enlarged, making the Colonial the largest dancing pavilion on the Cape.

Bernard Loring

A new bowling hall, lounging rooms, a lunch room, a billiard room and beauty parlor are added features to the new enterprise and the management has a large piece of land directly across the street from the pavilion which will provide parking space for patrons. The new ballroom will accommodate 3000 dancers.

Music will be furnished by Bernard Loring's Colonial Syncopators and visiting bands of national repute will be booked from time to time. George E. McConville, who has conducted the Colonial for the past five years, will continue to direct this amusement palace during the summer.

NEW EXCURSION ANNOUNCED

Announcement is made by the Eastern Steamship Lines, Inc. that another week-end excursion between Boston and New York will be held this week.

For the round trip a little more than one fare will be charged. It is expected that the big white ships New York and Boston will be crowded when they leave New York and Boston Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

The New York will make the trip from Boston and the Boston will bring the excursionists to Boston, where they will arrive at 7 o'clock Sunday morning.

Passengers will be given the privilege of remaining over in Boston or New York until Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Ruth to Fly Back to Gotham Next Week

St. John, N. B., June 26 (AP)—Ruth Nichols, New York aviatrix, who crashed while attempting to land at the local airport Monday on the first stage of a proposed transatlantic flight, probably will fly back to New York next week with Clarence Chamberlin, her adviser.

Miss Nichols' injured back may be put in a cast tomorrow and if her condition continues to improve she will be ready to return Monday or Tuesday, Chamberlin said.

first time in BOSTON!

The only cab that operates on the low New York rates

15c the first ¼ mi.
5c each addl. ¼ Mile
20c per Mile

for the in-town ride or the out-of-town trip—

CALL COM. 3500

Beacon Hill Taxi

No More Bulls

Senorita Mya Hollarez, South America's most famous woman bull fighter, who attained world fame because she would never kill a bull, has given up her profession to enter a convent.

VERA CRUZ TO OUST PRIESTS

Mexico City, June 26 (AP)—The newspaper Excelsior was informed today that the majority bloc of the federal Senate had given its approval to the law recently enacted in Vera Cruz limiting the number of priests to 11.

The executive department has given no indication of its viewpoint in regard to the measure, which has brought protests from Catholics throughout the country, alleging that it practically eliminates the Catholic church from Vera Cruz.

Dispatches from Vera Cruz said steps were taken in various parts of the State yesterday to enforce the law by ejecting the excess number of priests.

The mayor of Paso Del Macho ordered the local priest to cease his services and turn the cathedral over to a committee of laymen. Similar instructions were given to a priest in Altotonga. He immediately applied to the district court in Vera Cruz for an injunction, alleging the law is unconstitutional.

France Fooled Once More

—By Arthur "Bugs" Baer—

France is a trifle backward in coming forward on that debt holiday.

Mr. Mellon is having a difficult time trying to convince the French that the worst is all for the best.

America, England and Germany have agreed. We are calling off the German debts and Germany is willing to do its share.

This just about completes the circle. Lindy took over the goodwill. And Andy took over the fixtures.

Mr. Mellon will lay a memorial wreath on the war debts.

It's a record for a world non-payment flight.

The debt holiday will last a year with an option on the future.

But you can hardly blame France for being sore over being frustrated in her efforts to tunnel a channel through Germany's treasury.

It's the third big canal she's started. And never finishents

(Copyright, 1931, Distributed by Universal Service, Inc.)

'SOCIETY? BAH!' CRIES ARTIST

Washington, June 26 (INS)—"Washington society! Bahhh! What can an artist find in such foolishness?"

So, Senora de Davila, wife of the Chilean ambassador, consigned Washington society and all its gossip to oblivion—artistically speaking, at least.

For Senora de Davila is an artist, in her own right. Has she not had recently a 10-day exhibition of her works at the Roerich Museum? Yes, indeed!

Consecrated to art, the little lady from Chile has found capital society and her duties as mistress of an important embassy very boring. And so she said:

"These men and women I meet in Washington do not speak a language I understand. Talk, talk, talk—about nothing.

"In Santiago it is different. There everyone loves beauty. The government itself is a patron of the arts."

The Davilas left yesterday for New York, enroute to Chile. They may not return, friends said, for Senor De Davila is reported to be eyeing the Chilean presidency.

GOSSIP in the SHOPS

About people you know in Boston stores

—By FRANCES BAIRD—

Frank J. McCann, display manager for Sears, Roebuck Co., was elected president of the Boston Display Men's Club at the annual election of officers, held last night at the Edison Co. club, Massachusetts ave.

Ed Sherman, display manager for Kennedy's, is the new vice-president for 1931-32; Walter J. Kelly, display manager for Delano's, treasurer; and John Waite, display manager for Brine's, secretary.

Trustees elected were David Morey, of the Morey Studio; Sam Brantz, of Filene's display staff; and Eugene Miner, Show Window Equipment Co.

This club is planning an outing in July, in conjunction with the Ladies Auxiliary. Ely Bluestein of Wilbur Shoe Co. is chairman of the committee.

SONG CONTEST ON

Hundreds of Filene Co-operative Association members are trying their hands at writing eight line stanzas for an F. C. A. song. The contest was announced today by President-elect George Watson, who is giving a cash prize for the best song submitted before next Friday.

TWO MORE JUNE BRIDES

Two more members of the Gilchrist Association joined the June brides this week.

Miss Mildred Segal of the charge office is in Washington on her wedding trip, having become Mrs. John B. Gilbert at Aperion Plaza Monday evening. She will return to her position in two weeks. The couple will live in Roxbury.

Several store members attended the wedding of Miss Charlotte Rosenfield, cashier for the Basement store, and Maurice Kever, which took place at Aperion Plaza. They are at Lake Babcocic, N. H., for two weeks. The former Miss Rosenfield resigned her position. The new home will be established on Phillips st., Boston.

McLEOD AT CONVENTION

Final sessions of the publicity directors of the Retail Research Association, being held in Indianapolis, Ind., this week, are taking place today at the store of L. S. Ayres Co., that city.

COURSES DISCUSSED

The training courses to be followed by members of the Retail Board next fall were discussed in a meeting of the committee appointed to outline study courses yesterday. Miss Helena Fitzsimmons, training director for Jordan's, is chairman of this committee. Serving with her are Miss Ruth Chamberlain of Slattery's and Miss Katherine Maple of Conrad's.

STORE SNAPSHOTS

David Eklind, treasurer of the Eagle Cleansers and Dyers, Inc., proud of the success of his daughter, Miss Harriet, violin soloist, who has just returned from studies under Peopold Auer in Germany.

Mrs. Brewster Bunnell, artist on the advertising staff for Hovey's making up a party for a sail on her new boat, "Siesta," now lying at anchor at Manchester-by-the-Sea.

Miss Nancy Zolmar, Shepard's stationery staff, receiving store friends while recuperating from an illness.

SUMMER COURSES

START JUNE 29 OR JULY 6

Burdett College

154 Stuart St. Boston

Ten Kennedy Stores in New England

Kennedy's Mark Down

SALE

Unusually Drastic Price Reductions for Complete Clearance of ALL Fancy Spring Suits and Topcoats and Many Blue Suits

Our regular stock of Kuppenheimer and other leading makes — all new, handsome, correctly styled, finely tailored, and of known high quality.

Bigger reductions than usual from the lowest prices in years and the lowest anywhere this year on such desirable goods

Entire stock must go
Nothing to be carried over

$28.50 / $30	Suits reduced to	$22.50
$35	Suits reduced to	$29.50
$40 / $45	Suits reduced to	$33.50
$50 / $60	Suits reduced to	$39.50
$65	Suits reduced to	$49.50

Plenty of sizes—plenty of styles—same service as usual—no charge for alterations

Plenty of Blues

A notable feature of this Sale is the large number of Blue Suits included—Serges and Unfinished Worsteds. It's seldom indeed that you have a chance to buy staple Blue Suits at reduced prices—sale time or any time. Make the most of this unusual opportunity.

Knickers Reduced

About 1000 pairs of the most desirable wool knickers all marked down.

$5.00 Knickers now	$3.45
$6.50 Knickers now	$4.45
$7.95 Knickers now	$5.95
White or Striped Flannel Trousers, $8 and $10 values.	$5.95

Open Saturday Evenings

Stores in Lynn Salem Beverly Brockton Hyde Park

Kennedy's

Stores in Boston Worcester Springfield Providence Hartford

Summer and Hawley Streets, Boston

When Motorists Pick Their Own Tires . . .

1 out of every 9 Says

ALLSTATE

29x4.40 Balloon

$4.80

Each, if Bought in Pairs

Size	Rim	Each	Pair	Size	Rim	Each	Pair
29x4.40-21		$ 4.98	$ 9.60	28x5.25-18		$ 7.98	$15.30
29x4.50-20		5.60	10.90	30x5.25-20		8.30	16.10
30x4.50-21		5.69	11.10	31x5.25-21		8.57	16.70
28x4.75-19		6.65	12.90	29x5.50-19		8.90	17.30
29x4.75-20		6.75	13.10	Small Truck		11.20	21.70
30x4.75-21		6.95	13.50	31x6.00-19		11.45	22.20
29x5.00-19		6.98	13.60	32x6.00-20		11.50	22.30
30x5.00-20		7.18	13.80	33x6.00-21		11.65	22.60
31x5.00-21		7.35	14.20	32x6.75-20		15.35	29.80

Tubes at correspondingly low prices

IN some cities it is one out of every two and one-half—in many cities it is one out of every four—for all America the vote for ALLSTATE is one out of nine of the people who buy tires for replacement (and there are upwards of 150 brands they could choose).

A great newspaper of the Middle West, a great university of the Middle West, an advertising agency of the East—all have conducted nation-wide surveys among motorists to learn which was the most popular tire.

And all received one answer—ALLSTATE.

In five short years, more than 8,000,000 motorists have turned their backs on their old favorites and changed to this new wonder tire.

The extra mileage on the road, the extra riding comfort, the extra safety from the sure-grip tread explain it—together with ALLSTATE prices being 25% under any tire worthy of comparison.

Call Our Personal Shopping Service—Kenmore 7370 or Porter 4010

Boston—Audubon 7100 Kenmore 7370. Cambridge—1815 Mass. Ave. Porter 4010.

SEARS, ROEBUCK AND CO.

WE GUARANTEE SATISFACTION OR YOUR MONEY BACK

Free Parking Space. Store Hours 8 A. M. to 5:30 P. M. Saturday 8:30 A. M. to 9 P. M.

THERE IS A SEARS-ROEBUCK STORE IN YOUR VICINITY

WALTHAM—715 Main St. DORCHESTER—519 Columbia Road MATTAPAN—1602-4 Blue Hill Ave.
QUINCY—1151 Hancock St. MALDEN—525-531 Main St. CHELSEA—320 Broadway
LYNN—29 Market St. HYDE PARK—1280 River St.

Today, in the real estate columns of the Classified Ads, you will find scores of opportunities for profitable investment.

GREATER BOSTON NEWS

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

SECOND SECTION

BOSTON, FRIDAY, JUNE 27, 1930

BRIDE CALLS BACK BAY DENTIST 'BULLY'

130 Tons of Cement 'Missing' at Bridgewater State Farm

THIS IS LIFE

A BACCALAUREATE I'LL NEVER BE ASKED TO DELIVER

By ROBERT E. ROGERS

LAST WEEK WAS THE HIGH TIDE of baccalaureate sermons and addresses to graduating classes. For two or three days the surf of idealistic oratory beat fiercely on the unyielding granite of youthful complacency and indifference, which is only another name for the protective covering of youthful anxiety and bewilderment. I all the abstract idealism of last week could have been geared up to youthful will and ambition, we should have such a wave of uplift as would probably make this country unlivable.

ROBERT E. ROGERS

Here and there one caught an echo of sound, hard sense. President Speare of Northeastern told his graduates squarely that education does not guarantee success in our overcrowded professions. That needs to be said over and over again, although it is probably more necessary in October than in June. But in the main there was mostly the old, old emphasis on the "necessity for idealism in a materialistic world"—perhaps the most useless of all advice, because the most vague and perfunctory.

* * *

The Speech I'll Never Be Asked to Make

I shall probably never be allowed to preach a baccalaureate sermon. My idealisms are out of step with the current stereotypes. If I were allowed, however, I think I should say something like this:

GENTLEMEN (AND LADIES) of the graduating class: There is not much use in keeping up the pretense any longer that you as a group are very different from the general run of young people of your age. Except in a few schools, where the standards of admission are very high, the weeding-out process very severe, and the emphasis on intellectual activity preponderant, what you have had in these past four years has been not much more than an extension of high school work.

You, yourselves, have often been surprised at the ease with which you have been allowed to "get by." You have often realised how poorly you have measured up to what you suppose to be college standards, but since nobody else had worried about it, why should you? You have spent four years of time, as well as sums of money ranging, approximately, from a thousand dollars a year at the minimum to a great deal more. In comparatively few cases have you pursued, or been forced to pursue, a carefully organized course of study toward a definite goal.

* * *

YOU HAVE "PASSED OFF HOURS" rather than received an education. Every 16 weeks you have taken "exams" and put the subjects of those exams away forever in cold storage. You have allowed your intellectual training to be constantly and seriously interrupted by activities, most of which were trivial and artificial, and which at their best gave you merely the kind of contacts with your fellow-men which a non-college man gets naturally at his club or Y. M. C. A. or athletic association, without paying a thousand dollars a year for the privilege.

The small amount of cultural background you have acquired seems to have little relation to the world you live in. Your so-called "practical" courses have probably been so highly specialized and theoretical as to have given you little of that practical training for which most of you came to college. For most of you have had so perverted a conception of what a college education ought to be—a preparation for a rich and satisfying life of the mind and the spirit—that at least half of you have wasted your time and your money. You might just as well have gone directly into business from high school, except for the slight amount of social distinction given today by the college career. Another quarter of you might have profited by a two-year course, without reference to the degree of A. B. or S. B., which in your case is merely a compliment.

* * *

PERHAPS A QUARTER of you have caught some idea of "what education really means and have learned some of the 'durable satisfactions of life,'" as wise old Prexy Eliot once said.

The college has done nothing to help you to an understanding of the part that religion plays in the world, of the difference between religion and theology, or between religion and social service. Nor has the college seen to it that you have even a little fundamental training in ethics. A certain proportion of you will steal a library book as a matter of course, if you get a chance. A large number of you will cheat on your home work, written papers, laboratory sheets and even exams without giving it a second thought. Your sexual morals are excellent, many of you do not drink—but in respect to common honesty, the ethics and responsibilities of social living, you are just so many young animals.

You sneer at philosophy and the college has done nothing to teach you what philosophy might do for you. All unconsciously, you have acquired or built up two philosophical concepts by which you live, in common with the rest of your civilization. First, the worship of what William James called the Bitch-Goddess Success. Second, the belief that the Right to Happiness takes precedence over every other right. Both of which Carlyle called "stomach philosophies," the philosophy of hogs.

* * *

MOST OF YOU, THEN, could not have been expected to gain an education from your four years in college. You hadn't the brains in the first place; you hadn't the will or desire, in the second place. Worst of all, you have missed (most of you) the one thing you might have learned easily, if not from your professors at least from your fellow students. That is, the difference between a gentleman and a barbarian. You might have learned decent speech, good manners, care in social habits, some sense of the difference between the first rate and the third rate in tastes and habits and interests and activities. Most of you haven't learned even that.

Most of you will make a little more money than if you hadn't gone to college. Not very much, but a little. That will have to be the sole justification for your college course. Otherwise you will remain pleasant, decent, well dressed and well fed, fairly successful barbarians. And one-quarter of you—the saving remnant—will run rings around you all your and their lives. So will a good many of the men who never went to college!

(Copyright, 1931, by the Boston Evening American.)

Sweet and Low

Louise Bernhardt, Boston girl, was the low voice winner in the finals of the Young Artists' contests held at San Francisco. (Int'l photo.)

AUDITORS FLAY MANAGEMENT AS 'LAX'

Thefts Are Confessed; Thousands of Dollars Reported as "Discrepancies" There

A firm of Boston auditors engaged by the state today reported it found mismanagement and inefficiency at the Massachusetts State Farm at Bridgewater.

The report was made to the state commissioner of administration and finance.

Among the items the auditors reported they were unable to find on the farm was 130 tons of cement purchased for construction work.

The firm found accounting at the farm was lax and indifferent management had led to unnecessary losses.

The report described discrepancies to the amount of "thousands of dollars" in the records of farm products, livestock, fuel, groceries, gasoline and supplies.

THEFT IS CONFESSED

It also related the alleged confession of a discharged attendant who said he had taken money from the inmates' fund.

The report charges that three men, one retired on a pension and the others present employes, received free fuel, and four employes received in addition to their salaries maintenance allowances to which they were not entitled.

In its conclusions the auditors found that the business administration was inefficient and imprudent, instructions had not been complied with; accounts and records were incomplete and numerous errors and alterations were evident.

PROPERTY NOT SAFE

It was found that material and supplies were not adequately safeguarded; that the irregularities and discrepancies have persisted; employes' duties have not been clearly defined, and because of laxity and indifference by the management needless losses to the state have been sustained.

Since the audit was started two men have been sent to jail for larceny from the farm. They are Charles O Rerse, former head farmer, and Fred E. Standish, former superintendent of motor equipment. Rerse was sentenced to one year and Standish to nine months.

DIPLOMA GIVEN 'BEDTIME' GRADUATE

Fortitude and stern determination to sweep handicaps aside today won for Christie Chussie, 14, a diploma at a special "commencement" exercise conducted beside his bed in City Hospital. While Miss Caroline L. McHugh, his teacher at Dwight school, looked pridefully on, Master Keenan of the school conferred the honors on the boy who has been ill for months, but who studied and fought and won his diploma. (Staff photo.)

BRIDE, 50, SAYS HUSBAND IS A 'BULLY'

Married Less Than Year, She Tells Court of Abuse in Plea for Divorce

Dr. Thomas P. Morey, 58, Back Bay dentist, was described as a "bully" today in Suffolk Court in a suit for divorce brought by his 50-year-old bride of less than a year.

Dr. Morey did not contest the action and the case was taken under advisement by Judge Joseph R. McCook. He is a Tufts graduate, son of a former consul to India, and was born there during his father's service

"We were married in Kittery, Me., Aug. 27, 1930, and lived there a week before moving to Audubon rd., Back Bay," Mrs. Ella Morey testified, under questioning of Atty. Robert Quinn.

"The second day here he pushed me out of the kitchen. He was always bullying me and said he had dominion over me because I was his wife.

"We separated Oct. 10, 1930, after he refused to let me go to Maine and see my sister."

Mrs. Morey gave her present address as 40 Hemenway st., Back Bay.

WATCH SHADING IN DRAWING

In the second of the Boston Evening American's drawing lessons, which appears below, Charles Schmidt of the Boston Evening American art department tells you how and where to put the shadows in your drawings.

By CHARLES SCHMIDT
Of the Boston Evening American Art Department

If the sun is shining in the picture you drew yesterday, your house will cast a shadow. That shadow must fall in a certain place, as I have drawn it in the first figure. You will notice that it falls on the ground on the side of the house away from the sun.

Shadows fall in obedience to a natural law, and natural laws, as you learned in school, are always in effect. The law is the same when a candle gives the light and an orange casts the shadow as in Figure 2. Most of the time we do not draw the source of light in the picture at all, but we must always bear in mind where it is, so that we can make all our shadows agree with each other.

USE SOLID BLACK

Fill in your heaviest black shadows with solid black—don't try just yet to get the effect with a lot of wavy broken lines. Those solid blacks in the right places go a long way towards making your picture stand out.

Don't be afraid to use ink. One great fault common to all amateurs is the fear of using bold blacks and whites in their drawing.

Not all of your shadows are heavy black ink masses, however. As the shadows get nearer the source of light, they become faint-

Continued on Page 16, Column 3

Roxbury Man Found Overcome in Room

John F. Barrett, 50, a lodger at 290 Dudley st., Roxbury, found unconscious in his room today with gas escaping from an open jet, is at City Hospital, where physicians say he is a victim of alcoholism and possible gas poisoning.

The police of the Dudley st. station were notified when another lodger smelled gas escaping from Barrett's room.

Professor Eckhard Unger of Germany proves that the Tower of Babel, mentioned in the Old Testament, was only 300 feet high. How he reconstructed every detail of the building of Biblical fame is told in the American Weekly section of the next Boston Sunday Advertiser.

N.E. FIRE CHIEFS ELECT LAWTON

The ninth annual convention of the New England Association of Fire Chiefs was brought to a close today with the election of officers for the ensuing year.

Chief John W. O'Hearn of Watertown was named for his 10th consecutive term as secretary-treasurer. Chief Joseph S. Lawton of Newport, R. I., was elected to the presidency.

Others elected were Charles Fortin of Lewiston, Me., and William J. Noble of New Britain, Ct., as first and second vice-presidents, respectively. The six State vice-presidents chosen were Charles Speer of South Portland, Me.; Arthur W. Spring of Laconia, N. H.; Frank F. Dickinson of Brockton, Charles H. Fuller of Pawtucket, R. I. and M. W. Lawton of Middleton, Ct. John J. Kennedy of Bridgeport Ct., was chosen sergeant-at-arms.

Lynn Chief Bemoans Debts of His Policemen

Well, if it isn't one moratorium it's another. Police Chief James H. Broad of Lynn having become Hooverized today to the extent of seeking partial moratorium for his debt-ridden law guardians who go in for "shakave, dress suits and automobiles—and forget the bills.

The chief, with lines of care etching his countenance, dropped in on Mayor J. Fred Manning today to see what could be done about creditors who are continually bothering the chief because his policemen won't pay their bills.

One policeman the big Lothario owes for two hiring of a dress suit and another a bunch of posys.

It wouldn't be so bad, the chief told the mayor if the boys would pay up when they got the money but one officer drew nearly $400 in the recent bonus loans, and instead of paying back bills bought a new automobile.

ICEMAN FINED IN "LOVE" CASE

At last the iceman had his day in court today.

But the age-old joke of the iceman and the wife was no joke to Malcolm Field, 25, of Silver st., Quincy, and he saw his alleged rival fined $25 for assault on him that grew out of attentions to Mrs. Field.

The iceman, Anslyn Bean, 24, of Frank st., Cambridge, was found by Field, sitting in a parked car with Mrs. Field, the young husband told the court. The car had been traced by the registration number given him by neighbors, he said.

When he remonstrated, Bean—135 pounds—assaulted Field—175 pounds—according to the testimony and then the police stepped in with an order to settle it in court.

$10,000 ASKED FOR CONCERTS

A public subscription of $10,000 for the Esplanade concerts was asked for today by the committee in charge of financing the project.

Started two years ago by a public-spirited group of citizens who enjoyed them, the Esplanade concerts this year take on a greater size and importance.

Business depression and restricted funds straining the purse of the group who defrayed all expenses of the concerts in the past have forced the committee to appeal to the general public for contributions, small or large, none to exceed $250.

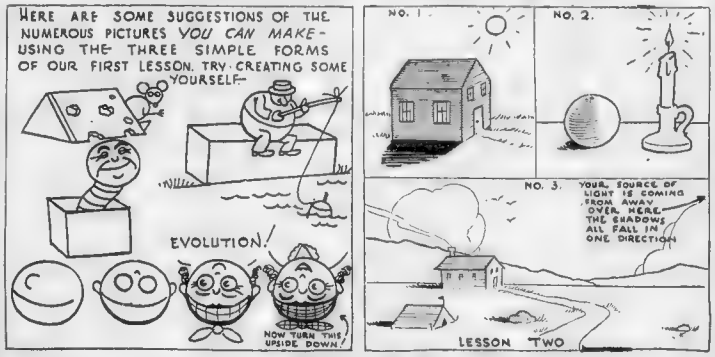
It is asked that subscriptions to the Esplanade Concert Fund be mailed in care of Lee, Higginson & Co., 70 Federal st.

The concerts will begin Thursday, July 3, and continue to Aug 5, with Arthur Fiedler in active charge as conductor. There will be 24 concerts, weather permitting.

At a conference in the office of N. Penrose Hallowell, official of Lee, Higginson & Co., it was announced the expenses of the season would approximate $13,000

A preliminary circular sent out to a selected group of five persons netted a return of $3102. The $10,000 balance is being asked of the public.

UP ARTISTS' LADDER—LESSON FOR YOU



HERE ARE SOME SUGGESTIONS OF THE NUMEROUS PICTURES YOU CAN MAKE—USING THE THREE SIMPLE FORMS OF OUR FIRST LESSON. TRY CREATING SOME YOURSELF—
EVOLUTION!
NOW TURN THIS UPSIDE DOWN!
NO. 1
NO. 2
NO. 3
YOUR SOURCE OF LIGHT IS COMING FROM AWAY OVER HERE. THE SHADOWS ALL FALL IN ONE DIRECTION
LESSON TWO

LESSON NO. 2 FOR YOU

If all you aspiring amateurs will sit up and pay strict attention today, you'll get as good lesson in drawing from Charles Schmidt, member of the Boston Evening American art department. In the popular phrase, "he knows his stuff," and is giving you some valuable pointers on the road to achievement in this line of work. Remember, save your drawings!

News in Want Ads

Single and double rooms at Wellington Center are advertised for rent at reasonable rates. Advantages of living with a private family and being near the bathing beach, tennis courts and railroad station are extremely convenient.

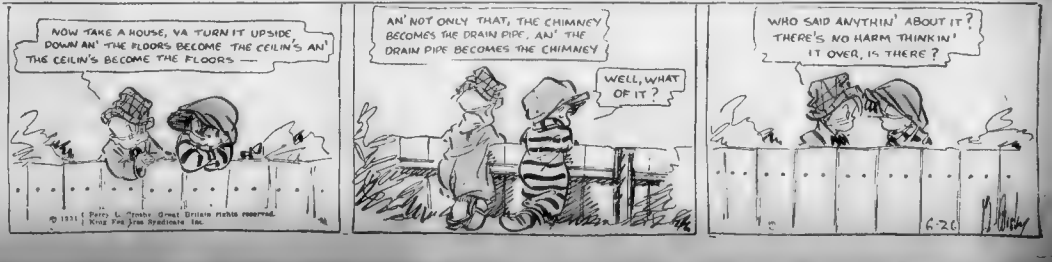
—One advertiser will share a beautiful country cottage (near bathing).

—High-grade automobile mechanics are wanted at once by a dealer whose advertisement appears today in the "male help wanted" section of the classified columns.

—A six-room farm cottage may be rented, furnished. The advertiser states that the rent is reasonable and the cottage is located in a quiet spot.

TODAY'S WANT ADS

SKIPPY — No Harm Done — By Percy Crosby



NOW TAKE A HOUSE, YA TURN IT UPSIDE DOWN AN' THE FLOORS BECOME THE CEILIN'S AN' THE CEILIN'S BECOME THE FLOORS —
AN' NOT ONLY THAT, THE CHIMNEY BECOMES THE DRAIN PIPE, AN' THE DRAIN PIPE BECOMES THE CHIMNEY
WELL, WHAT OF IT?
WHO SAID ANYTHIN' ABOUT IT? THERE'S NO HARM THINKIN' IT OVER, IS THERE?
© 1931 (Percy L. Crosby Great Britain rights reserved. King Features Syndicate Inc.
6-26

DAILY TRUE STORY

FULL SPEED AHEAD

THE GIRL WAS CARRIED INTO ONE OF THE CABINS

SURFEITED WITH the tempo and frivolity of the jazz age, Phil Van Norton was in flight. His yacht, the Natoma II., outward bound for nowhere, was cutting through choppy waves with a musical splash. Not a guest aboard; only Phil, Capt. Benson and the usual crew.

Phil sat in a steamer chair aft, looking out to sea. And all the satisfaction the captain got when he came once more for orders was a laconic "Full speed ahead."

Even the crew began to wonder where they were bound for. As Phil lit another cigarette his black mood settled upon him again.

"Well," he mused, "I've got everything—and nothing. Fed up, that's it. Suppose the Contessa is wondering what's happened to me, but, at least, it's a relief to be rid of them all. What a crowd: All bound, just as I am now, for nowhere laughing as they go. What a farce!"

His reverie was interrupted by a drone overhead like the voice of a giant bee. It drew nearer and nearer. Lazily Phil turned his eyes to the sky, shielding them from the sun with his hand. Now the plane was overhead and passing the yacht on the way out. It had not progressed far before he saw an ant-like figure walking near one of the wings. Suddenly it dropped into space.

Out of the Sky
All Watched Parachute

Phil leaped to his feet. The black dot started downward with the speed of a plummet.

Then a spread of canvas opened above it and the descent of the black dot was suddenly checked. A parachute had opened and the black dot was being slowed up at the end of the sustaining ropes.

In a stiff wind the figure was blown far ahead of the Natoma. Everybody aboard the yacht was watching it. The plane from which it had come circled back twice and came down several hundred feet, but, when its pilot saw that the yacht was heading for the point where the parachute would come down he reversed his course, mounted again and sped back toward land.

Phil was on his feet beside the captain, watching anxiously as the parachute struck the water a quarter mile ahead of the boat.

Ten minutes later the boat pulled up alongside the Natoma and the drenched flier was lifted aboard as Phil watched his crew.

"It's a girl, Mr. Van Norton," said the mate. "We got her out just in time. She's unconscious."

"This is pretty tic," exclaimed Phil. "A girl! Well, we'll have to do the best we can. Hurry her into one of the cabins, captain. I hope she isn't badly off. About all we can do for her is give first aid."

Girl in Blanket
But Apparently Unhurt

An hour later the girl sat wrapped in a blanket, still pale but apparently not much worse for her thrilling experience. Phil in a chair opposite her, showed more animation than he had for days. He told himself that she was mighty attractive and silently admired her bobbed golden hair and her sapphire eyes that gazed so frankly into his as he asked her if she were comfortable enough.

She nodded. "Won't you tell me what this is all about?" he asked with a kindly smile

"Yes," she replied after a moment of hesitation. "You've saved my life and, of course, are entitled to know."

"This is a rather unconventional introduction, but won't you tell me your name first?" said he with another smile.

His thought her voice like music when she began. "I am Neville Grant," she said.

"What has happened seems so impossible—like a nightmare. Can you tell me please, where we are now?" she asked, interrupting the story he was so anxious to hear.

"Oh, we're in latitude something, longitude something else, Miss Grant, but don't let that worry you. I'll be taking you wherever you want to go, you see."

"It happened this way," Phyl- lis continued after a "thank you." "You see, I've been secretary for some time to Mr. Wingdon, the head of a big aviation company. Bob, one of the pilots, has paid a lot of attention to me, but—well, I don't care for him in the way he wishes and told him so. But he only smiled and told me he'd win me in the long run."

Phil nodded understandingly. The girl went on after a moment's silence.

"My people live in Maine," she said. "Last night, late, I received word that my mother was in a serious condition and that I had better come home, if possible. I got permission from Mr. Wingdon. Bob heard of the message I had received and this morning he came to me and persuaded me that the best way to get to Maine and the quickest was by plane.

"I told him I had counted on going by rail, but he finally convinced me that speed was the thing in this emergency. I went with him to the flying field and put on a suit. He insisted that both of us wear parachutes, said we'd be crossing considerable water on the route he had laid out."

Phil was listening with keen and frowning interest.

After we started I sensed something wrong and pulled at his sleeve. Then he passed back a note. I unfolded it and read: 'We are headed south for some point where you and I are going to get married. After you I will never go to Maine and I'll bet a...ree one.'

"Then I grew desperate. I looked over the side of the ship —saw your boat far below.

"I believed that Bob had lost his mind. In terror, I threw myself over the side, taking a chance that I would come out all right."

With a sigh she stopped. "And you did, thank God," said Phil. "What a piece of luck that your boat was there. He gazed at her with admiring eyes and Phyllis blushed.

Phil got up thoughtfully, strode at few steps, then came back. "There's a cabin waiting for you," he said, a little hesitantly. "And, again luckily, you'll find some clothing in a locker that my sister has there the last trip in Bermuda. Are you willing to trust me long?"

"Certainly," she said, awarding him a smile.

"And I'll get you to Maine," he concluded, "just as fast as this boat will go, if that is satisfactory."

"I don't know how to thank you," said Phyllis.

"Don't try," returned Phil. "Oh, captain, north, northeast, to Maine—and full speed ahead!"

(All characters in this story are fictitious.)

OPENS TOMORROW NIGHT SATURDAY, JUNE 27

NEW! ENLARGED!!

COLONIAL BALL ROOM

ONSET, MASS.

Always Dance With the Grain on CAPE COD'S Largest and Finest Dance Floor

BERNARD LORING'S COLONIAL SYNCOPATORS

EVERYBODY HAPPY! LET'S GO!

THREE HOP FROM BOSTON FOR LABRADOR

WINTHROP FLIER OFF FOR FROZEN NORTH

HAROLD G. CROWLEY JAMES K. BROWNELL SIDNEY BONNICK

Bound for the frozen shores of Labrador in hope of photographing its unexplored wonders, three fliers hopped off today from East Boston airport. The plane is piloted by Harold Crowley of Winthrop. Brownell, associate pilot, is from London, and Bonnick, formerly of the Royal British Flying Corps, is photographer. Photo shows them before their hop.

WINTHROP MAN IS A PILOT TO FAR NORTH

Two British Explorers Aboard Plane Will Photograph Uninhabited Regions

Harold G. Crowley, 28, of Edgehill ave., Winthrop, airplane pilot, and two companions took off from Boston harbor early today bound for Labrador, where they will make aerial photographs of the unexplored area in northern Labrador.

Accompanying Crowley was James K. Brownell of London as co-pilot and mechanic, and Sidney Bonnick, photographer.

A stop will be made today in St. John's, N. F., for fuel. The trio will then continue on to St. Anthony, N. F., where they will meet Dr. Alexander Forbes of Milton, organizer of the expedition.

Equipped with pontoons for water landings, the Fairchild cabin monoplane has a cruising radius of about 700 miles. All photographs will be made at an altitude of 15,000 feet.

'TIME' FROM BROWNIES

SUPT. DONOVAN MR. O'BRIEN

James P. O'Brien, champion handball player at the L st. baths presenting a watch to Supt. John J. Donovan in recognition of his 25 years' service there. The watch was a gift of the "L St. Brownies." (Staff photo.)

'L' ST. DIRECTOR GIVEN WATCH

The "L St. Brownies," all-year-round bathers' club at L st., today presented a gold watch to John J. Donovan in recognition of his 25 years of service as superintendent of the beach.

The presentation was made by "Jimmie" O'Brien, former Holy Cross baseball star, a member of the club, and champion handball player at the bathing place.

Small Geyser

Water from a broken water main in Quincy st., Arlington, roared down the steep grade of the street, causing a miniature geyser for about 15 minutes.

WATCH SHADING IN DRAWING

Continued from Page 15

er and fainter, to disappear entirely under the full blaze of the light.

You will notice on the side of the orange in Figure 2, a softer shadow made up of a series of curved lines. Although these lines are drawn with the same black ink as the heavy shadows, the white spaces between them give a soft, gray effect. That is just the effect we want, and the curve in the lines helps to create the illusion that the figure of the orange is round.

STUDY COMICS

Study the cartoons on the comic pages. You see that the shadows under the feet of the characters are handled in a different manner by each artist, and in some drawings are left out entirely.

Each artist seems to have his own method of "style" which enables you to recognize his work without looking for his signature.

Take the simple rules we are giving you in this course, practice and try out ideas of your own. You can develop a style that will be thoroughly individual. Don't try to imitate anybody else. Work these things out for yourself and practice as much as you can, soon you will be able to handle shadows in your own way with a real pictorial touch.

KEEP YOUR DRAWINGS

Nelson Harding, whose editorial cartoons appear frequently in the Boston Evening American, will show you how to get depth in your pictures, tomorrow. Follow this absorbing course in the Boston Evening American and learn to draw, with the world's greatest newspaper artists to teach you.

Where Is He?

All dressed up in a naval uniform, 11-year-old Douglass Simmons, of Quincy, is missing. He told pals that he was out to see the world. His parents live at 90 Ruggles st., Quincy.

AIR HOP ENDS A DOG'S LONG TRIP

"Briggy," a Kerry Blue dog of fine pedigree, came all the way here from anta Barbara, Cal, for his first airplane ride today.

The dog is the pet of Mr. and Mrs. David Gray of Santa Barbara. They arrived in Boston a few days ago en route to a vacation in Nantucket. "Briggy" was shipped East on a train which arrived at 2 o'clock this morning.

At 10 o'clock he was taken in a taxicab to the East Boston airport, where Gray had a lively time getting "Briggy" aboard a plane. The dog could not understand the roar of the motor.

"Briggy" got used to it, however, and the plane, piloted by William Tanner, with the Grays, took off for Nantucket.

MORRISON HELD IN UNION THEFT

Neil D. Morrison, former treasurer of Local No. 11, Brotherhood of Painters, Paperhangers and Decorators, today was arrested on a warrant charging larceny of $3685 from the union funds during his term in office.

Morrison, who lives in Howes st., Dorchester, was arrested in Berkeley st., near police headquarters. He refused to answer any questions regarding the alleged shortages in his accounts disclosed by an audit of the union books.

Air Compressors in Somerville Stolen

Somerville police are seeking thieves who broke into the building of the water works department over the week-end the night and stole two air compressors used in tearing up streets. The articles are valued at $200 each. Police believe the job was done by the same persons who stole two compressors from a shed in Market st., Brighton, yesterday.

Schwartz's Mother Dies in Hospital

Mrs. Dora Schwartz, 34, mother of Attorney Leo Schwartz, legal adviser to Police Commissioner Eugene C. Hultman, died in Beth Israel Hospital today following an illness of a month.

Mrs. Schwartz made her home with Leo, her only child, at 2 Seaver rd., Boston. She is also survived by her husband, Harris A. Schwartz, and several brothers and sisters. The funeral will be [illegible]

now.. Schlitz is VITALIZED with SUNSHINE

by an Original ULTRA-VIOLET RAY PROCESS

*Vitalized Purifies and puts sunshine into all Schlitz Malt Syrup. Process patent applied for.

Schlitz puts into malt syrup all the vigor .. all the energy of sun-drenched grain. Everyone knows that sunshine is the source of strength and vitality .. That's why Schlitz Malt Syrup is vitalized".

Made from the finest grain .. mellowed with sunshine sealed into the can .. Use Schlitz .. America's Greatest Value .. It's vitalized".

THE ONLY VITALIZED MALT SYRUP

"SCHLITZ ... THE MALT THAT KEEPS MILWAUKEE FAMOUS"

Take the Place of FRESHEST

Taste the Difference

Always INSIST ON NEW ENGLAND DRESSED FRESH PORK

Here's PORK As Fresh As PEAS From Your Own Garden . . . . . .

You know the marvelous flavor, the sweetness and tenderness of Fresh Green Peas picked from your own garden. How good they taste—how different! NOTHING TAKES THE PLACE OF FRESHEST.

New England Dressed Fresh Pork offers you the same degree of freshness—all the natural flavor and goodness which comes from Pork cut from the choicest Corn Fed Porkers brought on alive from the Grain Belt and received by your dealer within 24 hours after cutting. Taste The Difference. In Pork, as in Green Peas, NOTHING TAKES THE PLACE OF FRESHEST.

21 NEW ENGLAND DRESSED FRESH PORK 21

Get this Recipe Book FREE

A post card to any of these five merchants brings you "21 Reasons for Using and 21 Ways to Serve New England Dressed Fresh Pork."

Identify NEW ENGLAND DRESSED FRESH PORK by Any of these Brands.

SQUIRE — John P. Squire & Company, Boston, Mass.

SPERRY & BARNES — NEW ENGLAND DRESSED FRESH PORK — Sperry & Barnes Company, New Haven, Conn.

WHITE-PEVEY — NEW ENGLAND DRESSED FRESH PORK — White, Pevey & Dexter Company, Worcester, Mass.

NORTH — NEW ENGLAND DRESSED FRESH PORK — North Packing & Provision Company, Boston, Mass.

BRIGHTWOOD — NEW ENGLAND DRESSED FRESH PORK — Springfield Provision Company, Springfield, Mass.

HURLEY FINDS 'SHORTCOMINGS' IN STATE PRISON ACCOUNTS

VILE CONDITION ADMITTED BY STEARNS

Agrees With the Grand Jury in Much of Report; Would Abolish Death Chair

On the heels of the scathing criticisms of Charlestown State prison by the Suffolk County Grand Jury, the Boston Evening American learned today that State Auditor Francis X. Hurley recently made a report finding serious shortcomings in the institution's methods of handling accounts and materials.

Auditor Hurley's report was made to Dr. A. Warren Stearns, state commissioner of correction, who today admitted the truth of a great part of the grand jury's complaints.

WHAT HURLEY FOUND

Among other things, Hurley reported that:

Checks for large amounts were signed at State Prison and left unscancelled when not used.

Checks are sometimes signed in blank and left in the checkbooks, unused.

Much unnecessary bookkeeping is done in separating the customers' accounts for the different industries operated at the prison.

Accounts, probably uncollectable, totalling $8678.85, are on the books; one of these is for $2874.36.

Goods shipped from the workshops on "releases," which merely specify so many "bundles."

No check is made on materials received from outside.

PRISON MUST GO

Stock valued at $750,000 is scattered about several buildings, because of lack of storage space, and no one can be held accountable for these materials; consequently, there is a great difference between book and physical inventories.

The "Big House" at Charlestown must go, and go quickly, the jurors asserted in a report late yesterday to Judge Harold P. Williams of Superior Court, in which they detailed vile conditions, as exposed last Friday by the Boston Evening American.

Speaking over the telephone from his home in Billerica, where he is ill with grip, Commissioner Stearns said:

"I have no desire to take exception to the report of the grand jury. There are ample grounds for a great part of the criticisms.

"END DEATH PENALTY"

"The matter has been put up to the legislature repeatedly. Several years ago the first appropriation was made for the Norfolk State prison colony and at the last session the legislature project, on request of Governor Ely.

"The answer to the complaint that the death house is old, dilapidated, unventilated and the worst part of the prison is abolition of capital punishment.

"I do not agree with the criticisms about personnel and discipline. The relationship between the guards and inmates is quite satisfactory and Warden James L. Hoggett deserves commendation."

DAUGHTERS ARE BIG HELP TO MAMAS IN DVORCE COURT

BEATRICE ZABLOTSKI MRS. ZABLOTSKI NELLIE ZABLOTSKI

QUAKE PARTS TWO

Mrs. Adeline Asai of Arlington, who won a divorce today because her husband sent her to the States and himself remained in Japan after the earthquake six years ago.

THEY SAW THEIR MOTHER KICKED

In her suit for divorce in Middlesex Probate Court, Mrs. Veronica Zabiotski of Cambridge testified her husband, Peter, kicked and beat her. Her two daughters corroborated her story, and the decree was granted. It was testified that Peter became rough when intoxicated on bootleg liquor. (Staff photos.)

BEATEN WITH MOTHER

Another daughter to aid her mother's divorce suit was Marion Ford, who testified her father, John F., of Malden, had beaten her when he beat her mother.

PLANS FOR WAR EXPLAINED TO CREDIT MEN

American Industry Will Be Mobilized for Action, Says Payne

American industry as well as American manhood will be mobilized in the next war, if there is a next war, delegates of the National Association of Credit Men were told today at their convention in the Statler Hotel by Frederick H. Payne, Assistant Secretary of War.

"The world learned during 1914-1918," said the Assistant War Secretary, "that when modern nations resort in armed conflict, success depends as directly upon ability to mobilize its material requirements as upon the skill with which fighting units are employed against the enemy.

"War has become a struggle between whole peoples—it is no longer a semi-sporting contest between professional armies. The preparation of programs for use in emergency consequently involves the devising of methods for combining and employing every national resource in such manner as to exert promptly the maximum force against any possible aggressor.

"In peace or war, however, no control over industrial establishments will be exercised by the assistant secretary of war or by anyone else with the War Department.

"The duty of my office in peace is to seek out pertinent data—point out practicable methods and organization under which success may be attained—and prepare for the prompt initiation of applicable measures when the emergency arrives."

THEY SPEAK TO CREDIT MEN

JAMES A. EMERY ASST. SECY. PAYNE

Chief addresses today at the convention of the National Association of Credit Men and the Credit Congress of Industry at the Statler Hotel were delivered by the organization's general counsel, James A. Emery, and Frederick H. Payne, Assistant Secretary of War. (Staff photos.)

CRABTREE CASE WOMAN JAILED

Federal Judge James M. Morton today denied a petition for a writ of habeas corpus filed by Mrs. Ida M. Blankenburg, who was remanded to Charles st. jail a short time ago to serve a six months sentence for perjury for testimony given when she made claims against the estate of Lotta Crabtree in 1925.

Mrs. Blankenberg was remanded to the custody of a sheriff and was taken to jail to begin serving her sentence.

Since her surrender and subsequent remanding to jail by Probate Judge Prest, Mrs. Blankenberg has been out on bail on a temporary writ.

The writ was sought today on the ground that her constitutional rights had not been considered when she was remanded to jail Atty. John J. Cummings made a lengthy plea to Judge Morton for the granting of the writ.

Judge Morton also denied a certificate of reasonable doubt which would permit the case to be taken before the circuit court of appeals for trial.

Near-Beer, and Poor at That, Wins Him an Acquittal

A near beer defense won freedom for a man in Quincy court today on a charge of operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor.

Frederick Friend, 40, of Wellington st., Braintree, offered the defense in a statement that he had two glasses of near beer after a trying day as longshoreman at Commonwealth Pier

"It wasn't even good beer," Field told Judge Avery, at the same time qualifying himself as a critic by a statement that he was a German.

"I've been drinking beer since I was 8 years old, and if I was drunk yesterday I've been drunk for more than 30 years," he added.

After listening to other witnesses, Judge Avery dismissed the charge.

Cambridge Boy, Hit by Baseball, Dies

Robert Campbell of 26 Plymouth st., Cambridge, who was injured when struck by a baseball while playing with companions on Plymouth st. near his home on June 17, died today at the Cambridge City Hospital

HALL IS CLOSED BY STAG SHOW

Mayor Curley and Police Commissioner Hultman today suspended the license of Berkeley Hall, Tremont st., until Aug. 1 as a result of an alleged immoral show given there on April 30.

The show at which Gertrude Hayes of Back Bay and "Pet" Bedford of New York appeared clad only in a string of pearls was staged by the Good Fellows Club and raided by police who posed as members.

Miss Hayes and Miss Bedford were both sentenced to six months and four men were also convicted as a result of the show.

William L. Baker, president of the Good Fellows Hall Association, appeared on behalf of the club and urged that the hall be allowed to remain open.

ICEMAN BARELY SAVED IN CRASH

To be pinned between two trucks and a street car in a smashup and escape unhurt was the experiences of Morton Vogler, Everet iceman, today.

Vogler was giving directions to Peter K. Sheridan of Magdella st., Dorchester, who had stopped on Broadway, Everett, near Lafayette st.

A street car operated by John Ladd struck the rear of Sheridan's truck, threw it toward Vogler's and demolished the front

Sheridan and his helper, William Crowley of Dorchester ave., Dorchester, complained of slight injuries, and one passenger on the car was reported injured. None required hospital treatment, however.

Ely at Westfield Home for Week-End

Gov. Ely is at his home in Westfield and is not expected to return to the State House until Tuesday.

The governor sent Morgan T. Ryan, newly appointed registrar of motor vehicles, to represent him last evening at the conference of New England Playground Workers at Springfield.

COURT SNIPS 30 WEDLOCK TIES

More than 30 divorces were granted in Middlesex court today, the testimony showing a wide variety of troubled marital pairs.

Mrs. Adelina Asai of 48 Moulton rd., Arlington, charged her husband deserted her in far off Tokio, Japan, six years ago, after sending her to the United States to get out of the earthquake area.

They were married at Washington on Columbus Day, 1919, and went to Tokio a year later where her husband was engaged in gardening. She described him as "a man of means."

Two daughters of Mrs. Veronica Zabiotski of 7 Harrison st., Cambridge, came to the fore for her in her suit for divorce from Peter Zabiotski, now of Lawrence.

SAW MOTHER KICKED

Beatrice, 17, and Nellie, 15, corroborated testimony of their mother that Peter was cruel and beat and kicked the mother while intoxicated.

Another daughter to aid her mother was Marion Ford, 16, of Malden on the petition of Mrs Marion L. Ford for divorce from John F. Ford. Mrs. Ford and her daughter both said they required hospital treatment after a beating Ford gave them in November, 1930.

The troubles of Mrs. Agnes T. Randall of Melrose arose over her husband, Lyman W. Randall, coming home inthe wee hours under the influence of liquor and with a demand for food. He beat her and choked her last March, she testified, when she refused him the early morning meal

A double brother and sister wedding of three years ago found its way into court in another case.

NAMES "BOY FRIEND"

Mrs. Grace V. McCarthy won a divorce from James McCarthy of Weymouth with corroborating testimony by Mrs. Mary McCarthy, her sister and wife of McCarthy's brother. The two sisters live together now at Mrs. Mary McCarthy's home, Massachusetts ave., Cambridge.

Ralph H. Philbrick of Natick was one of the few men who sought freedom. He charged Mrs. Olive M. Philbrick, now of Framingham, insisted that her "boy friend" shoot her husband after the latter had found them together in his home. The couple were married 10 years ago in Augusta, Me.

JERRY STEPS OUT AND THE POLE CRASHES

J. J. Cohen looking at the electric light pole in Stuart st. which snapped off today when Jerry, horse driven by Samuel Miller, stepped forward a few feet, crashing the wagon into the upright. Miller and Jerry both escaped injury. Jerry is shown at left still attached to the wagon and unaware of the commotion he caused. (Staff photo.)

WHAT DID YOU SEE TODAY

The Evening American buys news as well as sells it

We pay for each and every exclusive news and photo tip that results in a story or picture. No limit on price for tips on extraordinary, exclusive stories.

$50 or More Each Week!

AMERICAN TIP EDITOR, LIBERTY 4000

½ FARE ROUND TRIP .. 50¢
CHILDREN UNDER 12 .. 25¢
SUNDAY, JUNE 28TH
NANTASKET BEACH
Steamers leave Rowe's Wharf Every Hour from 10.15 A. M. to 8.15 P. M. Return from Nantasket Beach Every Hour from 11.30 A. M. to 10.45 P. M.
Nantasket Beach Steamboat Co.
FREDERIC L. LANE
Treas. and Gen. Mgr.

DO YOU KNOW

That We Give One Day Service on All Our Plates come to our office in the morning; have your work completed the same day

That Our Positive Painless Extractions Are FREE when reconstructions are ordered

That We Have "Minute" Men Repair Service missing teeth restored or your plate in a few minutes.

That Old Plates Are Remade Like New the Same Day We Gladly Adjust Troublesome Plates Free whether ours or made elsewhere

U. S. Patent 1721868 Dr. Hewson

Our Roofless Upper and Lockin Cushion Lower Make a Wonderful Set of Teeth

SPECIAL OFFER RUBBER $12.50 Roof Plate
Full upper or lower made of best red rubber (red like picture.) Silver Fillings $1 Cleanings $1

OUR "PATENTED" LOCKIN CUSHION LOWER is the only plate ever invented that locks comfortably and tightly to the lower jaw. Made here exclusively.

Dr. Hewson Dental Co. (A)
427 Washington St.
Hours Daily: 8:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. OPEN ALL DAY SATURDAY. Opp. Filene's. Tel. Hub. 1858

BRINE'S ANNIVERSARY SALE
Established 1851 — 81st Anniversary

—features the lowest prices and most outstanding values we've offered in years.

If you are acquainted with Brine's standards of quality and value, famous for sixty-one years . . . here is an opportunity to see—to compare . . . and to prove to your own satisfaction that Brine's is the place to buy sports goods. Remember . . . you get your money's worth at Brine's . . . and that applies every business day of the year . . . sale times and otherwise.

Check your vacation needs, buy now and benefit by these extraordinary values.

'Kamp Kook' Gasoline Stoves
Reg. $5.50 Anniversary Price $3.95
Has two burners with ample capacity for a party of four or five people. Tank measures 8x14½ in.; tank holds one quart, three hours' supply. Folds to 3½x8xx 14½ in., weight 9 lbs.

L. & H. Lind-O-Lite
2 burner gasoline lantern, and spensable for campers; regularly $8 Anniversary Price $6.95

Fishing Tackle
"Autograph" Trout Flies, regularly $1.75 doz. Anniversary Price, doz. $1.45
Maine Trout Flies, regularly $2.75 doz., Anniversary Price, doz.. $1.85
"Cross" Rods, regularly $50. Anniversary Price $38
Reg. $40. Anniversary Price $30
Reg. $32.50. Anniversary Price $25

Tennis Rackets
Ash frames, strung with good quality silk gut.
Regularly up to $3.00.. $1.79
Regularly up to $6.00.. $3.39
Regularly up to $10.00.. $4.95

TENNIS SETS (Combination)
Racket, cover and 3 balls ..... $3.75 up

Always Better Values in Brine's Swim Suits

Children's Bathing Suits
All wool, in stripes and plain colors. Sizes 2 to 12 years. Anniversary Price $1.95

Women's Bathing Suits
All wool pure colors, regularly $3.00 Anniversary Price $1.95

Men's Bathing Suits
All wool speed model, plain colors and stripes. Regularly $3.45 Anniversary Price $1.95

Dave Bancroft Glove
Reg. $3.00 Anniversary Price $1.95
Good quality, oil tanned Hat thumb reinforcement and eyelet. Thumb and finger lace. Full calibre lining.

Baseball Shoes
Good grade upper, with spikes. Regularly $3.50 to $5.50. Anniversary Price $2.85

Baseball Shoes
Best grade selected upper, steel spikes; regularly $5.50 Anniversary Price $3.95

Blazer Sport Coats
For Men, Boys, Misses
Excellently tailored of all wool flannel, the smartest type of sports coat to wear with plain or striped flannel pants; men's sizes 34 to 46 $4.65
Misses' Suede Leather Coats
Sizes 14 to 20 $3.85
Exceptional Value in Boys' Sweaters
Novelty style, all wool, attractively patterned, regular $3.50 and $4.00 Anniversary Price $1.89
Boys' Shorts
Of all wool navy flannel, for vacation and seashore Sizes 24 to 30. Regularly $1.75. Anniversary Price.... 90c
Flannel Skirts
Not all colors or sizes, regularly $3.00 Anniversary Price $1.97
Athletic Underwear
Shirts of good quality cotton, porous weave, regularly 65c. Anniversary Price..... 35c
Running Pants of good quality white jean, regularly 65c. Anniversary Price 45c

5000 Golf Clubs from Leading Maker at Savings of 50 to 60%

JAMES W. BRINE CO.
22 Summer St. At Brine's Sports Corner

THIMBLE THEATER Starring POPEYE

Now Showing—"The Iron Man" Tomorrow—"The General Craves an Audience" By Segar

A Full Page POPEYE Comic Appears Tomorrow in the BOSTON AMERICAN Watch For It

YES, WE HAVE TWO HUNDRED FEET OF ROPE WRAPPED AROUND POPEYE
GOOD-WE'LL EXECUTE HIM AT ONCE
YOO-HOO!
WHO SAID YOO HOO?
I SLIPPED OUT OF THEM ROPES, GENERAL, IT'S A OL' TRICK I LEARNT AT SEA
WELL, I'LL BE—
GUARD-BEAT THIS MAN TO A PULP. IT'S A COMMAND
I LEFT THE WATER RUNNING IN THE BATH TUB - I'LL HAVE TO HURRY HOME!
YOU LICK MY BEST MEN—YOU BREAK JAIL AT WILL—YOU ESCAPE FROM A TON OF ROPE—HOW ARE YOU ABLE TO DO SUCH THINGS?
THAT'S EASY EATS SPINACH

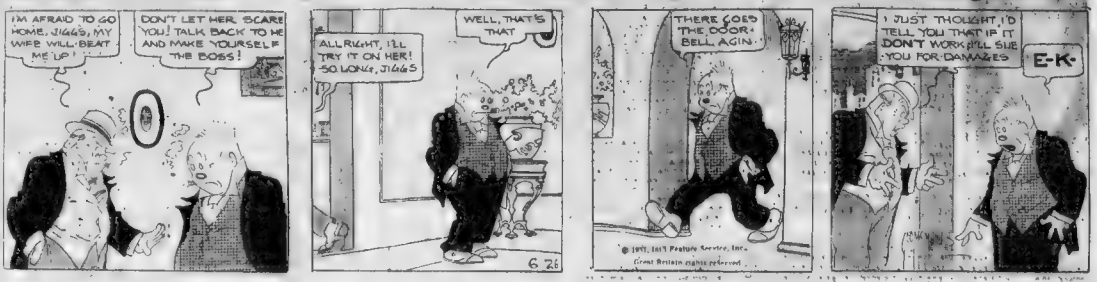
KRAZY KAT

Monkeyshines

DOUBLE SIZE KRAZY KAT COMIC TOMORROW

BRINGING UP FATHER

Jiggs Is Threatened By George McManus



I'M AFRAID TO GO HOME, JIGGS, MY WIFE WILL BEAT ME UP!
DON'T LET HER SCARE YOU! TALK BACK TO HE AND MAKE YOURSELF THE BOSS!
ALL RIGHT, I'LL TRY IT ON HER! SO LONG, JIGGS
WELL, THAT'S THAT THERE GOES THE DOOR BELL AGIN
I JUST THOUGHT, I'D TELL YOU THAT IF IT DON'T WORK I'LL SUE YOU FOR DAMAGES
E-K-

TIM TYLER'S FLYING LUCK

Inseparable Pals By Lym Young

HE'S GAINING EVERY SECOND! AND I DON'T (PUFF-PUFF) SEEM ABLE TO (PUFF) G-GET UP ANY M-MORE STEAM (PUFF)—
GEE
I-I WON'T S-SURRENDER WITHOUT A (PUFF-PUFF) S-BATTLE!!

POLLY AND HER PALS

A Sympathetic Instructor By Cliff Sterrett

YOU'RE THE FUST PRO. I EVER BEEN TO. I NEVER TOOK A LESSON IN MY LIFE!
O.K. LET'S SEE YOU TAKE A SWING!
Y'BIG STIFF! WOTCHA THINK YER LAUGHIN' AT?
UPON MY WORD, SIR,—
-I'M NOT LAUGHING!

COOK-COOS

By TED COOK

Copyright, 1931, for the Boston Evening American

Under the leadership of the National Live Stock and Meat Board the industry has decided on an advertising campaign to broadcast the information that meat prices are down.

Which may be a very good idea. There's certainly no sense in keeping it a secret forever.

* * *

Some of us radicals even think the retailers should be told about it.

* * *

Says Genevieve, the kitchen cynic: If there's anything worse than the effect the movies have on youthful minds, it must be the effect youthful minds have on the movies.

* * *

Milestone on the path to civil-ization—

(Palouse, Wash., Republic)

To the public—

The Palouse Volunteer Fire Department, being proud of their efficient work, desire to register their protest against the fault-finding of those who have not the physical ability to run a block.

MILO BURNETT, Chief.
WADE McLAM, Ass't Chief.

* * *

A robust mug is Ethelbert Lorch
He trims his corns with a plumber's torch,
But toughee still is Mumford Placid,
Who gargles his throat with prussic acid.

Sing Something Simple

My gal is a moron,
With a simple brain—
That's the way I like her,
Comfortably inane.
Celebrating mamas,
With their stress and strain,
Wear me to a frazzle,
Give me quite a pain.

* * *

Hop O'Connor says that all this stuff that is supposed to be pre-war really is. But it's pre the next war.

* * *

Simile—

As coy as a modiste playing spin the plate at an Elks picnic.

And when radical meets radical there's one more conservative.

FAMOUS LAST WORDS

But, my dear Mr. Drinkwater, I know Uncle Carl personally.

* * *

Pass the spinach!

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

Their Ship Comes In By Darrell McClure

YOU'RE A BRAVE LASS—TO THINK OF YOU, ALL READY TO WALK THE PLANK INTO AN ORPHAN ASYLUM TO HELP YOUR SHIPMATES!
BUT YOU AN' MR. ALBERT JUST GOTTA GET TO THAT MINE!
DON'T WORRY YOUR LITTLE HEAD—THE CAPTAIN AND ME HAVE WEATHERED MANY A STORM TOGETHER
IF IT WASN'T THAT THE RAILROAD WANTS ALL OUR MONEY FOR A RIDE ON THEIR CLATTERING DUST TRAINS—WE'D HAVE CLEAR SAILING
BUT COULDN'T YOU GO THERE ON THAT SWELL LITTLE BOAT YOU OWN?—I THOUGHT—HURRAH—WE WERE DRIFTING ON THE ROCKS—BUT YOU'VE SAVED THE SHIP—AND YOU MAY LAY TO THAT!

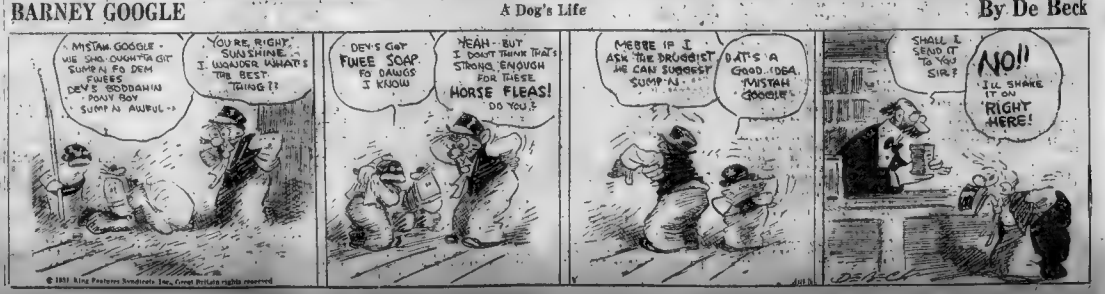
BARNEY GOOGLE

A Dog's Life By De Beck



MISTAH GOOGLE - WE SHO OUGHTTA GIT SUMP'N FO DEM PUREES DEY'S GOODNIN POOR BOY SUMP'N AWFUL—
YOU'RE RIGHT SUNSHINE, I WONDER WHAT'S THE BEST THING?
DEY'S GOT FINEE SOAP FO DAWGS I KNOW
YEAH - BUT I DON'T THINK THAT'S STRONG ENOUGH FOR THESE HORSE FLEAS! DO YOU?
MEBBE IF I ASK THE DRUGGIST HE CAN SUGGEST SUMP'N...
DAT'S A GOOD IDEA, MISTAH GOOGLE
SHALL I SEND IT TO YOU SIR?
NO!! I'LL SHAKE IT ON RIGHT HERE!

Marry-Go-Round

THOSE "UNDERSTANDINGS" ARE SOUL-DEADENING

By HELEN ROWLAND

THERE IS nothing like one of those deadly, long-drawn-out, "now-you've-got-me-and-now-you-haven't" love affairs, to take all the color, starch, vivacity, style, pep and personality out of a girl.

• • •

Love, like homeopathy, has a primary and secondary effect.

HELEN ROWLAND.

Falling in love, like a facial treatment, completely transforms and translfigures a woman—just at first.

But, unless she repeats the process now and then, it is apt to leave her more wan and saggy and haggard-looking than ever.

• • •

Why do so many girls, these days, go in for those "understandings," in which the only understanding is that the man understands that the girl will marry him, some day, if he decides to ask her? They are soul-deadening!

• • •

Marriage is different. A husband may TRY to dissect a woman's thoughts, distort her manners, and establish a censorship over her clothes, her friends and her amusements—but only a sweetheart really succeeds!

• • •

A husband is a sure thing. He couldn't possibly absorb a woman, keep her on the ragged edge and spoil her beauty sleep, as a fiance or a lover does.

• • •

It's funny—but the moment a man falls in love with a woman, he immediately proceeds to transform her into a solitary island, completely surrounded by his own personality. He selects her because she is "different"—and then starts to tone her down, cut out her little mannerisms and eccentrics, and take a tuck in her vanity and a roof in her purse.

• • •

And when at last she has become a nonentity and the last vestige of her individuality has disappeared, he marries her—and she is "sunk."

• • •

Or else he doesn't marry her—and she revives!

• • •

That is why most men stay young longer than most women. A man never permits love to absorb, dominate and obliterate him—for long.

• • •

With him it is "just a little love"—and then "another little love." He is always in love—but never deep enough in love to be utterly submerged by the waters of oblivion.

• • •

But a woman just adores being a "martyr"—and nothing can STOP her from immolating herself on the altar of love, if she gets a chance.

• • •

Somehow, she doesn't feel that she's really in LOVE unless she's "suffering!" And "sacrificing herself!"

(Copyright, 1931, for the Boston Evening American.)

How to Prevent Diseases by Medicine

By DR. R. S. COPELAND

IN THE past quarter of a century great advances have been made in medicine. New germs, new diseases, as well as new methods of treating old diseases, have been discovered.

Dr. Copeland

One of the most important of recent advances in the development of a branch of medicine, known as "preventive medicine." This has decreased the number of deaths per year and greatly increased the average span of life.

Notable among these advances is immunization against disease. The word "immunization" is applied to inoculation, or vaccination, of the body, for the prevention of specific diseases.

Smallpox has been all but eradicated. Cases of this one-time dreaded infection are now seldom heard of in civilized countries. This marked change can only be attributed to universal vaccination.

All children should be vaccinated against smallpox before they are one year old. The United States Public Health Service advises that before entering school the child should be vaccinated again.

Another dreaded disease now controlled by immunization is diphtheria. This dread visitation is entirely preventable.

Other diseases formerly feared are now well within the limits of prevention. The future of medicine lies in prevention rather than cure.

Answers to Health Questions

A. G. J. Q.—How can a person tell if they have tuberculosis?

A.—An examination of the sputum will determine this.

• • •

M. C. H. Q.—What causes gas and pain in the stomach?

A.—It would be advisable to see your doctor for examination to locate the underlying cause of the trouble.

• • •

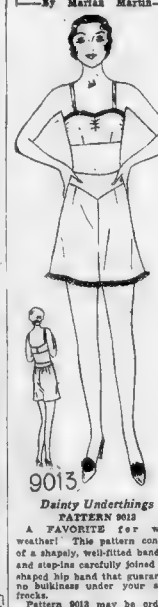
MRS. M. F. A. Q.—What will eradicate pimples?

A.—Careful attention to the diet and elimination should not only clear the complexion but benefit the system in general. For full particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

(Copyright, 1931, for the Boston Evening American)

Daily Pattern

By Marian Martin



Dainty Underthings

PATTERN 9013

A FAVORITE for warm weather! This pattern consists of a shapely, well-fitted bandeau, and step-ins carefully joined to a shaped hip band that guarantees no bulkiness under your sheer frocks.

Pattern 9013 may be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42.

To get a pattern of this model, send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred). Please write very plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER and SIZE of each pattern ordered.

The Pattern Catalog contains an excellent assortment of afternoon, sports, and house dresses, exquisite lingerie and pajamas and adorable kiddies' models, also delightful ACCESSORY PATTERNS. Price of Catalog, FIFTEEN CENTS. Catalog and pattern together, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

Address all orders to Boston Evening American Pattern Department, 243 West 39th Street, New York City.

HE THREATENS TO 'END ALL' FOR LOVE OF GIRL

Don't Fear, Says Miss Fairfax

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

About six weeks ago I met a young man who seemed very nice. Since then, he's been writing and calling me by phone. I write him a few letters, and now I am sorry. I've found out he is not at all my type. He is "fresh"—goes out with a "fast crowd" and swears. I am not at all used to that sort of person and suggested that he should not call or write me any more. But he insists that I see him. He even says he'll do something desperate, and I believe it of him because he has a jealous nature. He says he can change if I would give him a chance. But why should I be bothered with him when I can get someone so wonderful?

Won't you try and help me, because if he does end it all, I would feel guilty of it? My family is very much disturbed about this. D. D.

Dear D. D.: Because you have made a mistake in the beginning, there is no reason why you should continue when you feel certain that this young man is not the type you could admire. I think the young man is bluffing about doing something desperate, and I wouldn't worry over that.

Old-Fashioned Girl

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

I am twenty years old, and lots of people tell me I am pretty, but I cannot seem to meet any nice young men. Girls say I am too old-fashioned because I do not drink. I do not care for that. I find enjoyment out of going to a show and having a friendly conversation, but it seems that such diversions are not the enjoyment of today.

I work in an office and see the same faces every day. I do not care to belong to any clubs. Could you suggest how I could meet some nice young men?

LONESOME.

Dear Lonesome: At the risk of seeming possibly a little unsympathetic, my dear Lonesome, I am going to say that I believe part of your trouble is your own aloofness. For the most part, people are receptive to good nature and cheerfulness. There are many gay young people who have no thought of drinking or leading a wild life. Be cheerful and pleasant, and you will attract the right type of friends. Good luck to you!

Shall She Wait for Him?

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

Perhaps you can help me, as you have helped other girls. "A" and I have been going together for six months. We started as "pals" but now we find we love each other dearly. The reason we haven't married is that "A" still goes to school and it will be three or four years before he'll be able to get a position that pays well enough.

What shall I do? Wait three or four years, or give him up now? You see, I am quite old, almost 21. But I'll always love him, no matter what happens.

JUST D.

Dear Just D.: Goodness, what an old lady, almost 21! Don't you know, dear child, that 25 is considered by many people the ideal age for a girl to marry. It seems to me that you are very fortunate to be in love with a young man who has ambition and a career in prospect. But you must be sensible and put all thought of marriage out of your heads until he can get through school. Why not take up a course yourself, in domestic science, the arts, or some interesting subject that would keep you busy and contented while those few years slip away?

The Beauty Box

WE just can't live without the evening frock of lace, especially when it comes in a frock for week-ending. Ideal for such a purpose is a frock of pale beige silk lace with a pointed peplum and fichu capelet. Peplum, capelet and hemline are bound in pink taffeta, and there is a pink taffeta belt.

Smart Sayings of Children

The Boston Evening American would pay $1 for the best one of the published smart sayings each day. Address "Smart Sayings," Boston Evening American.

TODAY'S WINNER

A little boy with his mother, looking at a steamer in the harbor and some tow boats around it.

Mother, what is that?

That is a steamer, my boy.

And what is the small ones, his little boy.

HERBERT COCORANE.
L. S. S., Middleboro.

HONORABLE MENTION

Plumber—"I came to fix that old tub in the kitchen."

Little Eleanor, calling to her mother—"Ma, here's the doctor to see the cook."

R. L. LARSEN.
86 Falcon st., East Boston.

Teacher—"Is there any difference between vision and sight?"

Boy—"Sure! I can call my girl a vision, but never a sight!"

L. PALMER.
24 Austin st., Somerville.

SHANTUNG FOR SPORTS

Severe Model by Regny

SKETCHED IN PARIS

Very heavy ivory toned shantung silk makes this smart Summer sport suit from Jane Regny. The little belted jacket has a trimming of bias bands of the material at each side and in back. Similar trimming is found on the cuff. The skirt has wide, inverted box-pleats at the front and a single one in back. The pocket flaps on the coat are held down with white galalith buttons. A handkerchief scarf of white crepe with navy and light blue coin dots makes a smart accessory.

When Queen of May Comes to the Winter of Life

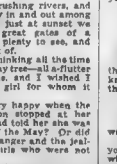
By WINIFRED BLACK

DID YOU ever see a tree growing in a garden as strong and free as ever was—and all decorated with ribbons and rosettes, little wreaths of paper flowers, chains and garlands of silver and gold paper?

It is a pretty sight—a gift to a bright May morning.

I saw one the other day, in Germany, just on the edge of the Black Forest, and I couldn't think what in the world it was all about.

The prettiest little bride in the world turned around from the seat in front of me and said in delicious broken English that it was a May tree in honor of the prettiest girl in the village.



Winifred Black

And the prettiest bride's husband looked at her in smiling reproach and said something in such a low voice that none of us could hear what it was he said, but we all knew just the same.

We knew that the bridegroom told the bride that the May tree might be decorated in honor of the prettiest girl in the village, but well he knew that the prettiest girl in the world did not live in that village at all.

And before us rolled the glorious panorama of dark mountains, and smiling orchards all ablow, and green valleys in the streaming sunshine.

We crossed rushing rivers, and wound our way in and out among the hills. And just at sunset we came to the great ruins of a mighty castle; plenty to see, and plenty to think of.

But I kept thinking all the time of the little May tree—all a-flutter in the sunshine, and I wished I could see the girl for whom it was decorated.

Was she very happy when the little procession stopped at her garden gate and told her she was to be queen of the May? Or did she dread the anger and the jealousy of the girls who were not chosen?

Beauty and charm are gifts of the gods, but those who are favored with them must pay always the bitter price of jealousy and envy.

And was she really the prettiest girl, after all?

Or was she just the sweetest and the most beloved?

Did the women and girls have a voice in the matter, or was the queen of the May chosen by the men?

Quite a different answer if the women did the choosing.

Haven't you noticed it, girls?

The Queen of the May—was her hair flaxen or brown?

Was she tall, or was she tiny?

And sometime in some distant day when her hair is neither black nor blonde, and when no one would dream she was ever called a beauty, even for a single day—will she think, sometimes, of that day long, long ago when they made her the Queen of the May, in the little village of the Black Forest?

And when she does think of it—which will she do, laugh or cry?

Copyright, 1931, for the Boston Evening American.

The Best Joke I Ever Heard

The Boston Evening American would pay $1 for the best one of the jokes published here each day. Address "Best Joke," Boston Evening American.

TODAY'S WINNER

Storekeeper (young girl)—"What do you want?"

Buyer (young man)—"I want 10 cents' worth of kisses."

Girl—"For that, I won't give you one."

ETTORE GREGORY.
26 Garfield ave., Hyde Park.

HONORABLE MENTION

Boy—I'm from Mr. Spanger.
Mr. Cayne—Well?
Boy—You lent him your suto this morning and he wants to know now if you will lend him the price of his fine.

MAR. FRATTOLILLO.
13 Hubbard ave., No. Cambride.

Recruit—"Shall I mark time with my feet?"

Sergeant—"My dear fellow, did you ever hear of marking time with your hands?"

Recruit—"Yes, sir; clocks do it."

LARRY SALVI.
14 Porter st., Somerville.

Pajamas Are Not to Be Ignored

By PARIS BUREAU

PARIS, June 26—Take 'em or leave 'em at the fashionable dressmakers. But whatever you do don't ignore them—these evening pajamas which, up to now, are encountered more often worn by a mannequin at the showing of a new collection than at any fashionable function. But with the arrival of summer, perhaps, pajamas are being taken out and treated to a little out-of-doors night life.

Certainly the woman who delights in wearing something different will not hesitate to take advantage of a new mode, and a mode that has received so much publicity and criticism at that. Certain it is that the trousers of the evening pajamas so far exhibited are more voluminous and wider than even the crispest, fullest skirt. So far the undisguised pajama hasn't shown itself yet, but doubtless later it no doubt will be observed at some affair or another. It surely would be an easy way of arousing comment, wouldn't it?

It seems to be old home week for so many fabrics just now. Crepe de chine, organdie, linen satin, all are tremendously successful. And to this list must be added shantung, which emerges as one of the season's successes.

Etiquette of the Dining Table

By MRS. BEECKMAN

DEAR MRS BEECKMAN

1. Will you please inform me as to whether or not it is correct to eat asparagus, either served in a salad or as a hot buttered vegetable, with the fingers?

2. Also, is it proper to cover boiled or mashed potatoes with the gravy, or should the gravy be put on the plate right next to the potatoes. R. M.

1. It is not correct to take stalks of asparagus in the fingers as we eat them. They should be eaten with a fork, for they are messy, indeed, when we take them in our fingers.

2. This is as we prefer.

At the Son's Confirmation

DEAR MRS. BEECKMAN:

My son is to be confirmed in a few weeks and the event will be celebrated by a coupled affair from two to noon. Would it be correct for myself to be formally dressed as we are to receive?

S. O.

You and your daughter would appropriately wear afternoon dresses of some charming type . . . chiffon, either plain or figured, or a crepe of some kind. It shouldn't be an evening dress. Your husband would wear either formal day clothes . . . cutaway coat and dark striped trousers . . . or a dark blue suit.

"A Privilege and a Pleasure"

DEAR MRS. BEECKMAN.

Is it proper for a girl's fiance to give her a hope chest (empty) for her birthday? JACK.

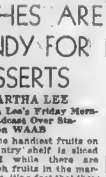
Yes. His privilege and pleasure

PEACHES ARE HANDY FOR DESSERTS

By MARTHA LEE

From Martha Lee's Friday Morning Broadcast Over Station WAAB

ONE OF the handiest fruits on America's pantry shelf is sliced peaches, and while there are plenty of fresh fruits in the market right now, it's a fact that there are many summer emergencies, when the in-laws drop in when you're mighty glad to call on your pantry shelf. Canned sliced peaches make it possible to hastily stir up almost any number of special peach treats, such as cobblers, pies, pastries and cherbets; and the very special addition to many other desserts or salads. If the family is tired of custards, tapioca, French pudding, try them with the peaches, either baked or sliced, and you'll find these time-worn desserts have new, fresh appeal.



Martha Lee

Drain sliced peaches well and add to your cottage pudding batter; arrange some in a shallow dish, cover with a layer of cooked tapioca, dot with bits of butter; brown and serve with thin cream. Or place a marshmallow in the center of any number of peach halves and bake until the marshmallows are puffed. Then arrange on circles of least or toasted sponge cake, with plenty of the peach syrup. Add sliced peaches to boiled rice when it is almost done. Or line a baking dish with buttered bread, cover with brown sugar and place mashed peaches in the center. Bake in the oven until brown and serve with a hard sauce.

Peach shortcake is an old friend, but have you ever tried sliced peaches between pancakes, served with hot syrup from the peaches?

PEACH FRANGIPANE

Place 3½ cups of diced cake in a serving dish. Mix 1-2 cup sugar, 4 tbsps. cornstarch and ½ tsp. salt with ½ cup of milk and add 2 well beaten eggs. Scald 16 cups milk and add. Cook over hot water 20 minutes until thick, stirring constantly. Remove from fire, add 1 cup cake crumbs and 1 tsp. orange extract. Stir until cool enough to pour over fruit without breaking dish. Chill and serve with or without whipped cream.

Martha Lee

Will Someone Help?

I HAVE AN English ivy that is very large and beautiful. One day I put it out in the rain and about a dozen leaves have become frosted like. The leaves have turned white on one side. It stands in the sunporch all day and gets plenty of sun. Can any of the readers tell me what to overcome this?—Mrs. I. P., Carmel st., Chelsea.

Recipes of Round Table

SIX AWARDS of $1 each will be published for the best contributions chosen from this column during the week. The household suggestions may include not only recipes, but any sort of helpful hints for housewives—economical cookery or housekeeping in any of its forms.

Address all contributions to Martha Lee, Boston Evening American, 5 Winthrop sq., Boston.

HUMPTY-DUMPTY

Fry out 4 thin slices of bacon, 2 sliced onions. Then add 2 lb. hamburg; after meat is done through, add 2 or 3 cups of cooked macaroni or spaghetti and ½ can of tomato soup.—Mrs. J. V. MacNeil, 37 Pine st., Framingham.

Tomorrow's Table

BREAKFAST
Grapefruit Juice
Waffles with Pineapple
Marmalade
Coffee

LUNCHEON
Rice Croquettes With Cheese Sauce
Mixed Fruit
Brownies
Tea

DINNER
Clear Vegetable Soup
Roast Lamb
Buttered Turnip Diced With Minced Parsley
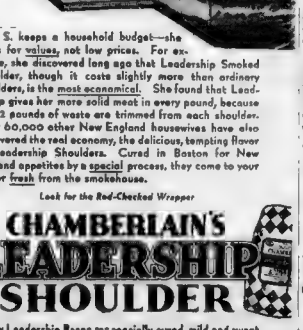
Franconia Potatoes
Bread Lettuce
Strawberry Bavarian Cream

Our Daily Salad

FRUIT SALAD

6 slices fresh or canned pineapple
1 large orange
1 banana
1 strawberries
Honey salad dressing
Sprigs of fresh mint

Wash and crisp the mint, arrange, stem-ends toward the center, on individual salad plates. Place a slice of pineapple on each bed of mint, on this put a slice of orange, then a layer of banana sliced into disks, and top with a strawberry. Pour over it the salad dressing. If fresh pineapple is used it should be sprinkled with sugar and allowed to stand in a cold place for at least an hour.



This housewife KNOWS it's economical

Mrs. S. keeps a household budget—she looks for values, not low prices. For example, she discovered long ago that Leadership Smoked Shoulder, though it costs slightly more than ordinary shoulders, is the most economical. She found that Leadership gives her more solid meat in every pound, because over 2 pounds of waste are trimmed from each shoulder. Over 60,000 other New England housewives have also discovered the real economy, the delicious, tempting flavor of Leadership Shoulders. Cured in Boston for New England appetites by a special process, they come to your dealer fresh from the smokehouse.

Look for the Red-Checked Wrapper

CHAMBERLAIN'S LEADERSHIP SHOULDER

★ Try Leadership Bacon now specially cured, mild and sweet

Keep Colorful Throughout This Sun-Fading Summer Season!

Tintex Gives Faded ● Fabrics Fresh Colors Almost Instantly

Let the sun do its worst! Just so fast as your clothes fade you can restore all their original color-brightness with Tintex!

Or you can give them new and different colors, if you like!

A little Tintex in the rinsing water . . . a moment or two . . . and the most forlorn frock, the drabest sweater, the most washed-out scarf will fairly sparkle with colorful gaiety!

Select your favorites from among the 33 Tintex Colors to be seen at all Drug Stores and Notion Counters . . . buy them . . . try them . . . then see for yourself how easily and quickly you can command the rainbow range of color!

—THE TINTEX GROUP—

Tintex Gray Box—Tints and dyes all materials.

Tintex Blue Box—For lace-trimmed silks—turns the silk, lace remaining original color.

Tintex Color Remover—Removes old color from any material so it can be dyed a new color.

Whitex—A bluing for restoring whiteness to all yellowed white materials.

At all drug and notion counters 15¢

Tintex TINTS AND DYES

Financial Market News, Stocks, Bonds, Commodities and Comment

TEST OF STOCK ADVANCES TO BE WATCHED

By FRANK H. MELOON

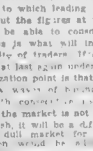
Test of the hectic advances in the stock market during the past few days is to be watched closely by Wall and State St. traders. Not the point to which leading issues advance but the figures at which they will be able to consolidate their gains is what will interest the majority of traders. If a bull market is at last again under way, the stabilization point is that from which new waves of buying will sweep, with comparative ease in order. If the market is not to be such bullish, it will be a different story. A dull market for price stabilization would be a much more thing.

* * *

The current recovery, while fast, is not wholly out of proportion to the extent of the preceding downswing decline.

* * *

Prof. John Maynard Keynes, noted British economist lecturing in this country, declares we need higher prices for commodities. He looks for an advance in commodity prices to bring equilibrium. O. M. W. Sprague, formerly of Harvard, now of financial advisor to the Bank of England had previously been quoted as saying balance could be obtained only through further deflation.



Prof. John M. Keynes

* * *

At the Boston Chamber of Commerce we heard an odd question raised this week. It was asked why the through way traffic plan had proved so successful on the Newburyport Turnpike, yet had been condemned and ineffective elsewhere. One member concluded it was because automobilists generally realized the danger of making a sudden dash into Turnpike traffic but would not slow down or stop before entering the Turnpike and because the risk involved was not so plain.

* * *

At the Boston offices of the U. S. Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce today and tomorrow, Trade Commissioners Edward B. Lawson (of Johannesburg, South Africa) and August Brauer (of Singapore and Batavia), will hold trade conferences. Mr. Brauer will also be available for conferences on Monday. He has specialized along the lines of hardware, iron and steel, leather, shoes, textiles and machinery. Mr. Lawson has specialized in chemicals, electrical goods, motor vehicles, etc. He has spent three years in South Africa and is very well qualified to discuss general conditions in that territory.

* * *

News in this column yesterday that the war debt moratorium plan was likely to be extended to Latin-America was borne out by Washington dispatches today. One wire stated: "If President Hoover's war debt moratorium plan is extended to relieving European financial tension and in starting world business on the upgrade, diplomatic circles here believe the United States next will give concentrated attention to Latin-American economic problems."

* * *

Announcement was made today that Harcourt Amory, who since the latter part of 1925, has been affiliated with the firm of Edward B. Smith & Co., has been made a partner of the firm. Mr. Amory, who is 30 years of age, has had a favorable career in the banking and investment banking field in Boston and the New England territory. Mr. Amory is a director of the State Street Trust Co., Puget Sound Power & Light Co., Washington Electric Co., North Coast Transportation Co., and of the Indian Head Mills of Alabama.

* * *

Optimistic view of the future of the chemical industry in New England is taken by Salmon W. Wilder, 3d of State Street Boston, chairman of the Board of the Merrimac Chemical Company, in a review of chemical progress from ancient days to the present. The Merrimac Company, Mr. Wilder predicts, will progress at a greater rate than in the past.

Highway Contracts Show a Double Gain

New York, June 26—In the face of declines in the value of contracts of engineering construction activity in the United States in the past week, street, and road building awards, aggregating $17,730,000 for the period, were ahead of the preceding week and the same week last year.

BANK STATEMENT

Boston balance	$41,000,000
Boston clearance	12,000,000

Today's News of Live Stocks in Wall Street

Steel and copper held leadership during periods of stock market ascent today. U. S. Steel, Bethlehem and Republic were in the forefront of the steel group, while Anaconda, Kennecott and International Nickel moved in the van for the metals.

Utility Issues Are Well Bought

Utility shares were well bought today. American & Foreign Power was quickly moved forward around 3 points, while International Telephone was gamig half as much.

Large Blocks Come Out on the Tape

Appearance of large blocks on the ticker tape was a feature of today's dealings. These were taken to mean accumulation of overnight buying orders, as purchases were consummated at rising prices. Six thousand shares of Anaconda changed hands at an overnight advance of 8¼ points. Radio, one a similar amount in a 7000-share trade.

Corn Products Up on Expectation

Corn Products today on expectation of declaration of its regular and extra dividend, quickly ascended nearly $7 a share.

Loew's Dividend Outlook Is Good

Loews, Inc., is expected to declare usual dollar extra on common in the fall. It will report net equal, after subsidiary preferred dividends, to about $5.75 a share on 1,413,571 common shares for 40 weeks ended in about June 6, and for fiscal year ending August 31 probably close to $7 a share. These results will compare with net of $11,781,921 or approximately $7.64 a share on 1,543,143 shares in 40 weeks of 1930, and $14,800,332 or $9.90 a share for 1930 fiscal year.

Earnings on Common Are Showing Up Well

In 28 weeks ended March 11, corresponding roughly to first half of the fiscal year, Loew's net was $6,879,860 or approximately $4.50 a share on common after subsidiary preferred dividends, against $8,242,984 or $5.48 a share on present stock a year ago.

Some of Rumors Prove Interesting

Some of the rumors heard in Wall St these days are interesting. Such talk was to the effect of organization of a change in the prohibition act to come out of Congress next fall or winter. There was considerable talk also of plans for subduing the gran dockets. Anything featured along these lines in the near future would sustain a rallying tendency.

Lorillard Biggest Gainer by Advance

P. Lorillard Co is figured today as likely to be the biggest proportionate benefit from the increase in cigarette prices from $8.40 to $8.65 a thousand, less trade discounts. This increase of 45 cents a thousand in the list prices of Old Gold means a practical doubling of the company's earning capacity. Lorillard it will be remembered, showed the most remarkable benefit from the price increase of October, 1929 achieving a 1930 net income 166 per cent greater than in 1929 despite the fact that a list price of $6.40 meant only a 30-cent increase for Lorillard, against 40 cents for its competitors.

Two Weeks to Test New Copper Prices

Copper sold in volume at 8½ cents a pound, and there was expectation it would be marked up higher. It will be another fortnight, before it will be known definitely whether the price higher effort will prove any more successful than previous attempts to stimulate business in this manner.

Advise Protection of Purchases

Conservative observers pointed out that the market had met with resistance just about where it was interrupted. They still believe that until there is another change in the situation the best course would be to maintain standard stock during further good setbacks and protect purchases with stop orders.

Ward, Woolworth Leaders in Group

Montgomery Ward and Woolworth were leaders today on an upward move in the mercantile stocks in which Kroger, Hann and other well-known "store" stocks participated. Montgomery Ward was taken in large blocks above 23, up 2 points, and Woolworth sold in volume around 70. Kroger rose a point in an active turnover.

Other mercantile accessories in the forefront of the upward move included Briggs, Eaton Axle, Hayes Body and Fleischmann.

Speculative Interest Turns to Carriers

Speculative interest returned in larger volume to the railroad stocks today after the final hour. Union Pacific soon moved ahead 3 points, Baltimore and Ohio was up 1½ and New York Central sold in good volume at 94.

Investment Trusts Hold Large Blocks

This is attributed to the large blocks of the stock held by fixed trusts. Liquidation of the diversified would automatically cause these trusts to liquidate their holdings. Corporation managements, therefore, indicate that directors may lower the dividend to 37½ a share of their forthcoming balancing.

Outside Buying in Paramount

There has been some outside buying in Paramount recently because of recommendations on the part of the leading commission and wire houses which insists that there is every sign of a renewed sponsorship. This increase of 45 cents a share in the dividend is figured today as likely to mean a practical doubling of the company's earning capacity. Lorillard it will be remembered, showed the most remarkable benefit from the price increase of October, 1929 achieving a 1930 net income 166 per cent greater than in 1929 despite the fact that a list price of $6.40 meant only a 30-cent increase for Lorillard, against 40 cents for its competitors.

New York Bonds

U. S. GOVERNMENT ISSUES

	High	Low	Last
Liberty 1st 4½s 32-47	102.13	102.13	102.13
Liberty 4th 4¼s 38	103.28	103.26	103.28
Treasury 5½s 40-49	108.5	108.1	101.6
MISCELLANEOUS
Am Cyanamid 5s 42	84¾	83½	83½
Am Smelt 5s 47	102	101¾	101¾
Am T & T 5s 46	108	107½	107½
Am T & T 4s 29	101	100½	100½
Am T & T 5½s 43	109¾	109¼	109¼
At & L 1st 6s 54	104	104	104
A T & S F cv 4½s 48	111¾	111¼	111¼
At Coast L 4½s 64	103	103	103
B & O cv 4s C 60	105½	105½	105½
Beth Steel 5s 42	107½	107	107
Beth Steel 6s 36	110	110	110
Boston Edison 6s 49	113	113	113
Boston Gas 5½s 47	101	101	101
Can Pac 4s 60	93	92½	92½
Can Pac 4s 49	93	92½	92½
Can Nat Ry 4½s 51	101	100	100
Can Nat Ry 4s 51	93	92½	92½
Can Pac 6s 44	104	104	104
Can Nat Ry 6s 36	107½	107½	107½
Cent Pac 1st 4s 49	93	92½	92½
Chic & Alton 3s 49	73	73	73
Chic & Alton 3½s 49	78	77½	77½
Chic & Alton 5s 49	91	90½	90½
Chic & Alton 6s 49	101	101	101
Chic & Alton 6s 36	103	103	103
Chic & Alton 7s 49	107½	107½	107½
Chic & Alton 7s 36	107½	107½	107½
Chic & Alton 7½s 49	107½	107½	107½
Chic & Alton 7½

STOCK MARKET CLOSES UP $2 TO $7 A SHARE

New York, June 26—Leaders in Wall St. today closed up $2 to $7 a share. A swift advance in the railroad issues jerked the stock market up quickly in the late trading today as it was beginning to give way to week-end profit taking sales.

Trading was less excited than in the past two sessions and remained extremely dull for a time as Wall St. waited for news of the debate on the hoover plan in the French Chamber of Deputies.

RUMOR AIDS RAILS

The swift upturn in the rails was accompanied by a rumor that the Interstate Commerce Commission would immediately grant half the 15 per cent blanket freight rate increase sought, but this was not just as the market closed. The day's turnover was 2,000,000 shares compared to 4,300,000 yesterday, and 3,500,000 on Wednesday.

Gains of about 5 to 7 points were recorded by New York Central, Union Pacific, Rock Island, Baltimore & Ohio, Atchison, Northern, Youngstown Sheet & Tube and Case. Advances of 2 to 4 appeared in U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Republic Steel, Can, American Telephone, American & Foreign Power, Missouri Pacific, Erie, Southern Pacific, Pennsylvania, Republic Steel, Westinghouse, Eaton Axle and others.

Steps were stimulated by renewed rumors of settlement of the Bethlehem-Youngstown merger dispute.

Commodity prices continued to work higher in the main. Bradstreet's Weekly Trade Index recorded the first advance since April 2. Some observers express the opinion that commodities prices hold the key to recovery, and that an upturn sustained for any length of time will bring a flood of buying as depleted inventories are replenished, and idle investment funds attract seek employment.

BONDS WORKED UP

The bond market continued to work higher. The Taiwan (Formosa) electric power issue, the first foreign issue accepting Canadian, to be offered publicity in this market in a year, was quickly taken by retailers, and interested bank ers held high hopes that it might mark the return to the normal functioning of Wall St as a world capital market.

The weekly statements showed another gain in the nation's monetary gold stock of $22,000,000 to a new record total of $4,015,000,000. This is roughly one-half of the world's monetary gold, and several economists feel that the United States must find means of making this enormous hoard useful to the rest of the world, if world economic conditions are to be restored.

The weekly mercantile reviews stressed the stimulating effects of the war debt proposal upon commodity markets, and indicated that retail trade was well maintained with warm weather helping the movement of various goods. Little aggregate change in general trade was noted, however.

Credit conditions at the end of the week were slightly easier, with some call money offered below the official rate of 1½ per cent. The weekly bank statements showed that the Federal Reserve System was still maintaining its aggressive easy money policy by purchasing bills and government securities

Plymouth Oil Closes Deal With Texas Pipe

Plymouth Oil Company through its subsidiary, Big Lake Oil Co., has closed contract with Texas Pipe Line Co. by which latter company will handle a maximum of 5000 barrels of crude oil daily and a maximum of 2500 barrels daily from the Big Lake field in Texas at the rate of 22½ cents a barrel.

Contract, it was stated, involves a saving of 20 cents a barrel to the Big Lake company

Dow Chemical Has Increased Profits

Detroit, June 26—For the year ended May 31 Dow Chemical Co. reports net profit of $2,377,200 after charges and taxes, equal, after preferred dividend requirements, to $5.44 a share on the 420,000 shares of common, against $2,182,017, or $4.68 a share, in the preceding fiscal year

$104,000 Loan Is Sought by Westfield

Westfield will receive bids until July 1 for $104,000 3½ per cent highway construction bonds dated July 1 and payable 1932 to 1941.

Templeton will receive bids until June 30 for $20,000 school bonds dated July 1, and payable 1932 to 1937, bidder to name rate of interest.

Cotton Takes Jump in New York Mart

New York, June 26 (AP)—The cotton market surged up violently today, in sympathy with the stock market, and reflecting optimistic news concerning the war debt negotiations. Futures closed $2.15 to $2.25 a bale higher

Grains Are Higher in Chicago Market

Chicago, June 26—Grains closed higher today. Wheat was 3c-1½c up, corn 1½-2c advanced, oats showing ¾-1¼ gain and provisions 2 to 35c down

Bond Offerings of Week Are Greater

New bond offerings for the week ended June 26 totaled $147,750,000 compared with $87,295,000 last week and $59,451,250 in the like week last year.

Approximate sales today, 3,100,000 shares
Week ago, 1,100,000
Year ago, 2,272,080

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

1931 to date, 322,749,306
1930 to date, 488,747,020
1929 to date, 831,919,880

	Sales	High	Low	Last	Chge
A
Allied Chem	1300	45¾	45¾	45¾	-1⅛
Adams Exp	500	4	4	4
Addressogr	100	18¾	18¾	18¾	-¾
Adv Rumely	200	7⅞	7⅞	7⅞	-⅛
Ajax Rubber	1200	7¼	7	7	-¼
Alaska Juneau	100	5	5	5
Allegh Corp	8000	7½	7½	7½
Allied Chem	1700	132	131	132	+1
Allis Chalm	150	8⅞	8⅞	8⅞
Am Ag Chem	100	18	18	18	-2
Am Bank Note	100	22½	22½	22½
Am Beet Sug	100	4	4	4
Am Brit & F	100	2¾	2¾	2¾
Am Br Shoe	100	74	74	74
Am Can	400	149	148½	148½	-1
Am Car & F	100	90½	90½	90½
Am Car & F pf	100	102	102	102
Am Chain	100	32	32	32
Am Chain pf	100	82	82	82
Am Colortype	800	12	11½	12
Am Com Alco	700	8½	8	8	-½
Am Internat	1000	7⅛	7	7	-⅛
Am Rad & S	1000	5	4¾	4¾	-¼
Am Rolling Mill	1000	23¾	23¾	23¾	-¼
Am Safety Raz	100	4¾	4¾	4¾
Am Seating	100	4	4	4
Am Smelting	4900	18¾	18	18¼	-¼
Am Snf & Ch	100	1	1	1
Am Snf & C pf	100	5	5	5
Am Steel Fd	2800	11⅝	11⅜	11⅜	-⅛
Am Stores	400	24¾	24¾	24¾	-¼
Am Sugar	3500	51½	50½	51	-½
Am Sugar pf	100	104	104	104	-½
Am Smelt pf	200	9	9	9
Am T & T	20000	180	180½	179	-1½
Am Tobacco	900	119¾	119¾	119¾	-¼
Am Tob B	8500	124	126½	123¾	-1¾
Am Type	100	8⅝	8⅝	8⅝
Am Water W	8500	5¾	5¾	5¾
Am W W 1 pf	100	79⅝	79⅝	79⅝	-½
Am Woolen	400	21	20¾	20¾	-¼
Am Woolen pf	600	70	69½	70	+½
Anaconda	70000	31⅝	30¾	31⅛	-⅛
Ansonia Cop	200	4¾	4¾	4¾	-⅛
Archer Dan	1600	10½	10	10½	+¼
Armr D 7 pf	100	48	48	48	-1¼
Armour Ill A	500	2	2	2
Armour Ill B	500	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
Armour Ill pf	100	15	15	15
Assd Dry Gds	200	4¾	4¾	4¾
Assd Dry Gds 1st pf	200	22½	22½	22½	-½
Atch, Top & S Fe	20000	175	174	174½	-1
Atchison pf	200	104½	104½	104½	-½
Atlantic Gulf	100	17¾	17¾	17¾
Atlantic Refg	1000	18¾	18¾	18¾	-¼
Atl Refin	2500	18⅝	17	18⅝	+¾
Auburn Auto	5000	98	95¾	96	-2½
Avia Corp	200	4	4	4
B
Baldwin Loco	2500	13½	13	13⅜	-⅛
Balt & Ohio	15000	62½	60¾	62¾	+2
Balt & Ohio pf	3100	67	65¾	67	+2
Bangor & Ar pf	10	106	106	106
Barnhart A	100	5	5	5
Beatrice Cr	900	16½	16½	16½
Belg Ry pf	100	77¾	77¾	77¾	-⅛
Bendix Aviat	20000	18¾	17¾	18¾	+1
Best & Co	800	8	8	8
Bethlehem Steel	8000	29¾	29	29¾	+¾
Bigelow	100	110	111	111	+2½
Blaw Knox	100	20	20	20
Bohn Alum	800	34	33½	34	+¼
Booth Fish	100	5	5	5
Borden Co	2800	61½	60¾	61
Borg Warner	1000	19¾	19½	19½	-¼
Briggs Mfg	18000	13	13¾	14	+1⅛
Brockway M pf	20	12	12	12
Bklyn Man Tr	700	44	44	44	-½
Bklyn Qns Tr	100	5½	5½	5½
Bklyn Un Gas	2500	118¾	118	118¾	-¼
Brown Shoe	100	38½	38½	38½	-½
Brunswick Tl	7000	5¾	5¾	5¾
Bucyrus Erie	1000	14¾	14¾	14¾
Buey K ev pf	200	75	75	75
Bullard Co	1200	17¾	17¾	17¾	-¼
Budd Mfg	100	11	11	11
Budd Wheel	3500	8½	11	8½
Burns Bros B	100	15	15	15
Burroughs A	2800	24½	25¾	25¾
Bush Termls	100	21½	21½	21½
Butte Copper	1400	7	7	7
Byers A M	25000	54¾	53¾	54¾	+1¼
C
California P	500	53¾	53¾	53¾
Cal & Ariz	100	39	39	39
Cal & Hecla	1400	8¾	8½	8½
Campbell Pdy	400	11¾	11¾	11¾
Canada Dry	1700	16¾	16¾	16¾
Can Pac	4000	8¾	8¾	8¾
Cannon Mills	400	20¾	20¾	20¾
Capital Ad	100	15	15	15
Case J I	60500	83¾	80	83¾	+3
Case Threshg	500	105	105	105
Caterpill Tr	4700	27	27¼	26¾	-⅜
Cayuga	1000	1¾	1¾	1¾
Celotex	100	8	8	8
Celotex pf	100	21½	21½	21½
Cent Aguirre	2400	7¾	7¾	7¾
Century Ribbn	400	4¾	4¾	5
Cerro De Pasco	2500	22	21¾	21¾	-¼
Certain-teed P	400	7	7	7
Checker Cab	1500	11¾	11¾	12
Chesa Corp	3500	37¾	37¾	37¾	-¼
Ches & Ohio	3700	70	69¾	70	+¾
Chi Gt West	1400	6¾	6¾	7¼	+¼
Chi Gt West pf	1000	23¾	23¾	23¾
Chi M & St P	900	6	6	6
Chi M & St P pf	900	6	6	6
Chi & N W	1400	72¾	35	72¾	+¾
Chi Pneumatic	1700	9½	10	9½	-½
Chi Pneu pf	700	70½	70½	70½
C R I & P	4700	30¾	45¾	30¾	-¾
Childs Co	200	6¾	6¾	6¾
Chile Copper	1700	10¾	10¾	10¾	-¼
Chily I & P	400	6¾	6¾	6¾
C I & E pf	200	79¾	79¾	79¾	-¾
City Stores	700	3	3	3
Clark Equip	100	15½	15½	15½
Client Peab	100	4¾	4¾	4¾
Coca Cola	400	146	146	146
Coca Cola A	500	51¾	51¾	51¾
Colgate & Pk	2100	15¾	15¾	15¾	-¼
Col F & I	1200	16¾	16¾	16¾
Col Carbon	1100	55	55	55
Columbia Gas	15700	12¾	12¾	12¾	-¾
Col Graph	11500	9¾	9¾	9¾
Com Credit	1900	19¾	19¾	19¾
Com C I pf	40	85	85	85
Com I Corp	1100	8¾	8¾	8¾	-¼
Com Inv Trust	7200	30¾	30¾	30¾
Com & Sou	17500	8½	8	8
Consol Balers	1900	1½	1½	1¾
Consress Cigar	100	21	21	21
Consol Cigar	100	74¾	74¾	74¾
Cons Films	4000	1¾	1¾	1¾
Consol Gas	15400	102¾	100¾	102¾	+2
Cons Gas of	1000	74¾	74¾	74¾
Con Laundries	700	14	14	14
Con RR of C pf	2100	90	91½	90	-1
Cons Textile	2400	3¾	3¾	3¾
Container A	400	3¼	3¼	3¼
Container B	400	15	15	15
Cont Baking A	100	15	15	15
Cont Baking pf	100	58	58	58
Cont Can	2500	74¾	74¾	74¾	-¼
Cont Dia Fibre	100	10½	10½	10½
Cont Ins	1000	44¾	44¾	44¾
Cont Motors	400	2¾	2¾	2¾
Cont Oil	3800	8¾	8¾	8¾
Cont Shares	12400	6¾	6¾	6¾
Corn Prod	4500	72½	72½	72½	-¼
Corn P pf	1800	151	150	150
Cosy Inc	1000	4¾	4¾	4¾
Cres Carpet	1800	18¾	18¾	18¾
Crucible Sti	1400	47	45	45¾	-1¼
Cuba Co	700	3¾	3¾	3¾
Cub-Am Sugar	4400	4	3¾	4	+⅛
C
Cub-Am Sug pf	841	23	23	23
Cub Cane Prod	2300	11¾	11¾	11¾	-⅛
Cuban Dom	400	41	40¾	41¾	+¾
Cuban D S	2500
Curtiss P	700	7¾	7¾	7¾
Curtiss Wright	900	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛
Curt Wright A	400	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛
Cutler Ham	2100	22¾	22¾	22¾	-⅜
D
Davison Chem	4400	15¾	14¾	15	-⅛
Deere & Co pf	100	16	20	20
Del & Hud	100	113½	115¾	115¾	+2¾
Del L & W	1400	8¾	20	20	-½
D & R G W pf	100	7½	7½	7½
Det Edison	300	102	102	102	-½
Devoe & R A	600	13½	14¼	14
Diamond Shoe	1100	20¾	20¾	20¾	-¼
Dome Mines	500	13¾	13¾	13¾	-¼
Douglas Aire	2900	10¾	10¾	10¾	-¼
Drug Inc	4500	17¾	17¾	17¾
Dupont Del	9300	83½	82¾	83½	+¾
E
Eastman K	1500	152	149	151	-1
Eaton Axle	47100	14¾	13¾	14¾	+¾
Elec Auto L	14400	48	47¾	47	-1
Electric Boat	500	34	33½	33½
Elec P & L	17700	42¾	44¾	42¾	-1¾
Elec P & L pf	500	79½	80¾	80¾
Elec Stor Bat	1100	20¾	20¾	19¾	-¾
Emerson Rd A	100	1	1	1
Endicott John	100	7	7	7
Equity Corp	1100	1¾	1¾	1¾
Erie R R	1500	22	22	22
Erie 1st pf	1500	35	35¾	35¾
Erie 2 pf	100	7¾	7¾	7¾
Ex-Cell-O Aircraft	800	6	6	6
Evans Prod	100	5	5	5
F
Fairbanks Co	100	19	19	19
Fairbanks Morse	100	20	20¾	20¾
Fed Dept Stor	600	35¾	35¾	35¾	-½
Fed Lt & Trac	1500	19¾	19¾	19¾
Fed Water S	1100	17	17	17
Fidelity Phnx	100	46¾	47	46¾
Fifth Ave Bus	100	19¾	20	20
Firestone pf	1100	84½	85	84½	-½
First Nat Bos	1400	56¾	57	56¾	-¼
Fisk Rubber
Fisher Bdy	1900	11¾	11¾	11¾
Fisher Bdy pf	100	74¾	74¾	74¾
Fleischmann	1100	17¾	17¾	17¾	-¼
Florsheim Sh	100	14	14	14
Fourth Nat Inv	100	17¾	17¾	17¾
Fox Film A	7900	21¼	21¼	21¼	-¼
Freeport Tex	5700	28	28	28
G
Gabriel Snub A	100	3¾	3¾	3¾
Gamewell Co	10	46	46	45	-1
Gardner Motor	600	4	4	4
Gen Am Invest	700	6¾	6¾	6¾
Gen Am Tank	2100	60	61¾	60	-1¾
Gen Asphalt	2400	28¾	27	28	+¾
Gen Baking	1100	21	22	20¾	-½
Gen Bronze	100	7¾	7¾	7¾
Gen Cable	400	7¾	7¾	7¾
Gen Cable A	100	15	15	15
Gen Cable 7 pf	100	41¼	41¼	41¼	-¼
Gen Cigar	400	36	36	36
Gen Elec	29800	38¾	38¾	38¾	-¼
Gen El Spec	41600	11¾	11¾	11¾
Gen G & E A	5700	9¾	9¾	9¾	-¼
Gen Motors	3000	49¾	49¾	49¾	-¼
Gen Motors	46000	49¾	49¾	49¾	-¼
Gen Outdoor Adv	1000	101¼	101¼	101¼	+1¼
Gen Pub S	1000	14¾	14¾	14¾
Gen Ry Sig	1000	57¾	56	57¾
Gen Realty	100	2¾	2¾	2¾
Gen Refrac	1200	8¾	8¾	8¾
Gen Theatres	3100	45¾	45¾	45¾	-¼
Gillette	9200	6¾	7¾	26¾	+1¾
Gimbel Bros	100	6¾	6¾	6¾
Gimbel Bros pf	100	50¾	50¾	50¾	-½
Glidden	3100	10¾	11	10¾	-⅛
Golden Cen	100	4¾	4¾	4¾
Gobel Adolf	100	6¾	6¾	6¾
Gold Dust	7300	31	30¾	31	+¼
Goodrich B	4100	14¾	14¾	14¾
Goodyear	3200	42	42¾	41¾	-¼
Goodyear pf	1000	82¾	82¾	82¾
Gould Coup A	100	2¾	2¾	3¾
Graham Paige	100	4	4	3¾
Granby	700	16¾	16¾	16¾	-¼
Grd Rpd Stks	700	17	18¼	16¾
Grand Union	6100	15¾	17¾	15¾
Grand Union pf	100	47¾	47¾	47¾
Granite C St	400	23¾	22½	23¾	+1⅛
Grant W	400	14¾	14¾	14¾
Gr Nor O ctf	100	15¾	15¾	15¾
Gr Nor pf ctf	400	92	91¾	91¾
Gt Western	6100	4¾	4¾	4¾
Gt W Sug pf	10	83	83	83
Grigg Cnty	400	4	4	4
H
Hann Dent St	6100	6¾	7¾	6¾
Hall Print	100	14¾	15	14¾
Hanna Co I A	100	76¾	76¾	76¾
Harb Walker	100	7½	7½	7½
Hat Corp A	100	3	3	3
Hershey Choc	100	55¾	55¾	55¾
Hershey pf	100	103¾	103¼	102
Hollander & S	100	2¾	2¾	2¾
Hou Hers A	8100	9½	9¾	9¾	-⅛
Houston Oil	4900	24	23¾	24	+¼
Howe Scale	6000	9¾	10	9¾
Howe Sound	400	20¾	21¾	20¾
Hud & Manh	1100	10¾	10¾	10¾
Hudson Mot	100	15¾	16¾	15¾	-⅛
Hupp Motors	1300	8¾	8¾	8¾
I
Illinois Central	100	50¾	53¾	50¾
Ind Motor Corp	400	7	7	7
Indian Refin	1	3	3	3
Indust Rayon	1100	11¾	12	11¾
Interlake Ir	100	10¾	10¾	10¾
Inspiration Cop	1300	8¾	8¾	8¾
Insurshares	100	10¾	10¾	10¾
Interboro R T	100	67½	67½	67½
Int Lake Iron	100	7¾	7¾	7¾
Int Agric	100	3¾	3¾	3¾
Int Bus Mac	100	130¼	128½	130¼	+1¾
Int Carriers	100	8½	9	8½
Int Cement	100	49	49	49
Int Combus E	100	3¾	3¾	3¾
Int Comb Eng	100	19½	20¾	19¾
Int Harv	4000	46¾	48¾	46¾
Int Hydr El A	7000	24½	24¾	24¾
Int Mercan pf	4900	61¾	63¾	64
Int Mer Ma	100	9¾	9¾	9¾
Int Nickel	48000	15¾	15¾	15¾
Inter Paper	100	6	6	6
Int Pap & Pw	100	1¾	1¾	1¾
Int Pap & Pw pf	100	3¾	3¾	3¾
Int Pa & P pf	100	22¾	22¾	22¾
Internat Shoe	400	45¾	45¾	45¾
Int Silver	100	36	36	36
Int Tel & Tel	160000	34¾	35¾	35¾	-¼
Investors Fd	100	15	15	15
J
Jewel Tea	100	44	44¾	44¾
Jones & L pf	20	113	113	113
Jonns Manville	2400	47	48¾	47	-1
K
Kan City Sou	100	10½	11¾	10½
Kan C S pf	100	45	49	49
Kaiser	100	5¾	5¾	5¾
Kelley Isl Lm	100	3¾	3¾	3¾
Kelley I Lm pf	100	14	14	14
Kelsey Hayes	4000	11¾	11¾	11¾
Kelvinator	8400	23¾	23¾	23¾
Kennecott	20400	20¾	20¾	20¾
Keystone	4000	22¾	22¾	22¾
Kroger Groc	12000	30¾	30¾	30¾
Kreuger & Toll	4400	22¾	23¾	22¾	-¾
L
Lambert Co	400	78¾	72¾	70¾	-2
Lehigh P C	100	10¾	10¾	10¾
Lehigh Val	100	47¾	47¾	47¾
Lehman Broth	7200	37½	37½	36½	-1¼
Lehn & Fink	100	26¾	27¾	26¾
Lehn & Fink pf	100	26¾	27¾	26¾
Lerner Stores	100	17¾	17¾	17¾
Lexington	100	1¾	1¾	1¾
Liggett & M	100	76	77	76
Liggett & M B	4700	78¾	79¾	78¾
Lima Loco	100	6	6	6
Liquid Carbon	100	14	15	14
Lorillard	12000	44¾	45¾	44¾
Lorillard pf	100	85	85	85
Louis Gas	100	20¾	20¾	20¾
Louis & Nash	100	77¾	77¾	77¾
Ludlum Steel	100	12¾	13¾	12¾
M
Mack Trucks	4600	4¾	4¾	4¾
Macy & Co	100	66¾	66¾	66¾
Magma Copp	100	17¾	17¾	17¾
Mallinson H R	100	1¾	1¾	1¾
Manati Sug	100	3¾	3¾	3¾
Man E md pf	100	4¾	4¾	4¾
Maracaibo Oil	100	1	1	1
Mar Mid	100	11	11	11
Marlin Rck	300	12¾	13¾	13¾
Marmon	300	13¾	13¾	13¾
Marshall Fld	100	16¾	16¾	16¾
Mathieson Alk	100	16¾	16¾	16¾
May Dept St	100	54¾	54¾	54¾
Mavtag L pf	100	43	43	43
Mavtag pf new	500	13¾	13¾	13¾
McCall Corp	100	18	18	18
McGraw H Pb	100	16	16	16
McKesson & R	100	11¾	11¾	11¾
Mck Tin	1100	76¾	88	88
Mckesson & R pf	1400	10¾	11¾	10¾
Mck & R pf	41900	76¾	76¾	76¾
McLellan Stor	700	7¾	8¾	8¾
Melville Shoe	100	25¾	25¾	25¾
Mengel Co	900	5	5	5
Metro Gld pf	100	24¾	24¾	24¾
Mex Seaboard	20100	3¾	3¾	3¾
Miami Cop	100	8	8	8
Mid Cont Pet	100	18¾	18¾	18¾
Mid Cont Prod	100	20¾	21¾	20¾
Minn Mo Pow	100	21	21	21
Minn & St L	500	2¾	2¾	2¾
Mo Kan Texas	7000	16¾	18¾	16
Mk T of A	100	4¾	4¾	4¾
Mk T of A pf	100	43¾	43¾	43¾
Mohawk Carp	100	1	1	1
Mo Pac pf	700	7	7	7
Monarch C M	100	13¾	13¾	13¾
Monsanto C	100	13¾	13¾	13¾
Montgom Wd	7100	14¾	14¾	14¾
Motor Meter	100	1	1	1
Moto Ma Gdge	100	8	8	8
Motor Prods	100	11½	11	11
Motor Wheel	100	13¾	13¾	13¾
Mullins Mfg	100	5¾	5¾	5¾
Munsingwear	100	8¾	8¾	8¾
Murray Corp	8100	8¾	9¾	8¾
N
Nat Ch & St L	70	90	90	90
Nash Motors	8900	18¾	18¾	18¾
Nat Acme	1500	8¾	8¾	8¾
Nat Belias H	100	8¾	8¾	8¾
Nat Biscuit	4200	48½	47¾	48½
Nat Bis pf	100	146	146	146
Nat Cash R	400	27¾	28¾	27¾
Nat Dairy P	2600	18¾	18¾	18¾
Nat Dist	8100	28	27¾	28
Nat Lead	100	35¾	35¾	35¾
Nat Lead B	14300	44¾	44¾	44¾
Nat Sti Corp	1700	42	45	42
Nat Supply	100	28	28	28
Nat Surety Co	100	38	38	38
Nat Tea	100	16	16	16
Nemer	100	17¾	17¾	17¾
Nevada Con	6400	12¾	12¾	12¾
Newton Steel	100	10¾	10¾	10¾
N Y Canadian	2800	16¾	16¾	16¾
N Y C & St L	100	45	45	45
N Y C & St L pf	100	45	45	45
N Y & Harlem	10	176	176	176
N Y Inv	800	3¾	4	4
N Y N H & H	900	27	26¾	26¾
N Y N H & H pf	700	11¾	11¾	11¾
N Y Ont & W	1900	11¾	11¾	11¾
Niagara Hud P	8400	20¾	21¾	20¾
Norfolk Sou	100	8	8	8
Nor & Pac	1100	44¾	45¾	44¾
No American	17700	7¾	7	7¾
Nor Am of	100	45¾	45¾	45¾
Nor Am Avia	4100	6¾	6¾	6¾
Nor Pac	2100	43¾	43¾	43¾
O
Ohio Oil Co	6100	11¾	11¾	11¾
Oliver Farm	400	3¾	3¾	3¾
Oliver F pf	100	4¾	4¾	4¾
Omnibus Corp	300	5	5	5
Omnibus pf A	100	5	5	5
Oppenheim	100	4	4	4
Otis	400	78¾	78¾	78¾
Otis Steel	400	9	9¾	9
Owens Bottle	100	94	94	94
P
Pac G & E	1800	47	47½	47
Pacific Light	1400	55¾	55¾	55¾
Pacific T & T	10	133½	133½	133½
Pac T & T pf	100	112	112	112
Packard Mo	8200	4	4	4
Pan Am Pet B	100

"THE SUCCESSFUL CALAMITY" WILL BE ARLISS' NEXT FILM

Warners Buy Stage Hit by Clare Kummer for Early Fall Production

By HARRIET PARSONS

Copyright, 1931, by Universal Service, Inc.

Los Angeles, June 26 "The Millionaire" was so successful that Warner Brothers have been seeking ever since for another Arliss story with the same simple and humanly appealing qualities "The Successful Calamity," play by Clare Kummer which ran for an entire season on Broadway several years ago, has just been purchased.

Harriet Parsons

Story deals with a wealthy old man who tests the affection of his family and friends by pretending to lose all his money. Certainly sounds tailor-made for Arliss.

To date Warner Brothers have shown wisdom in securing widely diversified vehicles for Mr. Arliss. I am hoping they will follow this intelligent policy and not make "Successful Calamity' a mere carbon copy of "The Millionaire."

Julien Josephson will adapt "Successful Calamity," which will be Arliss' first under a new long-term contract. Shooting will begin in the early fall on the return of the Arlisses from their villa near London. Ivan Simpson, who has been associated with George Arliss on stage and screen for over 35 years, will have one of the major roles.

Richard Cromwell Given Star Roles

Columbia has no intention of letting its white-haired boy, Richard Cromwell, stray into other pastures. Radio, having plenty of gruel finding a boy for the lead in "Are These Our Children?" tried to borrow Cromwell, but met with no encouragement from Producer Harry Cohn. Cohn has plenty of plans for the talented youngster who leaped to fame overnight in "Tol'able David." He jumps straight from "Fifty Fathoms Deep" into "When Hell Broke Loose." (Sounds like a hectic change of temperature.) George Seitz, who co-authored "When Hell Broke Loose" with Norman Springer, will direct.

• • •

WHAT is this Carmen Barnes gag anyway? Is it a racket, or what? Paramount gave out they were going to star the school girl novelist in her own story. Word was allowed to drift out from the studios that Miss Barnes photographed like Garbo, Dietrich and Landi put together. But nothing happened to justify all the ballyhoo. Then, at her own request she was placed in a supporting role in "Road to Reno" to gain experience. Now, also at her own request, studio is taking her out of picture, replacing her with Peggy Shannon. Meanwhile, plans for starring her in her own yarn have been postponed on hala that story hasn't been panned out right. It all sounds like a juggling act to me. At any rate, credit the youthful Miss Barnes with keeping her sense of humor midst it all.

• • •

The Broadway stage fever which lured Gish, Banky, Colleen Moore and other eastward is still getting in its deadly work. Lois Moran, who clicked in a big way in "This Is New York" last season, is going back with several stage offers up her sleeve. She's made two pictures, "Transatlantic" and Midnight Cruise" during her Hollywood sojourn. Monta Bell remembered for his direction of "Sig Fend," "Young Man of Manhattan" and other screen plays, is going to branch out as a Broadway producer. He'll present "A Lady Defends," play by Garrett Fort and Garnett Weston, this fall. The versatile Fort adapted and dialogued "Frankenstein" and "Dracula," horror tales for Universal, and wrote "Second Shot," original melodrama for RKO-Pathe. Nell has been trying to get Helen Hayes for "A Lady Defends."

Lois Moran

• • •

Heard and overheard about town: Aileen Pringle in de Hotel Continental" for Tiffany when she finishes the lead in "Monster Kills" for that company. . . . Pat O'Brien, who came from the stage to play in "Front Page," just back from New York where he made a picture with Nancy Carroll. He's tentatively scheduled for "Rivets" at Caddo, where he is under contract. Bulletin from England: Press announcement, of big favorite, writes to say he is making a British picture with Emily Fitzroy. Perry may come back to Hollywood in the fall. Last time he was here he had several talkie offers. Rosita Moreno making "The Man I Killed" in Paramount's British studio. Joined throng of those who have danced with the Prince of Wales. Turned up at the studio next day.

• • •

As soon as Eddie Cantor finishes "Palmy Days' for Sam Goldwyn he'll leave for a tour of Europe. There's more in that statement than meets the eye. Eddie, in spite of his screen fame never been abroad and this first trip of his is in direct response to the European fan mail which has poured in since "Whoopee's" foreign release. Seems Europe is anxious to get a look at Eddie and since Eddie feels the same way about Europe nothing but 6000 miles stands in the way. Big-hearted Sam Goldwyn is treating Eddie to the trip. Far be it from me to suggest that Sam's generosity is slightly tinctured by business acumen. Anyway, Sam admits it himself.

• • •

Marian Nixon has just started work over at Tec Art on "Fighting Back." That's an appropriate title for Little Nixon, who let her career take second place to matrimony three years ago. Happily married to Edward Hillman, Jr., attractive young Chicago millionaire, Marian hasn't allowed a promising career to slide. However, a few weeks ago the old greasepaint urge got the better of her and she went to RKO-Pathe to play opposite Eddie Quillan in "The Whoop-De-Doo Kid." Then she did a feature role in Disney's "Women Go On Forever." Looks as if she's going to win that comeback struggle.

Marian Nixon

• • •

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: BETTY COMPSON, stunning in brown picture hat and brown-trimmed white dress and accordion pleated bolero and peplum, lunching at the Brown Derby with MAY SUNDAY, attractive in red and white . . . JOEL McCREA and LOIS WILSON lunching at the same place but not together. STUART ERWIN and ZASU PITTS in bright yellow sweater and bright red hair, seen second for the first time in ages. . . . WILL ROGERS and tanned, dark-eyed young man walking along the boulevard with a cockatoo of RANCROFTS. SPENCER CHARTERS jubilant over the birth of a new daughter, IRENE MARIE, ringside weight 8 pounds 10 ounces. That's all today. See you tomorrow!

Old Favorite at Fine Arts

The "School for Scandal," based on the famous play by Richard Brinsley Sheridan, is having its American premiere as a film at the Fine Arts tomorrow, of the "School for Scandal" is the first of Sheridan's works to be put on the screen.

Basil Gill takes the leading role as Sir Peter. He toured America, Australia and England in 1900 in "The Sign of the Cross." In 1903 he came to America in Ben Hur." In the fall of the same year he joined the company of Beerbohm-Tree for His Majesty and remained until 1907. He had parts in almost all of Shakespeare's works. Also in 1908 he appeared for the first time in the "School for Scandal" as "Sir Peter." He returned to New York in 1913 as a play called "The Daughters of Heaven." He had the role of Osborne in "Journey's End."

Cape Playhouse Will Open Season Monday

The Cape Playhouse at Dennis opens its season next Monday with Arthur Byron in Roi Cooper Megrue's "Ten for Three." Spring Byington, John Marston, Kathryn Keyes, Fred Stewart and A. O. Huhn have roles in the comedy. "The Second Man" will be shown the week of July 6.

POPULAR BETTY

Betty Compson appears in "Three Who Loved" at the RKO-Boston tomorrow.

Agua Caliente Scenes Filmed

When Albert Rogell was filming scenes of the Agua Caliente handicap for Eddie Quillan's "Sweepstakes" now at RKO-Keiths, the director experienced a certain amount of pride as he watched the crowd respond to an announcer's voice over the loud speaking system describing the highlights of the season's richest stake race. For to Rogell belongs the honor of having originated the loud speaking system now used at the Caliente track.

It was while the director was shooting a silent picture, "The Sunset Derby," at the old Tijuana course that the public address system was first employed at a race track, and that for picture purposes only. As a mechanical aid in making his hired extras in a section of the grandstan react to an imaginary race, Rogell bought a portable loud-speaker system to the Mexican location. While a battery of cameras ground away on the fashionable crowd, Rogell described vividly the fictitious race, offering his extras cues as to the direction to look, when to yell, etc.

Today practically every major race track in the country has followed the example set by Rogell.

Pops Tonight

Arthur Fiedler will be heard in the following program at the Pop concert in Symphony Hall tonight:

Second Symphonic Poem ..... Reger
Concerto for Violoncello ..... Schumann
Soloist, Cesare Stornelli
Rapsodie Espagnole ..... Ravel
Prelude to "Lohengrin" ..... Wagner
Soloist, Cesare Stornelli
Washington Post March ..... Sousa

Gary Cooper and Carole Lombard in Romantic Comedy at the Met

By HARLEIGH SCHULTZ

When East, personified in the orchid beauty of Carole Lombard, meets West in the lanky form of Gary Cooper, there's the pop of an emotional explosion as two hearts faw down and go boom. And such loving as takes place between these two screen billers and cooers such bunny-hugging, such kisses, that one is tempted to coin an expression to fit the high frequency close-ups of the sweethearts. And the phrase would be "lip dinsolves." Not since ye ancient days of ye cinema has such profuse osculation been noted on the silver sheet; so it was not surprising that one heard many sighs and ho-hums from the audience at the Metropolitan.

• • •

All these perfervid arm-and-body clutches are showered through the 70 minutes run of the romantic comedy, "I Take This Woman," based upon Mary Roberts Rinehart's novel, "Lutie Fearing." Miss Lombard, on the basis of whose work this film one can felicitate William Powell for a perfect honeymoon, is the daughter of Western ranchers, a jazz-mad, jo imbibing lass who plunged into a matrimonial scandal to the disgust of her Pa. He sends the slut act to her when Lester Vail stands by to offer matrimony despite her misdeeds; and the outcome is that Carole chooses to quit the big city for the Old Man's ranch somewhere west of the Mississippi.

Gary Cooper

The introduction to Cooper is an excellent sequence in the picture. Soon the flirtatious part of her is on top; she decides to play the stalwart cowpuncher for a gag. He falls hard. They wed. They set up in a one-room shack he has on a ranch of his own. Their ups and downs here are the best portion of the movie; Cooper is at home, and this son of Montana is sure to please all his admirers in his wild and woolly role, an inheritance of his by birth and up-bringing. Miss Lombard, somewhat weary of the privations, the lack of the good old times back East; and some weeks after a Christmas Eve scene that is so good it has an O. Henry smack to it, she deserts.

• • •

Cooper follows by working as a trick rider in a circus and in time their paths meet. An accident puts him on his back, and the reconciliation comes. This sugary ending is the worst thing about the film, and keeps it in the run for the conventions, whereas it could easily have been supplied with a real "kick" for the finish.

You will delight in the exceedingly good photography that characterizes the picture clear through; but its story is the old East-West lines, and its dialogue is very mediocre. Yet for all its shortcomings the film is interesting, possessing real vigor in its ranch treatment, and much humor. The audience burst out a great many laughs out of it. The two featured players are on the up-and-up, each showing strides forward to par in acting ability. Of the lesser lights, Leslie Palmer, as the butler, Lester Vail, and Clara Blandick are the best.

• • •

There's class to the stage show this week. It is a Petroff revue, superbly colorful and lively, with a number of rarely good folk in the cast. Of these we commend to you Wilfred Du Bois, a nimble chap whose tricks are new and unusually clever; and Enrica and Novello, exquisite dancers. Vera Kingston has a sweet voice for her singing, and the Sanford girls are peppy as can be.

The Cast

Tom ..... Gary Cooper
Kay ..... Carole Lombard
Bessie ..... Helen Ware
Everett ..... Lester Vail
Mr. Bowling .... Charles Trowbridge
Nan Barnes ..... Clara Blandick
Ned ..... Guy Oliver
Minnie ..... Syd Saylor
Phillips ..... Leslie Palmer

Movie Clock

Featured photoplays in the picture theaters and their starting times today are as follows:

METROPOLITAN—"I Take This Woman"; a. m., 11:44; p. m., 2, 4:15, 6:30, 7:55, 10:11.

FENWAY—"Daddy Long Legs"; p. m., 1:17, 3:24, 5:31, 7:38, 9:45.

RKO-KEITH—"Sweepstakes"; a. m., 9:28, 11:28; p. m., 1:33, 3:38, 5:43, 7:48, 9:53.

FINE ARTS—"The Village of Sin"; p. m., 1:11, 3:11, 5:06, 7:09, 9:12

PARTER—"Shipmates"; p. m., 3:15, 5:37, 8:00.

WASHINGTON ST OLYMPIA —"Smart Money"; a. m., 9:15, 11:15; p. m., 1:25, 3:35, 5:35, 7:45, 10.

SCOLLAY—"The Vice Squad"; a. m., 11:36; p. m., 2:29, 6:58, 9:57.

ORPHEUM—"Just a Gigolo"; a. m., 9:15; p. m., 12:15, 3:30, 6:30, 9:45

RKO KEITH-BOSTON—"Never Come Back"; a. m., 9:29; p. m., 12:41, 3:58, 7:11, 10:20

BEACON AND MODERN—"Six Cylinder Love"; a. m., 9, 11:33; p. m., 2:06, 4:39, 7:12, 9:45.

UPTOWN—"Smart Money"; p. m., 1, 3:10, 5:20, 7:30, 9:40.

LOEW'S STATE—"Never the Twain Shall Meet"; p. m., 12:40, 3, 5:20, 7:46, 10.

BOWDOIN—"Subway Express"; a. m., 9:40; p. m., 1:30, 3:50, 9:20.

Half-Fare Rates to Nantasket on Sunday

Half-fare rates to Nantasket Beach will be offered again next Sunday, it is announced by Manager Frederic L. Lane of the Nantasket Beach Steamboat Co. All steamers run direct to Nantasket Beach with but one stop at Pemberton. Steamers sail from Rowes Wharf every hour beginning with 10:15 a. m. and returning every hour from Nantasket Beach to Boston from 11:30 a. m. to 10:45 p. m.

Bobby Jones Film

The time schedule for the Bobby Jones golf film, second in the series, at the Uptown today follows: P. M., 2:30, 4:40, 6:50, 9:05. At the Olympia: A. M., 11:05, p. m., 1:10, 3:20, 5:25, 7:30, 9:40

Amusements

THE SCREEN'S BIG DRAMATIC TRIBUTE TO THE TURF!

STARTS TODAY

RKO Pathe Picture Presents

SWEEPSTAKES

with

EDDIE QUILLAN

JAMES GLEASON

MARION NIXON, LEW CODY

The throbbing blood of the paddock rushes through tingling veins in a breathless drama of love and thrills!

COMEDY PATHE NEWS—BLUMENFELD

RKO KEITH'S

Amusements

RKO KEITH BOSTON

TOMORROW

Greatest Stage Show in Months Four Favorites of the Screen

ROXY GANG

John Griffin Adelaide de Loce Harold Clyde Wright Dorothy Gilbans

Lytell & Fant Five Jewels The Briants

ROSCO AILS & THELMA WHITE

He sends his best friend to prison to win a woman's love

THREE WHO LOVED

RKO Radio Picture with BETTY COMPSON CONRAD NAGEL ROBERT AMES

Ends Today Lone Cone Back! Also RKO Vaudeville

California 25c 9:30 to 6

Loew's STATE

MASS. AVE. at NORWAY ST.

M-G-M Presents Prize 9 Event

"NEVER THE TWAIN SHALL MEET"

Leslie Howard—Conrad Nagel—Lewis Stone

Extra! Extra! Extra!

WM. HAINES

Supported by

in "IT'S A GREAT LIFE"

On the stage—LUFFY CRANE & CO.

BOBBE & BURR—How Re Arn

LATEST LAUREL-HARDY COMEDY

9:06 & 8 to 12:30 25c 12:30 to 5:30 35c After 5:30 50c

EXETER The place where you forget your troubles!

Robert Montgomery—Norma Shearer in "Shipmates"

Norman Foster—Sally O'Neil in "Doctors' Wives"

Amusements

SYMPHONY HALL—Tonight at 8:30

BOSTON POPS

ARTHUR FIEDLER, Conductor

Seats, $1.50 to $3.00

BOWDOIN 7 Vaudeville Acts

Jack Kirkwood Presents in "SUBWAY EXPRESS"

Overture—with Helen Chandler and Richard Cromwell

Extra Added—"GOOD AND BAD" with Clive Brook

TONIGHT BARGAIN NIGHT—EXTRA ACTS

NEW GAIETY TODAY

BIGGEST SHOW VALUE IN TOWN

25c JACK HOLT in "LAST PARADE"

BETTY COMPSON "I'M SO WHAT I'M WANTED"

fine arts STATE THEATRE BOYLSTON

TODAY—TOMORROW

"THE SCHOOL FOR SCANDAL"

Sheridan's Satirical Film

Don't say, "It can't be done," until you've read a word of...

Today at YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD THEATER

CAMBRIDGE

UNIVERSITY PORTER 4580 HARVARD SQ.
CLIVE BROOK-TALLULAH BANKHEAD in "DISHONORED LADY" Kent Wheeler Bob's Reality in "CRACKED NUTS"

CHARLESTOWN

HOLLYWOOD
HELEN TWELVETREES in "The Bat Whispers" CHESTER MORRIS in "The Bat Whispers" SILLY SYMPHONY

THOMPSON'S SQUARE THEATRE
JACKIE COOPER in "SKIPPY" TALLY MARSH in "CAB WAITING"

DORCHESTER

DORCHESTER THEATRE
GEORGE ARLISS in "THE MILLIONAIRE" and "WEST OF THE CHEYENNE" and ART GIFTS

EGLESTON SQ

The EGLESTON Eglestn Sq.
"The Public Enemy" JAMES CAGNEY-JEAN HARLOW "Beyond Victory" BILL BOYD

HYDE PARK

EVERETT SQUARE
RONALD COLMAN in "BONDAGE" Cary Cooper-Sylvia Sidney in "CITY STREETS" Stan Laurel-Ollie Hardy Comedy

MALDEN

GRANADA MALDEN
Robert Montgomery in "SHIPMATES" LOWELL SHERMAN in "BACHELOR APARTMENT" Sally Eilers in "Sea Bride"

MALDEN (Continued)

STRAND MALDEN
JACK HOLT in "Subway Express" with ALLEN PRINCIPLE Marion Nixon-Reed Brown in "Gun Smoke"

REVERE

REVERE AND CRESCENT GARDENS
"DRACULA" Frank Lawton-Helen Chandler "Boudoir Diplomat" with ADA LOFTUS

ROXBURY

HUMBOLDT ROX. 1810
"THE FLOOD" ELEANOR BOARDMAN in "HER MAN" Helen Twelvetrees-Phillips

SOMERVILLE

CAPITOL BROADWAY SOM. 2200
WILLIAM HAINES in "Tailor Made Man" "These Girls Lost"

SOMERVILLE THEATRE SOM. 2200
"WHOOPEE" EDDIE CANTOR "Widow of the Streets" EVELYN BRENT with ALICE FAYE COMEDY

SOUTH BOSTON

STRAND AND BROADWAY
WHEELER & WOOLSEY "CRACKED NUTS" JACK HOLT "SUBWAY EXPRESS"

SOUTH END

NATIONAL TRINITY
Joe E. Brown-Wynne Gibson in "SIT TIGHT" "THE SPY" with BEN HAMILTON

JAMAICA PLAIN

PUBLIX JAMAICA JAM. 3293
TALLULAH BANKHEAD "TARNISHED LADY" JACK HOLT "DUDE RANCH" Mat. 2 Sun. 2:15-3:25

MATTAPAN SQ.

PUBLIX ORIENTAL MAT. 1200
Lew Ayres-Jean Harlow "IRON MAN" "KICK IN" CLARK & McCULLOUGH

NEWTON

PUBLIX EGYPTIAN NEWTON
AMPLE PARKING SPACE "THE MILLIONAIRE" GEORGE ARLISS "PHOTO" JANET BEECH "FRONT PAGE" HOWARD HUGHES "BAD SISTER"

CAMBRIDGE

PUBLIX CENTRAL SQ. UNIVERSITY 0572
CLARK & McCULLOUGH "KICK IN" REGIS TOOMEY "Bachelor Apartment" Lucille Browne-Irene Rich

HARVARD SQ. COMMONWEALTH
"DRACULA" WARNER BAXTER in "DOCTORS' WIVES"

ROSLINDALE

PUBLIX BRIGHTON
TALLULAH BANKHEAD "TARNISHED LADY" CLIVE BROOK in "DUDE RANCH"

ROXBURY

PUBLIX DUDLEY DUD. 0044
"SUBWAY EXPRESS" with JACK HOLT CLIVE BROOK in "KICK IN" with REGIS TOOMEY

DORCHESTER

PUBLIX CODMAN SQ. DORCHESTER TEL. 1000
"BORN TO LOVE" with CONSTANCE BENNETT LEWIS AMES-BETTY DAVIS DOROTHY LEE Walter Huston-Dorothy Jordan in "Law and Lawless"

PUBLIX FIELDS CORNER DOR. 0800
Constance Bennett-Incl. McCrea in "BORN TO LOVE" Ben Lyon-Edna May Oliver in "SECRETS OF A SECRETARY" Ann Dvorak-Lew Ayres in "SCANDAL FOR SALE"

PUBLIX LIBERTY TEL. 1510
Cary Cooper-Sylvia Sidney in "CITY STREETS" Robert Armstrong-Ann Dvorak in "SCANDAL FOR SALE" Ben Lyon-Edna May Oliver in "SECRETS OF A SECRETARY"

PUBLIX NORTON
FRONT PAGE" with ADOLPHE MENJOU Pat O'Brien-Mary Brian "Reputation" with Ruth Chatterton-Paul Lukas Comedy Show

COL. 2000 STRAND DORCHESTER
Robert Montgomery "SHIPMATES" "BACHELOR APARTMENT" Lowell Sherman-Irene Dunne

EGLESTON

PUBLIX EGLESTON
Ben Lyon-Edna May Oliver in "SECRETS OF A SECRETARY" Ann Dvorak-Lew Ayres in "SCANDAL FOR SALE" Robert Armstrong-Ann Dvorak in "SCANDAL FOR SALE"

HYDE PARK

PUBLIX EMBASSY HYDE PARK 1000
Wm. Powell-Kay Francis in "LADIES' MAN" BARBARA STANWYCK "Ten Cents a Dance"

WOLLASTON

PUBLIX WOLLASTON
WILLIAM HAINES Tallulah Bankhead in "TARNISHED LADY" JANET MAC LACHLAN in "LIGHTNING FLYER" Mat. 1:45 Eves. 7:15 Last Show 9:30

Watch This Directory and Patronize Your Local Theatres

Amusements

Paramount Publix Theatres

EVERY SEAT A COOL RETREAT

METROPOLITAN

She Denied Love—But It Overwhelmed Her!

Paramount's Newest Emotional Drama

I TAKE THIS WOMAN

with

GARY COOPER

CAROLE LOMBARD

ON THE STAGE

BERT GORDON

In Brilliant Publix Revue

"RIO ROSA"

Theodore Enrico and Novello

Vera Kingston, Wilfred Dubois

Bobby Sanford Girls

OLYMPIA WASH'T TRin 5735 AND UPTOWN HUNT'N AVE KEN 3460

TODAY!

The dynamic story of a man who knew too much about money and too little about blondes

Dames Were His Downfall

EDWARD G. ROBINSON

Star of "Little Caesar"

JAMES CAGNEY

Star of "Public Enemy," in Smart Money

with EVALYN KNAPP

Twice as thrilling as "Little Caesar" Twice as fast as "The Public Enemy"

YET—NOT A GANGSTER PICTURE!

Will Not Be Shown Sunday

Sunday "BROADMINDED" with JOE E. BROWN

Second Golf Lesson by

BOBBY JONES

In "How I Play Golf"—"CHIP SHOTS"

How the Masters Does It

MODERN BEACON

ENDS TODAY

Six Cylinder Love" Man of the Sky"

STARTS TOMORROW!

"Annabelle's Affairs" VICTOR McLAGLEN Jeanette MacDonald

2nd Feature

"Salvation Nell" with Ralph Graves—Sally O'Neil

SCOLLAY SQ. "VICE SQUAD"

FENWAY

TODAY!

The Sweetest Story of the Year!

JANET GAYNOR in "DADDY LONG LEGS" with Warner BAXTER

First of Series of 12 "ADVENTURES IN AFRICA"

PARAMOUNT PUBLIX NEAR HOME THEATRES

ALLSTON

PUBLIX ALLSTON STA. 4410
Jackie Coogan-Mitzi Green in "SKIPPY" Buck Jones in "The Texas Ranger"

PUBLIX CAPITOL ASP. 0775-0776
Robert Montgomery "SHIPMATES" LOWELL SHERMAN "BACHELOR APARTMENT"

BRIGHTON

PUBLIX EGYPTIAN BRIGHTON
AMPLE PARKING SPACE "THE MILLIONAIRE" GEORGE ARLISS "PHOTO" JANET BEECH "FRONT PAGE" HOWARD HUGHES "BAD SISTER"

CAMBRIDGE

PUBLIX CENTRAL SQ. UNIVERSITY 0572
CLARK & McCULLOUGH "KICK IN" REGIS TOOMEY "Bachelor Apartment" Lucille Browne-Irene Rich

HARVARD SQ. COMMONWEALTH
"DRACULA" WARNER BAXTER in "DOCTORS' WIVES"

DORCHESTER

PUBLIX CODMAN SQ. DORCHESTER TEL. 1000
"BORN TO LOVE" with CONSTANCE BENNETT LEWIS AMES-BETTY DAVIS DOROTHY LEE Walter Huston-Dorothy Jordan in "Law and Lawless"

PUBLIX FIELDS CORNER DOR. 0800
Constance Bennett-Incl. McCREA in "BORN TO LOVE" Ben Lyon-Edna May Oliver in "SECRETS OF A SECRETARY" Ann Dvorak-Lew Ayres in "SCANDAL FOR SALE"

PUBLIX LIBERTY TEL. 1510
Cary Cooper-Sylvia Sidney in "CITY STREETS" Robert Armstrong-Ann Dvorak in "SCANDAL FOR SALE" Ben Lyon-Edna May Oliver in "SECRETS OF A SECRETARY"

PUBLIX NORTON
FRONT PAGE" with ADOLPHE MENJOU Pat O'Brien-Mary Brian "Reputation" with Ruth Chatterton-Paul Lukas Comedy Show

COL. 2000 STRAND DORCHESTER
Robert Montgomery "SHIPMATES" "BACHELOR APARTMENT" Lowell Sherman-Irene Dunne

EGLESTON

PUBLIX EGLESTON
Ben Lyon-Edna May Oliver in "SECRETS OF A SECRETARY" Ann Dvorak-Lew Ayres in "SCANDAL FOR SALE" Robert Armstrong-Ann Dvorak in "SCANDAL FOR SALE"

HYDE PARK

PUBLIX EMBASSY HYDE PARK 1000
Wm. Powell-Kay Francis in "LADIES' MAN" BARBARA STANWYCK "Ten Cents a Dance"

JAMAICA PLAIN

PUBLIX JAMAICA JAM. 3293
TALLULAH BANKHEAD "TARNISHED LADY" JACK HOLT "DUDE RANCH" Mat. 2 Sun. 2:15-3:25

MATTAPAN SQ.

PUBLIX ORIENTAL MAT. 1200
Lew Ayres-Jean Harlow "IRON MAN" "KICK IN" CLARK & McCULLOUGH

NEWTON

PUBLIX PARAMOUNT NEWTON NEW 4180
Mat. 2:15 Eve. 7:45 CLIVE BROOK in "PHOTO" HOWARD HUGHES "BAD SISTER"

ROSLINDALE

PUBLIX BRIALTO
TALLULAH BANKHEAD "TARNISHED LADY" CLIVE BROOK in "DUDE RANCH"

ROXBURY

PUBLIX DUDLEY DUD. 0044
"SUBWAY EXPRESS" with JACK HOLT CLIVE BROOK in "KICK IN" with REGIS TOOMEY

PUBLIX RIVOLI HIG. 0240
Robert Montgomery "SHIPMATES" Irene Dunne-Lowell Sherman "BACHELOR APARTMENT"

PUBLIX SHAWMUT CAP. 1150
STAGE CABARET LEW AYRES in "THE IRON MAN" Raymond Browne-Marjorie Gateson

WALTHAM

PUBLIX EMBASSY WALTHAM 1640
Wm. Powell-Kay Francis in "LADIES' MAN" BARBARA STANWYCK "Ten Cents a Dance"

WOLLASTON

PUBLIX WOLLASTON
WILLIAM HAINES Tallulah Bankhead in "TARNISHED LADY" JANET MAC LACHLAN in "LIGHTNING FLYER" Mat. 1:45 Eves. 7:15 Last Show 9:30

Watch This Directory and Patronize Your Local Theatres

AMERICAN RYDER CUP TEAM LEADING BRITISH

FANNING

By GEORGE UNDERWOOD

Don't Play Ponies. Bet on the Riders. Fator Hitting .547.

Wake Up, Boston! Don't Let N'York Grab All Plums!

IS THOMPSON GOING TO RUN OUT?

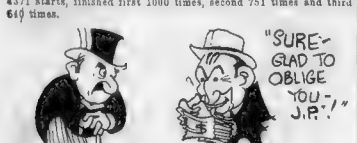
Soon hang-tails will race up at Rockingham and we hope they run the right way.

The last skate we had a bet down on ran away for the stables and hay. We cared not what he did to the jockey—he tossed him right over his dome.

But us he tossed for our bankroll and made us walk all the way home!

We're not going to play the ponies any more. When the piddypaps start piddyapping at Rockingham, next week, we're goin' to play the jockeys—p'haps. We say p'haps, for a long time ago we promised Ma and ourselves to let the ponies alone. And if Ma doesn't want us to play the ponies we don't know how she will feel about the jockeys. But maybe if we tell Ma all about Jockey Laverne Fator she will get all excited, just like we are, and dig down in her stocking and say "Here Pop, here's a two spot! Go out and make a million out of it betting on the jockeys!"

You fellers read in the Boston Evening American, Thursday, how Laverne Fator, booting home Blind Bow Boy in the third race at Aqueduct, had brought his 1000th winner over the line. Other jockeys have ridden 1000 winners. Jimmy Butwell, that wonderful little bangtail steerer, brought home 1547 winners. But looking up Fator's record it was found that since he started riding back in 1913 he took 4371 horses to the post and out of those 4371 starts, finished first 1000 times, second 751 times and third 649 times.



In other words, Fator finished in the money 2391 times in 4371 races, which means he finished in the money on an average of every other time he started. He batted .547 over a stretch of 13 years. If that isn't some batting average, on and off he diamond, what is? If you had started in betting on Jockey Fator, Ma, when Laverne saddled his first mount back in 1913 and bet across the board on him every time he started think of the bankroll you would have by now, Ma. Why say, you'd be pointing your lorgnette and turning up your aristocratic nose at Mrs. Astorbilt and I'd be loaning money to Morgan.

But Ma, would we be as happy if we had all of that tin
As we are now dodging collectors, keeping coal in the old coal bin?
Standing shoulder to shoulder in trouble and sharing each gladness and joy
Would you be Sweet Sixteen to me then, Ma, I still be your Golden Boy?

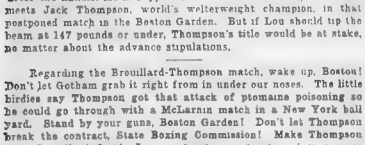
Oh Ma, we're rich beyond money, we've children, happiness, health,
I wouldn't swap them for millions—for all of Rockefeller's wealth!
And you, Ma, share the same feeling; you, too, would dread the day
That money invaded our Eden and stole our real riches away.

ENVOI

So Ma, lets not bet on the jockeys and roll up that big bankroll
Think of the fun we'd be losing, hustling hard for our winter's coat,
Shoes and clothes for the kiddies, new lock for the old kitchen door—
To h——l with Rockfeller's riches! We're happier far staying poor!

One of these days Lou Brouillard, welterweight and middleweight champion of New England, may be fighting for the world's middleweight championship. If he can make 147 pounds he probably will get the chance at the welterweight crown before he goes after the middle. He is supposed to come in over weight when he meets Jack Thompson, world's welterweight champion, in that postponed match in the Boston Garden. But if Lou should tip the beam at 147 pounds or under, Thompson's title would be at stake, no matter about the advance stipulations.

Regarding the Brouillard-Thompson match, wake up, Boston! Don't let Gotham grab it right from in under our noses. The little birdies say Thompson got that attack of ptomaine poisoning so he could go through with a McLarnin match in a New York ball yard. Stand by your guns, Boston Garden! Don't let Thompson break the contract, State Boxing Commission! Make Thompson fight Brouillard first! Is a contract a contract or just a mere scrap of paper?



Do you know who some day Brouillard may find himself in the opposite corner to? Benny Leonard—the great Benny Leonard. Leonard was the greatest lightweight the game produced since the palmy days of the Old Master, Joe Gans. And Leonard is training for a comeback. It's no press agent yarn, this time. Benny means business. Make no mistake about it.

For two months he has been training at Gus Wilson's at Orangeburg. When he hit Gus' place King Bennah tipped the beam at 177 pounds. Now he weighs only 155. A fellow who loves life like Leonard don't hurry himself in a training resort for a couple of months and work off 22 pounds unless he means business.

The little birdies say Leonard has three matches in view. He wants to beat Jack Thompson for the world's welterweight title, slap over Jimmy McLarnin and wipe out McLarnin's knockout of Singer and memories of other things Smiling Shamus did to other Jewish fighters, and then to meet the man the N. Y. State Athletic Commission names to fight for the world's middleweight title.

Lou Brouillard has an excellent chance to gum the Leonard works. If he beats Jack Thompson, even above the weight, he will earn a clean championship match with the world's welterweight champion. And if Brouillard beats Thompson in a title match even the great Leonard can't dodge him. Lou wants to strike while the iron is hot. And if the Boston Garden and the Massachusetts Commission lets the Brouillard-Thompson match, signed and contracted for Boston, go anywhere else, they better close up shop. For the love of Mike is there any spot on the fistic map except New York?

HAGEN TEES OFF, BUT WHERE IS THE GREAT BOBBY JONES?

FUNNY THING—! YOUTH DOESN'T SEEM TO BE GETTING SERVED THIS YEAR.. AT LEAST ON THE GOLF MENU—
ARE YOU SURE THAT JONES GUY AIN'T AROUND?
I AIN'T A-LL SHE SEES ME!
YOO-HOO
U.S. OPEN
THE FAVORITES INCLUDE
ARMOUR WHO IS A VETERAN OF THE WAR AS WELL AS GOLF..
WOW!
"MAC" SMITH WHO SPENT 7 OF HIS 40 YEARS SICK!
HAGEN WHO HAS SOAKED AN OAT OR TWO IN THE 17 YEARS HE HAS BEEN UP THERE.
AND FARRELL WHO HAD TO HAVE HIS STOMACH RAISED BY McGOVERN BEFORE HE STARTED WINNING TITLES
SARAZEN HAS BEEN UP AND DOWN THE HILL SINCE HE'S TITLE YEARS AGO..

TODAY'S RACING RESULTS

Hamilton Results

FIRST RACE

Colono (R. Munroe) 18.65 8.80 5.10
Abilita (J. Nebbi) ..... — 27.80 14.80
Redford Boy (Hewson) ..... — — 5.40

ALSO RAN—Gelsmirck, Barter, Campmore, My Old Rose, Schoverade, Postville, Mongolian, Royal Bouquet, Kitti N.

SECOND RACE

Fair Jack (Almeyr) 17.85 7.15 4.85
Wing Magi (Leppee) ..... — 13.10 6.65
Yokel (Phillips) ..... — — 4.20

ALSO RAN—Wave Top, Transvestia, Bobbie, Alabam, Fly Across, Mirth Co, Silver Wave, Black and Blue, Paiyton.

Aqueduct Results

FIRST RACE

Line of Fire (Robertson)..12-5 1-1 1-5
Rockine (Pfeiffer) ..... — 6-1 2-1
Outgrass (F. Stevens) ..... — 1-1

ALSO RAN—Karam, Sea Saint, Cuffer, Cloudy Day, Rumfair, Now, Wing Sun, Address, Fred Another, Brandon Prince, Regal Knight, Sea Kai, Pawa, Genesis Rose, Aaramont, Everyshine.

SECOND RACE

Follow On (Zephab) 3-1 1-1 1-1
Fiddle (Robertson) ..... — 3-1 1-2
Rocky News (Workman) ..... — — 9-10

ALSO RAN—Kewaine, Flagstone, Fervor, Part Mutuel, Bienheim, Night Patrol, Gaelic Prince, Be Pass, 2d.

THIRD RACE

Corbeaux (D. Smith) 7.2 4.1 1.2
Terrara (Pandora) ..... — 11.1 5.1
Battle (Malby) ..... — — 1.2

ALSO RAN—Little Sap, Dauntless Son, Kensington.

Dorval Park Results

FIRST RACE

Reserve (McGrinis 4.80 3.70 2.65
Lady Turkey (Yoder) ..... — 20.70 10.65
Blue Jacket (R. Cooper) ..... — — 3.65

ALSO, RAN—Ruling Power, Francis Smitha, Longwood, Satana Pet, Surando, Fortunate One, ...

Continued on Page 1, Column 2

Kepler Easily Wins Over Teammate

Olympia Fields Contry Club, Chicago, June 26 (AP)—Robert Kepler gave his Ohio state teammate, Johnny Florio, a sound spanking on the first round of their 36-hole semi-final match for the national intercollegiate golf championship today, leading 6 up at the turn.

Kepler's finest shot was out of a trap to the 14th green, leaving himself a six inch putt for a par four. He played eight of the last nine holes in par.

Ronan A. C. Loses, 6-4

St. John's Catholic Club made a garrison finish to down Ronan A. C., 6 to 4, yesterday, at Ronan Park Dorchester.

Girl Makes Hole-in-One on First Golf Shot

New York, June 26—Estelle Steinweg of New York, teed up on a regulation course for the first time in her life yesterday, hit her ball a resounding smack with a spoon and watched it roll into the cup 138 yards away. It occurred on the Mosholu municipal course here and Fred Faley, club professional, was there to bear witness.

The hole was No. 16. Foley having taken his pupil around on the back nine to escape the traffic.

Only One Scratch Team Left in Salem Tourney

By BILL GRIMES.

During the fourth round of the Salem four-ball invitation, handicaps figured prominently, for with the exception of Johnny Nies and his brother, Ray, the scratch teams went by the board.

The Nies brothers eliminated Dick Langmaid and E. M. Winslow, who were the unsuccessful finalists last year, to the tune of 6 and 5.

Ray Nies who carried a nine handicap was out in 37 on his own ball, which was also the case for Langmaid won the first hole with a net 3 but the Nies brother soon came up with 4's at the second to square the match and went out in front at the short third, where they both got pars.

After halving the fourth hole with 4s, Ray Nies got his par at the long 5th and won the hole with a stroke. The next three holes were halved, Ray Nies and Langmaid getting net 4s at the long 8th, but the Nies brothers went to 3 up at the turn by snaring 4s at the 9th. Johnny Nies halved the 10th hole with a 4 with Winslow, and then Ray Nies added to his advantage at the long 11th to win by a stroke.

The Nies boys made it 5 up at the 12th when Winslow 3-putted the green and Ray Nies ended the agony at the 13th, which he won with a 4.

The other outstanding match of the 4th round was the one in which Harry Broomfield and S. M. Paterson eliminated R. L. Hutchins and Frank Bowne.

Although Hutchins was the scratch man and conceded 4 strokes to Broomfield and 3 to Paterson Bownes with his handicap of 15 had an armful of strokes coming from the Tedesco pair.

Bownes used two of his strokes to half the first two holes and it was not until the fourth hole that Broomfield and Paterson went out in front. Bownes struck at the sixth put his team 2 up and he came right back with a win at the ninth but they lost the ninth to Bownes' stroke and were only 2 up at the 11th.

Hutchins ran down a 15 foot putt at the 11th for a win and Bownes squared the match at the 13th by chipping in about 4 feet of the green.

Having allowed their 2-hole advantage to [illegible] Rogers the Bloomfield and Paterson team got down to serious play during the next six holes in three over par. The 14th came up with 3's at the 12th, 13th and 14th, Paterson scanning a long one for a birdie 4 in the 13th. Broomfield sharing a par 4 at the long 14th. Paterson's long one ended the match by (flouring) the 17th.

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT

FOURTH ROUND

Lindsey Hooper (11) and John King (11) defeated E. J. Dyer, Jr., and F. L. Dugnion 19 holes.

H. Holton (8) and J. P. Bushel (4) defeated C. F. Pinston (13) and R. R. Weaver (7) 4 and 3.

J. H. Joy (18) and S. S. Rand (5) defeated J. R. Ross (8) and P. E. Ross (6) 6 and 5.

S. S. Bloomfield (3) and S. M. Paterson (3) defeated R. L. Hutchins (8) and Frank Bowne (3), 5 and 4.

SALEM INVITATION FOUR BALL

FIFTH ROUND

Hooper (11) and King (14) vs. Holton and Bushell (11).

Nies (3) and Nies (6) vs. Darkee (18) and Moore (18).

Neil (10) and Smith (8) vs. Dudley (16) and Peirce (16).

Joy (18) and Reed (11) vs. Bloomfield (3) and Paterson (3).

Emerson Winner of Maine Golf Crown

Portland, Me., June 26.—Walter L. Emerson, Jr., smooth-striking youngster from Jordan high in Lewiston, captured the Maine schoolboy golf championship annual fixture at the Portland Country Club with a 1 up count for 36 holes.

One hundred and six state boys, the largest field ever, competed.

John Doeg Seeded No. 1 in Tourney

Montclair, N. J., June 26 (AP)—John Hope Doeg, of Newark, N. J., national singles champion, and other national tennis stars have entered the New Jersey State championships starting tomorrow. Doeg has been seeded No. 1.

BRAVES SCORE 4 IN FIRST

Continued From First Page

ter. Dressen threw out English Hornsby walked. Stephenson forced Hornsby. Maranville to Maguire. NO RUNS.

Braves—Dressen flied to Hornsby. Maranville to Maguire. NO RUNS.

Mueller singled. Berger walked. Moore singled, scoring Maranville. Sheely walked, filling the bases. Lucas forced Moore took third and Sheely took second on a wild pitch. Schulmerich beat out an infield hit, Moore scoring and Sheely taking third. Cronin singled, scoring Sheely, Schulmerich stopping at second. Sweetland relieved Cuyler. Lucas scored. Berger threw out Schulmerich. FOUR RUNS.

SECOND INNING

Cubs—Wilson flied to Schulmerich. Hemsley walked. Grimm hit into a double play, Maguire to Maranville to Sheely. NO RUNS.

Braves—Dressen walked. Dressen took second on a passed ball. Maranville flied to Stephenson. Berger singled, scoring Dressen. Moore fouled to Hemsley. Sheely flied to Wilson. ONE RUN.

THIRD INNING

Cubs—Jurges flied to Sheely. Sweetland singled. Cuyler hit into a double play, Maguire to Maranville to Sheely. NO RUNS.

For Later Innings See Page 1

Wrestling Results

By International News Service

At New York—Ivan Poddubny of Poland won decision over Joseph Rainofski of Siberia (2 out of 3 falls). Time, 1:04:40 and 1:08:30.

At Toronto, Ont.—Pat McGill, Ireland, won from Gregg Sarpolis, Boston, Polo (two falls out of three); Axel Anderson, Worcester, Mass., threw Al Raffert, California.

Hagen and Shute Set Pace for Ryder Cup

Scioto Country Club, Columbus, O., June 26 (AP)—Paced by a blistering brand of sub-par golf on a super-heated day, Walter Hagen's American professional team held the lead in all four of the two-ball foursomes with the British forces today after the first half of the 36-hole competition.

Capt. Hagen and his partner Denemore Shute, turned their match with the veteran Colvin Duncan and Arthurt Havers into a rout by gaining an overwhelming margin of 10 up, due to a seven final 35—35—70 for the two under par for the fourth Ryder Cup match.

It was the first time in Ryder Cup history that Hagen had a better of Duncan who was a and [illegible] the two Eagle threes at the 440-yard 16th and 480-yard 18th featured the Hagen-Shute fireworks.

Cox and Burke Break Par With 71

Wiffy Cox and Billie Burke, with another brilliant round, broke par with 36-35—71, but were hard pressed to be one up on Ernest Whitcombe and Syd Eastabrook. The Britons had a par 72, by far the best performance of the invaders on the first round.

Leo Diegel and Al Espinosa posted 74 to become two up on Abe Mitchell and Fred Robson in the fourth foursome. In this match the American rallied after being two down at the seventh, squared the match at the turn and took command coming back home as the Britons got into difficulties.

Filene's Nine Is Leading League

With five victories to [illegible] as many games, the undefeated Wm. Filene's Sons Company in the industrial division of the Greater Boston Public Department Baseball League is maintaining a firm hold on the top perch of the league.

Heavy hitting plus effective work on the mound and in the field, has resulted in decisive scores by the leaders.

Several former high school and college stars are on the pitching staff.

The [illegible] Lowell Institute [illegible] Reed A. Cowan at Kingston Sunday afternoon.

Several open dates are on the Filene schedule and any manager wishing a game should get in touch with Manager Russell, the manager.

Hamilton Legion Horse Show July 4

The seventh annual horse show and race meet of the A. P. Gardner Post, American Legion of Norfolk at Cilley's field Hamilton, on July 4. Eight events for show horses and four races make one of the most attractive programs in years. Judges will be Mrs. J. Tucker Burr, M. F. H. Dedham Hunt, and A. Henry Higginson, M. F. H. Cohasset Hounds, England.

Albert C. Burrage is chairman of the race committee, assisted by Cedric R. Small and Bayard Tuckerman, Jr. Oliver Wolcott heads the show committee. Entries for the exhibition closed last night.

St. John's Wins, 11-0

St. John's of Cambridge won its fifth straight in the Greater Boston Pousin League yesterday when Eddie Munsey pitched a no-hit, no-run, no-scoring game to whitewash Polish National Alliance, 11 to 0.

The Cards

Par—Out ... 4 4 4 3 4 5 4 5 3—36
Hagen-Shute—
Out ... 4 4 3 2 5 4 5 3 3—33
Duncan Havers—
Out ... 5 5 4 3 5 4 5 4 4—41
Par—In ... 4 4 5 4 5 4 4 3 3—36—72
Hagen-Shute—
In ... 4 3 4 3 4 3 4 3 3—35—70
Duncan-Havers—
In ... 4 3 7 4 6 4 5 5 5—47—87
Par—Out ... 4 4 4 3 4 5 4 5 3—36
Cox-Burke—
Out ... 4 4 5 3 4 4 5 4 3—36
Par—In ... 4 4 5 4 3 4 4 5 3—36—72
Cox-Burke—
In ... 4 4 5 3 2 4 4 3 3—35—71
Whitcombe-Eastabrook—
Out ... 4 4 4 4 3 5 3 4 3—34—72
Whitcombe-Easterbrook—
In ... 4 4 4 4 3 5 3 4 3—34—73
Diegel-Espinosa—
Out ... 5 4 4 3 5 4 5 5 5—40
Mitchell-Robson—
Out ... 5 4 5 4 5 5 5 4 5—42
Diegel-Espinosa in:
5 4 5 6 5 5 4 3 3—38—78
Mitchell-Robson—
In ... 5 4 6 5 5 5 5 4 5—44—86
Farrell-Sarazen:
Out ... 5 4 3 4 5 4 6 3 3—37
Compton-Davies:
Out ... 4 5 4 6 5 5 5 3 4—40
Par, In ... 4 5 4 5 4 4 5 3 3—37—77
Farrell-Sarazen, in:
4 4 4 3 4 4 4 4 3—34—71
Compton-Davies, in:
5 4 4 3 4 4 5 3 3—36—72

McDonald Meets Travers in Final

Manchester, Vt., June 26—J. McDonald of Knickerbocker Country Club continued his way toward the championship title in the 27th annual golf competition of the amateur and open golf association at Equinox Links Club when he defeated Merrill M. Lord of Oakland, 3 and 2.

McDonald's opponent today in the 36-hole final will be J. A. Travers of Commonwealth, who was victorious over Harold Block of Quaker Ridge, 1 up.

The runners-up championship event ended this morning. Mrs. M. M. Lord of Oakland won the title, defeating Mrs. J. A. Travers of Commonwealth 1 up.

Wanderers Win

Wanderers jumped [illegible] on Concord to defeat the Mahoney Club, 8 to 2, in a Dorchester Twilight League game last night.

Connie Sanford led the hitting with a home run and a triple.

League Leaders

By the Associated Press
(Including Yesterday's Games)

NATIONAL LEAGUE

BATTING—Hendrick, Reds, .377; Davis, Phillies, .361.
RUNS—Klein, Phillies, 80; English, Cubs, 54.
HITS—Klein, Phillies, 101; Davis, Phillies, 97.
DOUBLES—Bartell, Phillies, 20; Davis, Phillies, 19.
TRIPLES—Montgomery, Braves; Whitehead, Cardinals; Klein, Phillies, 8.
HOME RUNS—Klein, Phillies, 19; Ruether, Reds, 7.
STOLEN BASES—Comorosky, Pirates, 9; Taylor, Cubs, 7.
PITCHING—Rush, Cubs, won 8, lost 2; Derringer, Cubs, won 7, lost 3.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

BATTING—Ruth, Yankees, .390; Manush, Senators, .378.
RUNS—Gehrig, Yankees, 74; Simmons, Athletics, 57.
HITS—Combs, Yankees, Cronin, Senators, Simmons, Athletics, 97.
DOUBLES—Webb, Red Sox, 28; Manush, Senators, 25.
TRIPLES—Cronin, Senators, 8; Mancuso, Johnson, Tigers, 7.
HOME RUNS—Gehrig, Yankees, 17; Ruth, Yankees, 16.
STOLEN BASES—Chapman, Yankees, 16; Johnson, Tigers, 11.
PITCHING—Pascher, Senators, won 6, lost 1; Burke, Senators, won 5, lost 1.

Did Anybody Lose a Runner? Police Would Like to Know

Los Angeles, June 26 (US)—If anyone has lost or mislaid a badly sun-burned cross-country runner he will confer a favor on the Los Angeles police department by calling at the Highland Park station and asking for Officer L. Margolis.

Unburned and distressed, H. Galinsky appeared at the station and told his tale of woe. He said he was making a cross-country run from New York and that somewhere in the desert he had lost his manager. Since there are no pockets in a cross-country runner's outfit, Galinsky, in addition to being painfully scarlet, was broke.

$200,000 IN PURSES AT ROCKINGHAM MEET

TRACK IS ONE OF BEST IN COUNTRY

By HENRY J. DISKEN

Rockingham Park, Salem, N. H., is all dressed up and ready to go for the 33-day meeting, which will open next Wednesday, July 1, to inaugurate thoroughbred racing under the auspices of the New Hampshire Breeders' Association.

Purses amounting to $200,000 will be offered for the entire meeting. The average for claiming races will be $800, with larger purses for better condition races and the feature handicaps. These purses compare favorably with those offered at the leading tracks in New York and the result is the best, stables are due here for the meeting.

Construction work is nearly completed. The steward's and judge's stands are ready for action. The lawn is a carpet of green and with several well placed flower beds add to the beauty and attractiveness of the plant.

The immense steel grandstand spic and span in new paint and with many added improvements is, in the opinion of race track experts, one of the finest in the country.

The racing strip has been completely reconstructed. One mile in length, with a stretch 100 feet wide it makes expanding turns with much greater width.

The back stretch is slightly raised which will give the fans a clear view of the horses as they race along its 50 foot width. The course as it is laid out, will offer plenty of real thrills as the race for the wire is almost a full quarter-mile from the stretch turn.

Course One of Best in the Country

Rain or shine, the course will be equal to the best in the country. It is far better now than the leading tracks in Canada, or those in Maryland, and can hold its own with Aqueduct, Empire City, or Jamaica. The system of drainage installed is the last word in race track construction and will be firm under the most adverse weather.

The condition book which covers the first ten days of racing is one of the most attractive we have ever seen, and with a featured handicap of real value set down for each day's card the turf fans will get plenty of the right kind of racing, as the other events arranged should fill for a well balanced program.

Horses working out over the course early this morning gave the railbirds plenty of horse talk, and there was enough fast time clocked to show that some fair class horses are right on the grounds.

Over 2000 Applications Already Received

Racing Secretary Jimmy Minnone has received over 2000 applications from tracks all over the country. Stable reservations are restricted to 1000 horses, and this has opened up the opportunity for careful selections, which means a better class of horses.

At present over 200 head are at the track, with a trainload due in today, which will bring the number up another 100.

The meet will go on with about 800 horses here, and every event should fill in the limit of the field, which Secretary Monroe expects will parade to the barrier an average of 13 for each race.

Turf Notes

The Junia Farm Stable pulled in with 35 head and Trainer J. P. "Sammy" Smith reported with the Dorwood Stable horses.

Trainer W. S. Wiehe sent Mr. L. Perry's Protractor around the track for an early workout and this fast trick impressed the railbirds. Protractor is one of the leading winners at the spring meetings in the south.

He was king of the six furlong sprinters at the Miami meet and won the rich Paumonok Handicap. He will take the fast track at Rockingham and knock off better than 1.11 for the six-furlong distance. Figuring him on his race against Balko makes this smart sprinter one to watch.

Table of Runs

From June 21 to June 27

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	S	M	T	W	T	F	S	T
Boston	7	7	2	0	7	4	—	29
Cleveland	3	*	25	3	3	—	—	32
Chicago	5	8	10	3	11	—	—	37
Detroit	6	2	3	7	3	—	—	21
New York	9	10	12	10	19	—	—	63
Philadelphia	*	6	2	7	5	10	—	30
St. Louis	17	14	5	5	11	—	—	56
Washington	1	*	14	5	1	—	—	21

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	S	M	T	W	T	F	S	T
Boston	6	*	4	16	1	—	—	30
Brooklyn	1	7	2	*	11	0	—	21
Chicago	6	11	*	11	3	—	—	34
Cincinnati	1	*	10	14	6	—	—	31
New York	4	4	*	12	0	—	—	20
Pittsburgh	8	2	*	7	1	—	—	18
St. Louis	3	3	*	8	1	—	—	15
Philadelphia	7	7	*	4	5	—	—	23

*No game.

MR. BOSTON

By JACK CONWAY

Mr. Boston

Mr. Boston dropped in to hello Paul Bowser who is assisting the Crosscup-Pishon Post in promoting the world's heavyweight championship bout between Henri DeGlane and Ed Don George at Braves Field on July 14.

"I look for a furious battle when George and DeGlane swing into action," said Bowser. "I have always liked George ever since he started wrestling. He has real ability, courage and a fine personality.

"I would have liked to have seen Ed hold his title longer than he did, but he was bumped off by Lewis who in turn was beaten by DeGlane.

"I thought it might break George's spirit when he lost his title. Instead the loss of the championship appears to have made him a greater wrestler than ever. Ed has always been an expert at the fine points of the game. This is to be expected in view of his splendid wrestling background which includes amateur as well as pro training.

"Since losing his title, George has become a wild, vicious wrestler. He reminds me of the Dempsey of Toledo. Ed wants to knock off the other fellow as quickly as possible.

DeGlane Has Kept Faith With Promoter

"I wish to give DeGlane credit for keeping faith with me. After he licked Lewis, he agreed to meet any man I picked for him. I named Stasiak, Malcewicz and George and he didn't hesitate to sign contracts for these matches.

"Most new champions will give out statements to the effect they will do certain things, but they don't make good their promises.

"I look for George and DeGlane to draw the greatest crowd that has ever attended a wrestling show in Boston. I look for the gate to hit $100,000.

"I talked with Gus Sonnenberg on the long distance telephone. He is on the Pacific Coast, but will return East to meet Bonnie Muir in the semi-final."

Wrestling Has Great Hold on the Public

"Wrestling, said Mr. Boston, "is enjoying great popularity everywhere. I think that this is because the mat stars give more action. They don't refuse to risk their titles as is true of boxers.

"The world's heavyweight wrestling title has had four owners inside of a year. Sonnenberg lost to George, George to Lewis and the latter to DeGlane. Perhaps George will be back on his old throne after the skirmish at the Wigwam."

Hopedales Defeat Boston Tigers, 9-2

The Hopedales of Allston trounced the Boston Tigers, 9 to 2, at Smith playgrounds, Allston in the Hub Twilight league last night. In the other league games, St. Augustine of South Boston nosed out Newton Upper Falls, 9 to 7; Christopher J. Lee playgrounds, South Boston, and Somerville City won upset Cambridge City Club, 10 to 3, at Trum playground.

Tabor Is Winner in Yacht Regatta

Greenwich, Ct., June 26—By the margin of a single second, Tabor Academy of Marion, Mass., won the first of the final races on the interscholastic yachting regatta program off the waters of Indian Harbor Y. C. yesterday.

Sailing over a six-mile windward and leeward course and piloted by Halsey Loder, the Tabor craft slipped over the finish line in first place with the barest advantage over Lawrenceville, skippered by Herbert Blake.

The victory came as the climax of banner performances by Tabor and its skipper.

In addition to capturing the final event in the final test, the Massachusetts entry scored triumphs in each of the preliminary races conducted this morning, thereby topping the list of qualifiers for the final with a total of 18½ points, while St. George's school and Taft school tied for third, each with 11 points.

Jamestown Badly Beaten at Aqueduct

Aqueduct, N. Y., June 26 (U.P.)—Jamestown, the St. James colt, the two-year-old champion of last year, the 1 to 2 favorite in the Sheepshead stakes yesterday at Aqueduct, was beaten. Not only beaten but routed in a manner that was disgraceful.

The colt which belongs to George D. Widener, finished third in a three-horse race and was beaten five and a half lengths by Sir Ashley, the winner. Dannur, which finished second, was two and a half lengths in front of the choice.

Dunlap Winner in Collegiate Golf

Chicago, June 26 (U.S.)—George T. Dunlap, Jr., of Princeton, holder of the national intercollegiate golf championship, defeated William Redmond of Notre Dame today 7 and 6, in the 36-hole quarterfinal round.

Johnny Fiorio, Ohio State sophomore, defeated Jim Reston of Illinois, 4 and 2 and Bob Kepler, also of Ohio state, won his match with Sidney W. Noyes, Jr., of Yale, 5 and 4.

BUY NOW!
Prices Reduced on Our Entire Stock of Men's—Young Men's SUITS
Use Our Friendly Budget
LEONARD A. CATES Inc.
34 Chauncy St., Boston

AMERICAN BEAUTY? or
PASSION FLOWER OF THE SOUTH SEAS?

Two women who had nothing in common except beauty—and even in that they differed. One a delicate, cultured blossom of society—the other a passion flower of the South Seas. He knew it was folly to hope that East and West could meet—but a power stronger than himself lured him to her tropic isle.

Peter B. Kyne

has written many thrilling novels, but none to equal the color, tense drama and swift movement of "Never The Twain Shall Meet". At last it comes to talkies! Now you'll see and hear, you'll actually live the heart-beats of a great story.

W. S. Van Dyke

director of "White Shadows in the South Seas" and "Trader Horn", has created another great film masterpiece! He has taken this story of love between a primitive, beautiful girl of the South Seas and an American youth and made it into one of the most intriguing romantic dramas the talking screen has yet seen.

NEVER the TWAIN SHALL MEET with LESLIE HOWARD · CONCHITA MONTENEGRO · C. AUBREY SMITH
A Metro Goldwyn Mayer Production
STARTS TODAY
LOEW'S STATE
BOSTON'S FAMOUS THEATRE · WASHINGTON ST.

What the Stars Did

By the Associated Press

Red Kress and Walter Stewart, Reds—Former hit homer to win first game from Athletics, latter pitched effectively to win second.

Roy Spencer, Senators—Accounted for all Washington runs against Tigers with two singles and double.

Ben Chapman, Yankees—Hit homers in each game of double bill with White Sox, driving in seven runs and enabling Yankees to win both.

Fred Frankhouse, Braves—Held Cubs to seven hits and beat them 4-3.

George Watkins, Cardinals—Stole home on Dazzy Vance to beat Robins, 1-0.

Benny Frey, Reds—Held Giants to six hits and won, 8-0.

Virgil Davis, Phillies—Clouted Pirate pitching for double and three singles.

Canzoneri Defeats Herman Perlick

New Haven, Ct., June 26—Tony Canzoneri, world's lightweight and junior welterweight champion, won a decision over Herman Perlick of Kalamazoo, Mich., in a 10-round non-title fight.

BASEBALL

National

	GAMES	PCT.
St. Louis
New York
Chicago
Boston
Brooklyn
Philadelphia
Pittsburgh
Cincinnati

Chicago at Boston
St. Louis at Brooklyn
Cincinnati at New York
Pittsburgh at Philadelphia
NATIONAL LEAGUE
Boston 8, Chicago 4
St. Louis 1, Brooklyn 0
Philadelphia 8, Pittsburgh 4
Cincinnati 8, New York 0

American

	GAMES	PCT.
Philadelphia
Washington
New York
Cleveland
Boston
St. Louis
Detroit
Chicago

Boston at St. Louis
Philadelphia at Detroit
Washington at Chicago
New York at Cleveland
AMERICAN LEAGUE
Boston 8, Cleveland 3
St. Louis 6, Philadelphia 5
New York 10, Detroit 6
New York 3, Chicago 1
Washington 6, Boston 4

CUBS ONE OF SLOWEST TEAMS IN BIG LEAGUES

TRIBE BACK IN FIRST DIVISION

By JOE CASHMAN

Manager Rogers Hornsby offers a very novel excuse for the large number of double plays which have been turned in at the expense of his Chicago Cubs this season.

The "Rajah" adds is that the drives which he and his charges hit travel so fast that it is a cinch for opposing infielders to complete twin-killings if they manage to stop the ball and there are Cubs on the sacks to be doubled up.

We give the pilot credit for the originality of his excuse and admit that he and his mates can make a ball travel very fast, but we beg to differ with him that this is the cause of so many double playsbeing made against the Cubs.

After watching the Windy City outfit in action we are convinced that it is a very frequent victim of double plays mainly because it is one of the slowest aggregations in big league ball.

With the exception of "Kiki" Cuyler, a real speed merchant, and Woody English, who is as fast as the average, the Cubs on the base paths resemble Barnum's elephants in street parade.

They must make the cleanest sort of hits to reach first base or to advance a mate.

Cubs Stars Are Getting Slower

Hornsby, Wilson, Stephenson, Hartnett, and Grimm were fairly fleet at one time, but they have slowed up to such an extent that they haven't a chance in a million of beating out a blow in the infield and rarely can or even try to advance more than one base on a single.

There is probably more punch packed in the Chicago lineup than in any other in the league. That's why the Chicago entry is right on the heels of the second-place Giants, within striking distance of the top and feared by all rivals.

BOEHM GIRLS ARE BEATEN

In the feature match of the junior girls' title tennis play at the Longwood Cricket Club today, Mary Cutter, seeded No. 4, defeated Helen Boehm, 6—, 14—12.

The day's upset was provided by Helen Bidwell, who beat Hilda Boehm, seeded No. 2, and a sister of Helen, 6—0, 6—3.

Louise Harding turned back Lieanor Giccone in another match, 6—1, 6—3.

Mary Greef, University of Southern California, entered the final round of the college girls' singles championship by defeating Mary Cutter of Sargent School, 8—6, 6—2.

Her opponent for the title will be another Coast star, Charlotte Millar of the University of California, who defeated Dorance Chase of Simmons, 6—4, 6—1, in the other semi-final.

Louise Harding and Mary Boyden won the State's double championship for girls under 15 years of age by defeating Kay Farrol and Sylvia Hatch, 6—2, 6—1.

BOSTON GIRL LOSES ON COURT

Wimbledon Stadium, Eng., June 26 (AP)—All the Americans in the Wimbledon Tennis Championships advanced today. Sidney B. Wood, Jr., following his Davis Cup partners Frank X. Shields and John Van Ryn into the quarter final round with a four set victory over C. J. Maffroy, of New Zealand, 6-3, 10-12, 10-8, 6-4.

After a bitter contest in the second and third sets, which went 22 and 18 games, respectively, Wood won rather easily in the fourth and match set.

Miss Marjorie Sachs of Boston was eliminated from doubles play with her partner, Miss Jedrzejowska, by Mrs. J. B. Pittman and Joan Bradley of England, 6—2, 6—3.

Morgan Furniture Nine Scores Win

Displaying a fine brand of ball the Morgan Furniture Co. baseball team defeated the Bay State Upholstering Co. yesterday at Franklin Field, 9 to 6, in one of the closest contested games of the Furniture Twilight League.

Next Tuesday evening the Morgan Furniture Co. team will play the fast Norfolk A. C. of Roxbury. The Morgan team has a fine record to date, winning all games with the exception of one.

Herman Defeats Emard of Holyoke

New Haven, June 26—Babe Herman of New York won a decision over Jerry Emard, Holyoke, Mass., in an eight-round semifinal.

Where Do They Find 'Em?

Buffalo, N. Y., June 26 (INS)—Prima Carnera, Italian heavyweight, meets Jose Checkiena, of Brooklyn in a 10-round bout at Bison Stadium tonight.

SPORTS REEL

DAILY SHOTS FROM EVERYWHERE

Changes skates to spikes. There is no ice, even in Norway, in the summer time, so, SONJE HEINE, above, has turned to track. Sonje is the world champion fancy skater, and is now anxious to make a name for herself on the cinders.

A rough necking party. JIM LONDOS applying the headlock to MICKEY WALKER, while both men work out at their Orangeburg camp. TONY CANZONERI, the lightweight boxing champion, acts as referee.

I. N. P.

Diamond Dust

By JOE CASHMAN

The courageous Red Sox move down to St. Louis today for a five-game series with the surprising Browns.

There will be a single contest this afternoon and doubleheaders tomorrow and Sunday. Danny MacFayden is listed to pitch the opener for the Sox, while Big Jim Kimsey is likely to start for the Browns.

The cellar berth was at stake the last time these rivals clashed in the Mound City, but so well has each done since that time that they will be battling for fifth place in this engagement. The Fenway flock now occupies the top spot in the second division by a margin of one game over the Missouri entry.

The Sox have done remarkably well thus far on their second tour of the West. After losing two games to the Tigers, they came back to win a pair, and they repeated the stunt against the Indians, being shutout twice in a doubleheader only to win the next two and get another even break.

Boston Nationals fans will have their third [illegible] final [illegible] King. [illegible] but did [illegible] a five-[illegible] five [illegible] helped [illegible] of the [illegible] Lawson

For the [illegible] World [illegible] doubleheader [illegible] fourth when they went down twice before the St. Louis Browns.

Babe Ruth hit his third home run in three days when he poled one out of the park in the opening game of Thursday's doubleheader between the Yanks and White Sox in Chicago. It was the Bambino's 16th homer of the campaign. Lou Gehrig, his teammate, hit his 17th circuit drive in the same game.

Suarez Is Stopped by Billy Petrolle

New York, June 26 (US)—In a bout full of thrills, Billy Petrolle, the Fargo Express, crashed into the championship circle by knocking out Justo Suarez, Argentinian knockout boy, here last night.

The fatal blows fell on the game

[illegible] track fast.

[illegible] NIS RESTRUNG [illegible] Center Straps DITSON [illegible] Cambridge reduced FIELD [illegible] CHICAGO Partridge Field

MACK WON'T BE FOOLED ANY MORE

By JACK CONWAY

Steve Halsiko, Buffalo, was to workout at Kelley & Hayes' Gym today for his 10-round bout with Sammy Fuller of the North End which will be staged at Braves Field on Monday night under the direction of the Argonne Club.

In view of the two fake telegrams which caused Primo Carnera to remain in New York last Monday instead of coming here for four exhibition bouts, Matchmaker Eddie Mack says that in future all principals in bouts at his shows will have to be in town three days before they are scheduled to appear. This will prevent last minute disappointments, and will also give the fans an opportunity to size up the rival battlers in their workouts.

Jack Conway

Halsiko comes to Boston following his recent three round knockout of Augie Pisano. Prior to that contest, Halsiko stopped Jack Renault in this city.

The Buffalo warrior has many supporters in this city who figure he carries too many guns for Fuller. The latter is working hard to get into condition for the Halsiko bout. It will be Sammy's first start since his win over Tony Canzoneri.

Box Office Also Had Ptomaine Poisoning

It is possible that Young Jack Thompson, who was to have met Lou Brouillard at the Boston Garden next Tuesday night, has an attack of ptomaine poisoning. If such is the case, the box office at the Garden was suffering from a similar trouble.

Boston and New England boxing fans refuse any longer to get excited about these meaningless nontitle, over-weight watches. It is a racket by which champions enrich themselves without taking any risk.

There was a very slim advance sale for the Thompson-Brouillard bout. The show had to hit close to $13,000 for the Garden to break even.

Thompson has been offered $60,000 to defend his title against Young Corbett on the Coast. He can also pick up $60,000 battling Jimmy McLarnin in New York. These are additional reasons why an attack of ptomaine poisoning might have been quite profitable to all parties concerned.

Jim Jeffries had his poisoned tea, Jack Dempsey his poisoned milk, while Al Thompson had even a crab meat salad.

The next bout at the Garden will take place on July 10. It looks as if Jim Maloney and Ernie Schaaf will be the young men to toss the heavy punches.

Today's Scratches

WASHINGTON PK. SCRATCHES

1—Cousin Judy, Minton, Miss Upset, Rugartine, New Gro, Gay Party, Nick D, Westys Lady.
2—Amyvale.
6—Transgression.
7—Enfield, Blue Law.
Weather clear; track fast.

HAMILTON SCRATCHES

1—Fair Speed, Money Moon.
2—Virado, Uncle Hood, Brave Knight, Prompter, Kirkland Post, Allanah.
3—Rubridge.
4—Marcheur.
5—Mr. Gaiety.
6—Night Signal.
7—Vad, Anchor Light, Spectacular, Vacillate, Battleshot, The Marquise.
Weather, clear; track, heavy.

AQUEDUCT SCRATCHES

1—Herkimer.
2—Whippersnacker.
6—Nelson.
Weather clear; track fast.

DORVAL SCRATCHES

1—Irish Pearl, Rideau, Carita Clarus.
5—Uplay, Clifton's Lass, Silenus, Clifton's Maid, By Helen, Col. Gilmore.
5—Cudgelette, Haplite, Arrant Jade, Collarvictoria, Candy Man, Flowering Girl.
6—Kentucky Colonel, Nine Sixty, Lookby, Star, Attire.
6—Phil Foto, Storm Queen, Signal Fire Edition, Observation, Wolverine.
7—Forest Lore, Miss Sand, Davenport, Manager Evers, Prince Ronald.

[illegible] track fast.

Schmeling-Stribling Fight Would Succeed—If—

By MYLES T. McSWEENEY

Reports from the Schmeling and Stribling training camps indicate that the boys are using every device known to modern ballyhoo to attract enough customers to pay the janitors. They even have a miniature circus traveling around to collect yokels.

The gate for the fight will total $2,000,000 if someone donates $1,999,999 to the amount on hand.

We have several suggestions, which, if adopted, will boost the gate receipts.

First, let a wild tiger eat Schmeling.

Second, let another wild tiger eat Stribling.

Then match the tigers.

The winner to meet Jack Sharkey.

In this way, all arguments over Schmeling winning the title on a foul will be forever settled. The South could erect a memorial to Stribling.

It is reported that Stribling has taken up motor-cycle racing. Schmeling could learn how to ride before next week.

The pair could stage a motor-cycle race in the ring. The man who picks up the handkerchief on the 40th mile would be declared the winner.

There is, of course, the possibility that the pair could put on a fight. But how will they catch up with each other?

Pasta Fagiola!

Race Entries for Tomorrow

Latonia Entries

Saturday, June 27

FIRST RACE—Five furlongs, one-half furlongs, $1200, maidens, two-year-olds: Pudd Jean 112, Brinda 112, Sidester 115, Requsted 115, Blue Way 112, aBlash 115, Essential 115, Wee Talk 115, Better Fly 112, Rita Ann 112, Winding On 115, bMaster McGee 115, Del Dunn 115, Zean 115, aLast Memory 115, bSteven 110, Winter Play 115, Major Ben 115, Brush Down 112. aHoots entry. bLarrson and Pool entry.

SECOND RACE—Six furlongs, $1200, claiming, three-year-olds and up: (1): zWills 108, Monkeyshins 110, Justin 113, Sambo Brown 113, Don Alvaro 110, Celtic Even 110, High Color 110, xBlack Market 113, Honey Hunter 110, Angry 118, Knockuckian 115, Parkins 118, Auto Bellum 118, Balam 118.

THIRD RACE—Five and one-half furlongs, (1:11): Calzone Fox 120, Regina 113, Dunne 106, South Tour 103, La Rocco 103, Our Fancy 108, Forever Dream 106, Chucho 110, Band Tune 113, Vesco 106, xGrand Champion 105, aJ. S. Keeper entry.

FOURTH RACE—Six furlongs, $1400, allowances, three-year-olds and up (5): Ayesam 105, Oswego 107, Chilley Boots 105, Betty Derg 102, Justinian 110, Chimney Swoop 118.

FIFTH RACE—One and one-half miles, $25,000 added, three-year-olds (10): Boys Howdy 118, Spanish Play 121, All Hail 118, St. Brideaux 118, Oswego 118, Lightning Bolt 121, Pittsburgher 118, Scuttle 109, Knights Call 118, Joey Bird 118.

SIXTH RACE—$1200, one mile and one-sixteenth, claiming, three-year-olds and up (6): Skirt 112, Kirosen 107, Ridgeview 105, Black Cloud 112, Nish 100.

SEVENTH RACE—One mile and one-sixteenth, claiming, four-year-olds and up (9): xJeff O'Neil 105, xHappy Lad 105, Kentucky Ace 110, Scumbbler 110, xAimee Griffenth 102, xBanset 105, Maramada 110, Allege 105, Star Play 110, Royal Sonnie 110, Anostan Play 110, Kling True 105, Princess Donna 105, Happy Hank 112, Leonne 110, Little Chip 110, Helen Bond 105, Dollaire 110, xFido O'Neill 100, Lady Wits 107.

xApprentice allowance claimed.
Weather clear; track fast.

Hamilton Entries

FOR SATURDAY, JUNE 27

FIRST RACE—Five furlongs, $1000, two-year-olds, claiming (10): Star Diadem 103, Abbey Crest 110, Ortona 102, Fools Day 105, xFragrant Gift 106, Miss St. Patrick 105, Devas Vale 104, Gov. 102, Erin Chief 104, Santa Cruz 106. a-W. R. Wright entry.

SECOND RACE—Five furlongs, $1000, two-year-olds (8): Wan Hill 106, Locara 108, Herwick 108, Center March 109, Upsetem 109, Faldonar 109, Urbanity II 103, Visionary Hour 114.

THIRD RACE—Six and one-half furlongs, $1000, three-year-olds and up, claiming (14): Fair Orb 107, Banal Girl 99, Very High 106, Zion 105, Nan Breeze 118, My Kitty 99, Dancing Mack 109, Beau Wrack 111, Florida Gold 109, Federal Reserve 112, Dushka 106, Patrick Callahan 103, Charley J. E. 109, Prompter 109.

FOURTH RACE—One mile and one-sixteenth, $2000, handicap, three-year-olds and up (6): Omareen 116, Potmark 103, Jack 104, aKenmore 111, Gold Bar 112, Bad News Bob 115. aSeagram Stable entry.

FIFTH RACE—One mile and seventy yards, $1200, three-year-olds and up (7): Irish Maiden 105, Montanero 113, Elcido 107, Berber 113, Wrack 107, Judge Bertsel 110, Hot Gills 107.

SIXTH RACE—Three-year-olds and up, claiming, $1000 (6): Gay Parisian 117, Par Excellence 107, Quairo Bras 113, Olivia 110, Free Thinker 112, Master Bobbie 113, Grandy Rock 109, Lord Cardigan 109.

SEVENTH RACE—One mile and a furlong on the turf, $1200, three-year-olds and up, claiming (7): xAthol 106, Friar Cliff 113, Little Bonn 110, aSportsmanlike 106, Clear Sky 113, Angry Lass 111, Panda 105.

Washington Park Entries

Saturday, June 27

FIRST RACE—Six furlongs, $1200, claiming, three-year-olds and up (20): Tarpon 110, xBill Looney 111, Celtic Prince 114, xThomas Gift 112, Common Sense 114, Chicago Girl 105, Hypnotism 118, xKelmscott 111, Gold Bar 114, By Mistake 105, Baron King 116, xSweep Past 109, xBig Morris 105, Prosperous 110, C. B., McKenna 116, War Time 116, Tenderness 118, St. Jim 116, Phantasime 105, Mussoolini 110.

SECOND RACE—Five and one-half furlongs, $1200, two-year-olds, maidens (20): Sweyre 115, Tonight 115, Big Beau 115, Jole 115, Indesa 113 Lucky Ade 113, xPrincess Crusader 112, aPrince Tommy 113, Glanda 115, Highest Bidder 115, xPrincess G. Grabner 113, Glen Burnie 112, Beauty Berry 112, Leila Lee 112, Sweet Sister 115, Broca 115, Diviana 112, Tommie Kirman 115, Prince Herbert 115. a-Lester entry. xf- b-O. H. Bray & G. W. Atkins entry.

Helen Hicks in Final Round

Lido Country Club, Long Beach, N. Y., June 26 (AP)—Helen Hicks, its favorite, advanced to the final round of the New York state women's golf championship today with a three and two victory over Miss Pierce of Westchester Hills, former metropolitan champion.

Firestone TIRES
RETAIL-COMMERCIAL
BARRABEE
SERVICE STORES INC.
143-149 BROOKLINE AVE
BOSTON-PHONE KOM. 4900
WATERTOWN STATION
40 ARSENAL ST. MID. 6684

HARVARD ACE WILL SIGN WITH CUBS

Eddie McGrath of Brookline, Harvard baseball captain of the past season and the son of a Brookline fire lieutenant, will sign to play big league baseball with the Chicago Cubs of the National League, it was reported today.

McGrath will be the only Brookline boy in the big leagues.

McGrath was in conference last night with Scout Jack Doyle and Rogers Hornsby, manager of the Cubs, who are now in Boston for a series with the Braves. And arrangements have been virtually completed.

Officials of the Chicago club have refused to divulge the terms of the pending contract, but it is understood that the Harvard star will receive one of the largest salaries ever given to a college baseball player.

The only obstacle that still remains to be ironed out is the selection of a suitable farm to which the Brookline boy might be sent should it be decided that he is in need of further seasoning.

The Cubs are now in the midst of a terrific pennant battle with the New York Giants and the St. Louis Cards, and it is possible that Manager Hornsby may prefer to pin his faith on his tested veterans and farm McGrath out to a minor league club, recalling him either next fall or next spring.

There are also those, however, who believe that McGrath will be kept with the Cubs as understudy to Charley Grimm, veteran first baseman, unless legs may be unable to withstand the rigors of everyday play. Hornsby, however, has as yet made no announcement as to what will be done with the Wealthy Town youth.

2 GAMES GIVE FANS BREAK, SAYS ADAMS

The reason for the Braves playing double-headers on Sundays is to give those fans who have little opportunity to attend any game except one played on Sunday a break, according to Charles F. Adams, vice-president of the club.

Adams points out in a letter to Joe Cashman, baseball editor of the Boston Evening American, that few clubs favor Sunday double-headers, but that they stage them to comply with a public demand.

Adams explained in his letter that a double-header between the Elks and Reds was played last Tuesday at the request of Manager Howley of Cincinnati. Howley was anxious to have Monday's game moved forward a day.

Adams' letter, in part, follows:

"It seems to me that you passed out a criticism that was not justified or merited. As I understand it, the Monday game was shoved ahead to Tuesday as part of a double-header at the request of Mr. Howley, manager of the Cincinnati Club, and as Howley is having rather a hard time this year, I would expect our club to grant any reasonable request of his.

"The matter of dollars and cents to the Braves was not considered at all, and your criticism of Sunday double-headers, under similar circumstances, is not in accord with public demand. Few clubs in the National League or the American League, for that matter, believe in Sunday double-headers. They feel they are sure of a good crowd anyway.

"My position is this. There are thousands of people unable to attend any game except a Sunday game, and I do not know of any class of patron that is more entitled to a break than those that have little opportunity to see any game except one played on Sunday."

AMAZING GOOD WILL OFFER the new positive-registration
GILLETTE RAZOR
free
. . . with purchase of
10 GILLETTE BLADES

ONE masterful engineering stroke now makes the Gillette Razor and blade a perfectly matched shaving combination. To give you the immediate benefit of revolutionary betterments, Gillette offers the new positive-registration razor and a package of 10 blades for the cost of the blades alone—$1.

Positive registration assures correct alignment of the blade—registering it with both the cap and guard. Lateral play—before clamping the blade in position—is entirely eliminated. All parts form one precisely adjusted unit—the shaving edges absolutely parallel with the guard. These features assure complete satisfaction with every Gillette blade.

Your GOOD WILL package containing the new gold-plated Gillette Razor and 10 blades is waiting. Dealers' stocks are limited. Hurry!

RICHARDS TO BATTLE TILDEN

Professional tennis, personified by William Tatem Tilden's traveling troupe, goes into its second round at the Longwood Cricket Club today.

Big Bill faces Vinnie Richards, his erstwhile bitter rival, in the singles today, while Karl Kozeluh, the European sensation, matches strokes with Frank Hunter. Tonight, under floodlights, Tilden and Kozeluh meet Richards and Hunter in the doubles match.

Tilden and Kozeluh have a match against tonight scheduled at the Longwood Challenge cup. Tilden beat the lethargic Hunter, 8—0, 6—3, 6—4, and Kozeluh subdued Richards, 4—6, 6—4, 6—4, 7—5.

Big Bill and Vinnie never once let their personal rivalry upset the applecart and carried off the match handily. Kozeluh had all the personal laurels coming his way, for his showmanship was superb.

SET JULY 23 FOR THOMPSON GO

The go ag'in, off ag'in, Finnegan, welterweight championship scrap between Jack Thompson, world's welterweight champion, and Lou Brouillard, New England welterweight champion, is on ag'in.

Ray Alvia, manager of Thompson, and Maurice Lemoyne, Brouillard's pilot, have agreed to allow the men to box in the Boston Garden on July 23.

Billy Ames, Garden matchmaker, received the following telegram from Alvia last night, and filed it with the Massachusetts State Boxing Commission, today:

"July 23 is satisfactory for the postponed Thompson-Brouillard match. Will positively accept no other matches for Thompson until he fulfills his contract with you."

Lemoyne's telegraphic acceptance of the new date also was filed with the commission. Lemoyne wired:

"Brouillard and myself agree to the postponed date of Brouillard-Thompson bout. Either July 23 or July 23, whichever date you select, will be satisfactory to us."

Dory Season Opens at Nahant Tomorrow

Nahant Dory Club opens its season tomorrow with races for boats of the Star and Montycat classes.

The Saturday series during July will determine a representative of the club in the competition for Star class boats along the Atlantic seaboard to be sailed during August under the auspices of the Paquot Yacht Club of Southport, Ct.

RACING DATES FOR SUMMER ANNOUNCED

The following list of amateur sporting events listed for the summer season was announced by the New England A. A. A. U. through the secretary, J. Frank Facey, today:

DISTANCE RUNS

June 28—15,000 meters run, Florida's American Athletic League, Vose Field, Maynard.

July 4—3 mile race, Town of Milton, Brook Road Fairgrounds, afternoon.

5 miles run, Edgeworth Fourth of July Assn., Cranford Park, Waltham.

5 miles run, City of Lynn, Lynn Stadium, 2 p. m.

5 miles run, City of Providence, Dexter Grounds, 2 p. m.

15 miles run, Edward L. Grant Post, No. 72, A. L., Franklin, Mass.

15 miles run, Arthur P. Mahoney Post, No. 20, A. L., Leominster, N. H.

15 miles run, Concord Post, No. 111, A. L., Town Corps, Concord, N. H.

July 11—10 miles run, George H. Mealy Assn., South Weymouth Fair Grounds, 2 p. m.

August 1—10 mile run, Boston Caledonian Club, Caledonian Grove, West Roxbury.

Sept. 5—5 miles run, Sturbridge Fair, Spencer, Mass.

TRACK MEETS (MEN)

June 27—St. Mary's Cadets, Memorial Park, Lawrence, open handicap meet.

June 27—Tenth-Eastern Athletic League, Vose Field, Maynard.

July 4—City of Boston, Boston Common (10 m. m.), open handicap.

Town of Milton, Brook Road Playgrounds, Milton, afternoon, handicap.

City of Lynn, Lynn Stadium (2 p. m.), handicap, open meet.

City of Providence, Dexter Training Grounds (2 p. m.), open to residents of Rhode Island only.

July 11—George H. Mealy Band, South Weymouth Fair grounds, Hingham meet.

July 18—Hopkinton, Mass., an open handicap meet.

August 2—New England championships, General Electric A. A.

August 1—Boston Caledonian Club, Caledonian Grove, West Roxbury, open meet.

August 16—Columbus Day Nursery, Ranelagh Field, North Cambridge.

Sept. 5—Sturbridge Fair, open meet, Spencer, Mass.

TRACK MEETS (WOMEN).

June 28—Women's Track and Field events, Park Department, City of Boston, Franklin Field.

July 4—City of Boston Games, Boston Common (10 m. m.), open events.

City of Lynn, Lynn Stadium (2 p. m.).

August 1—Boston Caledonian Club, Caledonian Grove, West Roxbury, open meet.

Fights Last Night

New York—Billy Petrolle, Fargo, N. D., knocked out Justo Suarez, Argentine (91), Yankee Stadium, outpointed Lew Farber, New York (8).

New York—Tony Canzoneri, world lightweight champion, and Sammy Herman (126), Kalamazoo, Mich. (10), non-title.

Chicago—Edgar Hayward, Newark, outpointed Buck Easterling, Wichita, Kan. (10).

Lansing, Mich.—Sandy Brady, Syracuse, N. Y., knocked out Pete Wee Jarfell, Mishawaka, Ind. (6).

Flint, Mich.—Bucky Lawless, Syracuse, N. Y., outpointed Jackie Hoard, St. Louis (10).

Shreveport, La.—Kid Leonard, East Moline, Ill., outpointed Tod Reed, Chicago (10).

Wilmington, Del.—Sylvan Bass, Baltimore, knocked Mickey Martell, Philadelphia (6); Paddy Brown, Philadelphia, won from Tiger Santillo, Bridgeport, Ct., on disqualification.

Pittsburgh—Jerry Goodman, Cleveland, defeated Ray Kiser, Tulsa, Okla. (10).

A GOOD TIME WAS HAD BY FEW

Broadcasters Face Big Problem Allotting Desired Spots

Position in life is everything—so goes an old chestnut. Position is likewise powerfully significant in radio. As applied to broadcasting, position is regarded as a matter of hours. Endless dickering, bargaining and high-powered persuasion comes into play with the negotiation of major contracts involving important programs. Each and every sponsor has a definite idea as to what the best time of day is to catch most ears in an attentive and receptive mood. Many of these have identical thoughts in the matter, which fact is responsible for considerable wrangling.

This particular season of the year is seemingly one when all is comparatively quiet along the air waves—but say not so! Alas, such is far from the situation. Quite to the contrary, commercial accounts are climbing over each others' shoulders right now, besieging the networks with insistent demands for this and that spot.

What's the Right Time? . . . .

Moreover, this grave question seems to eclipse matters such as talent and type of program to be presented. By every rule of reason the latter element should be accorded preference. Any program backer can hardly be blamed for doing the best there is to be done in the way of securing advantageous time. Quality programs, however, certainly ought to be the paramount consideration. After all, who knows when who is listening? Not even Tony Wons—and he certainly asks everybody nightly.

* * *

If the scramble for suitable time continues to overbalance the desire for good material, it cannot help but bring to mind the impatient fellow rushing into an eating place for his lunch. "I don't care so much what I get, it's when I get it," was his breathless exclamation.

* * *

Curses on Canes . . . .

Commenting on the sprained ankle of Mildred (WBZ) Carlson, a well-meaning radio writer in town yesterday published the fact that a fall on the stairway of her Commonwealth ave. apartment was responsible. He then states: "Since that time she has limped with the assistance of a cane." What the cane is really assisting Mildred to do is walk, though painful is the effort. Followers of her "Home Forum" broadcasts have extended sympathy, expressing fervent hope for her early and complete recovery.

* * *

Still another eager local scribe points out: "NBC estimates that for every artist to face the mike, 20 others have a share in preparing his performance." Which claim listeners must not take too seriously. If the item indicted one man as being responsible for every 20 artists facing the mike; that would be more like it.

* * *

Hail Rotary! . . . .

At 7 o'clock yesterday morning, the voice of Rotary came across from Melbourne, Australia. Transmission was effected by short wave through WGY at Schenectady and aired broadcasts by good old WEEI. Ever so many ear cuppers have phoned to inquire what time it was in Australia, which is a good question. Unless road signs are wrong, Rotary meets at 12:15 or 12:30 everywhere.

* * *

Today and tonight brings to a close the first theatrical engagement of Adrian O'Brien, Boston tenor extraordinary. He leaves tomorrow to report for vocal duty with NBC in New York.

Evening American on the Air

THE GLOBE TROTTER

of the Boston American and Hearst Metrotone News.

A complete radio daily newspaper—85 minutes of news, markets, fashions, features, sports and special entertainment.

213 M.—STATION WAAB—1410 K. C.

7:45- 8:00 A. M.—CITY EDITION OF THE AIR.
10:30-10:45 A. M.—FEATURE PERIOD.
Mon., Wed. and Friday—Martha Lee's Homemaking Class. Tues. and Thurs.—Ann Arden on Fashions; News; Stock Quotations. Saturday—Feature Forecaster; News, Stock Quotations.
12:00-12:10 P. M.—Milling Day STOCK QUOTATIONS; NEWS.
12:10-12:15 P. M.—FEATURES.
Wednesdays—Uncle Ted.
2:30- 2:45 P. M.—STATE STREET EDITION OF THE AIR.
Stock Market Quotations; News Flashes.
6:35- 6:45 P. M.—SPORTS FINAL EDITION OF THE AIR.
News Flashes; Sports Results; Features.
10:30-10:45 P. M.—NIGHT FINAL EDITION OF THE AIR.
SUNDAY—News Bulletins, 6:35 to 6:45 p. m.; 8:30 to 8:45 p. m.

For Those Who Dance

6:15—WBZ—Hal Henry music.
7:30—WAAB—St. Moritz music.
8:00—WBZ—Chocolateers.
9:00—WEEI—Eskimos.
9:30—WEEI—Fox Fur Trappers.
10:00—WBZ—Whiteman program.
11:00—WAAB—Henderson music.
11:15—WEEI—Vincent Lopez music.
11:15—WBZ—Ruben Gypsy Trail.
11:30—WAAB—Hollywood Gardens music.
12:00—WNAC—George Olsen music.

Ten High Spots

7:00—WAAB—Kate Smith.
7:30—WEEI—Buddy and Blake.
8:00—WAAB—Tennis matches.
8:30—WNAC—Dutch program.
9:00—WBZ—Jones and Hare.
9:30—WBZ—Concert.
10:00—WNAC—Sen. Harrison.
10:15—WNAC—Gypsy Trail.
10:30—WEEI—Theater of the Air.
10:45—WBZ—Pollack and Lawnhurst.

Georgie Rogers accompanied him on the piano, and Adrian claims this fact helped him no little in winning favor before the footlights, which he did—and how.

* * *

Lots in a Name . . . .

Anyone by the name of Clark should enter upon the field of radio as a career. If the full name happens to be John L. Clark, all the better. John L. Clark is program director of WLW at Cincinnati, and a gentleman by that same name is also all powerful along that line at WBZ here in Beston. This is one on Ripley. They are the same age and each weighs 175 pounds.

* * *

Imagine anyone wanting to know if "short waves" are gosfures used by radio men leaving town in a hurry. N. F. T.

Boston Stations

Kilocycles		Meters
1410	WAAB	213
1230	WNAC	244
890	WBZ	303
590	WEEI	508
1500	WLOE	200
830	WHDH	361
920	WBSO	326

Friday, June 26

5:30 P. M.

WAAB—John Kelvin, tenor.
WBZ—Musical program.
WBZ—Comic Strip.
WEEI—Triangle.
WHDH—Broadcast to fishermen.

5:45 P. M.

WAAB—Winegar's Orchestra.
WBZ—Children in Knickerland.
WBZ—(5:55) National Affairs.
WEEI—(5:55) Old Painter.
WHDH—Organ.

6:00 P. M.

WNAC—Footlight Echoes; organ.
WBZ—Bill Whipple; sports talk.
WEEI—Big Brother.
WHDH—Twilight program.
WLOE—Mother Goose.

6:15 P. M.

WNAC—Yeasters.
WBZ—Hal Henry music.

6:30 P. M.

WAAB—Baseball scores; American Globe Trotter; Yankee Philosopher, Ed Young.
WNAC—Roy Atwell.
WBZ—Jubilee Singers.
WEEI—(6:35) News.
WHDH—News; organ.
WLOE—Daily Record hour; news flashes; variety program.

6:45 P. M.

WAAB—Welch's orchestra.
WNAC—Crime Club.
WBZ—Lowell Thomas topics.
WEEI—Stebbins Boys.

7:00 P. M.

WAAB—Kate Smith.
WNAC—Baseball scores; news.
WBZ—Amos 'n' Andy.
WEEI—Will Dodge music.
WHDH—Alpert's Orchestra.

7:15 P. M.

WAAB—Modern Duo.
WNAC—Gossipers.
WBZ—Musical hike.

7:30 P. M.

WAAB—St. Moritz music.
WNAC—Song writers.
WBZ—Phil Cook.
WEEI—Buddy and Blake.
WLOE—Trio; piano.

7:45 P. M.

WAAB—Goslings.
WNAC—Quarter-hour.
WBZ—Home Circle.
WEEI—Zoo program.

8:00 P. M.

WAAB—Tennis Matches.
WNAC—Popeye Band.
WBZ—Chocolateers.
WEEI—Concert orchestra.
WHDH—Musicale.
WLOE—Aviation Club.

8:15 P. M.

WNAC—Barbershop Quartet.

9:00 P. M.

WNAC—Dutch program.
Helen Gleheim, contralto; Billy Scholte, tenor; Jack Smart; Edward Emerson; orchestra direction of Eugene Ormandy.
WBZ—Saladers.

8:45 P. M.

WBZ—Boarding house.

9:00 P. M.

WNAC—Mary and Bob.
WBZ—Jones and Hare.
WEEI—Jubilee.
WLOE—Musical program.

9:30 P. M.

WBZ—Musical program.
Ruth Loun, soprano; William Miller, tenor; mixed quartet; orchestra direction of Nathan Franko.
WEEI—Fox Fur Trappers.

10:00 P. M.

WAAB—Ambassadors.
WNAC—Sen. Pat Harrison.
WBZ—Paul Whiteman music.
WEEI—Week-end program.
WLOE—Dance music.

10:15 P. M.

WNAC—Gypsy Trail.

10:30 P. M.

WAAB—American Globe Trotter.
WNAC—Poet's Gold.
Poetic readings presented by David Ross with Emery Deutsch's orchestra.
WBZ—Clara, Lua and Em.
WEEI—Theater of the Air.

10:45 P. M.

WAAB—Melody Mirror.
WBZ—Pollack and Lawnhurst.

11:00 P. M.

WAAB—Henderson music.
WNAC—Merri-Minters.
WBZ—Sport review.
WEEI—(11:05) News.

11:15 P. M.

WNAC—Baseball scores; news.

Port of Boston

FISH ARRIVALS

Vessels	Haddock L.cod	M.cod	Mixed
Str. Brookline	52,000	16,000	20,000
Str. Fairfax	60,000	600	4,000
Str. Maine	40,000	3,500	8,000
Str. Rich	96,000	.....	300
Vagabond	33,000	.....	6,000
Wanonia	52,000	2,000	8,000
Eva 2d	2,000	3,500	500
Ethel	1,000	100	5,100
Alfonse	2,000	500	2,900
Total—242,000 haddock; 27,200 large cod.
32,800 market cod; 78,600 mixed.

Mackerel—Olympia 30,000; Rosie P. 10,000; Angie & Florence 40,000.
Swordfish—Cape Ann 31; Mildred Rive 39; Vasco Da Gama 33.

Wholesale dealers' prices—Large cod 6-8c lb., markets 3½-4½; haddock 2½-4½; pollock, hake and cusk 2; swordfish 25-37½; mackerel 4-7; lemon soles 5-8, gray 4-5; flounders 3-4.

ARRIVED

ROLSNAREN, (Swed. motor), Bid, Stockholm, via Portland to Furness, Withy & Co., Ltd. Arrived in the night and docked this morning at pier 48 Mystic.

FALMOUTH, Brewer, Portland, with merchandise and docked at 2:05 a. m., at Union wharf for Eastern S. S. Lines, Inc.

COMMERCIAL VENTURE, Norfolk, New Orleans, 26, with merchandise to Mooremack Gulf Lines. Docked at pier 40, E. Boston.

FAIRFAX, Brooks, Baltimore via Norfolk, with merchandise and passengers to Merchants & Miners Transportation Co.

CAMDEN, Crockett, Hangor via Penobscot river ports, with merchandise and passengers to Eastern S. S. Lines, Inc. Docked at India wharf.

BOSTON, Allen, New York, with merchandise and passengers to Eastern S. S. Lines, Inc. Docked at India wharf.

YARMOUTH, Crosby, Yarmouth, N. S., with merchandise and passengers to Eastern S. S. Lines, Inc. Docked at Long wharf.

EXCHANGE, from Mediterranean ports, with merchandise to Export S. S. Corp. Docked at pier 43, Hoosac, Charlestown.

IRENE W. ALLEN (motor barge), Carter, Fall River, with oil for Shell Co. Passed Deer Island 8:10, p. m. Thursday, docked at Chelsea, and left this a. m. for Salem to finish cargo.

CONFIDENCE (tug), Howard, Wings Neck, towing barge Irene, from Fall River. Arrived 10 p. m., 25.

GETTYSBURG (tug), Bonds, Philadelphia, towing barges Exeter, for Searsport, Oscalon for Portland and Tioga, Portland. Dee Island 9:45 a. m. with latter barge, having left the other two consorts below and proceeded with them at 7:40 a. m.

SAILED

IRENE W. ALLEN (motor barge), Sisson (passed Deer Isind Light 6:10 a. m.).

CONFIDENCE (tug), Bevard, to tow barge Mahoning to Gloucester.

CRAIG T. GALLAGHER (tug), towing barge Scorey No. 105, for Haverhill; CLARA M. DOANE (tug), for Providence to return with barge (an-odonor); Paul E. Thurlow.

Thursday—LEMUEL BURROWS, Norfolk (passed Deer Island Light 9:45 p. m.).

DUE TOMORROW

BRITANNIC (Br.), Liverpool via Cobh, arrives at lightship 5 p. m., debarks passengers at Commonwealth pier, and proceeds to New York.

ISHKEESTER, Philadelphia; docks at p., pier 3, South Boston.

GYPSUM QUEEN (Br.), Windsor, N. S.

RICHARDS (diesel motor), Stockholm (a).

NEW YORK, New York; docks a. m., Indiapier.

QUINCY, Norton.

7% FIXED AND ASSURED

Liberal Return a Hearst Principle

On Tuesday evening, June 2, Mr. Hearst spoke to millions over the Columbia Broadcasting network, at which time he explained in no uncertain terms his stand on the principle of fair distribution of profits. Hearst Consolidated Publications, Inc., is based on this broad principle and follows closely the fundamental ideals of Mr. Hearst. Investors in this organization receive 7% dividends and in an additional dividend, as declared, up to an exra 3%.

The recent drop in interest rates will make it necessary for many people, during this re-investment period, to select securities with a more liberal yield, so that incomes will not be reduced.

In the face of the general condition of many securities today, it is a mighty fine indication to note that Hearst Consolidated Publications, Inc., for the first three months of 1931 showed net earnings of $1.44 per share against dividend requirements on Class A shares of $.43 3-4. During the past five years the Hearst Consolidated group earned 3.01 times the dividend on the present offering of Class A shares. Such earnings make it both possible and practical to pay 7%, with a wide margin of safety to the investor.

Located in strategic key cities from the Atlantic to the Pacific, these publishing enterprises comprise the Hearst Consolidated group:

New York Journal
Established 1894

Chicago American
Established 1900

Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph
Established 1841-1910

Detroit Times
Established 1900

San Francisco Examiner
Established 1880

San Francisco Call-Bulletin
Established 1856-1874

Oakland Post-Enquirer
Established 1898

Los Angeles Examiner
Established 1903

Los Angeles Herald
Established 1911

Seattle Post-Intelligencer
Established 1863

The American Weekly
Established 1882

American Newsprint Co.

Year	Net Earnings as above	Times Dividend Requirements on Class A Stock
1926	$10,009,506.78	2.86
1927	10,162,284.00	2.90
1928	11,044,777.36	3.15
1929	12,854,626.69	3.67
1930	8,590,869.38	2.46
Average	$10,532,472.84	3.01

HEARST CONSOLIDATED PUBLICATIONS, INC.

Class A 7% Cumulative Participating Shares

Price $25 a Share either for cash or on the partial payment plan

$5 Down and $2 Monthly a Share

All payments earn 7% from the day received

Application will be made to list this Class A Stock on the New York Curb, and the Chicago, San Francisco and Los Angeles Stock Exchanges.

Dividends are exempt from normal Federal Income Tax.

The coupon below will bring you application blanks and additional data or, if you prefer, information can be had by calling LIB. 4000.

New England Newspaper Publishing Company.
Stock Sales Department.
5 Winthrop Square, Boston, Mass.

Kindly send further details about Hearst Consolidated Publications, Inc., 7% shares.

Name .....

Address .....

..... 4-11

Sponsors Seek Best Periods

WBZ—Joe Rines' music.
WEEI—Vincent Lopez music.
11:30 P. M.
WAAB—Hollywood Gardens music.
WNAC—Daugherty's Orchestra.
11:45 P. M.
WBZ—Organ.
12 MID.
WNAC—George Olsen music.
12:00 A. M.
WNAC—Nocturne; organ.

Outside Stations

WEAN—Providence	780	Kil.
	384	M.
WJAR—Providence	890	Kil.
	337	M.
WORC—Worcester	1280	Kil.
	250	M.
WTAG—Worcester	580	Kil.
	517	M.
WCSH—Portland	940	Kil.
	319	M.

8:00 P. M.
WEAN—Footlight Echoes.
WJAR—News.
WJAR—Winegar's Orchestra.
WTAG—Concert orchestra.
WCSH—Hungry Five; Studio program.
8:15 P. M.
WEAN—Twenty-minutes.
WJAR—Gold Room music.
8:30 P. M.
WEAN—Roy Atwell.
WORC—Dance music.
WTAG—News; baseball scores.
WCSH—Concert.
8:45 P. M.
WEAN—Kate Truman.
WJAR—Stebbins Boys.
WORC—Concert orchestra.
WTAG—Stebbins Boys.
WCSH—Stebbins Boys.
9:00 P. M.
WEAN—Kate Smith.
WJAR—Swan Yodelers.
WORC—Kate Smith.
WTAG—Recital.
WCSH—Recital.
9:15 P. M.
WEAN—Baseball scores; news.
WORC—Dennis King.
WCSH—Melodeers.
9:30 P. M.
WEAN—St. Moritz music.
WJAR—Billy Whipple.
WORC—St. Moritz music.
WTAG—Dance music.
WCSH—Dance music.
9:45 P. M.
WEAN—Quarter-hour; Morton Downey.
WJAR—Tenor.
WORC—Quarter-hour; Morton Downey.
WTAG—Voice of the Fox.
WCSH—Narrators.
10:00 P. M.
WEAN—Fryer's Band.
WJAR—Concert orchestra; Cavaliers.
WORC—Fryer's Band.
WTAG—Concert orchestra; Cavaliers.
WCSH—Concert orchestra; Cavaliers.
10:15 P. M.
WEAN—Barbershop Quartet.
WORC—Melodeers.
10:30 P. M.
WEAN—Dutch program.
WORC—Radio Clinic; recital.
10:00 P. M.
WEAN—Mary and Bob Adventures.
WJAR—Eskimos.
WORC—La Paradis Band.
WTAG—Eskimos.
WCSH—Eskimos.
9:30 P. M.
WJAR—Concert orchestra; Cavaliers.
WTAG—Dance music.
WCSH—Week-end program.
10:00 P. M.
WEAN—Poet Gold.
WJAR—Theater of the Air.
WORC—Theater of the Air.
WTAG—Theater of the Air.
WCSH—Theater of the Air.
11:00 P. M.
WEAN—Merri-Minters.
WJAR—News; baseball scores.
WORC—Merri-Minters.
WTAG—News.
WCSH—News.
11:15 P. M.
WEAN—News; baseball scores.
WJAR—Port Arthur Orchestra.
WORC—Henderson Orchestra.
11:30 P. M.
WEAN—Daugherty's Orchestra.
WORC—Hollywood Gardens music.
12:00 MID.
WEAN—George Olsen music.
12:30 A. M.
WEAN—Nocturne.

On the Air

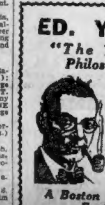
Discussion of President Hoover's one-year war debt moratorium will be heard over WNAC at 10 tonight when Sen. Pat Harrison of Mississippi speaks on "The War Debt Holiday as Seen by a Democrat." Sen. Harrison, one of the Democrats called to discuss the matter with President Hoover, presents the view of a member of the opposite political faith.

Mary and Bob take their last adventure on the CBS, WNAC at 9 this eve., with the offering of "Mad Hero." On July 6 the "true story dramatization" joins the NBC. And the present hour schedule will be sliced 15 minutes when the feature changes networks . . . Paul Whiteman, who has had much marriage experience, dedicates his WBZ at 10 p'gram this eve. to June brides . . . John White, the "Lonesome Cowboy," whose only cattle experience was garnered on a dude ranch, sings tunes of the woolly west o'er WBZ at 8 tonight . . . Ken Murray, Nick Lucas and the Brox Sisters will do mike turns o'er WEEI at 10:30 tonight.

The most flagrant and most humorous error on the air: On WNAC each eve. with the ending of the quarter-hour, the announcer calls out, "Right o'clock, the quarter-hour is ended" . . . And then the WNAC announcer breaks in with the correct time, invariably five to 25 seconds before 8.

OUR DAILY FOOD
FEEDING YOUR DOG
By Leon F. Whitney, guest speaker on ARF's program tomorrow on Station WBZ at 8:45 A. M. and WEEI at 9:45 A. M.

ED. YOUNG
"The Yankee Philosopher"
Tonight at 6:30 on Station WAAB



A Boston American Feature

Special Notices

Swift Powder Destroys Moths, Germs
Roaches, Bedbugs, Rats
FOR SALE or service furnished. SAFETY FUMIGANT CO., 19 India St. Hub. 2424.

Beauty Aids

DON'T TAKE CHANCES ON CHEAP PERMANENTS COMPLETE SAFETY PERMANENT
$5
By Skilled Operators of 20 Yrs. Experience who will safeguard your hair. Frederics, Eugene, Nestle, LeMur
2 LATEST TYPE MACHINES
DEV. 8080
HAIR COLORING
Is your hair dingy or ruined by inexperienced operators? Let us restore to an even shade.
VAIL'S BEAUTY SALON
453 Washington St. 2nd Floor. Hub. 3109

PERMANENT WAVES
Deep Marcel with Perfect Ringlet Ends
$2
Best materials used. Expert operators only.
VANITY FAIR BEAUTY SHOP
9 Winter St., Rm. 716, 7th Floor Lib. 8282

Permanent Waves
Safe and Lasting
10c
5 WINTER ST.
Est. 1905. Hub. 2444 2 CURL

Blueburn and Other Medium Shades $7.50
Ash Blonde, Platinum and Other Lights $8.00
Permanent Waves With or Without Shampoo $5.00
Expert Operators 453 WASHINGTON ST. Room 414. Bos. 6374

$5 PERMANENT WAVE $5
Given by Artist Hair Dresser. Reg. $10. Shampoo 35c; Rinsers 25c. Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings, 7 to 10. BEAUTY PARLOR, 125 Tremont St., Suite 903-5. Bos. 7635

ELECTRIC NEEDLE SPECIALIST
HAIR So better than permanently removed. No Pain or Scars. Physicians' references. MISS HELY DuPONT, 125 Tremont St., Rm. 310. Hancock 7286

STUDLEY BEAUTY SCHOOL—Thorough training in every branch; expert teachers; 6 week's course, $25; only 5 more hours for all day class students. 125 Tremont St., Rm. 503. Bos. 7634.

$5 PERMANENT WAVE $5
SHAMPOO AND SET $1.00
Annette, 3 Winter St., Rm. 910. Dev. 7762

Help Wanted—Female

CANVASSERS
on Ladies' Dresses—Splendid line of exclusive styles. Apply 400 Columbus Ave., 11 to 3 P. M.

TEACHERS
and other cultured women desiring congenial work; no selling. Mr. Lewis, Room 315 Center St., Malden. Phone 2881.

LAUNDRY SOLICITOR—Opportunity young high school or college girl; salary and commission. 12 Riverside Ave., Room 5, Medford.

EXPERIENCED bookkeeper wanted. Jewish girl preferred. Apply GOLDBERG, 83 Spring St., Boston.

Help Wanted—Male

Solicitors Wanted
for drawing account and commission. Debits work. Most have automobile. Excellent proposition for the right man.
Apply to
Bonded Collection Co.
10 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.

WANTED
HIGH GRADE
AUTO MECHANICS
SOUTH SHORE BUICK CO.,
Hancock St., Sou Mtr. Taylor

COAL SALESMAN
TO TRADE the Queen Anne, new price protection plan. There's a future. Mr. McNELLY, after 2 P. M. 187 Fremont St., Dorchester.

WANTED—SALESMEN-SALESWOMEN with car; drawing account, commission. Maine, Mass., and Connecticut. Sterling Chemical Co., 104 Hanover St., Boston.

YOUNG men and boys over 16 years to sell ice cream. YOUNG SALES SERVICE, 76 Commerce St., Boston.

Instruction

WANTED—Men, women, 18-50; common; $1260-$1440 yearly; government wants rule clerks; experience unnecessary; full particulars free; write today, sure. Franklin Institute, Dept. T25-L, Rochester, N. Y.

Furniture

4 ROOMS FURNITURE, $228
Brand new, latest design, Call Colonials, 2 pieces, Grand Rapids, Bureau & Buffet, Simmons, 55# Columbia Road. Open till 8.

FIVE ROOMS OF BEAUTIFUL FURNITURE; living room, dining room, bedroom, beautiful bedroom sets, 9-piece breakfast set; splendid condition, $1500; worth far more. RAILROAD FURNITURE & STORAGE 550 Harrison Ave., Boston. Lib. 1999.

SOLID mahogany Duncan Phyfe dining table; two beds; other pieces; a rare opportunity. Evenings: Sundays. Cen. 4426.

6-Piece Cottage Outfit $106
Warehouse Furniture Outlet, Inc.
1910 Massachusetts Ave., Boston

FOR SALE—Small Glenwood coal range; also small smooth top gas range, both in excellent condition. Call Rowlee 4594.

5-PIECE overstuffed living room set, 2 floor lamps, rugs. 187 Chester Ave., Chelsea, Mass.

BOOKNER'S Furniture Exchange; we buy furniture, antiques, books. Tel. Porter 6266.

BOSTON AMERICAN

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice in Boston, Mass., under the Act of March 3, 1879, also at the Postoffice at Worcester, Mass.

Published daily (except Sunday). Published every Sunday, Boston & Mass., by NEW ENGLAND NEWSPAPER PUBLISHING COMPANY

Domestic rates (Subscriptions by Mail, payable in advance): One Month 80c. One Year $9.60. Foreign rates: One Month $1.25. Six Months $7.25. One Year $13.00. One cent extra per copy in the Boston Postal Zones. Subscriptions payable strictly in advance.

The Boston Evening American assumes no financial responsibility typographical errors in advertisements, but will be glad to have attention called to any error which may occur. Advertisers will please notify us immediately of any error which may occur.

NEWS BY ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper, and also the local news published herein. All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

Repairing—Refinishing

W. F. RANKIN, Upholsterer
Will do over your furniture in tapestry, velour or damask; also repair and refinish; estimates free; delivery. 1851 Centre St., West Roxbury. Parkway 1884.

Building Materials

OAK FLOOR 4½c FT.
To cover old floors; easily laid; prompt shipment anywhere. Friend Lumber Co., 12 Gilson St., Medford. Mystic 8490.

Detective Agencies

SCOTT DETECTIVE SERVICE, 535 Washington St. Bet. Essex and Beach. Lib. 2222. Sunday and holidays, Rox 0522.

Sewing Machines

SINGER SEWING MACHINES
Sales—Service
All Makes Repaired
Sewing Machine Supplies
JOSEPH DE ORIO
588A Sweet St. Everett 0825

LADY will sell drop-head Singer, 85; 41 condition. 90½ Inman St., Cambridge.

SINGER Drop Head, good condition, $35; 837 Washington St., Boston. Han. 1760.

Musical Instruments

100 PIANOS $25 up; $5 monthly. Brooks, 138 Summer St., over Marston's.

Birth—Marriage—Death Notices

Notices may be mailed to the Classified Dept., or telephoned to Liberty 4000. In 10th edition $1.00 for the first four lines or less. 25c each additional line.

Births

DERKUM—To Mr. and Mrs. Lorraine Dekker of 764 Cambridge st., Somerville, at Massachusetts Memorial Hospital, June 25, a son.

DORR—To Mr. and Mrs. John F. Dorr of Worcester, at Twilight Maternity Home, 38 Dwight st., Brookline, June 25, a daughter.

WILLCOX—To Mr. and Mrs. John Williams of 11 Bow st., Somerville, at Massachusetts Memorial Hospital, June 25, a daughter.

Deaths

ALLEGRETTI—In East Boston, June 24, Filomena M., daughter of Peter and Angelina Sarchi, sister of Ernest Sarchi, aged 21 years. Funeral Saturday, at 8 o'clock, from her late home, 21 Bremen st. Requiem mass at the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends are invited to attend.

BARRY—In Everett, June 23, Margaret Barry of Everett, aged 78 years. Funeral from the residence of Albert Boudrot, Funeral Parlor, 194 Broadway, Everett, Saturday, at 8:30 a. m. Mass at St. Joseph's Church at 9 a. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment in the Immaculate Conception Cemetery. Relatives and friends invited.

BIRD—In this city, June 25, Mary E. Bird, aged 67 years. Funeral from her late home, 474 Huntington ave., Roxbury, Saturday, June 27, at 8:30 a. m. Requiem mass at St. Cecilia's Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends are invited to attend.

BLAIR—In Somerville, June 24, Margaret H., wife of William Reid, in her 80th year. Funeral services at her late residence, 248 Belgrade Ave., Roslindale, on Friday, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends invited.

BRIEN—In this city, June 25, Ellen E. Reed, late of 367 Silver st., South Boston, aged 68 years. Funeral from the R. Cole Funeral Home, 490 Columbia Rd., Dorchester, on Friday, June 26, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends invited.

BILLY—In Somerville, June 24, Antonio, Jr., beloved son of Antonio and Estelle (nee Sousa) Billy, aged 2 months. Funeral Friday at 1 p. m. at the Union Baptist Church, Medford. Relatives, Fraternity and friends invited to attend.

BRENNAN—In Somerville, June 25, James M. Stuart, husband of Ella A. Stuart, aged 70 years. Funeral services will be held at his late residence, 70 Fuller st., Swampscott, on Friday at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited.

Deaths

CAGGIANO—In Somerville, June 25, Ada C. Cuniff, wife of Harry W. Cole, of 89 Willow st., Somerville, aged 34 years. Funeral Monday, 10 Cottage Ave., Quincy, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends invited.

CAREY—In Bedford, June 24, John R. Carey, aged 68 years. Funeral from the Church of Christ, Bedford, on Saturday at 8:30 o'clock.

CARLSON—In Melrose, June 24, Ernest Carlson, aged 52 years. Funeral services will be held at his home, 61 East Wyoming st., Melrose, Friday, June 26, at 2 p. m.

CELMAN—In Somerville, June 25, Jennie Celman, wife of Norman J. Dillon. Funeral services at her home, 24 Bonair st., Somerville, Sunday at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited.

CHAPMAN—In Medford, June 23, Mary E. Chapman, aged 78 years. Funeral from her late home, 20 Forest st., Medford, Saturday, June 27, at 8:30 a. m. Solemn high mass at St. Clement's Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

CLEARY—In Jamaica Plain, June 23, Jane Cleary. Funeral services at her late residence, 36 Elm st., Jamaica Plain, on Friday, June 26, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Please omit flowers.

CONNELL—In Somerville, June 24, Margaret, beloved daughter of the late Jeremiah and Jane E. (Daniels) Connell. Funeral from the home, 231 School st., Friday morning at 8:30 o'clock, thence to St. Mary's Church at 9 o'clock. Burial in Holy Cross Cemetery.

CONNELLY—In South Boston, June 23, Thomas Connelly, aged 70 years. Funeral Tuesday. Funeral from his late home, 13 Dorchester st., South Boston, at 8:30 a. m. Requiem high mass at St. Augustine's Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

CUNNINGHAM—In Everett, June 24, Beloved son of Thomas and Mary (Cunningham) Cunningham, aged 21 years. Funeral from the residence of his parents, 26 Everett st., Everett, Sunday at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited.

DAGGETT—In Roslindale, June 24, John H. Daggett, aged 72 years. Funeral from his late home, 4 Bellflower st., Roslindale, Saturday, June 27, at 8:30 a. m. Requiem mass at St. Thomas Aquinas Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

DAVIS—In Somerville, June 24, Mary A. Davis, aged 76 years. Funeral from her late home, 207 Washington st., Somerville, Saturday, June 27, at 8:30 a. m. Requiem mass at St. Joseph's Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

DOHERTY—In Malden, June 24, Mary A. Doherty, aged 72 years. Funeral from her late home, 709 Pleasant st., Malden, Saturday, June 27, at 8:30 a. m. Requiem mass at St. Joseph's Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

DOLAN—In Somerville, June 24, Mary A. Dolan, aged 70 years. Funeral from her late home, 20 Bonair st., Somerville, Saturday, June 27, at 8:30 a. m. Requiem mass at St. Joseph's Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

DONOVAN—In Somerville, June 25, Mary (nee Murphy), beloved wife of Daniel Donovan, formerly of Charlestown. Funeral from her late home, 20 Forest st., Somerville, Monday, June 29, at 8:30 a. m. Solemn high mass at St. Clement's Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

DUNBAR—In Somerville, June 24, Mary E. Dunbar, aged 72 years. Funeral from her late home, 16 Cedar st., Somerville, Saturday, June 27, at 8:30 a. m. Requiem mass at St. Joseph's Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

DUNCAN—In Somerville, June 25, Clara W., beloved wife of Frederick Duncan, aged 68 years. Funeral from her late home, 196 Franklin st., on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

FOLEY—In Medford, June 24, Mary A. Foley, aged 70 years. Funeral from her late home, 26 Forest st., Medford, Saturday, June 27, at 8:30 a. m. Requiem mass at St. Joseph's Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

FOLEY—In Somerville, June 24, Mary (nee Murphy), beloved wife of Daniel Foley, aged 70 years. Funeral from her late home, 20 Forest st., Somerville, Monday, June 29, at 8:30 a. m. Solemn high mass at St. Clement's Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited.

FOLEY—In Somerville, June 24, Mary A. Foley, aged 70 years. Funeral from her late home, 26 Forest st., Somerville, Saturday, June 27, at 8:30 a. m. Requiem mass at St. Joseph

EDITORIAL PAGE OF THE BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN
FRIDAY, JUNE 26, 1931
LARGEST NEW ENGLAND EVENING CIRCULATION

Mr. Hearst Discusses Proposed War Debt Moratorium

(This article by Mr. Hearst appeared in the News-Chronicle, London, June 24.)

THERE is an old saw which says:

"I had some money and a friend. I lost my money and my friend."

The nations of Europe were in dire distress during the late Great War.

The Allies asked financial and military aid from the United States. The Allies sent delegations to the United States speaking literally these words:

"Our backs are against the wall—come to our aid and come quickly."

The United States came to the aid of the Allies with money and men.

It loaned the Allies money they needed to prosecute the war and without that money they could not have effectually continued the war.

And in addition to the billions loaned the Allies, America spent billions on its own armies.

Those American armies decided the outcome of the war—they saved England—they saved France—they saved Italy and the minor allies from German domination.

The Allies realized it at the time and acknowledged it at the time and at the time professed eternal gratitude and eternal remembrance.

* * *

IT is easy to be grateful while receiving favors. It is difficult to be grateful or even mindful after the favors cease.

France, England and Italy speedily forgot that America had saved them and in order to make forgetting easier, proceeded speedily to deny that America had rendered any great service.

It was not so easy for America to forget. American citizens had billions upon billions to pay in yearly taxes in order that bonds issued by the American Government should be redeemed.

These bonds were issued to find money to loan the Allies, and also to find money to maintain our armies and to send men abroad to save the Allies.

The American people are bowed under the weight of taxes which they incurred in order to send money and armies abroad to serve and save the Allies in a war which was not an American but particularly an European war.

* * *

THE American people have a constant reminder of their generosity—and folly.

The Allies, however, forgot to be grateful and Uncle Santa Claus became Uncle Shylock.

Then the Allies began to beg and scheme for remission of their debts to the United States.

England was most mindful of her obligation and most honorable in the discharge of it.

Italy pleaded poverty; but she is not too poor to maintain a great military establishment in preparation for the next war.

France took the simple and direct road of repudiation. She would pay what she pleased and when she pleased and if she pleased. So America would be lucky to get half of what was owed her.

Now America will probably not get that. She may not get ANYTHING.

* * *

AN AGITATION has been set afoot by international bankers and debtor nations which they represent to revise further the war debts.

Revision is an euphonious word. It means, of course, reduction.

Nobody is stupid enough to believe that war debts will be "revised" upwards.

Nobody is simple enough to imagine that the Allies want to pay MORE than has been agreed upon.

No, the Allies want to pay less. They want to take more of the burden of THEIR war off THEMSELVES and place more of the burden on the bent backs of the American people.

The Allies want to save their money for future wars.

Let America pay for the last one.

Italy wants to increase her Army and Navy.

England wants to maintain her domination of the seas.

France wants to continue to subsidize Poland and the Little Entente and be able to put eight million (8,000,000) men in the field in the next war. The figures are Lloyd George's, and are accurate.

* * *

SO, these European nations cannot afford to pay their honest debts.

Moreover, they think America is an easy mark and they think rightly, because an American President has made a more preposterous suggestion regarding the payment—or rather non-payment of the debt—than any foreign nation has made.

The European nations have asked for further reduction of debts. Mr. Hoover has proposed the equivalent of their cancellation.

Every informed person realizes and every statesman whom I have talked with over here frankly admits that if payments of this debt to America by foreign nations are interrupted now THEY WILL NEVER BE RESUMED.

The moratorium will be first extended over a period and then made permanent, either by consent or by definite refusal to pay.

THE WHOLE DEBT SITUATION CAN NEVER BE REOPENED AND RENEGOTIATED UNDER PRESENT CIRCUMSTANCES AND CONDITIONS.

Europe's sense of gratitude has become more and more feeble and her faculty for forgetting more and more robust.

* * *

MR. HOOVER'S plan for debt cancellation has been received with joy over here by the nations whose debts will be cancelled; but I doubt if it will be received with any satisfaction in America, where the people need these payments to help relieve them of their financial distress.

Mr. Hoover could be elected President today of almost any country in Europe, but can he be re-elected in the country whose rights he has surrendered and whose welfare he has jeopardized?

I do not think so.

The international bankers, of course, are rigging the market in the effort to make it appear that failure to receive the money due them is going to make the American people prosperous; but the American people are not fools. They are mostly business people and they know that you prosper by GETTING what is due you, not by GIVING IT AWAY.

Every corner groceryman knows that he would go into bankruptcy if he cancelled all the accounts which are owed him.

None of the banks practice the debt cancellation which these international bankers and their President are advocating for the American people.

Go around to any bank and try to get your debt to the bank CANCELLED or REDUCED or REVISED downward; or anything but PAID.

No, indeed; what is good for the goose is NOT good for the gander, and America is surely the goose, all right; and a cooked goose at that, if it submits to Mr. Hoover's plan for debt cancellation by means of a moratorium.

WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST.

(The following article was given by Mr. Hearst to the United Press and the News-Chronicle in London on June 25.)

I AM uncompromisingly opposed to further reduction of the war debt of foreign nations to America.

America has made reductions enough, concessions enough, sacrifices enough.

These foreign nations, all except England, negotiated and repudiated themselves into the position of indigents asking alms and finally secured settlements which were in the nature of charitable benefactions from America. England, of course, came forward first to pay her debts and proudly agreed to a settlement which was so honorable and liberal as to be almost out of proportion to her financial condition and her ability to pay.

If England had stooped to the mendicant methods of some of the other nations, or had even confided her upstanding negotiations to the hands of more able negotiators, she would undoubtedly have secured at least better terms and a lower rate of interest.

If she had waited until after America's exasperating experience with France, almost any settlement which England in her honesty had been willing to propose would have seemed grateful to American minds and nerves. However, the settlements have been made, England's generous one and France's grudging one. America, on the whole, has compromised on approximately half of what was due her and I, as one American citizen and voter, am not willing to have some settlements further reduced.

America has made her compromises and her sacrifices and they are entirely sufficient. I am opposed, therefore, to anything that approaches or resembles the cancellation of war debts to the United States which the European nations now desire.

* * *

I SPOKE my opposition to Mr. Hoover's moratorium because it seemed to be—and to be universally considered—a precedent or preliminary to permanent debt cancellation. All the statesmen and all the plain people over here who are equipped to discuss the subject at all, blandly believe that a moratorium is the first step toward the debt cancellation which they advocate, and that other steps will certainly and speedily follow.

Perhaps they are right. Perhaps, on the other hand, they are wrong. I am assured on the highest authority of America that it is in no way the American Government's purpose to make the moratorium more than a temporary relief to nations in dire distress. I am, of course, compelled to accept that statement, although I know with certainty that this is not the idea or intention of other governments and other nations.

The question, therefore, is how far will the desires and intentions of other nations prevail over the purpose of our own Government? I would not be opposed to the moratorium if it will not prove to be the first stride in a movement towards a general cancellation of European war debts to the United States.

Consequently, if there are adequate assurances and convincing guarantees that the moratorium will last only for a stated period and will constitute no permanent or protracted interruption to war debt payments and no infraction of principle and policy which after so much and so difficult negotiation have finally been agreed upon, I will not oppose it.

But if these assurances and guarantees are not convincingly presented to the next Congress before which the question of this moratorium and its effects upon war debt payments will come, I shall oppose the measure to the utmost of my abilities.

I do not think that my influence is important but I am quite sure that a great part of the American people and a great number of their representatives in Congress already feel as I do about this matter. The decision is naturally not in my hands but in theirs.

WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST.

The Kenney Appointment

Raymond J. Kenney of Lowell becomes director of Fisheries and Game of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. He has been for twelve years a reliable and intelligent member of that department, evidently winning one promotion after another by merit. Sportsmen have confidence in him. His duty and ambition is to propagate and conserve the game and wild life of the State. If he does that by sensible regulations he will command the favor of the public as well as of sportsmen.

Listen, World!

By Elsie Robinson

"Tembo! Tembo!"

IT DEPENDS on the man. There was Noguchi—a Japanese peasant boy with a crippled hand.

Elsie Robinson

At three he'd been left sleeping beside an open fire-pit. When his screams brought his mother racing from the rice field, the fingers of the left hand were already gone, the bones twisting like burning roots out of the charred flesh.

In time it healed, a splayed seared stump, horrible to behold. Other things were difficult to bear . . . poverty with its rags and hunger and cold, the ignominy of a drunken father . . . but the horror of the stump eclipsed everything.

Now that he is dead, you can read about it in that strong, passionate book "NOGUCHI," by Gustav Eckstein.

"In the sinjo-shogakko, the boys point to the hand, then one whispers to the other, 'What kind of a farmer will he be with a hand like that?' And if one is about to stop them, they chase him. 'Tembo, tembo . . .' that is what they shout. Tembo means handboy, and he flies ahead of them round the schoolhouse into the graveyard to hide behind a gravestone . . ."

An Inferiority Complex—what a grand alibi that has proved for every variety of human cussedness. And if ever a human had a right to use that alibi, it was fearfully deformed Noguchi. BUT HE REFUSED TO LET THAT DEFORMITY MAKE HIM INFERIOR. He faced it, not as a handicap, but as a CHALLENGE. He used it to establish his SUPERIORITY.

Jeers did not break him, keenly as they hurt. In his raging, tortured heart he vowed he'd show them! And he did. Against every handicap of poverty, ignorance, race prejudice and, always, the nightmare of that twisted hand, Noguchi became one of the greatest scientists the world has ever known. He discovered the causes of paresis and locomotor ataxia . . . his contribution to science was immemorable. Kings honored him. Savants flocked about him. A woman adored him, holding that awful hand against her generous heart. At 52 he died magnificently, a victim of the yellow fever he was seeking to cure.

A hero? No—A MAN! Bearing his burden as every man does, if he has the makings.

Are you whining because life has handed you a dirty deal—whimpering because you didn't get the breaks?

READ THAT BOOK. AND THEN GO OFF AND FEEL LIKE THIRTY CENTS!

Copyright, 1931, for the Boston Evening American.

The Careless Gardener

It is sheer folly for American industrial leaders to wish our Prosperity's return while they do nothing to aid in bringing it about. Discharge of workers and cutting of wages reduces the nation's buying power and hampers the return of Prosperity. These misguided leaders are in the same position as the figure in the Enright cartoon above.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW?—Boston American's Original Knowledge Test

Mark each statement "True" or "False."

1. The Assouan dam is across the Nile River.
2. Sirocco is a land slide.
3. Sheridan was famous in war records for his march from Atlanta to the sea.
4. Tennyson said:
"The night has a thousand eyes
And the heart but one."
5. A rendezvous is a meeting place.
6. Robert Stevenson spent his last years in America.
7. The Plains of Abraham are near Quebec.
8. Stephen Decatur made the famous statement:
"Our country, right or wrong."
9. Christiania has been called Oslo since 1925.
10. The first university in Germany was in Prague.

Answers to today's test:

1. True. 2. False—oppressive wind. 3. False—Sherman. 4. False—Bourdillon. 5. True. 6. False—Samoan Islands. 7. True. 8. True. 9. True. 10. True.

Copyright, 1931, for the Boston Evening American.

McIntyre

New York Day by Day

Thoughts While Strolling

NEW YORK, June 26—Thoughts while strolling: Few have such a curious edge to their voice as Ethel Barrymore. Ruddy gentlemen who play handball before breakfast. The Beaux Arts apartment houses with French gendarmes as doormen. What's become of John Steele, the tenor?

Lecture announcement: "Sex as a binomial theorem." John Ringling, a Baraboo (Wis.) boy who made good in the city. A bent-over lamp-post and a shatter of glass. Japanese-American tailors. Summer twins with expectant looks and floppy hats. Epileptic apartment house architecture.

Those Murray Hill homes suggesting evening prayers, six o'clock suppers and decanters of 18th century Tokay. I used to think it cruel to keep dogs in pet shops. But after all it is the way many find excellent homes. Tourists nodding the J. P. Morgan home.

Cardboard hooks and eye, whale bones and bolts of baby ribbons. They always make me think of my Aunt's millinery shop.

Every time I step into the McAlpin I get lost. And come out on the wrong street. The Marbridge Building, where Ray Long and I had our first offices—with names in gilt on the door. And one day we went to Keene's with Harris Merton Lyons for lunch. The sheriff came. No jobs. Carrying the banner!

People had more courage losing jobs in other days. But maybe it was because my world was younger. When the magazine on which Long and I slaved exploded with a bang, the staff gathered in a reception room, not padlocked by the sheriff, and the mood was entirely facetious. All were married and had other responsibilities. But we went down to McGraw's billiard parlor in the building and I do not remember ever having so many hearty laughs. Perhaps we were hysterical.

During the interlude Long and I would bump into each other on Park Row hunting work. He shortly became editor of the Red Book and started upward on his meteoric career. Two years later I was still hunting a job, and because I have tried to be cheerful about losing jobs during the depression, cynics write: "Don't be so smart alec in so serious a situation. What do you know about hunting a job?" I did not reply, athough there is nothing about job hunting I do not know. There wasn't an office boy in any sort of publishing office in those days that had not snubbed me. For years I literally lived among the Help Wanted ads. They provoke spasms of melancholy today.

* * *

My optimism over losing a job and the subsequent quest for work is because in that long travail I found my little niche. As bleak and indescribably bitter as was my lot, I believe that without that experience I would have remained in a totally obscure newspaper job. Which sounds like an echo from Aesop.

* * *

The effervescent Lyda Roberti and her hilarious Polish accent enriched the Broadway story tellers' weekly. The latest concerns the platinum-haired star's attendance at a penthouse party. It was her first merry-making in New York. So she stayed up until dawn indulging in several glasses of wine. During a scene with Lou Holtz that evening, she moaned: "I'm hangink ov—I'm hav—I'm sick for hang-over.

From T. G. H.: "I'm hiding out a jug of jaguar juice for your visit to the Ozarks. Two snorts and you tweak tails of wild boars. If you don't like our jaguar juice, we have an earthquake cider that will shake you up. Name your poison?"

Just a spot of weak tea through a straw, please. I wouldn't be any great shakes as a wil' boar tail tweaker, anyway.

(Copyright, 1931, for the Boston Evening American.)

EDGAR A. GUEST'S POEM ON PAGE 8 TODAY